The One Hundred and Nineteenth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met according to appointment in Memorial Hall, Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday, May 16, 1907, at 11 o'clock A.M. The Stated Clerk reported that the Moderator of the 118th General Assembly, Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., had returned to China under pressure of the demands of the foreign missionary work in that land, and announced that under the Rules of the Assembly the last Moderator present of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, being a Commissioner, viz., Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., would preside.

In accordance with the recommendation of the two Assemblies of 1906 of the now reunited Church, duly adopted upon the report of their joint Committee on Reunion and Union, the opening sermon was preached by Rev. Ira Landrith, D.D., LL.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of 1906 of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, his text being Deut. xxxiii. 25: "Possess thou the west and the south."

After the sermon the Assembly was constituted by Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., with prayer, all motions being put and declared adopted by him.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 16, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Upon the Report of the Permanent Committee on Commissions, the following ministers and elders were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners, and their names were entered upon the

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Reunion, through its Chairman, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report. Sections I, II, III, IV, V, and VI, a, b, and c, were adopted. Item VI, d, on recommendation of the Chairman, was referred to the Committee on Legal Matters, to be appointed as required by VI, c. The Report, so far as adopted, with the exception of VI, a,* is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully reports to the General Assembly of 1907, as follows:

1. The Committee was reappointed by the General Assembly of 1906 (see Minutes, p. 151).

Since the Report to the last General Assembly the Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., LL.D., a member of the Committee, has departed this life. Dr. Henry was held in highest esteem by the whole Church, was Moderator of the General Assembly in 1904, was an earnest advocate of all the measures entrusted to the Committee for execution, and especially supported in a whole-hearted manner the Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. His memory will be gratefully cherished by the Reunited Church.

The vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. Henry was filled by the Moderator through the appointment of the Rev. E. A. Elmore, D.D.

During the year the following matters have engaged the attention of the Committee:

1. The proposed Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.
2. Relations with the Reformed Church in the United States.
3. The Articles of Agreement between the several Presbyterian and Reformed Churches.
4. The Plan of Federation for the Christian Churches of the U. S. A.
5. Certain Overtures referred to the Committee by the Assembly of 1906.
6. Certain matters needing adjustment in connection with the Plan of Reunion and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The Committee reports upon these matters seriatim:

I. The Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.

It is with sincere regret that the Committee reports that the movement towards Union with our brethren of this branch of the Reformed Presbyterian Church has been postponed for the present by action of their General Synod. Correspondence indicates that it is unadvisable to continue negotiations. While a considerable part of this Church favors Union, and while several ministers and churches have united with us, yet the majority prefer to remain a separate denomination. With this decision on the part of the General Synod we must be content. However much we could have wished it otherwise, it is the right of these brethren to continue as they are. The adoption of the following resolutions is recommended:

* Reconsidered on Monday, May 20. See proceedings, on p. 66.

Resolved, 1. That the negotiations for Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, be postponed until God in His Providence shall open a way for their resumption.

Resolved, 2. That this General Assembly directs the Stated Clerk to inform the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, of this action, and to assure the Synod of the Assembly's desire for the prosperity of the work of Christ under its care.

II. Relations with the Reformed Church in the U. S.

There has been no opportunity during the year for the proper consideration of this important subject, owing to the fact that the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S. meets triennially, and that its next meeting will not be held until June, 1908. The Committee, however, places on record the resolution adopted at Charlotte, N. C., at a joint meeting of this Committee with the Committee on Closer Relations of the Reformed Church. The resolution reads:

"Believing that the time has come when the Reformed Church in the United States and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, two great historic Churches of the Reformation, holding in common the Reformed Theology and the Presbyterian Order, should come into closer relations with each other, in order to carry on more effectively the work committed by Christ to His Church, the Committees of the two Churches in this Conference hereby agree to recommend to our respective General Synod and General Assembly to appoint Committees to consider this whole subject of closer relations, either federal or organic, between the Churches" (Minutes, 1906, p. 13).

It is recommended that this matter be recommitted to the Committee.

III. The Articles of Agreement.

The Articles of Agreement between the several Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, having as their chief purpose the "prosecution of work that can be done better unitedly than separately," were adopted by this General Assembly, May 24, 1906, and were also adopted in the same year by the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America. The latter Church has also elected its representatives, and by so doing has complied fully with the provisions of Article 18 of the Plan. Said Article eighteen (18) reads:

"These Articles of Agreement shall go into effect when any two or more Churches shall adopt the same by proper action, and elect their representatives in the manner herein provided."

It is now the duty of this Assembly, in order to put the Articles into operation, to elect under Article two (2) of the Plan, thirty-two representatives to the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System. Article two (2) reads:

"2. The Council shall consist of at least four representatives, ministers or ruling elders, from each of the constituent Churches, for each one hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof up to three hundred thousand; and where a Church has more than three hundred thousand communicants, then four representatives, ministers or elders, for each additional two hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof. These persons shall be chosen with their alternates under the direction of their respective supreme judicatories, in such manner as those judicatories shall respectively determine."

The Assembly of 1906 in this matter adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, 2. That the Assembly refers to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union the preparation of a plan for the nomination and election of the representatives of this Church to the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, established by the Articles of Agreement, report to be made to the General Assembly of 1907."

The Committee submits the following Plan for the election of these delegates, viz..

The first two members of the delegation to be the Moderator of the General Assembly for the time being and the Stated Clerk; the other members to be divided into three classes of five ministers and five ruling elders each, one class to be elected by this Assembly for one year, one for two years, and one for three years; the full term of service to be three years, and the election hereafter to be annual, one class of ten members each year.

It is recommended that the Assembly appoint a Committee to nominate the thirty delegates above referred to, by classes.

The Committee has to state further in this connection that the Articles of Agreement have been sent down to their Presbyteries by the following supreme judicatories of the Churches, viz.:

(a) General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.;

(b) General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and (c) The Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., as already stated, does not meet until June, 1908. In view of the circumstances connected with these Articles, the following further recommendations are offered for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Stated Clerk send official notice of the adoption of the Articles and the election of representatives by this Assembly to the several denominations interested.

Resolved, 2. That the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) is hereby set apart for the expenses of the Council, if so much be needed.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union report upon this whole matter to the next Assembly.

IV. The Plan of Federation.

The General Assembly of 1906, after approving the Plan of Federation of the Christian Churches of America submitted to it, passed the following additional resolutions as to the Plan of Federation, viz.:

"Resolved, 3. That the representatives to the Federal Council of 1908 be nominated by the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, report to be made to the General Assembly of 1907.

"Resolved, 4. That the Assembly hereby authorizes the Executive Committee, which made the arrangements for the Inter-Church Conference on Federation, to make the arrangements for the meeting of the Federal Council in 1908."

The Committee reports as to the last resolution given above (No. 4), that the Executive Committee of the Inter-Church Conference on Federation has been duly constituted, with the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., as Chairman, and the Rev. E. B. Sanford, D.D., as Secretary. All the denominations represented in the great Conference at Carnegie Hall, New York, in November, 1905, have representatives upon this Executive Committee, and preparations are already under way for the meeting of the Federal Council in 1908. Each of the denominations (seven in number) which have had opportunity up to this date (April, 1907) to act upon the Plan of Federation have adopted it. They are, in addition to our own Church, The Methodist Episcopal Church South, The American Christian Convention, The Methodist Episcopal Church Colored, The Reformed Church in America, The United Evangelical Church, and The Seventh-Day Baptists. It is believed that fully thirty denominations in all will cordially approve the plan.

The Committee further reports as to the requirements of Resolution No. three (3) given above, concerning the nomination of delegates to the Federal Council.

The Plan of Federation, Article V, which deals with the representation of the Churches in the Federal Council reads in part:

"Each of the Christian bodies adhering to this Federal Council shall be entitled to four members, and shall be further entitled to one member for every 50,000 of its communicants or major fraction thereof."

Under this rule this Church is entitled to thirty representatives in the Federal Council. There are reasons, which do not need to be stated, which appear to make it wise for the Assembly to appoint the members of the Committee as a part of the delegation of thirty persons to represent this Church in the Federal Council. In addition to the members of the Committee, six other persons as authorized are nominated. The following recommendation is therefore submitted for adoption:

Resolved, That the members of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union be chosen, as the representatives of this Church, to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, with the following additional representatives: Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Hon. Robert N. Willson, Hon. John M. Gaut, and S. B. Brownell, Esq.

V. Overtures Referred.

The General Assembly of 1906 referred to this Committee for consideration and report Overtures from the Presbyteries of Bellingham, Olympia, Puget Sound and Spokane, respecting organic union with Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System. In view of the fact that the Reformed Church in America has adopted the Articles of Agreement for coöperation with other churches, and in view also of the fact that the Reformed Church in the United States has not as yet had opportunity to act upon the Resolution of the Committee on Closer Relations of its General Synod, it is recommended that no action be taken on the Overtures other than the following:

Resolved, That this General Assembly hereby gives expression to the willingness of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to enter into such relations of coöperation, federation or organic union with other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches as may be mutually acceptable.

VI. Matters Connected with Reunion.

The matters connected with the Reunion and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. upon which the Committee reports are four in number: (a) The consolidation of the Boards and Committees of the Reunited Church where and when necessary; (b) The consummation of the change in the Charter of Cumberland University; (c) The legal situation caused by controversy; and (d) The adjustment of the boundaries of the Presbyteries and Synods. The following statements and conclusions are presented upon each of these points.

(a) The consolidation of the Boards and Committees of the Reunited Church when and where necessary.—(Referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.)

(b) The consummation of the change in the Charter of the Cumberland University.—At the request of the Trustees of the Cumberland University, the General Assembly of 1906, meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, adopted a recommendation indicating the conditions upon which the Theological Department of the said University should be acknowledged as a Theological School of the Church, "and its Faculty and students entitled to equal and full recognition with those of all other Theological Schools of said Church." The action of that Assembly further advised that this Assembly adopt the following resolution, and it is recommended that it be adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That upon the Trustees of Cumberland University so changing their charter, as amended in 1903, as to use the words "Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A." instead of "Cumberland Presbyterian Church," then the charter of said University, as amended in 1903, shall be accepted as the law defining the relations of the Theological Department of said University to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; and thereafter it is to be a Theological School of the said Church, and its Faculty and students entitled to full and equal recognition with those of all other Theological Schools of said Church; and said Theological Department shall not be separated from Cumberland University without the consent of the Trustees of said Cumberland University.

The Trustees shall require the Professors hereafter elected in the Theological Department, before assuming their duties, to adopt the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures. At least two-thirds of the members of the Board of Trustees of Cumberland University shall be at all times members of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

It is understood that upon the adoption of this resolution the Trustees of Cumberland University will at once proceed to amend the charter of the institution in compliance with the terms of the resolution.

It is also recommended that the Committee report upon this matter to the next Assembly.

(c) The legal complications caused by controversy.—The Committee ventured, under the influence of fraternal sympathy, to enter into correspondence and conference with the Committee on Pastoral Oversight appointed by the General Assembly of 1906 of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. It has been the arduous duty of the latter Committee to seek to reconcile to the Reunion and Union certain parties opposed thereto, and where the anti-unionists entered upon aggressive legal action, to meet their divisive efforts in an appropriate manner. Too much praise cannot be given to the brethren of that Committee for the patient, painstaking, wearisome and yet cheerful service they have rendered the Reunited Church. With all kindness, but with all firmness, they have performed their difficult task.

The conference with the brethren of the Committee on Pastoral Oversight was conducted by a Sub-committee of your Committee, the Chairman of which was the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D. At this conference the whole legal situation was carefully considered, and it was agreed that until the meeting of this General Assembly the conduct of legal matters should be at the discretion of the Committee on Pastoral Oversight. It is proper here to state that expenses of all legal proceedings up to this present time have been cheerfully borne by these earnest and self-sacrificing brethren. What the duty of the Reunited Church is in the premises is one for this General Assembly to decide. In view of the interests involved, and in the light of the requirements of Christian brotherhood, it is recommended: That a Special Committee of nine, four ministers and five elders, be appointed by the Moderator to consider the legal situation in some portions of the Church, arising out of opposition to the Reunion, to receive information from authoritative sources, to consider and propose appropriate action, and to report to this General Assembly at the earliest time practicable in the sessions.

(d) The adjustment of the boundaries of the Presbyteries and Synods.—The General Assembly of 1906, as a result of the Reunion of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., received into the Church seventeen Synods with their Presbyteries. See the list on pp. 147–148 of the Minutes of 1906.

Action had been taken previously with reference to the adjustment of the boundaries of the several Synods and Presbyteries of the Reunited Church, for this 119th General Assembly was authorized to adjust the boundaries of Presbyteries and Synods by Concurrent Declaration No. 3 of the Plan of Union adopted by the two General Assemblies of 1904 and reading: "3. The boundaries of the several Presbyteries and Synods shall be adjusted by the General Assembly of the Reunited Church."

The following recommendation as to certain details of this adjustment was adopted by the General Assembly of 1906:

"11. Resolved, That the respective General Assemblies hereby recommend to the One Hundred and Nineteenth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, that when steps shall be taken to adjust the boundaries of the several Presbyteries and Synods, and to define and name the same, preference be given, as far as possible, to the names now used by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for its Presbyteries and Synods in the South and Southwest; that, conversely, preference be given, as far as possible, to the names now used by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in the North and Northwest; and that in the border territory great care be taken to preserve any names that embody associations dear to either Church."

It is believed that this resolution has been carefully observed, both in letter and spirit, by all parties to the proposed adjustments. Your Committee entrusted specifically to its Chairman the work of securing the information necessary for the appropriate and legal steps to be taken by this Assembly in the performance of this important duty. Correspondence was had with the Stated Clerks of the several Synods interested, and it was recommended that these Synods appoint Joint Committees to conduct negotiations and prepare needed plans. It was felt that Committees upon the ground, entirely familiar with both the legal and practical situation, would best furnish reliable data and accurate directions for any action taken. The Enabling Acts herewith submitted are therefore the result of consultation and action by official Joint Committees of the Synods with which said Acts deal, and their contents indicate the care which has been given to this whole matter, both in detail and in general.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The following telegram from the Executive Committee of the Inter-Church Conference on Federation was received and read to the Assembly and ordered printed in the Records:

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 17, 1907.

Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

In behalf of the Executive Committee of the Inter-Church Conference on Federation, we send this message of congratulation upon your election as Moderator of your General Assembly. The Churches of Christ, organizing as a Federal Council under the action of the great Conference of 1905, gratefully recognize with the Presbyterian Church, the splendid service you have rendered in the cause of Christian unity.

WILLIAM HAYES WARD, FRANK MASON NORTH,
JOHN B. CALVERT, GEORGE U. WENNER,
DONALD SAGE MACKAY, MORRIS W. LIEBERT,
E. B. SANFORD.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, through Rev. F. C. Monfort, D.D., a member of the Committee, presented its Report, which was received, and addresses were made by Dr. Monfort, Rev. F. J. Stanley, D.D., Secretary of the Committee, and Rev. J. Balcom Shaw, D.D. Pending the consideration of the Report, the Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 17, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions presented the following Special Report, which was adopted:

The Permanent Committee on Commissions, on the written request of Rev. Edgar O. Campbell, M.D., a member of the Presbytery of Yukon, to be recognized as a Commissioner from that Presbytery, respectfully report:

1. That while sympathizing with the desire of Dr. Campbell, they do not find anything in the facts set forth in his petition to justify his recognition as a Commissioner to this Assembly.

2. That the conditions described in Dr. Campbell's petition as to the impossibility of holding meetings, and the uncertainty of there being even a quorum of members living and laboring within the bounds of the Presbytery are so anomalous, that we recommend that the matter of the status of the Presbytery of Yukon be referred to the Standing Committee on Polity.

Before taking up the Order of the Day, the Report of the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, the Assembly, at the request of Mr. John H. Converse, Chairman, spent a brief season in devotional exercises, led by Rev. R. F. Coyle, D.D. The Report was then presented and addresses were delivered by Mr. Converse, Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., Rev. Ira Landrith, D.D., and Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Evangelistic Work respectfully reports as follows:

Six years ago, when the One Hundred and Thirteenth General Assembly was in session in the city of Philadelphia, the first Committee on Evangelistic Work was appointed. Each succeeding Assembly from that day till this has appointed a similar Committee, so that now with this Report the Committee is enabled to review the six years of work and present the following Report:

It is worthy of note that for four years preceding the appointment of the first Committee the additions to the Church on Confession of Faith had been as follows:

57,041	48,359	57,183	54,252

From the year 1901, when the Committee was appointed in the city of Philadelphia, the additions on Confession of Faith have been as follows:

1902.	1903.	1904.	1905.	1906.
65,889	65,797	68,233	66,271	79,589

With the presentation of the Report of the year 1906, the Chairman of the Committee was enabled to say that the year just closed had been in every way the most remarkable for evangelism in the Church's history.

The following members of the present Committee have served on the various Committees appointed by the General Assembly during the past six years: Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., Rev. S. S. Palmer, D.D., Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Mr. John Willis Baer, LL.D., Dr. George W. Bailey, Mr. E. A. K. Hackett, Mr. John H. Converse, Mr. L. H. Severance; and these members are to-day the most enthusiastic supporters, not only of the work as it has been accomplished, but of the purposes and plans of the Committee for the future.

The amount expended in the prosecution of the work from May 1, 1906, to May 1, 1907, was $80,203.79. This amount was contributed as follows:

By thirty-three individuals	$65,814 90
From church collections	1,267 18
From free will offerings	10,002 26
From sale of literature	587 33
From sale of song books	2,532 12

The efforts of the Committee during the past year have been directed along the following lines:

1. Appropriations of Money have been made to the following Synods: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, North Dakota, Oregon. In each case this money was put at the disposal of the Synodical Superintendent of Home Missions; and he, together with the Synodical Committee on Evangelistic Work, employed the evangelist and the singers who worked under his direction.

2. The Issuing of Literature.—Two hundred thousand different pieces of literature have been sent forth, and the total number of pamphlets issued is thirty-four, as follows:

In addition to the above, the Evangelistic Bulletin has been issued from month to month and sent to each pastor.

3. The Holding of Conferences for the consideration of Evangelistic methods and the deepening of the spiritual life. These conferences have been held in connection with the meetings of Synods and Presbyteries and have formed a part of the evangelistic campaigns carried on in the larger cities, and have also been held in connection with the work of the Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D., Field Secretary for the South and Southwest, and the Rev. James Beveridge Lee, D.D., Special Secretary for the work in educational institutions.

4. The Appointment of Evangelists and Singers for Home Mission Synods as follows: Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Colorado, Washington, Tennessee, Florida, Indiana, West Virginia, Idaho, Oregon.

5. CORRESPONDENCE.—More than 17,000 letters have been received and answered. These communications have come not only from ministers and members of our own Church, but have been in the form of inquiries from all the evangelical denominations, especially the various Evangelistic Committees, and from Christians in all parts of the world, asking regarding the work of the General Assembly's Committee.

SPECIAL FEATURES.—1. Lumber Camps.—A vigorous campaign has been conducted in the lumber camps in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Two men of rare ability, the Rev. F. E. Higgins and Rev. J. O. Buswell, with their associates, have wrought valiantly for Christ. They have been true "Sky Pilots," and their work has been commended by the various lumber concerns prominent in these States, and by Christians generally who have known of their labors.

2. Work in the Saloons.—In connection with the Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaigns, Mr. and Mrs. Asher have preached and sung the Gospel in the saloons of the cities. They have been supported from the treasury of the Evangelistic Committee. Their work has been not only unique but truly marvelous, and almost without exception has the endorsement of the Presbyterian ministers in cities where they have labored under Dr. Chapman's direction.

3. Dr. Johnston.—At the last meeting of the General Assembly it was announced that Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., as the Committee's representative, was making a tour of the world. He went forth to carry the greetings of the Evangelistic Committee and the Church at large to the missionaries scattered abroad, and he has returned after having encircled the globe, not only rejoicing himself in the opportunity given to him, but having called forth a universal expression of gratitude on the part of our foreign missionaries.

4. Simultaneous Work in Cities.—Under the direction of Dr. Chapman, a party consisting of thirty people has visited the following cities: Roanoke, Va., Lafayette, Ind., Des Moines, Ia., Portland, Ind., Oneida, N. Y., Oswego, N. Y., Pawtucket, R. I., Worcester, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Utica, N. Y., Superior, Wis., conducting, by the direction of the last General Assembly, interdenominational simultaneous evangelistic campaigns. In almost every instance the meetings have been a pronounced success, and the Simultaneous Plan is now recognized as one of the most effective methods of reaching and moving the modern city. These city movements have been practically self-supporting.

In addition to the above work, the Evangelistic Committee at what seemed to be a time of crisis has had the privilege of making the following efforts in behalf of the Church:

5. San Francisco.—As a result of the San Francisco earthquake churches were demolished, congregations disorganized and ministers well-nigh discouraged. An appeal came to the last General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work for men and money. At the earliest possible moment four men were sent to San Francisco, and were authorized to undertake a three months' campaign. These men labored entirely at the expense of the Committee, the cost to our treasury for this service alone being more than $4,000; but the testimony of the San Francisco pastors has been cheering to the Committee, and the work seems to be owned of God.

6. Educational Institutions.—A special interest has been aroused in our educational institutions; not only those under the care of our Church, but also the State Universities attended by many of the young people of our Church; and in order that these institutions of learning might have the advantage of the rising tide of evangelism, and the strength of the young people be turned into some special effort in behalf of their fellow-students, the services of the Rev. James Beveridge Lee, D.D., were secured. Dr. Lee has labored for ten months and has visited twenty-five institutions. Only words of praise are heard concerning his services and the effect cannot but be permanent.

7. The Work in the West and the Southwest.—With the coming to us of the members of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, it was believed that our Church faced a crisis. Many of the former Cumberland Presbyterians did not understand the spirit of our Church. This was noticeably true in the South and Southwest. The members of the Evangelistic Committee felt that this was a call of God to the Committee for service, and the Rev. J. P. Calhoun, D.D., was asked to serve as Field Secretary for the Committee, and he was assigned to the South and Southwest, with headquarters at Nashville, and with instructions to place himself, under the direction of a sub-committee, at the disposal of a brother formerly a Cumberland Presbyterian. The Field Secretary, on March 19th, made a report concerning his work up to that time. This report embraced a record of conferences and meetings held in Montgomery, Birmingham and suburbs, and Selma, Ala.; West Point, Miss.; Greenfield, Milan and McKenzie, Tenn. Also of several days spent at the Home Missionary Conference at Nashville in January. Then followed the report of meetings held at various places in Arkansas, including Morrilton, Rogers and Fayetteville. Ten days were given to Fayetteville in revival services, which resulted in a great quickening of the Church at that place and accessions to the various denominations. Dr. Calhoun's report also made note of the establishing of branch headquarters at Nashville for the work in the South and Southwest. Letters were sent out to the ministers in the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church in the South and Southwest, asking for coöperation, and also that arrangements be made where the way was clear for evangelistic services, volunteer ministers to assist in these services. Pastors were also asked to give two weeks or more of their time to special evangelistic effort among the weaker churches in the country districts. To this appeal there was a general and favorable response.

The report set forth that everywhere in the South and Southwest the door is open for special services, and for an organized evangelistic effort. Everywhere the Field Secretary has been encouraged in his work among the churches; he has always found the latch-string out, the door open, a consecrated Spirit-filled ministry, and an appreciative response, which made his work both a joy and an opportunity.

Conferences were held and addresses made in the Synods of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Kentucky, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee and Florida. Dr. Calhoun has won the confidence and affection of the people in the South and Southwest in a marked degree.

8. Simultaneous Campaigns.—The Committee recommended the simultaneous campaign in the various Presbyteries following the first of the year. Five thousand return postal cards were sent out, and of these 2,500 came back, and those returning them reported that they had either held such meetings as were suggested or the meetings would be held as recommended, or that they would be held at the first favorable opportunity in the future. Every report from this simultaneous campaign has been gratifying.

9. The Chester Plan.—The General Assembly's Committee desires to give its special endorsement to the plan of the Presbytery of Chester for Evangelistic Work. The credit for the inception of the movement belongs to Mr. J. Lewis Twaddell, an elder of the Church at Devon. On July 3, 1905, he and Mr. Converse called together a number of consecrated laymen of the Presbytery and presented the plan, which was to the effect that, provided the Presbytery of Chester would heartily approve the effort, and the Evangelistic Committee of the Presbytery would undertake its direction, the laymen would bear the expense of an evangelistic campaign for a year beginning September 1. A tent, fully equipped with chairs, organ, platform and desk, was to be used especially in manufacturing towns during the summer months. The proposition was accepted by the Presbytery by a unanimous rising vote, and the details of the work were referred to the Evangelistic Committee. The laymen's Committee was regularly organized with John H. Converse, Chairman; J. Lewis Twaddell, Vice-Chairman; John H. Dingee, Secretary; Hugh De Haven, Treasurer. Rev. Henry N. Faulconer was secured as evangelist, and assignments were made to churches requesting his services, two weeks being given to each assignment, except in towns or cities with more than one Presbyterian Church. The Secretary of the Evangelistic Committee of the Presbytery is the Rev. Lewis W. Mudge, D.D. The results have been most happy and beyond expectation. By the generous arrangement of the laymen the weakest church has equal claim with the strongest on the services of the evangelist. It was the stipulation of the laymen that a free-will offering in envelopes be taken near the close of the services, to go to the treasury of the laymen's Committee.

The Secretary of the Presbyterial Committee states that, taking the sixteen churches where services were held sufficiently early to report, the additions to membership were 507 in 1906–07, as against 207 in 1905. This is a gain of 145 per cent. over the additions of the previous year.

It should be noted that the plan of the Presbytery of Chester is one that adopts the suggestions of the Assembly's Committee, and that the same plan has the cordial approval of the General Assembly for Home Mission Presbyteries.

Gratitude.—It is the desire of the members of the Evangelistic Committee in this Report to record the Committee's expression of gratitude for the way in which God has led us during this past year.

1. It is true that the Presbyterian Church to-day is recognized throughout the world as an evangelistic force, and the universal testimony of evangelists and others engaged in Christian work is to the effect that the Presbyterian ministers, almost without exception, stand ready to endorse any movement which means the stirring of the community or the winning of people to Christ.

2. There is undoubtedly the best condition of affairs in the Church to-day that has been known in a generation. There is a better atmosphere in which to labor, and a more united Church.

The development of the missionary spirit in the interest of work at home and abroad, and the unparalleled interest among our men, culminating in the organization of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, make this year in every way phenomenal. Also it is noted that the Inter-Church Federation Movement offers itself as a splendid opportunity for aggressive and united evangelistic work among all the people.

3. The interest in other denominations seems greater than for years. Almost every evangelical denomination has its Evangelistic Committee. These Committees have been most gracious and kindly in their communications sent to us, and in several instances are using the literature which we have sent forth.

4. The General Assembly's Committee believes that pastoral evangelism is the ideal, and stands publicly committed to any work that will place the pastor in his rightful position as the leader of evangelistic efforts. The Committee desires again to give its endorsement to approved evangelists. The past years have demonstrated that the evangelist has a place in the Church and that his office is of God.

5. The General Assembly of 1906 adopted a joint Report of the Board of Home Missions and the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, according to which it was decided that the Evangelistic Committee should confine its future plans and work to the larger towns and cities, and that the Board of Home Missions should take over within its jurisdiction all evangelistic work, and carry it on to the full measure of the Board's ability. The Board was directed to give itself diligently to the maturing and perfecting in detail whatever plans of reorganization may be necessary in consequence. The Evangelistic Committee hails this action of the General Assembly with delight, and wishes the Board of Home Missions the favor of God in the carrying out of this great work.

The Future.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Board of Home Missions is to render the service just indicated to the Church, it is the unanimous opinion of the members of the Evangelistic Committee that a Committee should be appointed for the ensuing year. The fact that the work has but fairly begun in the cities; the fact that other evangelical denominations have to-day their own Evangelistic Committees; the fact that in addition to the field covered by the Home Board there is still a vast territory which may be influenced by the Evangelistic Committee; the fact that the fields are whitening unto the harvest and trained workmen are needed to assist the pastors in their labors; the fact that the continuation of an Evangelistic Committee helps to control the evangelistic work of the denomination, to keep it from snares and from the making of many mistakes—all these things have influenced the members of the present Committee to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of twenty, ten ministers and ten elders, be appointed by the Moderator to promote evangelistic work in the churches. The Committee shall have authority to form an Executive Committee of not less than five members for the transaction of business in the intervals between regular meetings of the General Committee, and shall report to the General Assembly. The expenses, except for the attendance of members upon the regular meetings, shall be met by voluntary contributions.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the fact that the Board of Home Missions has agreed to undertake the assistance of churches in Home Mission territory, that the special policy of the Evangelistic Committee for the coming year be the development of the following departments:

(a) The holding of Conferences either independently or in coöperation with the Board of Home Missions. Each subsequent Committee appointed by the past General Assemblies has emphasized the importance of conference work. Inasmuch as the action of the last General Assembly with reference to the Board of Home Missions and evangelistic work will relieve the Evangelistic Committee of many details of the work, it is understood that the Committee, if appointed by the present Assembly, is to carry on this Conference work in a more comprehensive way than ever.

(b) The preparation and distribution of literature.

(c) The holding of interdenominational simultaneous evangelistic campaigns in the large cities.

(d) The employment of such special workers as may be considered necessary.

(e) The recommendation of such evangelists as have the proper endorsement and approval of their brethren and the seal of God's approval upon their ministry.

(f) The coöperation with Evangelistic Committees of other evangelical denominations in the general work for our country; and special coöperation with the Board of Home Missions of our own Church in the general evangelistic work of our own denomination.

Resolved, 3. That pastors and Sessions be requested to seek in every way—by personal evangelism, by evangelistic preaching and by coöperation with general evangelistic work—to carry forward the interests of the Kingdom.

Resolved, 4. That inasmuch as there are many lapsed church members in this country, that an entire month, to be decided upon later, be devoted to the reclaiming of such, and an effort be made to bring them into vital union with the Church; and that the General Assembly by this action calls upon all adherents of the Presbyterian Church to unite with a church in the community in which they live.

Resolved, 5. That the Committee hereby records its conviction that pastoral evangelism is the hope of the Church, and that special evangelistic services conducted by pastors who have evangelistic gifts, or by men giving their entire time to this work, are also desirable and necessary.

Resolved, 6. That inasmuch as there seems to be an increasing interest in Christian service among the men in our churches and congregations, that the members of the Brotherhoods be requested to coöperate in every evangelistic campaign proposed.

Resolved, 7. It is recommended that Evangelistic Committees be appointed by Synods and Presbyteries, and that said Committees be urged to the adoption of measures such as will promote the winning of souls, and make this the great effort for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CONVERSE, Chairman.

J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Corresponding Secretary.

The Moderator was authorized to appoint a Committee of five to nominate to the next Assembly the representatives of the Church in the first Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System.

The unfinished business, the Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, was taken up. The Report was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Sabbath Observance greets you to-day with optimistic cheer because of the advancement of the cause during the past year throughout the world.

At Home.

Jamestown Tercentenary.—Congress passed the bill, which was promptly signed by the President, appropriating $1,250,000 to the Tercentenary Exposition now being held for six months at Jamestown, Va., on the following condition: "That the grounds shall be closed on Sundays during said Exposition," thus following the precedents of the Centennial Exposition of 1876 and the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis in 1904.

The President of the Board of Directors of the Exposition informs us that the Directors at Jamestown unanimously voted, two months previous to and regardless of what might be the decision of Congress, to close the gates of the Exposition on Sundays during the entire term of the Exposition.

The Railway authorities of the State of Virginia have agreed with the State Sabbath Observance Executive Committee not to run any Sunday excursions.

These results would not have been attained but for the vigilance and persistent efforts of the Sabbath organizations. At Jamestown the Sunday closing has a historical significance. That settlement was only twelve years old in 1619 when it passed the first Sabbath law on what is now United States territory.

Kentucky.—In Kentucky the Court of Appeals decided in favor of the People versus the Liquor interest, by closing the saloons on Sunday and virtually forbidding the club-houses and hotels to sell any liquor on that day of the week. This was the issue of a bitter warfare for several months between the law-abiding citizens and the element opposed in that Commonwealth to genuine Sabbath Observance.

New Jersey.—On July 4th the new law, known as the Bishop's bill, went into effect in New Jersey, for closing the saloons on Sunday in that State. As a rule, throughout the State the liquor traffic complied with the law, the exception being found in only two or three cities. Statutes contained in the old code, which for many years had been a "dead letter," have also been enforced this last year.

Missouri.—April 28, 1906, completed the first year of the Sunday closing of saloons in the State of Missouri, as ordered by the Governor. In Kansas City alone, containing 200,000 people, the Chief of Police announced some of the striking results as follows: "Absence of noisy crowds on the streets. Decrease in arrests for drunkenness of 80 per cent. Decrease in crime of all kinds, 75 per cent. Formerly twenty-five to thirty patrol wagon calls every Sunday, now less than half a dozen, and frequently none at all. In various ways the work of the Police Department has lightened 75 per cent."

The people are so well satisfied with the beneficent results of law enforcement already, that you cannot find an intelligent man who will consent to go back to the old régime of open Sunday in liquor traffic.

Kansas.—Across the border in Kansas the Sunday closing laws have been so rigidly enforced by the new Prosecuting Attorney in Kansas City, Kansas, with its population of 80,000, that it has produced marvelous results, to the happy surprise of the majority of the business men, some of whom had predicted even financial ruin. In Leavenworth the brutal sport of prize fighting on the Sabbath was prevented by the citizens arising in protest, led by the courageous pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of that city.

Other Lands.

Canada.—Last July the Dominion of Canada passed the strictest and most sweeping Sabbath law yet enacted by any nation, even surpassing Australia's famous laws. It is termed "the Lord's Day Law of Canada," and went into effect March 1, 1907. It was zealously supported by Protestants and Roman Catholics alike. This statute abolishes all Sunday excursions, by steamboat, railway or trolley, closes all places of amusement, forbids all sports and games, and the publication, sale or importation of Sunday newspapers. For the first time in history a graded penalty for different classes of violations has been provided.

Great Britain.—Great Britain has been aroused on this crucial question lately as never before. A mass meeting was held recently in London, the Lord Mayor presiding, in the interest of the "imperiled Sabbath." Protestant, Roman Catholic and Hebrew all united in this popular demonstration.

A leading Jewish Rabbi delivered an address on that occasion, earnestly appealing to the people to save the nation by protecting the first day of the week as the national day of rest.

A Parliamentary Commission has been appointed to investigate this whole subject, with a view to recommending proper legislation for preserving the Sabbath, commercially, politically and religiously.

France.—After a year's thorough investigation by a special Commission appointed by the Government, the French Chamber of Deputies last July, by the remarkable vote of 575 to 1, passed the law for a compulsory weekly day of rest. This is on the basis of social economics. The provision applies to all industrial, commercial, educational, charitable and religious labor. Each worker (even in hotels, telephone exchanges, etc.) must have twenty-four consecutive hours some other day of the week, if obliged to work on Sunday, and one-third of the fifty-two rest days required in each year must be Sundays; and all this under the direct authorization of the Government. This law took effect last September. Since that time the announcement has been made by the leading French railways that they will give fifty-two weekly rest days in the year to all their men.

Belgium, a Roman Catholic country, has abolished by statute 2,227 Sunday trains. The result has been, as reported by the Minister of Railways, more than 50 per cent. decrease in fatal accidents due to any fault of the employés.

Switzerland was the first European country to enact and apply practically the fifty-two weekly rest day law for every railway and trolley laborer; that was five years ago. At the end of the first twelve months, the report showed not a single fatal accident on railway or trolley during the year.

Spain.—The Spanish Government passed a Sunday law three years ago, closing docks and factories, stores during the greater part of Sunday, and even prohibited the publication and sale of newspapers.

Europe in General.—During the past fifteen years, on the Continent laws protecting the Sunday as a day of rest have been enacted in at least eleven different countries—a remarkable movement affecting a considerable part of the Continent of Europe.

Argentine Republic.—Within the past year the Argentine Republic passed a Sunday rest law, similar to that passed in France as above described.

India has organized a Lord's Day Union, having the Bishop of Calcutta as its President. The laws now forbid all work in the European portion of Calcutta on Sunday, and have changed the market day in that city from Sunday to a week day. The Government of India is seriously considering the question of a Sunday rest law for the whole of India.

Japan.—More than thirty years ago the ruler of Japan decreed the first day of the week as a rest day for three classes especially: all Government employés, all bankers, all teachers and scholars.

China.—In China has just occurred a miracle of miracles in this twentieth century! On August 7th last, as stated in the public press, the Emperor promulgated an edict requiring the observance of the Sabbath or first day of the week as a rest day throughout the empire—a marvelous step in the progress of the new Chinese empire awakening from centuries of slumber.

It is also decreed that in all countries where the Lord's Day is observed the representatives of the empire shall close their offices for business on that day. Those who are at all acquainted with the condition of affairs in China, will at once recognize that this edict is one of the most important steps in recent times in the progress of the empire and in Christian missionary work in that country. The hearts of all interested in the prevalence of the Kingdom of Christ on the earth should exult in this action, which presents the Christian Lord's Day for observance to one-fourth of the people of the earth. In connection with the similar decree promulgated several months ago in Japan, and with the strict laws for Sabbath observance adopted in Canada and France, this decree marks an advance in Sabbath Observance unequaled in history. This is not based on religious principles, but on social economics alone. Nevertheless, the stamp of Government approval is thus placed on Christianity as the religion of the leading nations of the earth, and gives the Christian missionary a standing he never had before.

The Governor of one province containing fifty millions of population, we read, has ordered a Bible or New Testament placed in every family, so they can read it in their own native dialect—another miracle in behalf of the Book proclaiming the Sabbath.

We cannot but praise God as we note the great awakening on this subject of the Lord's Day around the world, and are glad to see the unchristianized peoples claiming this precious gift of God. For the Sabbath was not made for any one nation, nor for a favored few, but for man, for mankind, for the whole race.

When will America learn the lesson taught by the experience of other countries? The Inter-State Commerce Commission of the United States, in August, 1906, reported that there have been on an average these last eleven years nearly forty accidents daily on railroads alone, an average of twenty-one persons killed every day in the year. The total was 84,244 persons killed and 555,585 maimed or injured in that period. A terrible record! The numerous and horrible railway disasters of the last two or three months of the year 1906 verify the statement of the Inter-State Commission, that in two years, 1904 and 1905, compared with previous years, there was an increase of nearly 100 per cent. in the number killed by railway accidents. Seven days in the week of railroading and trolley labor, being continuous toil for weeks and months, unfits any man, physically, nervously, mentally and morally, for efficiency and reliability. While thanking God and taking courage, we cannot be unmindful of the conditions as they exist and should gird ourselves to the task of applying the remedies.

In New England the cities and rural communities have in the last few years been undergoing a marked change with reference to the whole question of Sabbath Observance. Massachusetts has especially been attacked by the Continental Sunday idea, largely on account of the character of its immigrants in the cities, and a degeneration of the native stock in the rural towns. Massachusetts is now the most foreign State in the Union and the State with the largest proportion of city population.

In New York State the usual crop of anti-Sunday bills have been introduced; most of them will die in the Committees. If any pass the Legislature, we may rest assured that the Christian Governor of that State will do all he can to prevent them from becoming laws.

In various States other like bills are before the Legislatures, and the Christian people of this land must realize that "eternal vigilance is the price of safety." There are thirty millions of religious people in this country who control its wealth, culture and influence, and they can have things their own way if they fall into line with the teachings of Scripture and organize for concerted effort.

During the past year the Committee has sustained the loss by death of one of its members, Rev. Charles B. Ramsdell, D.D., of Washington, D. C. He was loyal to God, His truth and His day, and we trust all will be stimulated by his example of consecration and faithfulness.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the authority of the Christian Sabbath is found in the law of God and confirmed by the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Resolved, That the General Assembly expresses its strong conviction that the sacred character of the Sabbath must be carefully and strenuously maintained, and to this end enjoins all ministers, officers and members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to exercise special care and faithfulness, and discourages holding funerals on that day.

3. Resolved, That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the day, all games and sports, all traveling for pleasure and all excursions, and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day, and thereby insure his greater efficiency and happiness and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

4. Resolved, That the General Assembly urges on all families not to buy anything on the Sabbath, to plan for their servants on the Sabbath and help them to fulfill their religious duties, and to pay laborers, so that they may have Saturday afternoon to make provision for the Sabbath.

5. Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for it or read it or advertise in it.

6. Resolved, That the General Assembly respectfully requests the Faculties of Colleges and Seminaries, if the way be clear, to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

7. Resolved, That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar Committees of the other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath associations; and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such associations in connection with the national organizations, the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance.

8. Resolved, That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the Chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Sabbath Associations.

9. Resolved, That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath.

10. Resolved, That we earnestly recommend that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon in the month of April next or some more convenient time on the subject of the Sabbath, and that at that time an offering be made for the work of the American Sabbath Union (which is the association organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888, and which represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work); or, in lieu of an offering, we recommend that the Union be placed upon the list of benevolences of the churches, contributions to be sent to Col. A. S. Bacon, Treasurer, 37 Liberty street, New York City, and that the Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued.

11. Resolved, That this Assembly heartily endorses the plan of the Saturday half-holiday, and recognizes it as tending to the better observance of the Sabbath.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank C. Monfort,	A. W. Ringland,

The following telegram of fraternal greeting was sent to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 17, 1907.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly, Birmingham, Alabama:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Columbus, Ohio, sends fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Birmingham, Alabama. Read Ephesians, fourth chapter and thirteenth verse.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Moderator.

Rev. Thomas H. Cleland, D.D., Field Secretary of the American Tract Society, upon invitation addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of that Society. The following Resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly rejoices that the American Tract Society has by over two years passed its threescore and ten years of evangelizing usefulness, and by reason of its strength and devotion has disseminated over the wide world, in the tongues to which men were born, the saving truths of the Gospel as commonly believed by all Evangelical Churches.

Resolved, 2. That we recognize in this agency the answer to the prayer of our Lord that "we all may be one," and point to the use of its literature on mission fields at home and abroad by all Evangelical Churches as a living testimony to the essential unity of all God's people, and to the only Name by which men may be saved.

Resolved, 3. That we greatly acknowledge the God-given prosperity that has enabled this Society to supply Christian literature in 174 tongues and dialects, and to be a storehouse from which all our missionaries can draw helpful exposition of the Word of Life, which reaches beyond the voice of the living preacher in pagan lands; and we hereby extend our thanks for gifts of literature and electrotype plates to some of our stations.

Resolved, 4. That, in the year when immigration has passed the million mark and has brought to our shores a dense mass from the Orient and the south of Europe, we acknowledge the valuable service of colporteurs at Ellis Island and the donation of Testaments, books and tracts to the immigrants, following them with missionary help to their permanent homes.

Resolved, 5. That we make special acknowledgment of Spanish literature, which has been so great an evangelizing agency in Porto Rico, Cuba, the Philippines and among the Spanish-speaking peoples on our borders.

Resolved, 6. That we call the renewed attention of all pastors and missionaries to the usefulness of the printed page in evangelistic work in our crowded cities and on our remote frontiers.

Resolved, 7. That in view of the increased demands on the resources of the American Tract Society for donations of books and tracts in foreign fields and in the home land, and the increased call for missionary laborers, the General Assembly renews former recommendations, with fresh emphasis, that the American Tract Society be included in the benevolences of churches and individuals; and that this may be effective each Presbytery is urged to appoint a Standing Committee to forward this blessed and much needed work, and that each congregation shall make an annual and liberal offering to the Society, in order to extend more widely its work to the needy of this and all lands.

The courtesy of the platform of the Assembly was extended to the pastors of the Evangelical Churches of the City.

The following Orders of the Day were fixed:

The Report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies was made the second order for Monday morning.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions was made the second order for next Friday morning.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., May 17, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., Columbus, Ohio:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States sends fraternal greetings and bids you Godspeed in the work for the Redeemer's kingdom. See Acts xx. 32.

JAMES R. HOWERTON, Moderator;
W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

A Minute was adopted as follows:

Inasmuch as word has just been received of the sudden death of Rev. Wallace S. Faris, one of our missionaries at I-Hsien, China, and son of Rev. W. W. Faris, D.D., a member of this Assembly, we express to the father and to his family our heartfelt sympathy, and commend the bereaved ones to the sustaining comfort of that Master in whose blessed service their beloved son, husband, and brother so faithfully labored.

On the adoption of this resolution the Assembly was led in prayer by the Moderator.

The Report of the Board of Missions of St. Louis was made the order for Monday morning after the reading of the Minutes.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its

Chairman, Rev. Alexander J. Kerr, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., and Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully reports as follows:

We have carefully examined the Fifty-second Annual Report of the Board, presented to this Assembly, and the Minutes of the meetings of the Board for the year ending March 31, 1907. We have also examined the Minutes of the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the same period, and we find both sets of Minutes neatly and carefully kept.

The relations existing between the two Boards are entirely harmonious and satisfactory. They are coöperating in the most cordial manner. The Cumberland Board must maintain a legal existence until the decision of the proper legal tribunal shall have been obtained as to the ownership and control of the property, namely, the Thornton Home, Evansville, Ind., and trust funds amounting to about $35,000 belonging to that Board. But it exists simply as a "holding Board," and has lost practically its identity in the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Its beneficiaries, to the number of nearly 100 families, have been taken over by the Board of the mother Church on exactly the same terms and conditions as those who have been for years on her roll, the same form of application having been used by its Presbyteries.

The Board has had upon its roll for the year ending March 31, 1907, 1,024 names, as against 952 one year ago, as follows: 421 ministers, 541 widows, 34 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 women missionaries and 19 guests at the Merriam Home at Newton, N. J. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its roll. This fact is explained in part by the number received from the Cumberland Church; but in addition to these there were 102 new names added to the roll of annuitants of the reunited Church. Fifty-nine of those upon the roll passed within the veil during the year, namely, 38 ministers, 19 widows, 1 orphan and 1 guest at the Merriam Home.

The Roll of Honor consists of those retired ministers over seventy years of age who have actively served the Church for thirty years or more, who need the aid of the Board, and who receive an annual appropriation of $300. A renewal of application is not required on their part. Of these there were on the roll during the year 193, as against 175 last year, and 38 were added to their company during the year, 11 of whom came from the Cumberland Church. Their average age was eighty-three years, and the average number of years they have been in the ministry was forty-eight. Four of these men were over ninety, and fifty-three were over eighty years of age. Sixteen of them went home to their Father's House during the year. The amount of aid given varies according to the need of the applicant. No one receives more than $300. The average amount paid to ministers on the Roll of Honor was only $285.49; other ministers received an average of $216; while widows received an average of only $150.

Your Committee regrets to report that the receipts of the Board from churches and Sunday Schools were $727 less than during the previous year, gifts from individuals were $4,753 less, and unrestricted legacies were nearly $22,000 less than in 1905–6. The receipts for the Permanent Fund were $18,105, besides a bequest to the Board of $300,000, soon to be added to this fund.

The thing that saved the day was the interest on the Permanent Fund. There is this encouraging fact, that twenty-two more churches contributed to the work of the Board during the past year than contributed to it in any previous year. But 3,470 churches failed to send anything to this hallowed cause. Most of these non-contributing churches are small and receive aid in meeting their own expenses. But in some, at least, of the self-supporting Synods no needy church can receive aid unless it will give an annual contribution to the work of every Board of the Church; and the testimony is clear that such a provision has a very beneficial effect upon the giving of these churches to every good cause. Why may not such an influential provision be extended to all the churches which receive aid either from Synodical or Home Missions Board funds?

Your Committee desires to place on record its appreciation of the kindly beneficence of two individual ladies and of Ladies' Aid, Mission, Dorcas and other societies in twenty-four churches, whose names are given in the report of the Board, in sending fifty-three boxes of clothing, dry goods, groceries and gifts of money to needy families on the Relief Roll.

There seems to be needed some organization of the women of the Church for the Board of Relief. Women missionaries and teachers, who have spent five years or more in the service of the Boards of Home or Foreign Missions or Freedmen and who need such aid, are among the beneficiaries of this Board, as are also the widows and orphans of ministers. It seems therefore peculiarly appropriate that there should be a special Woman's organization for this cause. The women are already well organized and have done splendid work for Home and Foreign Missions and the Freedmen, but is there not a field of labor for the Dorcases as well as for the Marys and Marthas? The boxes and accompanying cash gifts sent last year amounted in value to $6,780, and show what can be accomplished along this line. If the Women's Aid Societies should take this matter up, many a comfort, now lacking, could be sent to the homes of the veterans of the army of the Lord.

Your Committee has given a good deal of consideration to the subject of Special Homes for aged and infirm ministers. From all that can be learned the Homes established, except the Merriam Home at Newton, N. J., and the Thornton Home at Evansville, Ind., have not been successful in securing guests. Several causes combine to account for this fact. None of them, the Assembly can feel assured, lies at the door of your Board. But from different sources there has come a call for the establishment of a Home for Consumptive Men who are not able to work, or who can do only a small share of a healthy man's work. Such a home, if established, should be located in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, the Texas Panhandle, or Southern California.

Your Committee further asks the special attention of the churches to the Apportionment Scheme adopted by the Buffalo Assembly. It has been producing encouraging results. In brief it is as follows:

(a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least 10 cents per communicant.

(b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1,200, to give at least 15 cents per communicant.

(c) Churches paying salaries of $1,200 upwards to give at least 15 cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.

(d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

But no scheme, perhaps, is equal to that so frequently urged by the Assembly, namely, that the Ruling Elders of the Church make it a matter of conscience to see that the Endowment Fund be increased four millions of dollars, making it at least six million dollars. Then these veterans who have borne the burden and heat of the conflict can receive the sum of about $500 per year, and surely that is little enough. The Church of Scotland, from Sustentation Funds and its share of tithes, gives to her retired ministers an honorarium of $800 to $900 a year, and we believe our great Church is able to do as much. An Honorarium—that is what it is—in the word of the Board's Report, "An Honorarium is a debt paid for services, which, although it may not be a debt collectible by process of law, is nevertheless rightly to be regarded as a just reward for services rendered." In this light we properly consider every payment made to a disabled minister. The annuity paid an aged and disabled minister is never to be regarded as an unearned increment or charity, but a recognition of a debt due for the faithful performance of duty in years gone by. The payment of an annuity by the Church to a faithful minister (or to the widow of such a man) "is the conferring of an honor, or the giving of a recompense, or the repayment, to some limited degree, of what such a minister has given the Church in the cost of his education and in untiring service during the days of his consecrated activities on its behalf."

No minister in this Assembly expects ever to come under the care of the Board of Relief, but neither did any one of the 1,024 beneficiaries now on the roll of the Board. The statistics of the past show that one in eight of the families represented on the roll of our ministry to-day will come to the Board for assistance, and those who come will come not because of lack of thrift, or lack of economy, or lack of foresight, but because, while the average mechanic in New York City receives an average of $4.60 a day, which makes for 300 days $1,380 a year, the reports show that 923 Presbyterian ministers received at a comparatively recent date less than $400 per year, 373 between $400 and $500 and 598 received between $550 and $950 a year. The fact is the man who carries the hod received in New York City an average of $900 a year, which is more than many thousands of ministers throughout the country received; and while no comparison is to be thought of between the two, as to compensation, one naturally asks how it would be possible for a man to save what would be a competency for the time of distress or old age on salaries so small as those mentioned.

Your Committee presents the following recommendations for adoption:

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and also the Minutes of the Board of Relief of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, be approved.

2. That the self-supporting Synods and the Board of Home Missions and Board of Freedmen be urged to consider carefully the propriety of refusing aid to churches that will not give an offering, however small, to each of the Boards of the Church.

3. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that a Ruling Elder shall be appointed in each congregation to present this cause to his church, and that the contribution made by each church be sent in promptly to the Treasurer of the Board.

4. That the Apportionment Scheme be cordially commended to our churches.

5. That the cause of Ministerial Relief be commended to the conscience and heart of men and women of means, and they be urged to consider the privilege of giving, so that those who have borne so honorable a part in the Christian work of the whole land as these veterans have borne, shall not in their declining years lack the simplest comforts of life.

6. That Presbyterial Committees be urged to combine great care in recommending persons to this Board for aid, with a spirit of generous kindness to needy veterans.

7. That this cause be commended to the Ladies' Aid and other societies of women in our churches.

8. That Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., Rev. William J. Darby, D.D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq., and H. S. P. Nichols, Esq., whose term of office as Directors expires with this Assembly, be reëlected for a term of three years.

9. That Rev. William J. Darby, D.D., Robert Smith, Esq., and Sanders B. Sanson, Esq., whose term of office as Directors of the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church now expires, be reëlected for a term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER J. KERR, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Presbyterian Brotherhood, through its Chairman, Rev. G. B. F. Hallock, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. John Clark Hill, D.D., Mr. Charles S. Holt, Rev. J. D. Moffat, D.D., and the Chairman, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee regards the organization of the Presbyterian Brotherhood as one of the most important steps our Church has taken in recent years. Its opportunities and possibilities for good are certainly very great.

It is not our purpose to make any extended report, but to give to the Assembly the results of our deliberations in a series of recommendations. We recommend:

1. That the report of the Special Committee on Men's Societies appointed by the General Assembly of 1906 be approved, and the labors of that Committee highly commended.

2. That the report of the Council of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America, and the Constitution of the Brotherhood embodied therein, be approved and adopted.

3. That the work of the Brotherhood be recommended to the support and coöperation of our churches, pastors, Presbyteries and Synods.

4. That Standing Rule No. 4 have added to it a provision for a Popular Meeting in the interests of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, the date to be fixed by the Stated Clerk for the next Assembly, after consultation with interested parties, report to be made to the next Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

G. B. F. HALLOCK, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Men's Societies, approved by the adoption of the preceding Report, is as follows:

The Special Committee on Men's Societies respectfully reports as follows:

This Committee was appointed by the Assembly of 1905, in response to an Overture from the Synod of Ohio. It was charged with the duty of making a full investigation of the subject of Men's Societies in our Church, with a view to the formation of a Brotherhood to be distinctively Presbyterian in name and purpose; and in its Plan providing for Presbyterial, Synodical and National Conventions, for the purpose of bringing Presbyterian men together in the interest of winning men to Christ.

A Committee of five was appointed, and in accordance with the Overture presented a report of all available facts to the last Assembly, together with a provisional plan for the organization of the proposed Brotherhood. This plan was adopted by the Assembly, and the Committee enlarged to ten members. The instructions of the Assembly last year gave power to the Committee to perfect and promote the movement on the line set forth in the provisional plan. The special work this Committee had to do was the arranging for the first Convention of the Brotherhood, as authorized by the Assembly. The Convention was called to meet in Indianapolis, Ind., November 13–15, 1906. The proceedings of the Convention, including the Minutes and the papers read, were published by the Board of Publication in a convenient volume of 287 pages, and sold at twenty-five cents. Over 15,000 copies have already been sold, and the demand still continues. The Convention was attended by representative men from nearly every Synod of our Church. The official register contains the names of 1,476 men. A considerable number neglected to register, and so it may be confidently stated that the Convention was attended by not less than 1,500 men. Judging from every point of view, the Convention must be regarded as having accomplished all for which it was planned.

It was ordered by the last Assembly that the Convention should be held without any financial responsibility being assumed by the Assembly. The Committee met with most hearty response to its appeals for funds, so that there was not only a sufficient amount contributed by the generous friends of the movement, but also a surplus to turn over to the Council of the Brotherhood which was appointed at the Convention for the continuance of the work. The following is a statement of the receipts and expenditures:

RECEIPTS:
From all sources	$5,489 13
DISBURSEMENTS:
Convention and Committee expenses		$4,395 93
H. C. Olin, on account of Von Ogden Vogt		500 00
F. A. Wallis, Treasurer of Council		415 30
Balance in hands of D. H. Day, Treasurer of Committee		177 90
	$5,489 13	$5,489 13

The work of this Committee is therefore now completed by our incorporating herewith the report of the Council of the Brotherhood, elected at the first Convention, which gives in detail all the necessary information.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD OF AMERICA.

The Council of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America presents this Report to the General Assembly's Committee, in accordance with the instructions of the Convention held at Indianapolis on November 14 and 15, 1906, and begs permission through you to present the same Report to the General Assembly, in compliance with the requirement of Item (5) of the provisional plan approved by the Assembly of 1906.

The history covered by this Report begins with the adjournment of the Indianapolis Convention. It was impossible for so large a body in the time at hand to work out, from the many and diverse suggestions offered, a satisfactory Constitution and Form of Government. The Committee on Constitution therefore recommended, and the Convention voted, that a Council of twenty-one be chosen and "commissioned with full power to adopt a Constitution, ... with the understanding that changes in said Constitution may be made at the next National Convention." (Report of Indianapolis Convention, p. 277.)

The following persons were elected members of the Council: Joseph T. Alling, Rochester, N. Y.; John Willis Baer, Los Angeles, Cal.; John H. Converse, Philadelphia, Pa.; Charles W. Dabney, Cincinnati, Ohio; William R. Farrand, Detroit, Mich.; Franklin W. Ganse, Boston, Mass.; Hugh H. Hanna, Indianapolis, Ind.; Ralph W. Harbison, Pittsburg, Pa.; Charles S. Holt, Chicago, Ill.; J. D. Husted, Denver, Colo.; William M. Ladd, Portland, Ore.; Cyrus H. McCormick, Chicago, Ill.; A. B. T. Moore, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Elisha H. Perkins, Baltimore, Md.; W. E. Settle, Bowling Green, Ky.; J. L. Severance, Cleveland, Ohio; A. R. Taylor, Decatur, Ill.; Charles T. Thompson, Minneapolis, Minn.; E. M. Treat, St. Louis, Mo.; A. E. Turner, Waxahachie, Texas; F. A. Wallis, New York City, N. Y.

The members present having requested Hon. Hugh H. Hanna to act as temporary Chairman, he arranged a meeting to be held at Chicago on December 14, 1906. On the very eve of this meeting, for which he had made careful preparation, Mr. Hanna was disabled by illness which not only prevented his attendance, but interfered seriously, and at a later date completely, with the personal service which he was so eager and so peculiarly fitted to render to the Brotherhood.

The meeting of December 14 was attended by fourteen members of the Council, ill health and other unavoidable causes detaining four members who had expected to be present, some of whom contributed valuable suggestions.

After thorough deliberation and study of all the suggestions presented to it, the Council unanimously adopted a Constitution, of which a copy is appended to this Report; and after receiving the approval of the members of the Council who were not present at the meeting, this Constitution was published in the Church papers and otherwise circulated widely throughout the Church. In accordance with its provisions, the following officers were elected: President, Hugh H. Hanna; Vice-President, Charles S. Holt; Secretary, William R. Farrand; Treasurer, Charles T. Thompson. The President afterward appointed Standing Committees—on Work of the Brotherhood, on Conventions, and on Finance; and the respective Chairmen of these Committees, President C. W. Dabney, James D. Husted and Fred A. Wallis, thereby became members of the Executive Committee.

The Convention by resolution expressed the conviction "that for the earlier period of the movement no salaries should be paid, at least for the first year, except for such clerical work as may be necessary in a central office of correspondence and information." (Proceedings, p. 279.)

Realizing the value of volunteer service, the Council nevertheless felt that no one of its members was in a position to carry on the executive work of the Brotherhood in connection with their other occupations; yet desiring to carry out the spirit of the resolution, they found it possible through the generous courtesy of the Board of Home Missions to secure the services of Mr. Von Ogden Vogt for not exceeding half of his time, until the next Brotherhood Convention, in the capacity of Corresponding Secretary. Mr. Vogt entered upon his duties about February 1, and has performed them with his accustomed and expected vigor and intelligent helpfulness.

The President, notwithstanding his continued illness, gave much thought and prayer to the work of the Brotherhood, and was able to participate in a meeting of the Executive Committee at his home on January 31, and to attend to some important matters during the month of February. But it became evident to his physicians that complete relief from responsibility was necessary for his recovery, and on March 1, to the deep regret of all concerned, he was compelled to surrender the affairs of the Brotherhood into other hands. It is the earnest hope of the Council that he may soon be completely restored to health and able to resume the labors in which his heart was so deeply enlisted. An emergency meeting of members of the Executive Committee with the Corresponding Secretary was immediately arranged for March 6 in Chicago, the Chairman of the Assembly's Committee very kindly attending, and giving most valuable suggestion and coöperation.

A well attended meeting of the Committee on Work of the Brotherhood was held in Philadelphia on March 12. The Committee on Conventions has been vigorously at work through correspondence. A special meeting of this Committee and a meeting of the entire Council are planned to be held at Columbus during the sessions of the General Assembly. The Committee on Finance has not been called upon to act thus far, for reasons mentioned elsewhere.

The Constitution explains itself and perhaps calls for no special comment. While the plan of organization suggested by the Assembly of 1906 was understood by the Council to be (as indeed it declared itself to be) "provisional," and therefore not final or obligatory, yet the Constitution as adopted is believed to conform in all respects to the spirit of the provisional plan.

It was the clear conviction of the Council that the Brotherhood ought not to be a new and formal organization, either duplicating or superseding those already in existence; but rather an elastic agency to stimulate and guide all forms of organization of men for definite Christian service. It is believed that its most important function will be that of a centre of enthusiasm and a clearing-house of practical experience and suggestion. The unit of membership in the National Brotherhood is the local organization, and it is the desire of the Council to work to the largest possible extent through pastors and Sessions, and through Presbyterial and Synodical Committees. It was voted by the Council that the Chairmen of Synodical Committees on the Brotherhood be members of the Advisory Committee of the Brotherhood for their respective States of residence, and that they recommend additional members for the Advisory Committee from other States, if any, embraced within their Synods.

Loyalty to our Church is secured by the provision in Article I of the Constitution that the Brotherhood shall at all times be subject to the control of the Assembly, and by the requirement in Article III of original and continued Sessional approval as a condition of the membership of any local organization in the Brotherhood. It was the judgment of the Council that the "denominational fealty" alluded to in the provisional plan would be as well secured in this way as by emphasizing it in terms in the statement of objects, and that the latter method might tend to narrow the appeal of the local organization to many men who would be more easily drawn into an organization for Christian service as such, than into one which in the first instance committed them to denominational activity.

The Constitution provides for the admission of organizations belonging to any body in America holding the Reformed faith. It seemed proper to leave the door thus open to those outside our own Church who might be disposed now or hereafter to join our fellowship, though it would probably be unwise to use any special effort in that direction. This provision, of course, does not authorize any organization belonging to our churches or to the Brotherhood to put itself under the control of any outside authority, and from that side the objection of interdenominationalism, whether valid or invalid, has no application to the case.

The record of things actually accomplished is short. Aside from the special circumstances which have been indicated, the nature of the case did not permit much work except of a preparatory kind. Attention has been especially given to the study of the situation and the methods of dealing with it. The Committee on Work of the Brotherhood reached results at its meeting in March which will doubtless bear fruit hereafter. The Corresponding Secretary, since taking up his work at the end of January, has gathered a large amount of valuable material which will be put to service as opportunity may offer. Some of the methods that have been employed to reach the Church may be mentioned as follows:

The publication of the Constitution, as mentioned above, with some words of explanation, and with announcement of Mr. Vogt's appointment as Corresponding Secretary.

A personal letter signed by the President, accompanied by a leaflet containing the Constitution and an appeal for coöperation, also an enrollment blank; this was sent about the middle of February to every pastor in our Church.

Much personal correspondence in answer to inquiries, and in March an ssue of leaflets in several forms with suggested Constitutions, hints about purposes and methods of organization, etc.

A second call to pastors by distribution of report blanks through the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries about March 20, the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly coöperating by letters to Presbyterial Stated Clerks.

In April, personal letters to all societies which reported to the Assembly's Committee last year, but have not been heard from this year.

A series of circulars of news notes sent to the Presbyterian papers.

It is plain that if the Brotherhood is to fulfill its most important function, this work of publicity must be widely extended and must receive, even more than heretofore, the support of pastors and local organizations. Nothing can be more helpful to the general work than detailed reports of methods that have been tried and proved successful. Every item of such information will enable the Council better to advise and assist other organizations in meeting their particular problems.

The statistical portion of the report is meagre and incomplete, partly for reasons already indicated, and also because of special difficulty in securing full reports from so large a field in the short time and with the limited means at command. The enrollment under all the circumstances is gratifying, and no doubt will rapidly increase with the spread of more perfect information as to the policy of the movement, and especially of clear understanding that the national organization is merely federative, and that affiliation with it does not involve any change in the name, features or methods of local societies. There has also been hesitation on the part of some societies (chiefly those which are primarily social in their nature) as to their eligibility. These difficulties are being gradually met, and it is believed that they can be very largely removed with the coöperation of pastors and of Presbyterial Committees.

The total number of societies enrolled is 337. Men's societies known to be in existence but not applying for enrollment, 209. Reports from churches having no men's society, 160. Inquiries from churches, 80. Presbyteries reporting a Committee on the Brotherhood, 98.

The enrolled societies show great variety in membership and in character of their work. The smallest has 5 members; 9 societies have 10 members or less; 165 have less than 50; 27 have more than 100; the largest has 550; 91 have Bible classes, most of them meeting weekly. Many have mission study classes. Nearly all include among their objects the promotion of sociability and Christian fellowship and assistance to the pastor.

It will be observed that the policy of the Brotherhood, which makes it a centre of information as to plans actually undertaken, rather than an agency for the active promotion of some particular form of society, makes its beginning slower, but it is believed more permanent and valuable.

Conference and correspondence disclose not only great variety in the lines of work actually undertaken, but great uncertainty as to what is practicable and advisable for new organizations. It is one of the advantages of the elastic policy adopted by the Council that it encourages every form of organization which may seem justified by local conditions. The Committee on Work of the Brotherhood strongly recommends the organized men's Bible class as furnishing in a great majority of cases the best starting point, and a foundation on which other forms of activity can be built. Emphasis is also laid on the development of the prayer services of the Church, and on personal evangelistic work.

The Council has not yet reached a decision as to the wisest plan for the finances of the Brotherhood. The amount of probable expenditure and the possible sources of revenue will doubtless be more apparent by the time of the next Convention. In the meantime all expenses have been easily met by voluntary contributions, supplementing a balance of about $1,100 turned over to the Council by the Treasurer of the Assembly's Committee.

While no formal action on the subject has been taken, it seems to be the unanimous opinion of the members of the Council that after the present year Conventions be held not oftener than once in two years. The decision is left by the Constitution in the hands of each Convention as it occurs.

The Council, through its Executive Committee, after considering many suggestions, has adopted as the Brotherhood emblem a small button bearing a white cross, diagonal in form, on a plain blue ground, being one at least of the historical forms of the cross of St. Andrew, the patron saint of Scotland. This decision was reached with the cordial approval of the authorities of the Men's Brotherhood of the Southern Presbyterian Church, and its adoption by that organization will establish it as an emblem common to the two armies of men enlisted in the Master's service.

A vacancy in the membership of the Council has been caused by the resignation of Mr. Franklin W. Ganse, on account of his transfer of membership, since the Convention, to a Congregational Church. This, with one or two other possible vacancies, will be filled by the Council at the earliest opportunity.

The experience of the few months since the Convention has deepened the conviction that the men of the Church, to an extent that has not hitherto been realized, are ready and eager to make their relations with Christ and His Church count for something, and to engage in some of the many forms of definite Christian service. Along with this has come an increased realization that this enthusiasm will accomplish little, and will soon evaporate, unless it can be directed into lines of activity that shall be seen to be really worth while. If the National Brotherhood, under the Divine leadership, may be used to stimulate, conserve and guide this desire of men for usefulness in the Church, it will abundantly justify all the thought, prayer and effort that can be expended upon it.

It is the hope of the Council that the General Assembly may see fit to approve the Constitution as it stands. Should amendments be deemed necessary the directions of the Assembly will, of course, be loyally carried out by the Council and by the next Convention.

Any action which the Assembly may see fit to take commending the work of the Brotherhood to the churches, and especially to pastors, Presbyteries and Synods, will be welcomed by the Council and will strengthen its hands for the further prosecution of its work.

In behalf of the Executive Committee,

CHARLES S. HOLT, Vice-President.

The Committee in transmitting this report desires to express its gratitude to everyone who has aided in the work of the past year, and in securing for our denominational Brotherhood such an auspicious beginning.

It must be evident to the Assembly that this movement has been guided by God, and under His guidance will be productive of incalculable blessings to our Church in the future.'

All of which is respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX.

Constitution of the Presbyterian Brotherhood.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this organization shall be The Presbyterian Brotherhood of America. It shall be under the control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as provided for in the Form of Government of said Church.

ARTICLE II.

The object of the organization shall be to promote, assist and federate all forms of organized Christian activity of men in the Churches, which have for their purpose the winning of men to Christ and the Church, the promotion of spiritual development and the training in usefulness of men connected with the congregations through prayer, Bible study and Christian service, the strengthening of fellowship, and the extension of Christ's kingdom at home and abroad.

ARTICLE III.

(a) Any organization of men, connected with a Church in America holding the Reformed Faith, may become a member of the Brotherhood by making written application for membership, accompanied by a certificate from the Session of the Church with which it is connected that its purposes are in harmony with Article II. The membership of any organization shall be terminated at any time by written notice thereof to the Council, or by vote of the Session withdrawing its approval, or, for good cause shown, by a vote of the Council after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing. Organizations composed of members from more than one Church, or consisting of a group of other organizations, may be admitted to membership by special vote of the Council, and upon a basis to be determined by it.

(b) The basis of representation at Conventions of the Brotherhood shall be one delegate for each organization which is a member of the Brotherhood, irrespective of the number of its individual members; and any organization having more than one hundred active members shall be entitled to one additional delegate for each one hundred members, or fraction thereof (not less than twenty-five) in excess of the first one hundred.

(c) The individual members of all organizations which are members of the Brotherhood shall be entitled to wear the Brotherhood emblem.

ARTICLE IV.

(a) The Government of the Brotherhood shall be vested in a Council of twenty-one members, who shall be members of some organization belonging to the Brotherhood, of whom ten shall constitute a quorum. The Council chosen by the Convention of 1906 shall divide its members into three classes of seven each, to hold office respectively one, two and three years, and each Convention shall elect seven members for a term of three years. Vacancies occurring between Conventions may be filled by the Council until the next Convention. If the Conventions shall be held at longer intervals than one year, the terms of office of the Council shall be correspondingly lengthened. The officers of the Council shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. These officers shall be elected by ballot at the first meeting of the Council after each Convention. There shall also be an Executive Committee consisting of the officers and Chairmen of Standing Committees. A majority of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Executive Committee shall have such powers and perform such duties as shall be delegated to it by the Council. The Council shall meet at the call of the President at least twice a year.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Council in every suitable way to promote the objects of the Brotherhood as stated in Article II; to aid and encourage the holding of local Presbyterial and Synodical Conventions; to appoint fraternal delegates to bodies of similar scope and aim; and to secure by voluntary subscription the funds necessary to carry on the work of the Brotherhood.

ARTICLE V.

A Convention shall be held annually at a time and place designated by the Council, unless otherwise ordered by the last preceding Convention. The Council shall have charge of the arrangements for such Convention, the selection of speakers and topics for discussion, subject to any instructions given by the last previous Convention, and subject to the control of the Convention itself when organized.

ARTICLE VI.

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of any Convention, provided such proposed amendment shall have been submitted to the Secretary of the Council in writing not less than thirty days before the meeting of the Convention.

The Moderator was authorized to send a message of greeting to the World's Sunday School Convention, which meets to-day in Rome, Italy.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 18, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interests of Evangelistic Work, and addresses were delivered by Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Rev. J. P. Calhoun, D.D., J. Beveridge Lee, D.D., and Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D.

MONDAY, May 20, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

A paper received from Rev. T. H. Padgett and others was referred to the Moderator and Rev. Ira Landrith, D.D.

Part of the Report on Church Coöperation and Union adopted last Friday, to wit: "Section VI (a)," was reconsidered, and the following Resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The various Boards of the reunited Church have been and are working in harmony with a view to carrying out, as soon as may be directed by the General Assembly, such dissolution or consolidation as may prove necessary to carry out the purpose of the concurrent resolutions of the Plan of Reunion and the resolutions of the two General Assemblies of 1906 (see Minutes, 1906, p. 146); and

Whereas, The property rights of the reunited Church are safeguarded in the meanwhile by such concurrent resolutions;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That Section VI (a) of the Report of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union be referred back to that Committee, to report to the next General Assembly.

Provided, That the approval by this Assembly of any agreements made during the year between any of the Boards, be not deemed a waiver of the right reserved to the General Assembly to direct the continuance or dissolution of any particular Board.

The Moderator reported the following telegram to the World's Sunday School Convention:

William H. Roberts, Moderator.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, referring papers, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures submits the following Report on reference of papers:

1. We recommend that Overtures Nos. 102 to 105, with reference to Church Temperance Federation, be referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance, with the request that said Committee's Report thereon be made the special order immediately following the Assembly's disposition of the Report of the Committee on Publication. It is important that, after ample time has been given by the Temperance Committee for a full hearing of the persons concerned, the General Assembly shall give earlier attention to the Report thereon than it would be able to do, should this subject be required to await the standing order for the Report of the Committee on Friday, at 3 P.M. Hence this request.

2. We recommend that Overture No. 111, on the duties of members to support their Church, be referred to the Standing Committee on Benevolence.

In behalf of the Committee,

Ira Landrith, Chairman.

The Report of the Board of Missions and Church Erection located at St. Louis, Mo., was presented by Mr. T. H. Perrin, President of the Board, who also introduced to the Assembly other members of the Board. The Report was received and the following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Home Missions assume and carry out the contract with Mrs. Louisa Krusch.

Resolved, 2. That the Missionary Record be continued as a separate publication for at least one year, during which time the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions and Church Erection shall be jointly responsible for its management, publication and support, and shall share its space in such proportion as may be mutually agreed upon by them.

Resolved, 3. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office now expire, be elected to succeed themselves in office as corporate members until 1910: T. H. Perrin, Isaac H. Orr and J. C. Cobb.

Resolved, 4. That the Home and Foreign Mission departments of the Board be relieved from their apparent indebtedness to the Church Erection department.

The Report as thus amended was then approved.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through its Chairman, Rev. James M. Wilson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

In the preparation of the Report on the Work among the Colored People of the South, the purpose of your Committee has been not only to review the records of the Board, but also to present such facts and suggestions as shall be an argument and an appeal to the Church for larger gifts and more aggressive campaigns in this department of missionary activity.

1. The Board itself and its administrative agencies are worthy the confidence of the Assembly and the Church. These brethren have been the faithful agents of this great trust. The cost of administration has been about eight per cent. of the receipts. The records which have been reviewed by the Committee have been properly kept. They have submitted to the Assembly a most excellent report of their stewardship.

The Secretaries have been diligent in their oversight of the field, and in their attempts to arouse the Church to more determined action. The Field Secretary has addressed the Synods of Nebraska, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri and Tennessee, and the Presbyteries of Clarion, Cedar Rapids, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington and New Castle, besides many popular meetings and churches, East and West. He has spent part of his time in soliciting funds for the Library endowment of Biddle University.

The Board has faithfully given itself to solve the questions of administration which have arisen naturally out of reunion.

The Woman's department has added another year of tireless devotion to this sacred cause, and a year of large results. Its report is appended to the report of the Board.

2. The policy of the Church in this department is and has been evangelization fitting for a dual citizenship—primarily citizenship in the kingdom of heaven, and also citizenship in the United States of America. This policy has been carried out on such conservative lines as would merit the approval of all right-minded men both North and South. The working force in the field includes 121 ministers who preach only, 84 ministers who preach and teach, 13 ministers who teach only, 24 laymen and 213 women who teach. The Church and the school are equal factors in upbuilding the Christian character of the negro. There are 371 churches and missions and 115 schools. The standard in both is the standard which has been raised in the white pulpits and schools of our denomination throughout the land. In the education of colored youth, much attention is given to industrial training as auxiliary to better homes and more efficient citizenship. The girls in many of the schools are taught domestic science, and a hospital is being built. The boys are instructed in the trades and agriculture. While industrial training is held in its proper place of subordination, it is believed by your Committee that larger gifts on the part of the Church for this purpose, and larger provision in our schools on the part of the Board, would not only assist most materially in carrying out the true purpose of evangelization among our negro brethren, but would appeal most strongly to our Christian and philanthropic givers. It is believed also if such salaries could be provided as would enable our ministers entirely to give up teaching in the secular schools and other employments, and devote themselves to preaching and pastoral visitation, we would see more marked advance in conversions of sinners and the edification of believers. Our ministers and teachers have done nobly, and have won the praise of the Church and of the men and women of the South. No more faithful workers are found on any mission fields of the Presbyterian Church.

3. The necessity for the work of our Board increases with the increase of the negro population, and the continuance of the great problems of Afro-American evangelization. The negro population is now ten millions and is doubling every forty years. The great mass is still in ignorance and characterized by a low state of morals and shiftless methods. The Atlanta riots show that the race question is alive in its intensity. It is also apparent that the negro is awakening to the consciousness of his strength, and hence needs more than ever trained Christian leaders. It is recognized by competent investigators that the Presbyterian Church is doing the best work to fit the negro for common citizenship, and to be the educator and guide of his fellows. In no spirit of boastfulness, it may be said that Presbyterian doctrine and education are the bulwarks of American freedom both among blacks and whites.

4. The results of the past year, and of the work of the Board since its inauguration, are irresistible arguments for increased support. These results are set forth in the report of the Board. The dormitory of Ingleside Seminary at Burkeville, Va., which was destroyed by fire, May 23, 1906, is now in process of reërection. A house for the President of Harbison College, Abbeville, S. C., costing $2,500, the gift of Mrs. S. P. Harbison, has been erected. A frame dormitory for girls at Oxford, N. C., called Wells Hall, in honor of Miss Helen A. Wells, so long the Secretary of the Women's Synodical Societies of New York and the Albany Presbyterial Society, was built by the Women's Societies of the Synod of New York at an outlay of $10,000. A brick dormitory for girls has been completed at Cotton Plant, Ark., also at a cost of $10,000, the funds being furnished by the Women's Western Synodical Societies. This hall is named Niccolls Hall as a memorial to Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., pastor of the Second Church of St. Louis. The First and Second Churches of St. Louis contributed $1,000 towards its construction. The Woman's Department also raised $3,500 for a new school building which is in process of erection at Newnan, Ga., in connection with the McClelland Academy at that place. The Field Secretary has partially secured the $12,500 needed for endowing the library at Biddle University. When this amount is realized Mr. Carnegie proposes to put up a $12,500 library building.

Last year 1,475 persons were added on examination to the churches under the care of the Board, and 198 by certificate. The whole number of communicants is now 22,804. The Sunday Schools number 355, and have an attendance of 20,273 scholars. The day-schools number 115, with 334 teachers and 13,345 pupils. Six of these schools are boarding schools. One of these is Biddle University for young men, and five are for girls only. Eleven are co-educational, and ninety-eight are academies and parochial schools. These are scattered over the Southern States from North Carolina to Arkansas.

It must be remembered that other denominations are likewise pushing the work of evangelization and education in the South, and that institutions such as Hampton and Tuskegee, of no denominational affiliation, are at work. Also that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church had done much in the same direction. It is believed, however, that the work of our own Church is the equal of the best and superior to most, and that it, therefore, calls for the unhesitating and enlarged contributions of our people. It is believed also that preference should be given in our own Presbyterian negro pulpits to these schools, and that in labors and in gifts the schools of our own denomination should receive first attention. The profoundest loyalty to Presbyterianism means the profoundest loyalty to the negro, the Church and the State.

5. The financial gifts are praiseworthy, but inadequate to meet the obligations of the work. The Board holds permanent funds as follows: Permanent investments, $112,700; school property, $664,400; church and manse property, $73,640; notes and mortgages, $6,775.93; school property held by Trustees, $9,500; church and manse property held by Trustees, $303,000; grand total, $1,170,015.93.

The receipts during the year were:

Churches	$65,564 92
Young People's Societies	481 51
Sunday-schools	4,135 72
Woman's Board	73,025 30
Legacies	23,160 21
Miscellaneous	22,613 66
Total	$188,981 36

The last four years show about the same totals, except last year, when the amount rose to $201,633.50.

The contributions from the field to the school work were $57,171.64, and for church work $48,241.20, making a total of $105,412.84. The gifts of these same churches were, to the Freedmen's Board, $760.59, and to the other Boards of the Church, $1,722.34. This summed up makes $107,895.77 raised by the colored churches and schools under the care of the Board. This is a very encouraging showing in self-support. It is also an encouraging fact that the Woman's Department increased its gifts by over $2,000. The figures, however, indicate a long distance from the $300,000 asked by the last Assembly, and from the great and growing needs of the field.

A careful examination of the reports of the Synods reveals the fact that Pennsylvania leads all the others in its gifts, and is followed in order by New York, New Jersey and Ohio. It is also apparent that many of our strong churches give very small amounts and that some contribute nothing.

Is it not a fact that the question of Afro-American evangelization is largely a question of money? Is there not here an opportunity for our laymen and particularly the Presbyterian Brotherhood?

6. The reunion of the Church presents new problems, and calls for a new advance in the work of the Board. The Cumberland brethren have added about 1,000 ministers and 100,000 members to our working force. They bring to us a personal knowledge of conditions in the South, and can in a most minute and living way represent us in the practical work of evangelizing the negro. We trust the reunion is but the dawning of the day when all Presbyterians in the United States shall set themselves unitedly and anew to solve the problems of white and black in our fair land. The united Church appeals to our new brethren of the Southland to help us carry the burden which God in His providence has laid on our hearts and consciences.

We quote in conclusion the Report of the Board: "To direct the growth and development of this people along the lines of honesty, purity, industry, sobriety and an intelligent apprehension of their just obligations to both God and man; to instil into them that conception of human life and responsibility, based on the teaching of our Saviour, that the first and great commandment is to love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength and with all our mind, and that the second is like unto it, namely, that we should love our neighbor as ourselves—this surely must be no slight contribution toward the solution of what in some quarters is proclaimed to be the greatest problem this country has ever been called to solve."

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. That the Assembly acknowledges and commends the fidelity of the Board, the Secretaries, and the laborers on the field, and the untiring devotion of the Woman's Board.

2. That the Minutes of the Board for Freedmen be approved.

3. That the recommendation of the Board in regard to the contribution, the appropriation and distribution of funds for the educational and missionary work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, be adopted. This recommendation is recorded in full in the report of the Board.

4. That the Assembly, in answer to the request of the Boards of Home Missions and Freedmen to decide whether the colored Presbytery formed during the past year in Oklahoma shall belong to the Home Board or the Freedmen's Board, hereby places said Presbytery under the care of the Board of Freedmen.

5. That the reunited Church be urged to contribute this year for this Board the minimum of $300,000, the amount which has been set as a standard for years past but not yet realized, and that an immediate campaign be begun in all our Synods and Presbyteries to secure this amount.

6. That the Assembly records its grateful appreciation of the services of two of its faithful missionaries who have been called home during the year, both of Biddle University, Rev. W. M. Hargrave, D.D., Professor of Christian Evidences and Pastoral Theology, and Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., the President. Of Dr. Sanders the Board says: "We have sustained no greater loss in the death of any one man since the work began. He was known throughout the entire Church, and respected by all for his sterling qualities."

7. That the comprehensive and excellent report of the Board be commended to the careful study of all our pastors and Sessions, as the basis for an aggressive campaign in the interests of the Afro-American Missions.

8. That the present year be made one of special prayer by our reunited Presbyterian Church, that God will lead us on to larger things for the New South, and that He will guide white and black alike in this great crisis of our history.

9. That the following members of the Board, whose term expires with this meeting of the Assembly, be reëlected, viz.: Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Rev. Dr. David R. Breed, D.D., Mr. George B. Logan, and James C. Gray, Esq.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. M. Wilson, Chairman.

The Rev. R. L. Hyde and Prof. John J. Jenkins, fraternal Delegates from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, in session at Providence, Ky., were introduced, and Prof. Jenkins addressed the Assembly.

The Special Committee on Administrative Agencies, through its Chairman, Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration the Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 20, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on the College Board, through its Chairman, Rev. Murdock McLeod, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. J. Stuart Dickson, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee respectfully submits the following report:

A careful review of the Twenty-fourth Annual Report of The College Board reveals a year of faithful service and gratifying results. Almost without exception the colleges of our Church have enjoyed a year of marked development. New buildings have been erected, large sums collected for endowment and the student body increased. Several of our colleges are now strenuously engaged in efforts for large endowments with splendid prospects of success, which, if realized within the next year, will in many places put the cause of Christian Education on a sure and solid basis. The further fact is revealed, that the purpose for which the Board is established, the unifying and strengthening of our Christian educational institutions, is approaching more nearly its realization.

Prejudice against the small college is disappearing, so that the problem now is not that of convincing the churches that the Christian college is a necessity, but that of securing from the churches a more liberal and tangible support.

The fact that has been stated frequently, and needs to be emphasized again and again, that by far the greatest percentage of our men and women equipped for the special service of the Church as pastors and teachers and missionaries are the product of the Christian college, makes it imperative upon the Church to increase her support of these institutions as she increases her demands upon them. The material and inspirational help which the Board has furnished the past year, and during all the past years, merits not our criticism, but our highest commendation. It should be kept in mind that the evangelizing results of the Christian college are not measured alone by the number of candidates for the gospel ministry, but even more, we should say, by the number and strength and Christian character of the men and women who go into all walks and callings and all lines of lifework with their leavening influence for good. Efficient laymen as well as ministers must be available to make the Church a force for good in the community. All over our country, in professional and business life, in the shop and on the farm, in the church and in the home and the school, are those men and women, the product of our Christian colleges, conspicuous in the community for their consecrated leadership and progressive Christian activity. The great moving forces of our Church are clearly to come from the ranks of those who, while developing in intellectual power, have also come into daily contact with the Great Teacher and have learned His will and His methods under the guidance of Christian teachers. The College Board has stood for Bible Study, Evangelism and devoted Christianity, against a curriculum of materialism which leaves God out of the account and, though it may prepare a man to make a living, does not teach him how to live.

At the College Conference held on Wednesday immediately preceding this Assembly fifty men were present—Presidents of colleges, members of faculties and trustees—representing forty colleges. Dr. Dickson, Secretary of the Board, was also present and contributed invaluable service to the spirit and efficiency of the Conference. It was characterized by enthusiasm, fearless discussion of the problems of religious education, and unanimity as to the primary object of our Church schools.

Four things were very apparent:

1. That the colleges need this Annual Conference for mutual fellowship, understanding of each other's work and coöperation in making the Presbyterian Church efficient in its educational activities.

2. That Biblical instruction needs to be made more and more characteristic of our Church schools, and should be more systematically and efficiently carried out.

3. The Church schools must be made more a distinct and effective evangelistic agency, aiming at nothing short of the conversion of the unbelieving and edification of the students as a Christian community; and

4. That The College Board is becoming an invaluable clearing house of educational ideals and methods, as well as an agency of unification and coöperation in the work of gathering funds for the endowment, equipment and maintenance of our several institutions.

The whole aim and effort of the Board is to preserve and emphasize the distinctive and distinguishing features of our Christian colleges, that which gives them character and mission and meaning—an institution and a curriculum which, while doing full justice to the arts and sciences, make the fear of God the beginning of wisdom and Jesus Christ the sum total of all human endeavors.

The distinctive note of our Church to-day is that of Evangelism, whether that word is used in its broader or narrower sense. It is manifesting itself in the new spirit of unity and coöperation which is federating and cementing all hearts that beat in a unison of desire for the salvation of men. It is evident in the new enlistment of the men of our Church for definite spiritual work; in the new and forward movement for world-wide missionary enterprise, and we are profoundly grateful for all these new and promising endeavors; but back of them all, back of our federations and committees, back of our agencies and institutions and all our schemes for greater work at home and abroad, stands the Christian college, related to them all as the spring is related to the stream; not only supplying our churches with pastors and evangelists and missionaries, but sending out into the world as their legitimate product, into all walks of life, men and women not only with trained intellects, but with regulated wills and purified hearts, who will go to take their place in the world's activities, whether as artist or artisan, there to become centres of saving influence and preachers of the gospel of Jesus Christ through the testimony of a consecrated personality. For, after all, the greatest evangelizing force, the greatest factor in the world's redemption, is the life redeemed, educated and dedicated to the service and glory of God. It is in view of these things, the relative importance of this work as an evangelizing agency, that we urge that our Church, which recommends $10.00 per member for Home Missions and $5.00 per member for Foreign Missions—and neither is too much—should give more than fifty cents per member for educational work; for it is far too little. And we urge that in the minds and hearts of our people, and in the thoughts and plans of this Assembly, this work be given the attention and support due its vast importance.

From churches and individuals, including legacies, $100,000.00 have come into the Treasury of The College Board during the past year; through coöperating institutions the sum realized for Christian education under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church has been nearly $1,400,000.00; the grand total being $1,495,992.53. For current work in the fifty-three colleges there should be an increase of not less than $50,000.00. There are needed in these institutions buildings that will cost $300,000.00, and the least endowment necessary for immediate necessities, is $7,000,000.00.

In securing one-fifth of this sum the past year, our Church has demonstrated its ability to do large things; but it has only made a hopeful beginning; for, at this rate, we would have to go five years to catch up to our present necessities. Considering the liberal conditional gifts that are now offered and others that might be obtained, shall we not this next year make a strenuous effort to add $3,500,000.00 to our present endowments, and thus make an encouraging approach toward a realization of the sum needed for the adequate support of the work now pressing upon these colleges. The vast country to the South and Southwest and Northwest is developing with marvelous rapidity, and the demands for Christian education will increase with the increasing population, and we must go in and possess the land. The work of The College Board and the local forces at the head of the colleges during the past year shows what can be done, and suggests that the Presbyterian churches need not hesitate to undertake whatever responsibility the times demand in behalf of Christian education.

The Board makes a plain showing of the funds passing through its Treasury and those sent directly to its coöperating institutions; but to compare these funds with the expense of the Board would manifestly be unfair, as in many of the Synods and Presbyteries The College Board offerings go, by permission of the Board, directly to the institutions. To interest our churches in our colleges and educate them to give for Christian education, the Board has spent perhaps $100,000.00 in the last twenty-five years and continues to spend large sums for this purpose. It is furthermore the testimony, written and spoken, of many college Presidents, that a part of their receipts, running up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, is unquestionably due to the work of the Board, through visits of the Secretary to their regions, through his private conferences and public addresses in the communities, and through his personal official coöperation in opening the way or following up their appeals to individual givers in the East and to organizations disbursing funds to colleges. In justice to the Board, it might be well if hereafter, in making up its Annual Report, it make plain statement of all amounts the securing of which the Presidents of our colleges unquestionably credit to the coöperation of the Board.

We submit the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly approve the policy of the Board, which is expressed in the word coöperation, which means coöperation with the colleges and coöperation with the giver. Refusing to dictate to the donor as to the placing of the gift, yet at the same time the Assembly would advise that those within our Church who contemplate giving to the aid of college work consult with the Board, that they may avail themselves of the superior knowledge and judgment of the Board, and that those who contemplate the establishment of new institutions or a change of location of those already existing, make sure, by conference with the Board, that such action will not interfere with the work of similar institutions.

2. We recommend that pastors make plain to their people the primary purpose and fundamental importance of Christian education, and urge upon them the necessity of a generous financial support, at least to the extent of an annual offering.

3. That the Assembly instruct its College Board to call another Conference of the representatives of the colleges under Presbyterian control, and that such Conference be held on the Wednesday preceding the convening of the next General Assembly.

4. That the Minutes of the Board and reports of the Treasurer be approved.

5. That those whose term of office as members of the Board expires with this meeting be reëlected: Ministers—John F. Carson, D.D., Charles Wood, D.D.; Laymen—Elisha H. Perkins, James S. Hubbard, Edward O. Emerson, John P. Munn, M.D.

And we recommend in place of Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., deceased, the name of Rev. John Timothy Stone, and in place of Hon. M. Linn Bruce, whose judicial duties make it impossible for him to serve, the name of Frederick W. Garvin, and in place of Hon. James B. Dill, who also is unable to serve on account of judicial duties, we recommend the name of Hon. James A. Beaver.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

MURDOCK MCLEOD, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on Christian Work among Seamen and Soldiers, through Rev. John Bancroft Devins, D.D., presented its Report, which after addresses by Dr. Devins and Rev. C. A. Stoddard, D.D., was approved, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Assembly was addressed by Mr. George E. Sterry in the interest of the American Bible Society; also by Rev. J. F. Horton, Rev. Pedro Rioseco, and Rev. Dr. Hoskin, of Beirut. The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the American Bible Society is worthy of the confidence and pecuniary support of the churches under the care of the Assembly.

The unfinished business, the report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies, was taken up. The Report was adopted and the Overtures therein contained were ordered to be sent down to the Presbyteries. The Committee was continued to complete its work. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Administrative Agencies respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly that met in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1906, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. That Committee had before it an overture from the Presbytery of Cleveland, endorsed by one hundred and thirteen other Presbyteries and by the Synod of Ohio, which asked for the appointment of a Special Committee to take into consideration and to report upon the question of the consolidation of the Boards of the Church. It was in response to this widespread desire that the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended and the General Assembly created the present Committee. The appointment of the Committee did not signify a conviction that consolidation should be effected, but only that a careful and unprejudiced consideration should be given to the subject, so that all needful information should be brought before the Church, upon which an intelligent judgment might be founded. But as the Boards are only one class of the administrative agencies of our Church, and as other agencies might well be the subjects of study in view of any readjustments that might be undertaken, it seemed wise to the General Assembly to enlarge the scope of the Special Committee's investigations, and to authorize its considering and reporting upon possible improvements in any part of the administrative machinery of the Church. Hence the Committee was instructed to consider and report upon two matters:

"1. To consider the reorganization of the benevolent agencies of our Church, with a view to the greatest possible efficiency in collecting the benevolent contributions of churches and individuals, disseminating information, and superintending the various forms of work at present carried on by our Boards and Committees.

"2. To consider additional improvements in the administrative agencies of the Church, or which may be called for by the growth that may reasonably be anticipated in the near future, and particularly any changes that may serve to give increased permanency and efficiency to executive oversight and direction" (Minutes of 1906, pp. 82, 83).

Accordingly the General Assembly appointed a Committee styled The Special Committee on Administrative Agencies, composed of the following ministers and ruling elders: Ministers—James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D., William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., W. R. Richards, D.D., W. L. McEwan, D.D., George B. Safford, Ph.D., Robert Hunter, D.D., George S. Chambers, D.D., George B. Stewart, D.D., and J. M. Hubbert, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. William M. Lanning, Reuben F. Smith, Hon. John M. Gaut, Henry W. Jessup, John L. Severance, Rush Taggart, Hon. William P. Potter, President Charles W. Dabney, Hon. William B. Martin, Robert Wardrop and James E. Defebaugh.

Three meetings of the Committee were held, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions, and one meeting extended over two days. Sub-committees were also appointed to carry on investigations at other times and to report to the regular meetings. All meetings were well attended. Only two members failed to attend any meeting.

I. The Consolidation of the Boards.—Much the greater portion of time and attention was given to this part of our task. The Committee felt that no conclusion should be formed until after we had before us the fullest information obtainable concerning the work of all the Boards, and had considered all reasonable suggestions as to new combinations. To this end we called upon all the Boards for an expression of their views on the general subject of consolidation, and also on specific proposals of union affecting two or more Boards closely associated in their work. We had secretaries and representatives of Boards before us that we might interrogate them freely, and by our Sub-committees we interviewed the Secretaries in their offices and obtained from them their personal views, even in cases where they felt they were not at liberty to speak for any others, nor for publication. We listened to suggestions from workers in the field who hold no official positions, but could give us the benefit of much practical experience. With all this information before your Committee we freely and fully discussed various proposals, giving every member the opportunity to express his own views.

But, with all our diligence, our only conclusion at this time is that we are not yet prepared to make suggestions to the Assembly on this subject, except the one that the Committee be allowed more time in which to formulate some proposal and present it to the next Assembly. We have felt that it would be unwise to make any beginning of consolidation, as, for example, proposing a union of any two Boards closely associated in all their work, because it might embarrass us when we endeavor to form other unions. We believe a general scheme of readjustment should first be perfected, if any such scheme is possible, before any part of it is put into operation. Moreover, the process of combining the Boards and Committees of the two Churches so recently united not having been completed, it might produce complications to propose readjustments before that work is finished and reported to the Church. It seems probable to your Committee that some of our agencies may be so readjusted to others as to reduce competition to a minimum, promote harmony of action and simplify the appeals made to the churches. But changes that appear simple and easily effected when first proposed, sometimes prove to be far-reaching in their results, involving other changes unthought of; and it is wise for us to move slowly and to foresee the results as far as possible. We believe no interest of our Church will suffer from a year's delay of action.

II. The Improvement of Executive Oversight and Direction.—The second subject referred to the Committee was possible improvements in the administrative agencies of the Church, as these may be suggested by past experience and as they may be called for by the growth that may reasonably be anticipated in the near future, and particularly any changes that may serve to give increased permanency and efficiency to executive oversight and direction.

These instructions relate solely to the executive or administrative department of government, and have nothing to do with the legislative or judicial departments; and the Committee, assuming that the will of the Church as expressed in its legislation, and the discipline of the Church as expressed in its judicial proceedings, are all that they should be, has confined its attention to the question, How may the work of our Church be carried on more efficiently?

Looking at the organization of the Presbyterian Church in a general way, it seems to the Committee that we Presbyterians have given less attention to the development and perfection of the executive department of our government than to the legislative and judicial. While we trace a close analogy between the Presbyterian form of government and that form of representative political government that has grown in our States and nation, we overlook the marked differences that exist between the executive departments in the two cases. It cannot, indeed, be said that Presbyterianism has no executive officers. Our Boards and Committees are executive; our Stated Clerks are charged with administrative functions, and every pastor is the chief executive of the church or churches that he serves. When there is a special work to be done, a person or a committee may be appointed by Presbytery, Synod or Assembly to do that work, or see that it is done. But there is a lack of regularity and permanency in many of these forms of administration. The Boards are not provided for in our Form of Government, but have been born of sheer necessity. Stated Clerks have quite limited functions, and it does not seem best to enlarge their powers. Moderators hold office after the adjournment of the body that elected them, but they have no functions in the intervals between meetings, except the one of calling a special meeting when petitioned to do so. The highest honor within the gift of our judicatories is bestowed upon their Moderators, but they carefully refrain from assigning to them any executive or administrative work, except to put motions and decide points of order while the judicatory is in session and to preach a sermon at the opening of the next session. It has become customary for the Moderator of the General Assembly to travel about and make addresses as he may happen to receive invitations, but this work is purely voluntary on his part; and however much he may learn concerning the condition of the Church, he finds no opportunity to make any report to the Assembly, or to offer a suggestion, except as a commissioner. How different this phase of our organization is, when compared with the political government of our country and with the organizations of other Churches, will be quite apparent to any one who may make such comparisons. In every State there is a Governor with heads of departments to advise him, and in the nation a President with his Cabinet, and these officers are charged with the responsibility of looking after the interests of their respective provinces all the year around. In episcopally organized churches there is not a day in the year in which executive officers are not charged with the responsibility of oversight in the Church at large and in each subdivision of it, and they are ready to improve opportunities for advancing the interests of their Church as these opportunities arise. In our Church, on the other hand, it is only the individual church that is thus completely organized. The pastor and his session are on duty all the year around, but their range of oversight is too often limited to the bounds and interest of their own parish. While these officers are in Presbytery or Synod or Assembly they give earnest attention to the wider fields and more general interests and may and do legislate wisely; but when the meeting adjourns they go to their homes, and find enough to do to engage their energies in the more limited field. Who is charged with the responsibility of promoting the interests of the Presbytery, as the pastor is those of the individual church? Who is planning greater things for the Synod's domain, now as wide as that of a State? What has the Moderator of the General Assembly to think about for a whole year, except his opening sermon? The Special Committees that have been appointed by an Assembly have only limited topics to consider and confine their attention to them; and these have grown so numerous as to occasion criticism. Whether we have suffered from this defective organization, and to what extent, is a question for the study of Church historians; but it does not seem to us important to discuss it. How much greater the growth of our Church in this country might have been, if some provision had been made for permanent oversight above the individual church, can only be a matter of speculation; but it is worthy of note that John Knox, in the plan of government he first devised, provided for a Superintendent for each Presbytery, and that the United Free Church, in the very limited area of Scotland and in a population that knows little of changing conditions, has found it necessary to create an Executive Commission with limited powers, which holds meetings as often as needed between the sessions of the General Assembly.

It has therefore seemed to your Committee that our Church ought to provide for the creation of Executive Commissions in Presbyteries, Synods and the General Assembly. We do not think the creation of these Executive Commissions should be made obligatory, for conditions are far from being the same in all our Synods and Presbyteries. The differences between larger and smaller Presbyteries are very great, and the differences between our larger city Presbyteries and those composed mainly of country churches call for corresponding differences in organization. Nor do we think it is wise to force upon any of our judicatories changes of administration for which they do not see the necessity. The Committee, therefore, would not go further than to recommend that provision be made in our Form of Government for Executive Commissions, so that any judicatory may feel free to call a Commission into being as it may become convinced of its probable usefulness.

But we do recommend that a place be given to this agency in the formal law of the Church. It may, indeed, be thought that our judicatories already possess the right to do all that your Committee now proposes. Some of our larger Presbyteries have already moved in this direction. But giving the Commissions a place in the Constitution of the Church will not only remove all doubt about their constitutionality, but will also serve to commend the change as a probable improvement and lead to a fair trial of it.

In the composition of the Commissions we go no further than to provide that the Moderator shall in all cases be the Chairman of the Commission. It is left to the judicatory to determine what other members shall be added and their terms of service. It is our hope that where this plan may be adopted, the term of the Moderator may be extended in the case of Presbyteries to at least a year, and that the members of the Commission may be chosen in classes, so that there shall always be some members with experience and knowledge of the unfinished business.

The subject of powers and duties is a more difficult one. In most cases it may seem at first that there is not much business to refer to the Commission after the judicatory has provided as far as possible for the future; but it is believed that, after some trial, no complaint will come from the Commission that it has not enough work to do. Some of the Special Committees may be dispensed with and the Executive Commission employed instead. It is, perhaps, more important to remark that neither legislative nor judicial powers can be conferred on the Executive Commission, for these are already provided for. To avoid misunderstanding, it may be well to state in the amendments to our Form of Government that only executive or administrative powers are to be conferred on the Executive Commissions.

It has occurred to your Committee that it may be well to suggest what kinds of work the Executive Commission may be charged to do in the several judicatories. Some Presbyteries have already provided for a Moderator's Council and determined its composition and duties. Philadelphia has a Committee to prepare business for the regular meetings of Presbytery. Chicago has lengthened the term of service of the Moderator to one year, and appointed a Council to assist him in the business that may be assigned to the Council for their attention and action between meetings. The care of vacant churches, and the locating of missions, and the bringing together of unemployed ministers and vacant charges are some of the duties assigned to the Moderator's Council. New York has just adopted a plan that contemplates a term of one year for the Moderator, with the right to reëlect him year after year, and the election by ballot of six ministers and six elders to constitute the Moderator's Council, the members to be arranged in three classes, one class to retire each year; and the empowering of the Council to pass upon the credentials of ministers applying for admission to the Presbytery; to grant permission to ministers of other Presbyteries to labor within its bounds; to advise and, so far as possible, to adjust the difficulties arising in any church, when asked by pastor or Session to do so; and to arrange business for the approaching regular meeting of the Presbytery.

These examples indicate in a very general way the kind of work that the Moderator and an Executive Commission may do. In many cases in which a special committee would ordinarily be appointed, the Executive Commission might be empowered to act instead; and if required to consider, at least once a year, and to report to the Presbytery on the progress of the churches' work within the bounds of the Presbytery, the growth of new fields where missions or churches might be located, doubtless new enterprises would be brought to the attention of the whole Presbytery that no pastor absorbed in his own work would think of reporting.

Within many of our Synods the work inaugurated or directed by the Synod is becoming more diversified, and the usefulness of an Executive Commission will surely become more apparent. Where both missionary work and evangelistic efforts are carried on under separate Committees, and changes in population are creating new demands, an Executive Commission may serve to combine these efforts by counseling with the different agencies, and may prepare business for the Synod so as to facilitate its deliberations.

For the General Assembly's Executive Commission your Committee would suggest that the Commission shall consist of fifteen members, of which the Moderator shall be one and the head of the Commission, and the two immediately preceding ex-Moderators shall also be members; that the other twelve members be elected by the Assembly and divided into three classes of four each, one class to retire each year, and its successors to be elected by the Assembly to serve three years; that the Commission have power to fill its own vacancies, except as to the Moderator, and that in case of his death or disability the senior ex-Moderator take his place until the next Assembly, and that the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the Assembly be also the Secretary and Treasurer of the Commission.

We would also suggest that the powers and duties of the Moderator and the Executive Commission be defined as follows:

1. That the Moderator (a) act as the representative of the Church as occasion may require; (b) that he be the head of the Commission; (c) that he visit Synods and Presbyteries and other bodies as may be advisable in the interest of the work of the Church, and (d) that he counsel with the Executive Commission and officers of the Assembly, and with the officers of the Boards or other agencies of the Assembly, when requested by them or directed by the Assembly.

2. That the Executive Commission (a) counsel with the Moderator on all matters which he may from time to time lay before them; (b) take such action as may be required to further the plans and orders of the Assembly; (c) make annual report to the Assembly with such recommendations as they may deem advisable, and (d) perform such other duties as may be devolved upon it by the Assembly.

We scarcely need to repeat that these are only suggestions. It will be time enough to make recommendations when the Overtures we propose have been adopted by the Presbyteries; and if the Assembly shall adopt our recommendations, the Committee will be prepared to make more definite recommendations to the next General Assembly.

We recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee on Administrative Agencies be continued, to give further consideration to the Assembly's instructions, and especially to the possibility of readjusting the benevolent and missionary agencies of our Church, report to be made to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the following Overtures be sent down to the Presbyteries under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chapter XXIII, Section 1, viz.:

Overture No. I.—Shall the Form of Government, Chapter X, be amended by the insertion of a paragraph at the end of Section VIII, to read as follows?

"The Presbytery may appoint an Executive Commission, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman. The number of members, powers and duties, and term of service of the Commission shall be determined by the Presbytery; provided, that judicial cases shall be referred only to Judicial Commissions."

Overture No. II.—Shall the Form of Government, Chapter XI, be amended by the insertion of a paragraph at the end of Section IV, to read as follows?

"The Synod may appoint an Executive Commission, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman. The number of members, powers and duties, and term of service of the Commission shall be determined by the Synod; provided, that judicial cases shall be referred only to Judicial Commissions."

Overture No. III.—Shall the Form of Government, Chapter XII, be amended by the insertion of a paragraph at the end of Section IV, to read as follows?

"The General Assembly may appoint an Executive Commission, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman. The number of members, powers and duties, and term of service of the Commission shall be determined by the General Assembly; provided that judicial cases shall be referred only to Judicial Commissions."

Overture No. IV.—Shall the Form of Government, Chapter XIX, be amended by the insertion at the close of Section 2 of the following words?

"He shall also serve until his successor be inducted into office, and may perform such administrative duties as may be assigned to him by the judicatory."

Resolved, 3. That in case the above Overtures should be approved by a majority of Presbyteries, the Committee present to the next Assembly a plan for the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, for such action as that Assembly may deem proper.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES D. MOFFAT, Chairman.

Under the Rule as amended Edgar O. Campbell, M.D., a member of the Presbytery of Yukon, was accepted as an Advisory Member of this Assembly.

Rev. Dr. Lester, of West Alexandria, Pa., who has served for fifty-three years in the ministry, was invited to the privileges of the platform. Other ministers present who had served in the ministry for fifty years were accorded the same privilege.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Edgar A. Elmore, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Mr. J. Ernest McAfee, Associate Secretary; Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D.D., Field Secretary; Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Secretary, and Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., the oldest member of the Board, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions would respectfully report that the One Hundred and Fifth Annual Report of the Board of Home Missions, the official record of the Board for the last year, and the Annual Report of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, and the Report of the Young People's Department have been placed in their hands and carefully examined. One thing becomes evident from the reading of these reports, and that is, the hour has struck for the Presbyterian Church to make an advance in her Home Mission work. The ex-Moderator, in that vibrant, virile, courageous, Macedonian appeal for the South and West, declared that this was to be a Home Mission Assembly. And why should it not be? Was there ever an Assembly that had a greater call to be? This, the largest Presbyterian Assembly that ever assembled on this continent, or any other, representing at last every section of our great land, meeting not many hundred miles from the centre of the population of the United States: able to look northward and eastward, westward and southward, upon the grandest field ever offered to a Church, a field that carries within it possibilities for the welfare of the whole world, which no other on the earth possesses, why should it not be a Home Mission Assembly and sound the note of an advance?

Thrice has the call come to our home Church to advance:

First, when the swelling tide of population overflowed the Alleghenies and the "winning of the West" began. Then was the heart of the Church moved, though weak herself, to send the Gospel to the "multitudes who are ready to perish on our frontier." Out of this advance came the ministry of such men as James Hoge, Samuel Doall, Gideon Blackburn, and many others of the great pioneer preachers who laid the foundation of Christianity in the middle West.

Second, when the Civil War had ended and the spirit of union fell upon the divided hosts of Presbyterianism—when Old School and New School became one school to learn from the great Head of the Church what He would have them do for America; when Henry Kendall, statesman that he was, with far-sighted vision, with masterly grasp, with courage to venture, planned; and Cyrus Dickson, with eloquent tongue and fiery appeal, waked and stirred the Church to follow the great masses of people filling the Northwest—then the Church arose and girded herself to plant Christianity from the Mississippi to the Pacific, and to make possible the great Synods which are represented here to-day.

But a third call has come. Again the spirit of union has fallen from above upon dismembered Presbyterianism, and the last door on this continent closed to us has been thrown open, and the land is before us. Recognizing, as we ever must, the faithful, self-denying, heroic work done by our brethren there, still there yet "remaineth much land to be possessed," and there is a brotherly cry saying, "Come over and help us." To this cry our Church will not be deaf. Already the heart is moved, and in this report we find the plans laid, and wisely, for the advance march. Even now a new chapter in the history of American Presbyterianism is beginning to be written, and future Assemblies will rejoice over the work done. This open field—to work with and for our brethren in that part of the land where God has cast their lot—is enough to move the Church to mighty effort; but that is not all. From this report we learn that, looking north, south, east or west, from where we now are, there is one insistent fact to be seen, and that is the need for Christian work; one mighty motive appealing to us, and that is to make and keep America Christian—Christian in her cities; Christian in her country communities, the strength of her power; Christian on her frontiers; Christian in her islands of the sea—realizing that there is not one spot on this continent but is fraught with danger to our nation if it have not the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But if there is one fact of need and one motive to move us, there is also one word that sums up the whole situation, and that word is opportunity. Think of the opportunities granted to us as a Church as we work in connection with Home Missions! There is the opportunity of taking the exceptional populations—Indian, Mexican, Porto Rican, natives of Alaska, Mormon, or belated Mountaineers—and helping to make of them the unexceptional, intelligent Christian citizens. The opportunity to help save the depleted country churches, from whose well-stocked families are to come our future ministers and missionaries and the working members of our city churches. The opportunity to take weak churches in rapidly growing towns or on the frontier and sustain them until they can care for themselves, keeping step with the advance of the nation. Opportunity now is beginning to come to take vast multitudes annually coming to us of the wrong kind of immigrants and help to make them the right kind. Opportunity of helping to solve one of the greatest problems of modern times—how to keep peace between organized labor and organized capital, and to help the laboring man to realize that the Church of Jesus Christ is his friend. Opportunity—last, but not least—of directing and cherishing the work of the evangelist to be pastor or Presbyterial evangelist, so that the unsaved man, wherever he be or whoever he may be, may become a Christian. These are some opportunities.

In the report of the Board and its work your Committee find three things to which they would call your attention:

First, certain radiant points, points for congratulation. First there is the Treasurer's Report, clear, systematic, businesslike, stating that for its ninth consecutive year the Board reports no debt; that the Board received for current work last year $963,326.81, an advance of $51,533.09 over the year before; that the Presbyterian Building begins this year to provide income for the current work of the Board to such a degree that the amount received from it, together with the interest on permanent and reserve funds and income from real estate, more than care for the administrative expenses of the Board. Then, there is a splendid year's work done by the missionaries, 1,291 of them, thirty-nine of them Cuban, Porto Rican, Mexican and Indian helpers, preaching to 1,505 churches, preaching to congregations which if united would make a congregation of 69,896 persons, receiving into the churches 12,311, organizing 124 churches and 167 Sunday-schools. And thinking of this year's work, we must remember it was accomplished in the hard places, with many difficulties to contend with.

The Woman's Board's pages of this report are radiant. Again they report contributions of more than half a million dollars. In the 191 schools under their care 10,354 pupils have received instruction from 458 missionary teachers, and 679 have made profession of their faith in Christ. Their mission study classes organized, their literature department constantly enlarging, the aid they render to the home missionaries, the salaries of some of whom they pay, and others whom they assist by generous boxes of clothing—all these things, and more too, might be mentioned to show their unwearied devotion to the cause of Home Missions.

Coming close to these and under their fostering care is the Young People's Department. From the young people come contributions to the amount of $99,668.24. They are being organized, trained, instructed and interested in the great cause of the Church, and a better day for the Church is coming. This department has grown so much as to become too heavy for the faithful Secretary who has done so much to develop it; so the Assembly, and the department too, are to be congratulated that Mr. Von Ogden Vogt has been secured to serve as an additional Secretary, from whose former experience in young people's work much may be expected.

One of the marvelous things of to-day is the story of the Department of Church and Labor. The advance made the past year, the success attending the efforts of Rev. Mr. Stelzle, the response on the part of the workingmen and their organizations, point to this as one of the providential movements of the day, to be sustained and encouraged by all who would win the workingmen back to the Church. The Presbyterian Church is to be congratulated that to her has been given the honor of blazing the way in this most needed work.

And what shall we say of Porto Rico, Cuba, Panama and Alaska, except that God is working with those whom you have sent there, and "remarkable changes in some of them, both in results and prospects of the Gospel work," have been witnessed there.

In the work among the foreigners, reported last year to the Assembly, serious difficulty has been experienced in finding men fitted to do the work, and greater results will follow if the work can be unified.

The self-supporting Synods of the Church, doing their own Home Mission work, have made their own report to the Assembly. From the other Synods, not yet self-supporting, come notes of cheer and hopefulness. Especially is it to be noted that in these Synods 115 churches reached self-support, a larger number than in any previous year, and 348 churches asked less from the Board, showing that these Synods have their faces set toward self-support.

We find that a wise and well-adjusted plan was adopted by the Board in working in coöperation with the Boards of the Cumberland Church, and is reported here. Also that the Board, in obedience to the direction of the Assembly, has adopted a plan of reorganization for the work of evangelization, dividing the missionary field of the Board into four sections, with a Field Secretary for each.

The Board finds that the plan of "Vacancy and Supply," devised two years ago and committed to it to work out, fails to accomplish the desired end, and would ask some further changes to increase its efficiency.

One of the sad things about the Board is that each year some faithful missionary falls at his post, or faithful supporter is called to his reward. Among others, two especially would this Board hold in loving remembrance to-day: the Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D., who for almost twenty years had been a member of the Board, carrying on his heart its interest and giving cheerfully his time and labor to its welfare; and Rev. Henry S. Little, D.D., Synodical Missionary of Texas for so many years, whose name is loved and revered wherever he was known—a name worthy to be written alongside the name of Daniel Baker, D.D., in the religious history of the State of Texas.

These are some of the things that your Committee finds in the report put into their hands.

But there is one thing more which we dare not close without asking your most serious attention to, and that is that "the Board approaches the new year with an unusual sense of responsibility," as it says. Three things cause this feeling: The fact that last year there was no appreciable increase in the gifts from the churches to this Board, even though it was a year of financial prosperity. If it were not for legacies the Board would have to report a debt, a most startling and ominous fact for a Church as rich as ours. But add to this another fact, that the Assembly has put upon this Board the evangelistic work in the missionary Synods, and in the self-supporting Synods too, so far as desired. This will be a new and heavy draft upon the Board's resources. But add to this another fact, the vast new territory of the South and Southwest is to be entered this year, and the work assisted there. To meet all these new demands the Board has been compelled to make its plans to spend $100,000 more this year than last. To meet this advance there must be an increase of at least twenty per cent. in receipts from all sources. The period of felicitation and congratulation has passed, and the time has come when the Church must raise $1,100,000 or face a debt at the end of the year. The situation is a grave one, calling for the most earnest consideration on the part of all interested in the progress of the work of God. We must either have a new spirit or a new method to secure contributions to this cause; the truth is we need both. We have been using some great words of late, expressing most happy facts—federation, union, reorganization; but there is one more word we must begin to use, and that word is reconsecra-tion. This is the word for the hour, and in it alone is to be found the hiding of the power we need. The wealth, power and opportunity of our great Church will come short of the glory of God unless there can be born within us a new spirit of consecration. Give to the Church this and there will be no debts to report next year, but a gathering to rejoice at the new manifestation of God's power and grace. The events of Providence are calling upon us to make an advance in our giving. What shall our answer be? Ministers and Sessions have a great responsibility in determining what that answer shall be. God grant that we may not be found wanting.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. That the records of the Board be approved, and that we note with gratification the business ability displayed in the management of the Board.

2. That the following persons, whose terms of service expire with this meeting of the Assembly, be reëlected: Ministers—Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., Joseph Dunn Burrell, D.D., Albert Edwin Keigwin, D.D.; Laymen—Walter M. Aikman, William H. Corbin, Robert C. Ogden, Henry W. Jessup; and that Rev. Allan Douglas Carlile, D.D., be elected to succeed the late Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D.

3. That the General Assembly asks the Church for $1,100,000, as the least sum with which the Board can successfully carry through its work in all departments.

4. That the Woman's Board be commended again for the zeal, wisdom, consecration and business ability they have shown in again raising more than half a million dollars and expending it in their most important work.

5. That the Plan of Union between the Woman's Board and the Woman's Board of the Cumberland Church be commended.

6. That on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day an offering be taken in our Sabbath-schools for the mission school work, and on the Sabbath nearest Washington's Birthday one for the general work.

7. That the Assembly notes with pleasure the strengthening of the Young People's Department, and commends its plan for interesting the young of the Church in Home Missions by mission study classes and by giving information to Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies.

8. That the Assembly commends the founding of the Training Schools at Sitka, Alaska, and Mayaguez, in Porto Rico, for the purpose of training native helpers.

9. That by reason of larger attention on the part of the Board to the incoming foreigners, the Assembly recommends that a special department for this service be erected, so that the work may be unified and pressed with energy by the Board.

10. That the General Assembly approves the plan of reorganization outlined in the report of the Board, by which the missionary field shall be divided into four districts with a Field Secretary for each.

11. That the Assembly also approves the plan for taking over from the Evangelistic Committee the evangelistic work, so far as it relates to the missionary Synods, and its plan for pastor evangelists is also approved and recommended to the hearty coöperation of the churches.

12. That we congratulate the Board of Home Missions and the Cumberland Board of Missions and Church Erection on the harmonious adjustment of the work under the new conditions, and expect from it the happiest results in cementing the ties that bind the two denominations on the Home Mission field.

13. That we felicitate the Church on the marked favor with which the Department of Church and Labor has been received, both by the Church and the workingmen.

14. That in regard to the plan of "Vacancy and Supply," the following resolutions be adopted:

(a) That the Chairman of the Committee on Vacancy and Supply in each Presbytery forward to the officer of the Board of Home Missions in charge of the department a list of the churches becoming vacant as soon as this knowledge comes to him. He shall also give for private use (not for publication) all necessary information regarding salary, the condition of the church, etc.

(b) That the officer of the Board of Home Missions having in charge the matter shall send to said Chairman of said Presbyterial Committee the names of ministers seeking a settlement, with such recommendation as such minister may furnish.

15. That in order that proper representation may be had from the Cumberland wing, and that in appointing new committees of the Board persons may be secured who will be able to give their time and thought to the new work, the Home Board is authorized to increase the present membership of the Board by nine persons.

Respectfully submitted,

EDGAR A. ELMORE, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 21, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution reports to the General Assembly that the Board of Publication is prepared to issue a new edition, including all changes to date, immediately upon the adjournment of the Assembly.

The Committee calls the attention of the Assembly to the need of a new German translation of the Constitution. The proposal is made by certain of our German-speaking ministers, and is supported by professors of the German Theological Schools. The following recommendation is submitted for adoption:

That the Committee be authorized to present the subject of a new German translation of the Constitution, in whole or in part, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for consideration, and that the Board, in its discretion, provide for and publish the same.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Roberts,
E. R. Craven,
Wm. B. Noble.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes reports recommending the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the attention of the Churches is hereby called to the historical value of the complete set of the Records and Minutes of the Supreme Judicatories of the Church from 1706 to 1869, published in eleven volumes by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Committee also draws attention to the fact that the fourth Concurrent Declaration as to Reunion and Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church requires "that the official records of the two Churches during the period of separation shall be preserved and held as making up the history of the one Church" (see Minutes, 1904, p. 137). In view of this fact it is recommended:

1. That the Committee be authorized to include in its work the Minutes of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and that it report upon the same as to reprinting to the next General Assembly.

2. That the Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of 1906 of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, be requested to aid the Committee in this work.

3. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be requested to meet the expense involved.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE.

The Committee on the Digest presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Digest reports that a new edition of the volume has been issued under the supervision of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly. The reasons for publication are, first, the length of time, nine years, since the issue of the last edition; second, the appropriateness of the publication of a new edition for the first General Assembly of the Reunited Church. The volume includes, first, the edition issued in 1898, containing the Acts, Decisions and Deliverances of the General Presbytery, the General Synod, and the General Assembly, 1706 to 1897, and compiled by the Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., with the co-operation of a Committee of the General Assembly. The second part consists of a Supplement, containing the Acts, Decisions and Deliverances of the General Assembly from 1897 to 1906, and edited by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, as formerly, has borne the entire expense of the publication. The volume is entitled the Presbyterian Digest of 1907.

The Committee further states that, in accordance with the directions of past Assemblies, it will continue in the office of the Stated Clerk the work of preparation for an entirely new Digest, upon the plan of placing in a separate volume all the permanent documents of the Church and its agencies, such as the Constitutions and Charters of the Boards and the Theological Seminaries. One objection to the present Digest is its bulkiness, and if it can be reduced in size it will be an advantage.

The Committee also has given attention to the question of including in the new Digest and in the volume of Permanent Documents matters connected with the history of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly of that Church.

The Committee submits for adoption the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly hereby commends the Presbyterian Digest of 1907 to the Church.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on the Digest is hereby authorized to consider the question of including in the next Digest matters connected with the Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and also the inclusion in a volume of Permanent Documents of documents connected with the history of said Church.

The Committee on Blanks for the Reports of the Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Blank for the Reports of the Theological Seminaries, consisting of the Rev. T. S. McWilliams, D.D., and the Stated Clerk, respectfully reports that, as authorized (see Minutes, 1906, p. 204), it has made alterations in the blank, with a view to securing more fully itemized statements of receipts and disbursements. The blank as altered reads as follows:

The Joint Committee on Psalmody presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Joint Committee on a Uniform Version of Psalms in Metre, representing several of the Presbyterian Churches in the United States and Canada, respectfully reports progress, and requests that the representatives on the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Rev. Charles E. Craven and Rev. John D. Davis, D.D., be reappointed, and that Rev. James D. Steele, D.D., be added to the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
William J. Dey, Chairman.

The Committee on the Indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building respectfully reports that it has given due consideration during the ecclesiastical year to the important matter entrusted to its charge. Preparations had been made for the commencement of the work of securing contributions early in the year, but it was found unwise to proceed therewith, in view of the appointment and needs of the Special Committee appointed for the Relief and Reconstruction of the Churches of San Francisco and vicinity. It was felt that the situation in California was one deserving of prompt attention and large liberality, and that the effort to remove the debt of the Witherspoon Building should not stand in the way of the generosity of the Church toward the victims of earthquake and fire.

At the opening of another ecclesiastical year the Committee feels that it can go forward hopefully with the work. The debt of the building, through the careful management of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, has been reduced to $375,000. The Business Committee of the Board, which, by direction of the General Assembly, coöperates in this undertaking, believes that the time is opportune for a renewal of effort. There are one or two vacancies in the Committee which should be filled. The following recommendations are presented for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee be continued.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly's Committee and the Business Committee of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work coöperate in the work, and that action taken be the result of joint action on the part of the two Committees.

Resolved, 3. That the Moderator be empowered to fill all vacancies in the Assembly's Committee.

Resolved, 4. That the Joint Committee shall have power to appoint a representative to present this cause to the churches, and that all expenses be provided for by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, out of any funds which may be raised for the indebtedness.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman;
ALEXANDER HENRY, Secretary.

The Committee on The Assembly Herald presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee in charge of The Assembly Herald respectfully reports to the General Assembly that, under the splendid management of Mr. Horace P. Camden, the magazine has had another successful year. It has steadily grown in membership so that now we are able to report a paying subscription list to December 31, 1906, of 50,141. The running expenses of the magazine for the year 1906 have been paid, leaving a balance in the treasury of $130.47. The net profit from the advertising for the past year was $2,197.78. Great care is taken in the selection of advertisements, and it is a gratification to your Committee to be able to report that no complaint has reached the manager of the magazine from any of its readers, claiming loss by investment in any proposition advertised in The Assembly Herald. The frequent rejection of advertisements which are welcome to the pages not only of the daily press, but also of our religious press, makes clear to your Committee that this source of income will probably grow less rather than larger. Your Committee would rejoice if it could be relieved of the entire responsibility in the matter of advertising; but it is evident that the financial advantage is such that the Boards would hesitate to accept voluntarily the burden which must necessarily come to them from the inability of the magazine to care for itself simply from subscriptions. Practically all subscriptions to The Assembly Herald are received in Clubs, and net but twenty-five cents a year each. This is far below actual mechanical cost, and were it not for the income from advertisements a large deficit would result.

While the magazine has been issued during the past year without a deficiency, and we trust the same conditions will continue this year, yet it has not been possible to pay bills when due, for the reason that advertising and subscription expenses have to be incurred before money from these sources can be realized and because advertisers must be allowed time in which to settle.

The Boards of Home and Foreign Missions have made a loan of $3,009.28, which now stands to their credit on the books; but this amount is not sufficient, and so we respectfully ask the General Assembly to recommend to the Boards a loan to the magazine of not less than $4,500 without interest, the money to be returned to the Boards when The Assembly Herald is able to do so, or if at any time the publication of the magazine should be discontinued.

The magazine was started by the General Assembly with a view to furnishing the Boards of the Church a means of communication with the Church. During recent years application has been made to your Committee for space in the magazine for the Temperance Committee and the Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly. Synodical Home Missions have had space in the magazine at the request of the Board of Home Missions. One page has been allowed to each, and we now seek the approval of the General Assembly of our action, and direction with regard to similar requests in the future.

It is now twenty years since the General Assembly declared that "The work of the Church is one, however many its working departments. As a consequence all of the Boards, whatever the relative place and function of each, are of equal importance and value to the harmonious and successful working of the body. As the work is one, so the constituency of the Boards is one and identical. Hence the work of each Board rightly claims the interest and helpful care of the entire body of Church membership." It seems to your Committee that this is a proper time for the Assembly to reaffirm this opinion, and to further the interests of the entire mission work of the Church by a hearty commendation of the magazine to all of our people.

We therefore respectfully recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

First: The General Assembly puts on record its renewed approval of the necessity for a single magazine to present to the Church the work of the Church in all of its various Boards and agencies, and urges upon pastors the duty of taking practical steps towards securing a wide circulation of this magazine among their people.

Second: That the Boards be recommended to advance to The Assembly Herald, as a loan without interest, the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500)—one-third by the Board of Home Missions, one-third by the Board of Foreign Missions, and one-third to be distributed equally among the remaining six Boards.

Third: That the action of the Committee in admitting to its pages material from the Temperance Committee and the Evangelistic Committee, and also from Synodical Home Missions, be approved, and that these Committees be assigned one page each, and shall be charged by the magazine the same rate for additional space as is made to the Boards.

Fourth: That no further Committee or agency shall have access to the pages of the magazine without first obtaining the approval of the General Assembly.

Fifth: That the Committee be continued as now constituted for another year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. W. HALSEY,
W. H. SCOTT,
JOHN DIXON,
Committee.

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion was at its request relieved from the consideration of Overtures 108 and 109, on the dissolution of the Synod of Florida, and said Overtures were referred to the Committee on Polity.

The Report of the United Christian Commission was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., and was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The United Christian Commission of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. would report:

That a Committee on Religious Work in the Army was appointed by the General Assembly of 1887, to lay before the proper Committees of Congress the facts in regard to the present wants of religious instruction in the U. S. Army, and to request them to provide chaplains in sufficient numbers to meet this want. This Committee consisted of Revs. J. T. Smith, D.D., Byron Sunderland, D.D., and Luther A. Ostrander, with elders Gen. Robert H. Milroy and Mr. George H. Beatson.

This Committee continued its work for three years, until in 1890 upon its recommendation the Assembly discharged it, and appointed from its number certain representatives to coöperate with the United Christian Commission, which was a united Committee representing the Methodist Episcopal, Protestant Episcopal, Lutheran, Baptist, Congregational and United Presbyterian Churches, meeting and operating in Washington for the same general purpose. The Assembly of 1890 did thus appoint Revs. J. T. Smith, D.D., W. A. Bartlett, D.D., and Mr. George H. Beatson the Committee to "unite and coöperate" with this Commission. They did thus coöperate, and reported to the Assembly from time to time. After five years the Commission as a united organization dissolved. This Committee was never discharged, but continued its specific work and reported under the name of the United Christian Commission. In 1894 Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., was added to the Committee, and in 1896 Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., was appointed in place of Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D.D., who resigned because of his departure from Washington. In 1897 the Committee was directed to include Navy chaplains in its work.

During its existence the Committee has labored assiduously in the work assigned by the Assembly. We have had many conferences with the proper Committees of Congress, with the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, and with the President of the United States. The applications of Presbyterian ministers for Army or Navy chaplaincies have invariably been referred to this Committee. The Committee found that one of its important and onerous duties was the prevention of improper and undesirable appointments. The appointments made have been through our inquiry and endorsement.

Impatience has occasionally been expressed that the Presbyterian Church has not had its proportionate number of appointments. We have not found in the appointing power any tendency to discriminate. The number of chaplains to be appointed from the several denominations is not prescribed by law or regulation. The number of chaplains is entirely inadequate for the needs of the Army and Navy. In the roster of fifty-eight Army chaplains the Presbyterian Church has seven, and in the Navy corps of chaplains but one. This small showing is due entirely to the fact that the chaplain service is more attractive to the young men of other Churches.

There has always been a lack of desirable candidates from the ranks of the younger men in the Presbyterian ministry. For the future there is encouragement in this respect.

1. The higher qualifications and more severe examinations now demanded have raised the standard of chaplaincies, and will make herein a stronger appeal to the men of patriotic and Christian devotion.

2. The Presbyterian Book of Common Worship will answer many objections, remove actual difficulties, and appeal to a large and growing demand in the Army and Navy service.

Special mention should be made of the arduous and devoted service of the Chairman, Rev. Dr. J. T. Smith. Until his death, in 1906, his interest was intense and unflagging. His visits to Washington on the matter were frequent, and with the burden and infirmities of years upon him, he did not spare himself in work, correspondence, time or money that he might be faithful to this trust.

As the General Assembly of 1906 appointed a Permanent Committee on Christian Work among the Seamen and Sailors, whose instructions traverse the work of this Committee, we respectfully ask to be discharged.

In behalf of the Committee,

WALLACE RADCLIFFE, Chairman.

The Committee was at its own request discharged. The thanks of the Assembly were extended to Dr. Radcliffe and his associates for the services they have rendered.

The Moderator was empowered to make any arrangements necessary for an early adjournment on Thursday afternoon.

The Report of the Committee on Marriage and Divorce was made the second Order for Thursday morning.

The Veterans present of the Union and Confederate armies were invited to occupy the platform of the Assembly to-morrow morning at 9.50 o'clock.

The Standing Committee on Education, through its Chairman, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., the newly elected Secretary of the Board, and the Chairman, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Education has pleasure in submitting the following Report to the General Assembly of 1907:

Your Committee has received and given careful attention to the Report of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Report of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church. In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church were happily united, and the work of ministerial education has been conducted with entire satisfaction to all concerned. Your Committee has pleasure in calling the attention of the General Assembly to the very strong and grateful expression of the Educational Society's appreciation of the spirit of the Board of Education, and of the results which have attended the union of plan and work. The Educational Society reports that the past year has been the best year educationally in the history of the ninety-seven years of the Cumberland Church.

Ninety-one students of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church were aided by the Board of Education. All of these students came under the rules which have always obtained in the work of the Board, except such cases as were left to the discretion of the Board by the action of the last Assembly.

The Board of Education acknowledges, and it is a pleasure to your Committee to report its acknowledgment of, the valuable services rendered by the Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The Board is sensitively awake to the splendid opportunities which the reunion opens up in the South and the Southwest and is anxious to enter upon the work in these new fields. The demand on the part of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church for an educated and spiritual ministry is as insistent and general as is the demand in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. This makes possible a harmonious and aggressive work in these new fields.

During the past year there has been a number of changes in the personnel of the Board. Early in the year the Rev. Edward B.

Hodge, D.D., who had served the Board as its Corresponding Secretary for thirteen years, was called to his rest and reward. The high esteem in which Dr. Hodge was held by the entire Church is fittingly expressed in the resolutions which were adopted by the Board at the time of his death. "Sweetness and strength," to quote from the resolutions, "were blended in him by the grace of God, so that he was a heavenly and spiritual man, and at the same time a safe and statesmanlike counselor. . . . . The Presbyterian Church owes him a debt of gratitude because of the inestimable work which he did in the great cause of an educated ministry, and among young men preparing for the ministry."

After the death of Dr. Hodge, the Rev. William P. Finney, a member of the Board, was chosen Secretary pro tem. Mr. Finney acted in this capacity until a Secretary was chosen by the Board. His services in the difficult and perplexing work of the past year were discharged with such tact and efficiency as to deserve the approval and high commendation of the entire Church.

The Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, was elected to the position of Corresponding Secretary. Dr. Cochran accepted the call, and entered upon his duties on May 1, 1907. The Board and the Church are to be congratulated upon securing a man of such eminent qualifications for this sacred work. His virile manhood, his loyalty to the best ideals for the ministry, and his safe judgment will not fail to influence and impress the young men under the care of the Board, nor will they fail to guide the Board in all its relations with these men.

Dr. Cochran's acceptance of the Secretaryship created a vacancy in the Board, which was filled by the election of the Rev. F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The Rev. Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D., who had served on the Board with great efficiency for many years, felt constrained to resign, and the Rev. Edward Yates Hill, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, was chosen to succeed him.

Mr. Henry B. Moore declined to accept the appointment of the last Assembly to membership on the Board, and Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D., was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Mr. John B. Gest, who had rendered faithful service for many years as a member of the Board, died last March, and Mr. Charles T. Evans was chosen to succeed him.

The Rev. William P. Finney's acceptance of the temporary Secretaryship necessitated his resignation as a member of the Board. On the acceptance of the Secretaryship by Dr. Cochran, Mr. Finney retired from that position and was reëlected a member of the Board.

During the year 788 young men received aid from the Board. Of these 86 were academic students, 346 college students and 356 students in Theological Seminaries.

It is a pleasure to note and to commend the activity of the Board in the matter of work among the students of the foreign-speaking peoples in our land. A Theological Training School was opened at Mayaguez, Porto Rico. This school is under the care of the Board of Home Missions. Twelve of its students received aid from the Board of Education last year. In all there are nineteen Spanish-speaking students under the care of the Board. In addition to these there are seventy-one students of German, Italian, Hungarian, Bohemian and other foreign-speaking extraction under the care of the Board.

During the year seventy-seven negro students were enrolled as candidates for the ministry under the care of the Board.

The attitude of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church toward the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, has been one of fraternal advice and of financial assistance. It is evident that this attitude will be continued by the reunited Church, and the Board of Education will express it in such ways as it may deem wise and proper.

Your Committee has pleasure in calling the attention of the Church to the financial report of the Board. A reading of that report will inspire confidence and stimulate giving. The funds of the Board are sacredly guarded. The trust committed to the Board is faithfully and economically administered. The rules regulating the applications for gifts and the disbursement of funds are such as give assurance of a wise and helpful use of all gifts and contributions made to the Board.

The General Assembly of last year referred to the Board the matter of the practicability of undertaking the supervision, and when necessary the assistance, of students who have in view the fitting of themselves as medical missionaries. The Board conferred with the Board of Foreign Missions and adopted the following expression of its judgment: "Whenever, in the opinion of the Board of Foreign Missions, there exists a demand for an increase in the number of those seeking to prepare themselves for service to the Church as medical missionaries, this Board is prepared to coöperate with the Board of Foreign Missions in an effort to increase the number of such candidates, and to take such steps as may enable it to grant aid to candidates for this service."

The fact of the decline in the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry has been frequently called to the attention of the Church. This decline is not peculiar to our own Church. All Churches are saddened by the fact. Despite the large increase in the population of our country during the past ten years, there are now about 400 fewer men studying for the ministry than there were ten years ago. In our own Church, whose membership has increased more than a quarter of a million in the past ten years, there are about a third less men studying for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church than there were ten years ago. This is a grave situation and calls for earnest thought, vigorous action and continuous prayer. The Christian pulpit is a living, burning, perpetual need. The vocation of the preacher is in organic relation to the development of human history. The preacher is to blaze the way to the goal which is the new heaven and the new earth, and he is to marshal the growing and victorious battalions along the ever-widening highway. This demands men of strong faith, men of heroic mould, men of courage, a masterful courage that has its roots in profound moral experiences and that is the expression of great convictions. Such men are demanded by the pulpit, and the only men who should respond to this demand are the men who are conscious of God's call to the ministry. That call is essential. No man can will himself into the ministry. No school can give the minister. No Church can call men into the ministry by issuing broadcast invitations to young men, by raising the standards of education, or by offering larger salaries—God save the mark!—to tempt men of ability. Any young man who would be deterred from entering the ministry because the ministry may be underpaid, or who might be influenced to enter the ministry because of the salary paid, is unfit for the ministry. The minister is a creation of God. If any man be not called into the ministry his presence there would be an impertinent usurpation. "How can they preach except they be sent?"

This is God's part. But the Church has a part. She must train her youth to listen for and to comprehend the Divine call. This demands a spiritual atmosphere in the home. Our Presbyterian homes should put a stronger accent upon the place of the Church, and upon the exalted privilege of serving God and humanity in the ministry of the Church. The home life should be such as will create and direct the aspirations of our young men Churchward. Our young men are crowding the other professions. To quote the latest statistics at hand, those for the year 1904. In the 152 medical schools of our land there are 26,949 students, while in our 153 theological schools there are but 7,392 students. There is one more theological than medical school, but there are 19,557 fewer students in the theological than in the medical schools. In our 95 law schools there are 14,306 students, as against the 7,392 students in our theological schools. There are 58 more theological than law schools, but there are 6,914 fewer students in the theological than in the law schools. In our 54 dental schools there are 7,325 students. There are 99 more theological than dental schools in the United States, but there are only 67 more students of theological than there are students of dentistry. If our home life would put more emphasis on religion and on the Church, there would be more young men studying for the ministry. It is true that men are divinely called into the ministry; but if there were more Hannahs among the mothers of our homes, more mothers who dedicated their boys to the Lord from their birth, there would be more Samuels who would hear the voice of God calling them into His holy service.

The Church has a duty as well as the home. One thing which is imperatively demanded is the spiritual culture of the youth in our colleges and universities. From our Presbyterian schools come our Presbyterian ministers; but not enough come to meet the demand. While putting all emphasis upon the necessity of effort on behalf of the students in our denominational schools, the time has come for a new emphasis to be placed on work on behalf of our Presbyterian youth in other institutions of learning. If our Presbyterian young people in State Universities and other schools are to be conserved for our Presbyterian Church, some definite and vigorous work must be done for them by the Church. This matter was referred to the Board of Education by the last Assembly. The death of Dr. Hodge, early in the Church year, prevented the Board from carrying out all its plans; but some very effective work was done, and was so satisfactory that the University Conference, which was held just prior to the opening of this Assembly, voted unanimously to leave this work entirely in the hands of the Board.

Your Committee has pleasure in commending the work that is being done for our Presbyterian students by pastors in college and university towns, and also the very successful work being done by the student-pastors in such institutions as are favored in having student-pastors. But as yet the Church has only touched the fringe. She must prosecute a more vigorous work in order to hold these young people in and for the Church and prepare young men for hearing and responding to the divine call to the ministry.

There is another vital duty which the Church must not neglect. That duty is to create such conditions in local churches as will induce young men of faith and piety to listen for a call from God. The financial element is of right an important element in this desired condition. The ministry as a whole is shamefully underpaid. It is a wrong to the cause of Christ that a minister should be compelled to live on the edge of need. Such competence should be provided for every pastor as will make it possible for him to maintain an independent position in society. His salary is not a charity. It is a right. "The laborer is worthy of his hire," and the hire should be commensurate with the labor; otherwise it is unjust, unfair and dishonest. The minister's salary should not be regulated by the maximum income of the few, or by the minimum income of the many, but should strike the average, and so the minister will be free from the autocratic dominance of the rich and the equally autocratic control of the poor. This will guarantee ministerial self-respect and manly independence, and the possibility of such self-respect and independence will instantly challenge the consideration of young men of manhood and ability. There is nothing that will more readily attract to the ministry young men of character and culture than the guarantee of honorable independence.

This points out another element in local church conditions which should have the attention of all our churches and churchmen. The minister called of God is the ambassador of Jesus Christ. As such his message is a summons, his voice is oracular, his ministry rings with the note of authority. The pulpit that is true to Christ's ideal is a free pulpit, untrammelled by any methods and uncontrolled by any men. The ministry calls no man master but Jesus only. Many church officers and people and societies misconceive the minister's place. He is not the "hired man" of any man, nor is he the servant or agent of any organization. Any pew or any set of pews, any church organization, any ecclesiastical condition or any board of officers that seeks to control or dominate or dictate to the pulpit is at once harmful to the vitality and efficiency of the minister and faithless to the kingdom and Mastership of Jesus Christ. Jesus holds the seven stars in His right hand, and none others do. Any church, any session, or any individual dominance is a usurpation of the place of Christ Himself. The need of the hour is a recognition of the minister's rightful position, and when that position is clearly understood and confidently maintained young men of spirituality and strength will covet to enter upon the holy calling of the ministry.

Your Committee respectfully recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Education and of the Educational Society, having been found correct, be approved.

2. That the officers and members of the Board be heartily commended for the fidelity and wisdom with which they have conducted the affairs of the Board during the past year.

3. That the General Assembly heartily approves of and ratifies the election of the Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, D.D., to the position of Corresponding Secretary.

4. That the General Assembly expresses its cordial appreciation of the services rendered the Board by the Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D.; ratifies his appointment as Assistant Secretary, and in his case makes an exception to the rule which provides that an officer of the Board may not be a member of any Board.

5. That in view of the enlarged work committed to this Board, it be directed to consider the advisability of enlarging its membership, and report on this matter to the next General Assembly.

6. That the General Assembly approve of the revised blanks for the Presbyterial recommendation of candidates to the Board.

7. That the General Assembly express its cordial appreciation of the work of the Student Young Men's Christian Association Movement, and of the Student Volunteer Movement, in influencing young men and young women to devote themselves to the Christian ministry at home and to missionary work abroad.

8. The Board has given careful consideration to the matter referred to it by the last Assembly, as to the practicability of requiring students receiving aid from the Board to contract to give certain years to service in the Presbyterian Church, and it is recommended that the finding of the Board be approved, and that no action be taken on the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Corning, Dubuque and Iowa City.

9. In view of the fact that the work on behalf of the Presbyterian students in State universities and such other colleges as are not under the control of any other Presbyterian Board has been committed to the Board of Education, in coöperation with Synodical Committees on Education, it is recommended that the Board be directed to prosecute a definite and vigorous work for the supply of the religious needs of these students, and that the Board be authorized to receive funds for this work; and it is further recommended that the Board be directed to call an annual conference of representatives of the Synodical Committees on Education, of educators connected with State and other institutions of learning, that such conference be held immediately before or during the sessions of the General Assembly, and that for such conferences the Board shall not assume any financial obligation.

10. The need of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, for a better educated ministry, as presented in the report of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, is duly recognized, and it is recommended that the Board of Education be authorized to take such steps as it may deem proper to aid the brethren of another branch of our Presbyterian family who appeal to us for help.

11. That the authority given to the Board by the last Assembly, to use its discretion in dealing with exceptional cases of the former Cumberland Presbyterian candidates, be renewed for this year.

12. That, in view of the enlarged field opened to this Board, an earnest effort be made to increase the receipts of the Board, and all churches that did not contribute to this work last year are specially entreated to make some contribution during the current year.

13. With reference to the request of the Board for a deliverance on the matter of the disposition of legacies, it is recommended that the Assembly declare that such matters are wholly in the power of the Board.

14. That the last Thursday of January, 1908, be designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges, that all Presbyterian institutions be urged to observe this day, and that in all our congregations some service be held on this day.

15. That the General Assembly confirm the appointment of the Revs. William P. Finney, F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., and Mr. Charles T. Evans as members of the Board, and that the Revs. Henry C. Minton, D.D., J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., Mr. George H. Stuart, Jr., Mr. A. A. Shumway and Mr. Charles T. Evans, whose terms of office expire at this Assembly, be elected members of the Board for the term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. CARSON, Chairman.

The Committee on Repair and Reconstruction of Churches in San Francisco and vicinity, through its Chairman, Rev. John Dixon, D.D., presented its Report, which after a number of addresses was approved, and its recommendations were adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to solicit funds for the repair and reconstruction of the churches and institutions in San Francisco and its vicinity which were injured by the earthquake and fire in April last takes pleasure in submitting its Report.

Immediately upon the disaster the Government and the citizens generally made prompt and generous response. Quickly following them came the churches with their special offerings. The result was that an amount of money poured into San Francisco, mainly under the administration of the Red Cross Society, which more than met all the pressing necessities of the homeless and destitute. We understand that there is still on hand a large unexpended balance, no part of which is available for our purpose. When, therefore, your Committee undertook the work of securing funds specifically for the repair and reconstruction of Presbyterian churches and institutions, it labored under the disadvantage of these previous individual and church offerings for the physical needs of the suffering. Notwithstanding this fact an aggregate sum of over $123,000 has been received by your Committee from various sources. It is proper to state that before the action of the Assembly, the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Church Erection united in an appeal to the churches and received several thousands of dollars. The Board of Foreign Missions and the Occidental Board made appeal especially for the Chinese Church in San Francisco and the Rescue Home for Chinese girls. The Moderator and the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly also appealed. Further, a Committee of ministers and laymen in California, of which the Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee, D.D., was Treasurer, also sent out an appeal. The Board of Home Missions, the Board of Church Erection and the Board of Foreign Missions turned over to your Committee the full amount they had received. The other agencies mentioned above have made partial distribution of the money committed to their care, and have also contributed something towards the general treasury.

Your Committee had a very careful estimate made of the actual losses suffered by our churches and institutions by reason of the earthquake and fire, and according to the report made to them it amounted to $179,665. From this sum $19,670 of insurance money received is to be deducted, making the net loss reported $159,995. The best judgment of the Committee led them to make an appropriation of fifty per cent. (50%) of the net losses incurred, and this amount has been paid over to all of the churches and institutions which were in a position to receive it.

The Committee also gave favorable consideration to the appeal of several struggling churches to help them in the payment of a mortgage indebtedness which, by reason of widespread individual loss, the churches were unable to care for. The foreclosure of the mortgage meant the loss of property and the ruin of the church.

The Committee invited the different churches and institutions to send out agents, under the authorization of this Committee, to solicit funds in the East for their respective needs. The Rev. William Kirk Guthrie, Rev. Harmon H. McQuilkin and Mrs. Lyman A. Kelley responded. The amounts received by them are included in the above statement.

The Women's Societies connected with the Board of Home Missions, in hearty sympathy with the movement, made earnest and united effort to gather money for the rebuilding of the Rescue Home in San Francisco.

Your Committee would make grateful mention of the splendid services rendered in the soliciting of funds by all of these individuals and agencies, without whose coöperation it would have been impossible to present the satisfactory report to the Assembly which your Committee is now enabled to do.

The Treasurer's statement follows and is a part of this Report:

W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., assisted by the following gentlemen as an Advisory Committee: Ministers—Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., Maitland Alexander, D.D., John Balcom Shaw, D.D., F. W. Loetscher, D.D., Robert F. Coyle, D.D., S. S. Palmer, D.D., S. J. Niccolls, D.D., H. C. Swearingen, D.D., Hugh K. This Committee shall serve without expense to the General Assembly, and shall have power, in consultation with representatives of the interests affected in California, to commission agents, who shall serve without expense to the General Assembly, to solicit contributions to this fund.

The Moderator introduced Rev. W. R. Evans, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Welsh Presbyterian Church, who delivered a brief address of greeting, to which the Moderator responded.

The Permanent Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund presented its Report, which, after addresses by Rev. John R. Sutherland, D.D., and Rev. Henry E. Mott, D.D., was approved and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Committee on The Assembly Herald presented the following supplementary Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That all Committees or agencies which shall have access to the pages of The Assembly Herald by the vote of the General Assembly, shall be expected to pay for the space occupied according to the terms fixed by the magazine.

The Report of the Committee on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion was made the third Order for Wednesday afternoon.

The hearing of Fraternal Delegates from other Churches was made the first Order for Thursday morning.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 21, 7.30 P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of Home Missions, in accordance with the programme previously announced.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence presented a partial report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee recommends that Rev. S. N. Wilson, D.D., of Winnebago Presbytery, who was called from the Assembly on account of death in his congregation, and who left on the fifth day of the session, be granted his mileage.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the second Order for Thursday afternoon.

On report made by the Moderator, it was ordered that the hour of adjournment for Thursday afternoon be 4 o'clock.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report on papers referred to it, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports as follows on certain Overtures referred to it by the Assembly:

Overtures Nos. 95 to 98, in reference to advertising Patent and Proprietary Medicines in Religious Periodicals, from the Presbyteries of Lima, Mahoning, and Portsmouth; also sections one and two of Overture No. 132, from the Presbytery of Columbus.

The Committee recommends the following reply:

These Overtures affect interests over which the General Assembly has no direct control. The General Assembly, however, emphatically declares its sympathy with the purpose of these Overtures, and most cordially brings the weight of its moral influence to bear, by way of counsel and advice, upon the editors and publishers of church papers of our denomination, to induce them, as a high question of duty, to exclude from their columns all advertisements of patent and proprietary medicines suspected of being misleading and fraudulent.

Overture No. 129, with reference to the Movement for Universal Peace, from the Presbytery of Fort Worth.

The Committee would recommend the following response:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America records its gratitude to God for the progress made toward that day when nations shall learn war no more, and hails with satisfaction the increasing sentiment among the people favoring the arbitration of difficulties between the nations of the earth. The Assembly expresses its approval of the doctrine that the forces of this world should be organized for and in the interests of peace, and not for and in the interests of war. It commends the movement toward friendly counsel and coöperation, as seen in The Hague Conference and the recent Peace Congress in New York City; and it deplores the evils and expense of war, and urges upon ministers and members of the Church to aid, in every proper way, the efforts to bring about the peaceable settlement of international troubles. The General Assembly would also suggest that patriotic occasions may be utilized by the ministry for proclaiming the gospel of peace, and urging that the law of love be made the rule of life, not only for our own nation but for all the world. The Assembly further expresses the hope that at the approaching sessions of The Hague Conference, the representatives of participating nations may be able to unite in a plan of action that shall be a practical demonstration to the world of the brotherhood of man, and bring a new emphasis upon the message of "peace on earth and good will to men."

In connection with the Report of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, the Committee would recommend the following:

The Report of the Executive Commission, which has been referred to this Committee, has been carefully considered. We would recommend that the General Assembly record its commendation of the work that has been done by this able Commission. We heartily concur in the recommendations that are made touching the work in home and foreign fields, and in the suggestions relative to Sabbath-school and Young People's work, calling very special attention to Section V, paragraph c, which is as follows:

"c. Training Schools for Lay Workers. There is a movement in the churches of the Alliance to provide institutions for the training of workers other than ordained ministers. The general purpose of those interested is to prepare at least three kinds of Christian workers:

"1. Teachers and officers in Sabbath-schools.

"2. Other lay workers, such as lay evangelists, pastors' assistants, leaders of brotherhoods and Sunday-school missionaries.

"3. Deaconesses and women who desire to be trained for church work or for missionary work in city, home and foreign fields. The Alliance cordially commends this new movement to the active coöperation and support of the members of our churches, referring the question of how this training shall be given to the venerable General Assemblies and Synods of our several churches."

We would recommend that this Assembly take whatever steps are necessary to enlist the coöperation of all our churches in this great movement, by reference to appropriate agencies.

We rejoice in the facts recorded concerning the Brotherhood movement, and commend the action of the Commission toward the churches of the European continent.

We would call special attention to Section VII of this Report, on page 102, concerning "Defections in church membership," which is as follows:

"This serious subject, dealing with a matter vital to the influence of the churches, has received considerable attention from the Commission. Facts submitted show that every year from three to five per cent. of the communicant members of our denominations are lost to the Church by removals or by lack of pastoral oversight. As a result, in all our communities there are many persons who ought to be, but are not, in an active relation to the churches. The following suggestions as to church guidance and oversight are made:

"1. Care should be taken to exhort those who are changing their location that they be faithful in attendance on Gospel ordinances, and especially that they be prompt in joining another congregation of Christ's people.

"2. Members leaving a congregation should be furnished in every case with certificates of standing and dismission. Where there is neglect in applying for these, church officers should take the initiative by urging the application.

"3. Each congregation should have a Committee charged to be on the lookout for visiting church members, to extend to them a fraternal greeting, and to assure them of a cordial welcome to the place of worship and to all the privileges of the congregation.

"4. Might not a bureau be established at some central point by the evangelical churches, and given as its sole business the supervision of church members in process of removal to new places?"

The Committee would recommend that a special Committee, composed of three ministers and two ruling elders, be appointed by this Assembly, to report to the Assembly of 1908, which Committee shall be charged with the duty of devising plans and presenting recommendations, which shall be presented to our churches, that may tend to the solution of this most serious problem.

With regard to the Calvin anniversary (see Section X of the Alliance Report and Overture No. 177, from the Presbytery of Benicia, on the same subject), the Committee would recommend that a special Committee of seven, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman, be appointed by this Assembly, to report to the Assembly of 1908 a programme for the proper and fitting celebration of this great anniversary within the bounds of our Church.

The Committee would further recommend that a Committee of nine be appointed to nominate to the Assembly of 1908 those delegates who shall be chosen to represent our Church to the Ninth Council of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, which meets in New York City in the year 1909, the members of the Committee as usual to be themselves delegates; and would name as that Committee: Ministers—William H. Roberts, D.D., William B. Noble, D.D., J. M. Hubbert, D.D., Ira Landrith, D.D., F. W. Hawley, D.D., and Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Gen. Ralph E. Prime, Hon. Charles G. Neely, and John H. Converse, LL.D.

On Overture No. 148, from the Presbytery of Erie, concerning a change of name of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the Committee recommends that no action be taken.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures also submitted the following Report referring papers, which was adopted:

To the Standing Committee on Mileage:

Overture No. 147, from the Presbytery of Hannibal, concerning the reduction of the per capita apportionment.

To the Standing Committee on Church Polity:

Overtures Nos. 154 to 158, from the Presbyteries of Des Moines and Cedar Rapids, concerning certain privileges for the Presbytery of Hainan.

To the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union:

Overtures Nos. 132, 156 to 179 inclusive, concerning Church Union, from the Presbyteries of Dayton, Denton, Cleveland, Buffalo, Monroe, St. Lawrence, Steuben, Pueblo, Lackawanna, Oakes, Huntington, Peoria, Iowa City, Nebraska City, Los Angeles, Freeport, Pendleton, Grafton, Cedar Rapids, Sacramento, Champlain, Westminster, Westchester and Greenville.

Respectfully submitted,

IRA LANDRITH, Chairman.

The matter of communicating to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church the number of our Presbyteries asking for organic union with that Church was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

In accordance with a special order adopted yesterday, the veteran soldiers of the Union and Confederate armies present in the Assembly, being over one hundred in number, took their places upon the platform, and addresses were delivered by Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., who was a captain in the Union army, and Colonel Keaton, of the Confederate army. There was cordial handshaking, and all united in singing

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love."

Rev. F. R. Earle, D.D., the oldest living Moderator of the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly and a veteran of the Confederate army, was introduced and addressed the Assembly. The Moderator made a brief response, and the exercises closed with the singing of the National Hymn.

The Mileage Committee was authorized to pay the bills for mileage.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, by Mr. Robert E. Speer, one of the Secretaries of the Board, Drs. Ewing and Lucas, of India, and Rev. A. M. Deputie, of Africa, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Board of Foreign Missions has reached its three-score years and ten. It was organized in 1837. All things considered, the growth of its work and the extension of its usefulness and the increase of its activities have been remarkable. Through all its history it has been signally owned by Almighty God in its efforts to advance the Redeemer's kingdom. Every year has recorded steady progress and none has been more notable than the last. It is impossible to read the reports from the field without a thrill of optimism. Everywhere the light is spreading. Everywhere the cause of Christ is advancing; the outlook is full of hope; the future of missions is as right and certain as the promises of God. So far as your Committee is able to discover, there is no place for a minor note in the music of missionary enterprise. In view of the achievements of the past and the victories of the present; in view of the breaking down of barriers and the wide-open doors in all lands; in view of the thousands that are turning away from idols, not only among the lowly but among those in high places, we can but thank God and take courage. A few years ago a great company of young men and women, assembled at Northfield for Christian conference and Bible study, were set on fire with enthusiasm by a message flashed across the sea from the other side of the world. It was this: "Make Jesus King. Signed, Five Hundred Students, Tokyo, Japan." That message is being realized far more rapidly than many of us suppose. His enthronement is going on so amazingly that it justifies all the hope and all the prophecy and all the passionate longing which Christian men and women can put into the hymn,

> "Jesus shall reign where'er the sun > Does his successive journeys run."

When we go up into the watch-tower and look far away over heathen lands the vision is inspiring and glorious.

Turn to China, Japan and Korea, and you find that the past year has been one of the most wonderful, perhaps, in the whole history of missions in those lands. The record of the changes that are taking place seems almost incredible. The opening of China to Western ideas, the education of women, the abolition of foot binding by royal decree, the abandonment of Confucian ethics and of mere classical Chinese learning, and the substitution of Western science and learning in their examinations for official position, the steps taken to abolish the use of opium, the open door and the larger opportunity for all Christian work, evangelistic, medical and educational, the substantial assistance given by the Dowager Empress to the hospital in Peking and by others in authority to the cause of Christianity—all indicate changes and movements that are radical and revolutionary. Said a Chinese military officer recently, "We are going to do away with all things Chinese and adopt the things of the Western world." Reactions will come; new obstacles to the progress of missions will arise, but the whole attitude of China toward Christian civilization and the outside world give great promise and hope for the future. We only regret that while China is striving to eradicate the opium curse, she is in the adoption of "the things of the Western world" being threatened with another almost equally harmful curse in the widespread adoption of the American cigarette, of which 860,000,000 were imported from America by the British-American Tobacco Company, and 5,160,000 pounds of leaf tobacco which was converted into cigarettes in China—an increase of more than 33 per cent. in two years. We feel sure that this cannot help but be disastrous to Chinese mind and character, have a deleterious effect on the missionary work, and should be a source of regret to every well-wisher of China and of worthy American enterprise.

Even more reassuring is the condition of things in Japan. The marvelous progress of the Sunrise Kingdom in the last fifty years needs no rehearsing here. Such a resurrection from the dead past, such a taking on of new life, such development in material and intellectual power has never before been witnessed in human history. Not less wonderful has been the spiritual progress. Indeed it is not too much to say that Japan's marvelous quickening of national life has come from the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Already not a few of her statesmen and military leaders and prominent officials are Christians. Thousands of her students are followers of Jesus, and the whole trend of her development seems to point toward her complete Christianization.

In Korea the light appears to shine even more brightly. There in the Hermit Nation the Christian Church is growing in numbers and strength and influence with a rapidity which reminds us of Apostolic times. To read of the multitudes in that land who crowd about the missionary to hear his message, of the multitudes that throng the place of prayer, of the sacrifices the people make to hear the Gospel and spread the Gospel, is an inspiration. More than one-fourth of those added to the Church in all our foreign fields were added to the Korean Church, and more than one-half of all who were added to the Church on foreign missionary territory were in these three Oriental lands.

In India a spirit of prayer has been manifest wherever missionary enterprise has gone. The Church of India is united, aggressive, and full of hope. There have been hindrances, there have been drawbacks, but notwithstanding all difficulties the work has steadily advanced. While there have been no new developments during the past year, the movement toward union on the missionary fields of India is still strong and full of promise. Carey's vision of a Christianized India is slowly but surely coming to realization.

Turning to Siam, we discover that this great world enterprise of Missions is going from victory to victory. The king gives it his hearty endorsement and support. Influential officials encourage the missonary in his work, not only by their words but by their gifts. The opening up of new railways moreover is a material contribution of no small significance. It gives to the messenger of the Cross more rapid transit and easier access to wider fields of usefulness. The Christian Boys' High School of Bangkok deserves special mention. Here a large number of boys during the past year confessed faith in Christ, and many of them are doing personal evangelistic work among their fellows.

The report from Laos is of a piece with all the rest. The number received on confession of faith last year was a decided increase over the year preceding. Everywhere the missionaries speak of the serious handicap caused by lack of funds. Everywhere the force of native helpers needs to be enlarged, and this can be brought about only by an increase of support. The visit of the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., who was sent out under the auspices of the Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly, was an inspiration to the brethren in all the countries through which he traveled.

The work among the Chinese, Japanese and Koreans in San Francisco may be spoken of in this connection. It has been greatly disturbed by the dreadful earthquake and fire of a year ago. The Chinese suffered perhaps most of all, but Chinatown is rebuilding, the scattered Chinese Christians are returning, and the work for the coming year is not without promise.

In twenty-seven stations in Latin America, located in Mexico, Guatemala, Central and South Brazil, Chili, and Colombia, the Board is carrying on missionary activities. These are centres of evangelizing and consecrated effort, through which thousands are being turned from darkness to light, from a dead and idolatrous formalism to the faith of Jesus Christ. The record of the past year in these countries is on the whole one of great encouragement. Once sealed against the Bible, quarantined against the Gospel and the Protestant missionary, they are now almost everywhere accessible, and the herald of the Crucified is free to tell the story of redeeming love.

In none of the countries touched and moulded by Spanish Catholicism have greater victories for Christ been gained than among the Philippines. There in these newly acquired possessions of ours 2,000 adults were won to the Saviour last year and multitudes of children brought under Christian influence.

Wherever the Gospel is presented and the story of the cross is told the results are much the same. It takes strong hold of the black people of Africa. They receive the Word of God gladly, and exhibit its fruits in the practical application of its teaching to their own lives. They take special delight in maintaining their own churches and schools. Your Committee desires to make special mention of the Rev. John M. Deputie, who has been for many years prominent in religious and educational work in Liberia. It appreciates his Christian earnestness and fidelity; it recognizes his large usefulness; it sympathizes with him in his mission to America and in his plea for assistance, but at the same time feels that the whole matter would better be left to the wisdom of the Board.

The Committee is happy to report that our Persian missions are in a prosperous condition. Schools are increasing in number, the medical work growing in usefulness and influence, and the evangelistic movement is successful in winning souls for Christ. With the incoming of Christian ideas, there is an incoming of a spirit of liberty. A constitutional form of government has been established, and this, with the industrial development of the country, seems surely to point to a new era in the history of Persia.

The year just closed has been a notable one for Syria. In spite of the death of the Rev. William K. Eddy, an efficient and beloved worker, in spite of severe trials and deep sorrows, in spite of removals made necessary by failing strength, there has been steady advance all along the line. The schools are full to overflowing and good progress has been made towards self-support by the native churches.

Such is a bare outline of the work in all the fields where our Board is operating. The tangible, arithmetical results of the last year's work in these foreign fields were 11,106 accessions to the church, as against 9,860 for the year preceding. But no figures can record or even suggest what has been accomplished in these lands to which reference has been made. Of the forward movement too much cannot be said in the way of commendation. It has stimulated the churches, it has inspired larger and more systematic giving, it has introduced conscientious business methods into our benevolences, and done not a little to save us from the poor makeshifts of occasional collections. By means of campaigns and conferences it has been getting its plans and principles into the minds and hearts of the people. The good results of its work appear in increased contributions from nearly all departments of the Church. That it has still a large field, however, for aggressive usefulness is indicated by the fact that 2,688 churches and 5,947 Sunday-schools contributed nothing to Foreign Missions last year.

Your Committee desires to record its profound appreciation of the work done for world evangelization by the Women's Boards and affiliated societies. Without their devotion to this cause and their constantly increasing gifts the Church would be crippled indeed. By their meetings and mission study classes, by their dissemination of missionary literature, by their quiet and unceasing activities, they are rendering greater service than can be set down in words. Not the least of the significant movements in which we rejoice is the awakening among the men of the Church. They are beginning as never before to realize their responsibility and to grapple with the problem of evangelizing the heathen. The great convention at Omaha in February last was an event of historic interest and importance. Over a thousand men gathered there at their own expense to confer together about missions, and to talk over policies and methods and ways and means of carrying out the great commission. With enthusiastic unanimity they adopted the following missionary policy:

1. It is the mission of the whole Church to give the Gospel to the whole world.

2. This entire Church being a missionary society, each member of the body is under covenant to help fulfill the will of the Head, to give the Gospel to every creature.

3. Every Christian is commanded to "go," if not in person, then potentially, having a share by gift and prayer in supporting a parish abroad as well as the parish at home.

4. Our giving should be an act of worship (Proverbs iii. 9), cheerful (II Corinthians ix. 7), and according to the rule of three (I Corinthians xvi. 2):

Individually, "Let every one of you
Lay by him in store on the
Systematically, First day of the week,
Proportionately, As God hath prospered him."

It was an inspiring spectacle and full of promise for the time to come. The missionary leader who conceived the idea of that convention and brought it to such a magnificent realization is entitled to the hearty thanks of the entire Church. It is hoped that he and those associated with him will do it again and still again, until all the men in our churches and brotherhoods shall catch the missionary spirit and burn with the missionary fire. The appointment of the Rev. Dwight E. Butterfield, Secretary of the Western section of our country; of Mr. J. M. Patterson, of the Southwestern section, and of the Rev. George H. Trull to work for the development of missions in the Sunday-school, is a guarantee of increased interest in this great cause.

Your Committee is heartily pleased with the Board's methods of financial administration. Fidelity, skill and sound prudence appear at every point investigated. The management of this great agency is a credit to the Presbyterian Church. The year of the largest work and the largest expenditures in its history, the Board has closed with a surplus of about $750. By means of this small surplus and by means of special contributions of about $18,000 the deficit of over $110,000 last year has been reduced to about $92,000. The regular budget of appropriations for the coming year already made by the Board, subject to the approval of the Assembly, calls for about $1,160,000. This sum exceeds the corresponding sum of a year ago by about $85,000. Of this increase in appropriations, $9,000 is for larger salaries for native helpers and for the employment of a larger number of them. No other advance is as yet provided for. The rest of the $85,000 will be expended—(a) In the support of the missions of the former Cumberland Church (against which, of course, corresponding contributions are expected from our former Cumberland Presbyterians); (b) in the support of the enlarged Secretarial force in the Home department; (c) in moderate salary increases imperative in some missions in eastern Asia where the cost of living has greatly advanced; and (d) in overcoming the increased rates of foreign exchange. Scarcely any advance in the number of American missionaries is provided for in this budget. The forty-nine new missionaries sent forth were needed to take the places of those at the front who have broken down or retired or been claimed by death. Nor will the Board add any American missionaries to their roll until reasonably assured that the Church will put into its hands funds in excess of the $1,160,000 already appropriated. The Omaha Convention set up as a standard for our reunited Church a total of 4,000 American missionaries, supported in the foreign field at an expenditure of $6,000,000 per annum, and that standard has in careful phraseology been approved by the Board. It is also approved by your Committee, provided it be understood as the ideal standard toward which the Church must strive as rapidly as practicable. Some have thought that the Omaha Convention demanded that the Church during the year now opening furnish $6,000,000, and that it would be subject to censure if it furnished less. To such a proposition your Committee would not agree, because, even though endorsed by the Assembly, it would be regarded by many as visionary, and likely to do harm. But neither the Board nor any one else, as far as is known, has urged anything so impracticable. On the other hand, your Committee adopts absolutely the Omaha declaration, that it is the duty of this generation of Presbyterians to evangelize its proportion of the heathen world, even though it takes 4,000 missionaries and requires an outlay of $6,000,000 a year to do it. And it holds that that ideal should be pushed to reality just as rapidly as sound methods will warrant. The serious duty of this Assembly is to declare how near the ideal standard it thinks the Church should with sober stern determination set out to come this year. As the total income for current work last year was about $1,268,000, securing $232,000 additional this year, or $1,500,000, would only extinguish the present deficit of about $92,000, cover the increased cost of operation as already explained, and permit an advance of less than six per cent. With matters as they are on the other side of the world, who would dare be content with one dollar less? If the reunited Church wishes to blot out its deficit, and advance its Foreign Missions more than six per cent., it must put into the treasury of the Board over $1,500,000.

It is gratifying to note that the Presbyterian Building in New York City is not only free from encumbrance, but is already a source of revenue to the Board, $16,000 having been received from that quarter last year.

The foreign missionary conferences immediately preceding the Assembly are instructive, inspiring, a source of great profit and helpfulness, and should by all means be continued. The taking of Christmas and Easter foreign missionary offerings in our Sunday-schools, already quite common, and a practice long sanctioned by the Assembly, should become general. The Forward Movement should advance until the study of missions and systematic giving to missions has a place in the work of every church and every Sunday-school.

Since the Standing Committee of 1906 made its report, twelve of our missionaries have been called to their reward; the last to answer the summons being the Rev. W. W. Faris, whose father is a member of this Assembly. To him and his family we tender our profound sympathy. It is a long and honored roll. For their faithfulness, their consecration, their devotion, we give thanks to Almighty God. Rich indeed is the Church that has such men and women to carry its banner and do its work, far out on the firing line.

What is needed in view of this sublime and stupendous enterprise is larger vision, larger hope, larger giving. The great commission still holds; it is still binding upon the Church, and upon every member of the Church, and will be until all mankind has heard the story. We have no option. We dare not demur.

> "Ours not to make reply,
> Ours not to reason why,
> Ours but to do and die."

God is calling us to go forward. Fields white to the harvest are calling us forward. Encouragement and victory toward every point of the compass are saying to us, "Forward." In all the earth there is no such enterprise as this. It enlists the interest of the skies. Our Saviour travails in pain for the salvation of the pagan millions; and if we are in full sympathy with Him, if we long to make Him King, if we earnestly desire to see the kingdoms of this world become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, we shall write "Forward" upon all our Church banners and make "Forward" the motto of all our Church life and work.

The following recommendations are submitted for the adoption of the General Assembly:

1. That the action of the Board in electing to its membership Mr. James M. Speers, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Albert W. Pitkin, and the Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D.D., to fill the vacancy made by the death of the Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D., be confirmed.

2. That the election of the Rev. Stanley White, D.D., to succeed the Rev. Dr. Ellinwood, whose advanced years and feeble health make it necessary for him to lay aside all active work, be confirmed.

3. That the following members of the Board, whose terms expire with this Assembly, be reëlected, namely: Rev. Eben B. Cobb, D.D., Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, Mr. John Stewart, Mr. William E. Stiger, and the Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D.D.

4. That in view of the distinct missionary responsibility of the Church as outlined in the Omaha Platform, the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees on Foreign Missions, acting under the advice and with the assistance of the Board, suggest an apportionment to the respective Synods and Presbyteries and local churches of the amount required, on a reasonable basis of annual advance to meet the Church's obligation.

5. That in view of the fact that the total receipts of the Board last year exceeded $1,400,000, not less than $1,500,000 be raised for the work of the current year.

6. That the General Assembly, contemplating a great enlargement of effort in world evangelization, reaffirms the historic principle of Presbyterianism, that the Church by virtue of its very constitution is a missionary society; that missionary interest on the part of every member is not optional, but obligatory; that every church member is bound to do all in his power to send the Gospel to those in heathen darkness, and the Assembly calls upon the Church and every communicant in the Church to be faithful to this sublime and solemn duty.

7. That all our ministers be urged to preach special missionary sermons at frequent intervals, to the end that their people may be informed, inspired and quickened upon this subject, and that Synods and Presbyteries give it a large place in their annual meetings.

8. That the records of the Board, which we find to be very neatly and carefully kept, be approved.

9. That the membership of the Board be increased from twenty-one to twenty-three, by the addition of T. H. Cobbs, Esq., and Rev. E. E. Morris, who are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection.

Respectfully submitted.

ROBERT F. COYLE, Chairman.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, through its Chairman, Rev. Francis W. Russell, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. Alexander Henry, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and Rev. W. A. Provine, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work begs leave to submit the following Report:

As is well known, the work of this Board is carried forward under five general divisions; viz.: The Missionary, the Editorial, Sabbath-school Training, Young People's and Business Departments.

Your Committee has examined the reports and minutes of this Board, has considered various papers placed in its hands, and has had personal conference with officers of the Board. We find the minutes kept both carefully and accurately, and this statement includes the minutes and report of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Considering the detailed operations of the Board, let us turn

I. To the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.—This field embraces evangelistic and pastoral work together with Sabbath-school development. Missionaries and colporteurs have labored in all the States and Territories except Louisiana and the New England States. In briefest possible review, there are fifteen Synodical and 118 Presbyterial missionaries together with thirty colporteurs engaged in this branch of the work of the Board. These men have organized during the last year 722 Sabbath-schools, revived 247, or a total of 969, which schools have 3,191 officers and teachers, containing 30,029 scholars. Beside this great service, the missionaries have visited 180,823 families and have held 4,838 evangelistic meetings, resulting in 2,119 confessions of faith in Jesus Christ. Beside this, 976 institutes and conventions have been held.

We can only speak in a passing sentence of the thousands of volumes and pages of tracts and religious literature placed in the hands of the people, the influence of which God only knows, for no man can estimate it. Bear also in mind, please, that last year ninety-nine Presbyterian churches were organized as the outgrowth of this missionary and evangelistic activity. In what may be termed physical relief, this Board has distributed seventy-six barrels and boxes of clothing valued at $3,500.

Your Committee desires to call special attention to and place peculiar emphasis upon the work among the foreigners. The year has been one of very aggressive work on their behalf. There were thirty colporteurs that worked for longer or shorter periods, and they visited more than 35,000 families, distributing by sale and gift more than 10,000 religious books and over 5,000 pages of tracts, besides 3,700 Bibles, Testaments and Gospels in at least twenty different languages. In every field this work has been followed with most encouraging results. In the anthracite coal regions, for illustration, where there have been three colporteurs that worked among Slavs, Italians and Hungarians, the Gospel has been presented to large numbers, many of whom have been gathered into missions which have been established at varied points under the care of Presbyterial committees. Several new publications for these foreigners have been begun during the year, in order that we may meet the imperative needs of the situation. Among these we specially mention the Reformed Sentinel, a sixteen-page weekly for Hungarians; also The Evangel, a monthly Sabbath-school paper; Our Life, a monthly of twenty-four octavo pages for the Ruthenians. These, in addition to the papers already being published, will be of inestimable value in this most important and neglected field.

II. Editorial Department.—Your Committee most heartily commends the efficiency of this department and expresses its satisfaction with the lesson helps and periodicals published. Your Committee most earnestly and emphatically desires to commend our own publications, and our churches are urged to use them in our Sabbath-schools. We are pleased to note that a constant effort is being made to raise the standard of these periodicals, and, while expressing appreciation as to the excellence of all the publications, we desire to make special mention of Forward and The Westminster Teacher.

III. The Publication or Business Department.—We desire to commend the business sagacity exhibited by this department, together with the spirit and success of its administration. The business of the Board shows gratifying and continuing increase, not only in amount of the business done, but also in the net profits; and this in the face of constantly increasing cost of labor and materials and also the large falling off in the business of the Pacific Coast Branch, occasioned by the destruction of the depository by earthquake and fire in April, 1906.

The Board was fortunate in making adjustment of losses by this fire and earthquake, the loss on insurance being only about $10,000, and the total loss less than $18,000.

The Business Department has conducted its work throughout the year with such eminent sagacity and success as to be able to transfer $25,600 to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, and at the same time add to the permanent capital of the Board $12,800. The failure of the Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia, which was thought at one time to threaten severe loss to the Board, has been finally arranged so that no loss was sustained.

It is fitting at this place to speak of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board. This report of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been separately considered, as the situation appears to make imperative. We find a most gratifying condition in the affairs of this Board, and commend the conservative method of valuation as shown in its report. We also congratulate the Board upon the success which has attended its efforts, and this in the face of somewhat serious defection, though the loss thereby is less than had at first been expected.

We believe that the Cumberland Presbyterian, published by the Board, is doing much for the benefit of the Church in that region formerly occupied by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

IV. Sabbath-school Training Department.—Here we touch a very important feature and basic element in the work. Sabbath-school organization must be followed by Sabbath-school training if we are to reach our highest efficiency. Our Sabbath-school workers, that vast army of consecrated men and women, must indeed be instructed, aided and inspired to accomplish their best possible work. We desire, therefore, to especially emphasize and heartily endorse the plans of the Board in connection with its scheme of missionary conferences and Sabbath-school institutes, and express the desire that this particular work may receive peculiar prominence during the coming year.

And also your Committee is of the opinion, both by observation and investigation, that our Church is not realizing her possibilities in such religious education; though let it at once be said that we greatly rejoice in what has been accomplished. Already we have enlisted nearly 10,000 scholars in teacher training classes. But we are not incorporating as rapidly as desirable in our Sabbath-schools the settled results of modern scientific pedagogy, and comprehensively all plans of modern Sabbath-school service. In addition to this, we are finding it a problem to secure teachers adequately trained for their important and difficult work. We note with great pleasure the service of the Board in its efforts to secure this most desirable end. Heartily commending the work that has been done, yet believing that this phase of the service should be greatly developed, broadened and strengthened to meet the demands of supplemental and systematic Bible study, and trusting that what has been accomplished is only the beginning, we leave with the Board the extension of this service as rapidly as possible.

Recognizing both the difficulty and delicacy of teaching the shorter catechism in the schools, owing to the difference of opinion as to the desirability of this teaching, and this in part because of the changed ideas of interpretation, we raise the question as to whether some brief and clear catechetical summary of doctrine might not be furnished that should be more widely used. We believe this is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

We note with pleasure the appointment of the Rev. Willis L. Gelston, of Coldwater, Mich., to the important position of "Superintendent of the new Department of Young People's Work of the Board." We bespeak for him entrée to all our churches, and trust the young people will cordially coöperate with him in all plans for the advancement of their work.

Considerable discussion having arisen as to the desirability of The Westminster Teacher being published weekly, rather than monthly, your Committee expresses its judgment as to the advantage of the change, and feels that as a weekly publication it should be carefully tested during this year.

As to the Overtures referring to the matter of advertisements on the pages of the Sabbath-school Lesson Helps, your Committee realizes the desirability of the discontinuance of all such advertisements, and recommends that all secular advertisements be omitted from the pages of the quarterlies as speedily as possible consistent with previously executed business contracts.

Regarding the Overture relative to interdenominational Sabbath-school lessons, your Committee believes that the International Lesson system is, upon the whole, the most advantageous of the various proposed plans of lesson study, though we are convinced it is not yet the ideal. We would therefore ask the International Lesson Committee to consider whether it would not be possible to so modify the present scheme of study as to place it most completely in harmony with modern and approved pedagogical methods, and also give Sabbath-school scholars a wider and more intelligent comprehension of the Bible as a whole.

In the question referred to our Committee, of instructing the Board of Publication to reproduce for circulation the facts embodied in the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, we deem it inexpedient for many reasons to burden the Board with this work and expense.

Regarding the Overture on the Systematic Course of Bible Study, your Committee begs leave to state that this has practically been recommended by the Committee.

Finally, we desire to make the following recommendations:

1. In view of the change of the work of the Board, in which the Sabbath-school interests have become so prominent, we recommend that the corporate name be changed to the "Presbyterian Board of Sabbath-school Work and Publication," and that this recommendation be referred by the Assembly to the Special Committee on Administrative Agencies.

2. We recommend that the Board be encouraged to strengthen and develop its Sabbath-school training work as rapidly as possible, so as to be of greater service to the Sabbath-school workers in this most important branch of our Church life.

3. We recommend that the Board consider the advisability of the exclusive use of the Standard American Revised text of the Scriptures in all its Sabbath-school periodicals.

4. We recommend that the pastors under the care of our Assembly be urged to press the needs of this work more earnestly upon the churches, and that the churches be urged to give more money to sustain this vital and far-reaching service, and that unremitting effort be made to secure from churches and Sabbath-schools $200,000 during the next year for the work of this Board.

5. The Committee recognizes the valuable services accomplished by missionaries in fields that are spiritually destitute, and recommends that this distinct Sabbath-school phase of the work be kept prominently before the minds of the missionaries and church members.

6. That Rally Day be exclusively set aside as a day for special presentation of the great work among the foreigners in America, and that the offerings of this day shall be applied in the furtherance of this most pressing and imperative field.

7. In pursuance of plans of agreement between the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, U. S. A., and the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, we recommend to the General Assembly that it increase the membership of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to thirty members, and that the following six men be elected to membership in the Board: To serve for one year, John H. Dewitt and W. T. Hardison; to serve for two years, Rev. W. A. Provine and L. M. Rice; to serve for three years, Rev. Charles Manton and Hamilton Parks. And that the holding corporation of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Publication be perpetuated by the election of the following three members to succeed themselves: Mr. L. M. Rice, Mr. W. T. Hardison and Rev. J. M. Johnson.

8. The Committee respectfully recommends that the following ministers and elders, whose terms of office expire next month, be reëlected to serve for three years: Ministers—Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Rev. Robert M. Patterson, D.D., Rev. Louis F. Benson, D.D., Rev. W. Beatty Jennings, D.D.; Elders—Robert H. Hinckley, John H. Watt, William H. Scott, Franklin L. Sheppard.

All of which is most respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS W. RUSSELL, Chairman.

Upon Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, the following telegram was sent to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at Denver, Colorado:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Columbus, Ohio, sends cordial Christian greetings to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at Denver, Colorado. See John xvii. 21. One hundred and four Presbyteries have overtured this General Assembly for action looking to union with the United Presbyterian Church. The Assembly hails this with joy, and has referred the Overtures to its Committee on Church Coöperation and Union; and has appointed Rev. Robert F. Coyle and Rev. W. A. Hunter as fraternal delegates to your Assembly.

WM. H. ROBERTS, Moderator.

The matter of the Moderator's sending a word of greeting to an aged minister on his ninetieth birthday was referred to the Committee on Polity.

The Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, Rev. William P. Fulton, D.D., presented its Report on matters under consideration both by it and the Temperance Committee. Action on the Report was postponed until after the hearing of the Report of the Temperance Committee.

The Temperance Committee, through its Chairman, Rev. Henry E. Dosker, D.D., presented a Report on certain Overtures, which as amended and adopted is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully begs to report in part as follows:

The following Overtures (Nos. 102–105) were referred to your Committee:

1. The Presbytery of Carlisle overtures for the abandonment of the plan of organization of a "Church Temperance Federation" as unwise.

2. The Presbytery of Chicago memorializes for the postponement of "any endorsement of the plan recently adopted" at the Pittsburgh Conference, until "after the first meeting of the National Inter-Church Federation."

3. The Presbytery of Minnewaukon petitions, in regard to the forming of such a Federation, "that no further action be taken."

4. The Presbytery of St. Louis expresses "its disapproval of the formation of an Inter-Church Federation on Temperance," for which they "do not deem the time as yet ripe."

Your Committee having heard the parties favoring these Overtures and having fully digested this matter, report on them as follows:

The appointment of the Permanent Committee on Temperance was the legitimate fruit of the gradual development of the temperance spirit in our beloved Church. As early as 1811 it found its advocates among such men as Miller and Milledoler, Romeyn and Richards, Spring and Rodgers, Rutgers and Bethune. A year later an active temperance campaign was begun by the Church, and the bride of Christ had laid her hands on the royal garments of purity. Six years later in 1818 we had advanced from the principle of Temperateness to that of Temperance, in the modern sense. Total abstinence now became the slogan of battle. When in 1829 the American Temperance Society was born it was heartily welcomed by the Presbyterian Church. Again and again, as the years rolled by, an advance was sounded, and the Temperance spirit in the Church ever became more pronounced. And when in the evolution of the movement we passed from abstinence to prohibition, the Church kept step with the progress and heartily endorsed it. From 1854 to 1907 the Assembly's Minutes are an unbroken testimony of the loyalty of the children to the temperance doctrine of the fathers.

The establishment of a Permanent Committee therefore was the inevitable outcome of the agitation of years, and we look back with pride and gratitude to the achievements and whole-souled labors of this Committee, from its birth in 1881 until now. The suggestion of a National Inter-Church Conference to consider the feasibility of a Church Temperance Federation originated with our Permanent Committee; but we should remember that it was considered and approved by the Standing Committee on Temperance, and was adopted by the Assembly of 1906 without a dissenting vote. Pursuant to this action a joint call was issued by the Committees of the United Presbyterian Church and our own Church for a National Inter-Church Temperance Conference, to be held at Pittsburgh, Pa., January 30 and 31, 1907. At this conference sixteen denominations were represented by nearly 100 persons, and a "Basis of Agreement" was framed, which is submitted for our approval.

Without stultifying ourselves, retreat seems impossible. The whole movement seems in perfect accord with the restless striving for consolidation and centralization which characterizes our life in every respect. And yet undue haste is unnecessary. The plan will work as well to-morrow as to-day. In reply to all the Overtures on the subject your Committee therefore offers the following recommendation:

Recognizing the value of unity and coöperation in Church temperance work, and the desirability of a channel of intercommunication, we approve for reference to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America the proposed "Basis of Agreement" submitted in the Report of the Permanent Committee. The said Committee is hereby instructed to present this Basis of Agreement to the Federal Council in December, 1908, with the object of constituting a "Temperance Department" of the said Federal Council, and to report the result of their conference to the Assembly of 1909.

To your Committee was further referred a set of resolutions passed by this Assembly, calling attention to the growing misunderstanding of the sphere of the activity of the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance, and to the need of the hearty coöperation of all forces in the Church; and therefore ordering your Standing Committee on Temperance to carefully define the duties of the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance. The Committee submits the following:

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church has always stood for the separation of Church and State, and this Assembly believes that the Church in its organized capacity, while urging upon its members as Christian voters to take an active interest in political affairs and to bring to the service of the State a conscientious performance of civic duty, should not through any of its agencies be entangled with the political organizations of the State; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly declares as its policy that the Permanent Committee on Temperance shall not interfere in political primaries, advocate the election or defeat of candidates for political office, enter into the organization of political campaigns, frame bills for presentation to Legislatures, lobby before Legislatures, or otherwise entangle the Church with the political activities of the State; provided that nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the constitutional right of petition as guaranteed in our Standards.

Resolved, 2. While we as a church organization must continue to do our own temperance work, nevertheless the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America most heartily commends the American Anti-Saloon League as a sane, safe and effective organization in the advancement of the great cause of temperance; and pledges thereto the fullest coöperation consistent with the Constitution of our Church.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY E. DOSKER, Chairman.

The third Order for this afternoon was made the fourth Order for to-morrow morning.

The following were nominated to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly: Mervin J. Eckels, D.D., Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., and instead of Mr. W. A. Patton, resigned, Mr. John H. Dingee.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 7.30 o'clock P. M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of Foreign Missions.

THURSDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Moderator was authorized to add three members to the Committee, consisting of himself and Rev. Ira Landrith, D.D., on the paper received from T. H. Padgett and others. He appointed Rev. Charles Manton, D.D., and Elders E. G. Polk and Robert S. Davis.

The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The duties of the Moderator of this Assembly are increasing rapidly by reason of the growth of the Church, and whereas the Stated Clerk performs of necessity many duties, all requiring time, strength and forethought; and whereas there will be important additional duties for the Stated Clerk during the present year, incident to the various movements for union and the care of the interests growing out of the union with the Cumberland Church; also the arrangements connected with the Federation of Churches and the Presbyterian Alliance; and whereas the Des Moines Assembly voted the Stated Clerk a vacation of two months last year, which he was unable to use owing to the urgency of the business of his office; and whereas the efficient help which he has had during the past year in the person of the Stated Clerk of the Cumberland Assembly will be no longer at his disposal; therefore,

Resolved, That he be authorized and recommended to employ for the coming year a competent Assistant Clerk, on such terms as he may be able to arrange.

The Stated Clerk announced that under the terms of this action he would secure the services of Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D., as Assistant Clerk.

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion presented its Report, which was accepted, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee appointed to consider legal matters connected with Reunion respectfully presents the following as its Report:

Your Committee has held numerous meetings, has considered the various matters referred to it, or brought to its attention from authoritative sources, and has prepared recommendations suggesting the action deemed advisable in every instance.

1. Your Committee considered the relation of the various Boards of the reunited Church, and the Assembly has already, pursuant to our preliminary report, reconsidered its adoption of Section VI*a* of the Report of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, and referred back to said Committee the subject matter of said Section VI*a*.

2. Your Committee is persuaded that an important service has been rendered by the Committee known as the Committee on Pastoral Oversight during the past year. This Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1906 of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The interests committed to the care of that Committee are now the interests of the reunited Church. It is accordingly recommended:

That the Moderator be authorized to appoint a Committee of eleven, five ministers and six elders, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman, which Committee shall succeed the Committee on Pastoral Oversight, appointed by the Decatur Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and shall have charge of all legal matters arising out of the Reunion; provided, that any expenses incurred by said Committee be raised by contributions from persons or organizations interested.

3. With regard to certain Overtures referred to this Committee by this Assembly the following recommendations are made:

Overture No. 112, as to a Committee of Mediation with our Cumberland Brethren, etc., and Overtures Nos. 120 and 121, as to an equitable adjustment of the property of former Cumberland churches, etc., it is recommended that, in view of pending litigation and of the appointment of the Committee of Eleven, no further action be taken.

Overture No. 135, from the Synod of Kentucky–A, as to the validation of certain action by members of Cumberland Presbytery. It is recommended that the action of the Synod of Kentucky–A approving said action be and it is hereby ratified.

4. This Assembly referred to this Committee the whole matter of the Enabling Acts, prepared and recommended by the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, and made necessary by the Reunion in order to consolidate or readjust the boundaries of certain Presbyteries and Synods of the reunited Church, which before the Reunion effected May 24, 1906, occupied the same territory in whole or in part.

To this subject your Committee has devoted particular care and attention.

As to matters of mere phraseology or form, involving the correction of clerical errors, not matters of substance, we recommend:

1. That in publishing and issuing the Enabling Acts which may be adopted, the Stated Clerk is hereby directed and authorized to make any necessary obvious verbal corrections not affecting matters of substance.

2. As to the Enabling Acts themselves, involving the rearrangement of Presbyterial and Synodical boundaries, the dates of convening the judicatories to be erected, and the names whereunder they are hereafter to be known, your Committee has received communications from authoritative sources resulting in some verbal changes, and some of substance, in the proposed Acts as below noted.

We are of opinion that there should be adopted by the Assembly a General Preamble to be deemed a part of every Enabling Act, and as well a general Final Declaration similarly to be deemed a part of every Enabling Act, to be expressive of the intent of the reunited Church and interpretative of the Acts themselves.

3. General Preamble.—

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has, by virtue of the Reunion and Union effected May 24, 1906, exclusive jurisdiction over all the Synods and Presbyteries of the reunited Church; and,

Whereas, By the Plan of Reunion and Union and the Concurrent Declarations thereunder adopted, it was left to this General Assembly to consolidate, or otherwise deal with such Synods and Presbyteries as should, upon consummation of the Reunion, be found to cover the same territory in whole or in part; and,

Whereas, After conference with the Synods and Presbyteries affected, the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union has recommended certain Enabling Acts framed pursuant to the directions of the General Assembly of 1906:

Now this Assembly, having duly considered the said Acts, in order that the intention of the reunited Church in enacting the same shall be clearly set forth, doth hereby solemnly declare:

That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in promulgating the subjoined Enabling Acts, enjoins upon each and every Presbytery and Synod therein referred to and thereby affected, and which may hold or be entitled to any funds or property impressed with any trust, or otherwise, to transfer, each to its respective successor-judicatory, as by said Enabling Acts constituted, all such funds or property according to law.

4. We recommend the following as the Final Declaration to follow the said several Acts:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in the promulgation of the several foregoing Enabling Acts, solemnly declares its intention and purpose that every Presbytery or Synod, erected or constituted by virtue of any of said Acts, shall in all respects have, hold, exercise and administer, as successor, every right, title, trust or obligation possessed by or charged upon the former Presbyteries or Synods, of which it is above enacted and declared to be the successor.

We recommend the enactment by the Assembly of the said Enabling Acts, which with the amendments therein made severally read as follows:

Synod of California.

Be it and it is hereby enacted by the General Assembly:

I. That the Synod of the Pacific is hereby united with the Synod of California, which Synod is continued and shall include all the Presbyteries of the two Synods within the State of California, and* all the ministers and churches under the care of said Presbyteries; and the Synod of California as thus constituted is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of the Pacific, and as such is entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises and liable to the performance of all the duties of said Synod.

II. The Synod of California as thus continued and constituted shall meet on the third Wednesday of October, 1907, at 7.30 P.M., at the grounds of the Mt. Hermon Resort Association, or at the First Presbyterian Church of Fresno, California, and shall be opened with a sermon by the Rev. Warren D. More, Moderator of the Synod of California (or in his absence by the Moderator of the Synod of the Pacific), who shall preside until a new Moderator is chosen.

III. That the Presbyteries of the Synod of the Pacific, viz., the Presbyteries of California, Los Angeles, Sacramento and Tulare, be and are hereby dissolved, and their churches and ministers are hereby transferred and assigned to the Presbyteries of the Synod of California within whose bounds they reside or are located.

IV. That all the records, papers and funds of the Synod of the Pacific and of its Presbyteries as named in Section three (3) of this Act, be and are hereby directed to be delivered to the Stated Clerk of the Synod of California, for such disposition as to the said Synod shall seem proper.

V. That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1907, at 12 o'clock noon.

Synod of Illinois.

Be it and it is hereby enacted by the General Assembly:

I. That the Synod of Illinois and the Synod of Illinois-A, both under the jurisdiction of this General Assembly, are hereby united and consolidated into the Synod of Illinois, which Synod shall have its boundaries coterminous with the State of Illinois and shall include all the Presbyteries of said Synods within said State, and all the ministers and churches under the care of said Presbyteries, except such churches of the Synod of Illinois-A as lie outside of the boundaries of the State of Illinois; and the Synod of Illinois as thus united and consolidated is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of Illinois and the Synod of Illinois-A, and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises and liable to the performance of all the duties of those Synods.

All properties, real and personal, all rights, all inheritances, bequests, annuities, rentals, royalties, franchises, prerogatives, or emoluments of whatever character and from whatever source belonging to the Synods of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, or any of them, now designated in the Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., for 1906 as Synods-A of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., of Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, and to the Synods of Indiana, Illinois, and Iowa of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., jointly or severally, on the formal consummation of the union of these said Synods in each of the States of Indiana, Illinois and Iowa as Synods of the reunited and united Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., as the legal successors of such former Synods, shall at once become the properties, rights, inheritances, bequests, annuities, rentals, royalties, franchises, prerogatives, and emoluments of said consolidated Synods of the reunited and the united Church jointly and severally as they have been possessed and exercised in the past by said original Synods.

All Boards and corporations existing and acting under or amenable to the authority and supervision of the said original Synods, or any of them, shall continue to operate and conduct their affairs under the authority and supervision of the said consolidated Synods, successors of said former Synods, jointly or severally exercised as provided in their charters and the laws of their respective States, and shall be amenable to them as to the original Synods in the past.

All appointments to membership in said Boards and corporations shall be made by each of the said consolidated Synods, as successor of said former Synods respectively, as may be provided in the charters or by the agreements with the original Synods.

II. That the Synod of Illinois as thus united and consolidated shall meet on the third Tuesday of October, 1907, in the Presbyterian Church of Clinton, Illinois, and shall be opened with a sermon by the Rev. W. H. Penhallegon, D.D., or in his absence by the Rev. D. E. Bushnell, D.D., and until a Moderator is elected shall be moderated jointly by the present Moderators of the two Synods, Ruling Elders T. H. Perrin and S. F. Wilson.

This resolution and action shall take effect on the 31st day of August, in the year of our Lord 1907, at 12 o'clock noon.

III. That the Synod of Illinois shall be composed of twelve Presbyteries constituted as follows:

1. Alton Presbytery shall consist of the ministers and churches within the Counties of Calhoun, Greene, Macoupin, Montgomery, Jersey, Madison, Bond, Saint Clair, Monroe, Randolph and Clinton, except the minister and church of Centralia.

It shall meet on the fourth Tuesday in September, 1907, at 2.30 P.M., in the place chosen by the present Presbytery of Alton, and shall be opened with a sermon by the person chosen by the Presbytery of Vandalia, who shall preside until a Moderator is elected.

The Presbytery of Bloomington as thus constituted shall be the legal successor of the "Presbytery of Bloomington in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and the Presbytery of Foster, and as such entitled to all the rights and franchises and liable to all the duties of those

It shall meet on the first Monday of October, 1907, at such time and place as the present Chicago Presbytery shall determine, and shall be opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator of said Presbytery, who shall preside until a Moderator is elected.

5. Ewing Presbytery shall consist of the ministers and churches within the Counties of Clay, Richland, Lawrence, Wabash, Edwards, Wayne, Jefferson, Washington, Perry, Franklin, Hamilton, White and Marion, including the minister and church of Centralia. Ewing Presbytery as thus constituted shall be the legal successor of the "Presbytery of Mount Vernon of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church," and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises and liable to all the duties of that Presbytery. It shall meet on the third Tuesday of September, 1907, at 7.30 P.M., in the Presbyterian Church chosen by Mount Vernon Presbytery at its last preceding stated meeting, and shall be opened with a sermon by the minister chosen by Cairo Presbytery (or in his absence by the oldest minister present), who shall preside until a Moderator is elected.

6. Freeport Presbytery shall consist of the ministers and churches in the Counties of Jo Daviess, Stephenson, Winnebago, Boone, McHenry, Carroll and such part of Ogle as lies west of the Third Principal Meridian. Freeport Presbytery as thus constituted shall be the legal successor of the Freeport Presbytery, and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises and liable to all the duties of said Presbytery. The Committee to Canvass the Vote of the Presbyteries upon Overtures sent down by the Assembly of 1906 presented the following Report:

Your Committee has been appointed to canvass the written answers to Overtures sent down by the last Assembly to the Presbyteries. These Overtures relate to certain amendments to our Form of Government and Book of Discipline, amendatory of the scheme or plan for Judicial Commissions, incorporated into the Book of Discipline and Form of Government by the adoption of Overtures relating thereto, Nos. 1–6, sent down by the Assembly of 1906 to the Presbyteries. The obligation to canvass this vote, to report such canvass to the Assembly, and to declare, through the Assembly, that it has been adopted as a part of our Standards, is not itself imposed by those Standards, but by the resolution of the General Assembly of 1891 (see Digest, ed. 1907, pp. 602, 603).

On Overture No. 1, concerning Judicial Cases in Presbytery and Synod, your Committee respectfully reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Overture No. 1.—(a) Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," so far as it applies to Judicial Commissions of Presbyteries and Synods, be changed from the form in which it stood at the time the Basis of Union between the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was agreed to (May, 1904), so as to read as follows:

I. Concerning Judicial Cases in Presbyteries and Synods.

118. A Presbytery or a Synod may elect from the ministers and ruling elders subject to its jurisdiction a Judicial Commission, which shall be composed of not less than seven members for a Presbytery and not less than eleven for a Synod, a majority of which members shall be ministers. The electing judicatory may transmit to such Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

119. The Commission shall elect from its members a Moderator and a Clerk; and, in the case transmitted to it, shall have the powers prescribed by, and conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and rules governing the trial of such cases before the electing judicatory, to which, also, it shall make a report.

120. The quorum of the Commission shall consist of not less than two-thirds of the members elected to it, provided that at least one-half the quorum shall be ministers.

121. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at such times and places as the electing judicatory shall direct; or if no directions shall be given, then at such times and places as the Commission shall determine.

122. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case at the same time as the electing judicatory, shall be promptly reported to the judicatory, and shall, from the time of the rendering of the report, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, shall, from the time of the announcement of the decision, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory.

123. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and decisions of the Commission; shall with the Moderator certify in writing such record to be full and correct; and shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the decision to each party in the case, and file the certified record with the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory.

124. The Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory, upon the request of the Commission in any case, or upon its failure to report the certified record of such case when called for by the judicatory, shall forthwith report the certified record to the judicatory; and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the same, and shall include it in the records sent up to the next superior judicatory for review.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter ix of the Book of Discipline be amended from the form in which it stood at the time the Basis of Union between the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

was agreed to, by adding at the close of Section 94, pertaining to Appeals, the following provision, to wit:

When a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission of an inferior judicatory, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, an appeal from the judgment of such Commission may be taken and prosecuted before a superior judicatory, in the same manner as if the judgment had been rendered by the judicatory.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter X of the Book of Discipline, pertaining to Dissents and Protests, be amended by striking out in Section 107 the phrase "under the provisions of Section 120 of this Book," also by striking out the word "judicial" where it appears before the word "cases," also by adding at the close of Section 107 the second proviso, given below, and also by further amending said Section 107 from the form in which it stood at the time the Basis of Union between the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was agreed to, so that it will read as follows:

107. No one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who has not a right to vote on the question decided; and no one shall be allowed to dissent or protest on any question who did not vote against the decision; provided, that when a case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, any member of the judicatory to which the decision is reported may enter his dissent or protest, or his answer to any protest, in the same manner as if the case had been tried before the judicatory itself and he had voted thereon; and provided, that when a case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory, to be so entered by him.

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 6, on the Amendment of Constitutional Rule No. 3, sent down by the Assembly of 1906, had been constitutionally adopted, and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

The Committee reported also the following:

A paper containing a protest has been received from the Presbytery of Baltimore against the action of the General Assembly in sending the preceding Overtures down to the Presbyteries, claiming that this action was in direct conflict with the Constitution of the Church. The Presbytery asks that this protest be entered on record. We recommend that this request be complied with.

The Report was adopted, and the protest of the Presbytery admitted to record. It is as follows:

"The Presbytery of Baltimore declines to vote on the Overtures 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, providing for Permanent Judicial Commissions, and for renumbering certain sections, etc., because a part of the substance of these Overtures was adopted by the Presbyteries and declared "constitutionally adopted" by the Moderator of the General Assembly of 1905.

"The remaining part of said Overtures was adopted by the Presbyteries, and so reported to the General Assembly by the Stated Clerk in 1906, but was not declared adopted by the Moderator, as they should have been, under Form of Government, Chapter XXIII, Section 6.

"We believe that the General Assembly, in sending these Overtures back to the Presbyteries, is in direct conflict with the Constitution of the Church, and do hereby solemnly protest against the whole procedure, and ask that this reply be entered upon the Record."

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., presented the following Report, which was adopted:

Judicial Case No. 1, being a complaint of Rev. R. R. Marquis against the Synod of Iowa. In view of the fact that we find the papers in the case insufficient, and also in view of the fact that the complainant in a letter to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, bearing the date May 14, 1907, expresses himself as not disposed to prosecute the case farther, we recommend that no action be taken.

Judicial Case No. 2, being the appeal of John W. Whitbeck from an action of the Synod of New York. We recommend the final dismissal of the case.

Judicial Case No. 3, being a complaint of Maggie Gowland against the Synod of Illinois. We find the complaint not in order, and recommend that it be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 4, being a complaint of Rev. C. C. Todd against the Synod of South Dakota. We recommend that, in the absence of complainant and representative counsel, the complaint be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 5, being an appeal of Carl A. Magee from a final judgment of the Synod of Ohio. We find the appeal to be in order, and recommend the reference of the same to a special Judicial Commission.

The Committee would also recommend that, in view of the adoption of the Overtures on Judicial Commissions submitted to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly of 1906, this Assembly elect a Permanent Judicial Commission, and the Judicial Committee be directed to submit nominations for the membership of said Commission.

Rev. A. H. Stephens, D.D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on Correspondence, introduced the following Fraternal Delegates, who addressed the Assembly:

Rev. Isaac Boyce, D.D., representing the Presbyterian Church of Mexico;

Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., representing the Presbyterian Church of India;

Rev. Alberto Costabel, representing the Waldensian Church of Italy;

Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D., General Secretary of the World Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System.

The Moderator responded in behalf of the Assembly to their fraternal greetings.

Upon report and recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures the following telegram was sent to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church:

COLUMBUS, O., May 23, 1907.

To the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Columbus, Ohio, sends Christian greeting to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, in session at Pittsburgh, Pa. Recognizing with gratitude our common heritage of blood and faith, and more and more deeply impressed with the unfolding of the divine providence in apparent fulfilment of the prayer of our blessed Lord, "that they all may be one," we beg to assure you of our deep family affection and desire for coöperation with you in the purposes of the Kingdom.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Moderator.

The Standing Committee on Young People's Work, through its Chairman, Rev. Joseph W. Sanderson, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Assembly's Standing Committee on Young People's Work respectfully presents the following Report:

We feel as a Committee that the work of our Church for the young people is undergoing a transition. More and more the feeling is growing that all these different Societies and Guilds and Bands should come under the supervision of the Church in a more definite way. There is a condition resembling chaos in the administration of our young people's work, and no definite comprehensive plan has as yet been formulated by which the full strength of the youth and enthusiasm of our manhood and womanhood can be directed and brought to the support of the Presbyterian Church.

And yet more and more the possibilities of this field are being realized by the Church, and several Boards are reaching out through special Young People's Secretaries to reap a harvest of income and helpfulness from this fertile field.

So we note with approval that the last General Assembly assigned the supervision of this work to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, directing that an additional department of the Board be created and a Superintendent employed. This is the first step toward the centralization of the Young People's work and the development of a Young People's policy, which seems to us greatly to be desired.

After some search, the Board of Publication has secured the services of an able and experienced Young People's worker, the Rev. Willis L. Gelston, of Coldwater, Michigan, who will take up his work next September, and will at that time present his plans and outline his policy.

We submit the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That in view of the various and unrelated agencies influencing the young people of our Church, the Committee on Administrative Agencies be directed to present for the consideration of the next General Assembly some plan for a central bureau for the Christian nurture of the young; such bureau to undertake a comprehensive programme on the subject, including principles and modes of organization; instruction in the Bible, in missionary affairs, in Church standards and policy; practical ministry, systematic giving, devotional, manual, social or other features proper to the subject, and plans for making the same effective among churches and the young people.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the action of the General Assembly in placing Young People's work under the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, we recommend that the Standing Committee on Young People's Work be discontinued.

Resolved, 3. That Overture No. 113, on Religious Education, referred to this Committee by the Assembly, be referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. SANDERSON, Chairman.

The Committee on Marriage and Divorce, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce would respectfully report that, as instructed, we have continued our conferences during the past year with the representatives of the sixteen other Protestant denominations, and with the representatives of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, constituting with your Committee the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce.

The Inter-Church Conference has recognized as its chief object the attainment of a church unity that would decree such Scriptural standards and require such practices, both upon the part of ministers in performing the marriage ceremony, and upon the part of church members in forming or dissolving marriage relations, as would conserve the purity both of the Church and of the family.

The Conference has not discussed differences of opinion regarding Scriptural causes of divorce, nor attempted to bring about uniform legislation in the several Churches comprising the Conference.

But the Conference has unanimously recommended comity among the Churches, and the various Church courts have taken the action recommended.

In 1904 our General Assembly adopted the following resolution:

"Recognizing the comity which should exist between Churches represented in the Inter-Church Conference, acknowledging as they do the law of Christ alone as supreme, we advise each minister under the authority of this General Assembly to refuse to unite in marriage any member of any such Church whose marriage is known to such minister to be prohibited by the laws of the Church in which such person holds membership, unless such minister believes that in the peculiar circumstances of a given case his refusal would do injustice to an innocent person who has been divorced for Scriptural reasons."

The General Assembly of 1905 adopted the following resolution:

"We approve the recommendation of the Inter-Church Conference that ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons, except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

But such resolutions will fail to accomplish their purpose, or deliver our Church from reproach, unless Presbyteries are enjoined to exercise the vigilance and discipline necessary to protect the Church from scandal. Those who want to seem respectable greatly desire to have the cloak of ecclesiastical sanction thrown over their marriages. They are not satisfied with the sanction of the civil law, nor with the ceremony of its official representative.

The minister who proclaims anti-Confessional doctrines is subject to the discipline of Church courts. Why should he not be held to account for abusing his privileges as a minister, and the authority vested in him by ordination, by sealing marriages with Church sanction which are prohibited by the Confessional declarations which he has vowed to maintain?

The Church cannot hope to influence those who make and execute civil laws, to give protection to the family, to make the sundering of marriage ties and the forming of new alliances more difficult, unless by a strict adherence to its own teachings the Church holds those who minister by its authority responsible for the violation of its teachings.

The Church has it in its power to put such opprobrium upon divorces or re-marriages that have not the sanction of God's Word, that those who dread its condemnation and desire its recognition will hesitate to ostracize themselves.

But if the Church permits its seal to be put upon such sinful alliances, if it allows its silence to seem its approval, if it withholds its power to condemn, in deference to a power to contribute, it need not think it strange that its influence for reform is so little regarded.

The advance is slow, but much has been accomplished, and much more is promised that gives encouragement and hope. The stir among the Churches has extended to the States. Your Committee reported to the last General Assembly the convening of the representatives of forty-four States and Territories in a Divorce Congress for the purpose of securing, as far as possible, uniform divorce statutes.

This Divorce Congress is an expression of the influence of the Inter-Church Conference. The resolute action taken by the Churches has encouraged this movement among the civil authorities. A second session of this Divorce Congress was held in Philadelphia, November, 1906, to hear and consider the report of the Committee appointed to formulate the action of the previous session.

Representatives of the Inter-Church Conference were invited to be present, and to take part in the deliberations of the Congress.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Congress, that divorce reform should be sought by an endeavor to secure unity and coöperation among the several States, rather than by attempting to obtain the consent of the States to adopt such an amendment to the Federal Constitution as would be necessary to control marriage and divorce by Federal legislation. This opinion prevails. The States are very jealous of their rights, and it is very generally believed that the reform sought will be more surely and more satisfactorily accomplished if it be found possible to bring about an agreement among the Legislatures of the several States.

There are favorable indications that the State Legislatures are disposed to accept the conclusions and suggestions of the Divorce Congress.

The Inter-Church Conference at its last meeting adopted the following resolution:

"This Conference places on record its gratification at the progress shown in the matter of influencing public opinion as to the evils of divorce, as indicated by the meetings of the National Congress on Uniform Divorce Laws, held at Washington, D. C., February 19, 1906, and at Philadelphia, November 13, 1906, and also by the action taken by many ecclesiastical bodies, and by several State Legislatures."

If it had seemed possible still further to reduce the number of causes for divorce and secure uniform action among the States, a very decided majority of the Congress would have been disposed to recommend such a reduction. In agreeing to name six causes for granting divorce, the Congress did not express an approval of so many causes for the annulment of the marriage contract, but recognizing the fact that the six causes agreed upon were included in the divorce legislation of a large number of the States, the hope was expressed that all the States might be induced to limit the causes of divorce to these six, viz.: adultery, bigamy, conviction of crime, intolerable cruelty, wilful desertion for two years, habitual drunkenness. While expressing the hope that no State would grant divorce for additional causes, the Congress did not wish to be understood as recommending greater laxity in States whose divorce legislation was already more restricted.

The Congress further advised that all suits of divorce should be brought and prosecuted only in the State where the plaintiff or the defendant had a bona fide residence, and that such residence should not be less than two years.

The Congress also advised that all hearings and trials should be before the court, and not before any delegated representative of the court, and that a decree dissolving the marriage tie and permitting the remarriage of either party should not become operative for at least one year.

Finally, each and every State was urged to adopt a statute recently adopted by the State of Massachusetts, viz.:

"If an inhabitant of this Commonwealth goes into another State or country to obtain a divorce for a cause which occurred here, while the parties resided here, or for a cause which would not authorize a divorce by the laws of this Commonwealth, a divorce so obtained shall be of no force or effect in this Commonwealth."

Rejoicing in the awakening that seems to assure less laxity in the laws of the State and the better protection of the family, the Church should advocate and with all its power press divorce reform, until the Scriptural standards that the Church embodies in its creed should determine both Church fellowship and good citizenship.

Your Committee would further report that it was the unanimous judgment of the Inter-Church Conference that the various Churches which have shown an interest and appointed representatives should continue such representation, that the Conference might continue its work.

We respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions by this General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly rejoices in favorable results already reported and expresses the hope of more radical reform.

Resolved, 2. That this General Assembly hereby reaffirms the deliverances of former Assemblies regarding divorce and remarriage.

Resolved, 3. That Presbyteries are hereby enjoined to enforce the standards of our Church, to hold to strict account all ministers under their care, and to urge all ministers to regard the comity that should refrain from giving the sanction of our Church to members of another Church, whose marriage is in violation of the laws of the Church whose communion they have chosen.

Resolved, 4. That the Committee on Marriage and Divorce be continued, and instructed to confer with other Committees as occasion may require, and report to the Assembly of 1908.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.

THURSDAY, May 23, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance was made the first Order for to-morrow morning, instead of afternoon.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. William H. Johnson, D.D., Rev. Edward W. Fitzsimons and Rev. Andrew Doremus, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries begs to submit the following Report:

They have received reports from thirteen seminaries, including the Lebanon Seminary, which makes its first regular report to this Assembly. Your Committee have given these reports close scrutiny and careful consideration. The last General Assembly, through its Committee on Theological Seminaries, requested that there be from each seminary a fuller report on their expenditures than had heretofore been given; but the only seminaries which have presented this increased report of detail concerning their expenses are Princeton and San Francisco. Your Committee also feel that in some instances more pains might be taken, not only with the financial statements, but also with the reports of the seminaries regarding their curricula and general condition, as there is very little in these reports, at times, by which the Standing Committee can give any information to the Assembly regarding the general work of the seminaries.

General Statement.—The total number of students enrolled in all our theological seminaries during all of the past year was 742. This is a total gain of fifty, of which thirty-eight are from the Lebanon Seminary. There have been 167 men graduated from our seminaries this year, a total gain of 21. Of this total Princeton graduated 44; Auburn, 20; Western, 23; Lane, 7; Kentucky, 9; McCormick, 27; Dubuque, 2; Newark, 2; Lincoln, 16; Biddle, 4; Omaha, 7; Lebanon, 6. There were matriculated in all our seminaries, 315 men. Almost all the seminaries closed the year with a balance to their credit over their expenses.

Your Committee has been interested in the development among some of our seminaries of their facilities for the instruction of foreign students, who are to take up the work among the foreigners, which has become so important a part of the Church's problem. While the seminaries at Dubuque and Newark are especially fitted for this work, and deserve the greatest credit for their development along these lines, the Western Theological Seminary has, on account of its environment, been compelled to take up the instruction of foreign students, which it has accomplished, under some difficulty, with great success.

Your Committee feel that they should call the attention of the theological seminaries to the strict application of the rule requiring a college diploma from every matriculant, or a rigid examination in its place. It is a significant fact that Auburn Theological Seminary refused to receive fifteen men, on the ground of their deficiency in preparatory work.

Your Committee believes thoroughly in the plan of sending representatives of the seminaries to speak in behalf of the ministry, in our colleges and churches, believing that the personal influence of such men will be far-reaching in the securing of the right men for the ministry of our Church. In seminaries where there are Presidents this should be an easy matter. Where there are no official Presidents, the member of the faculty best suited for this work should be charged with its performance.

Your Committee presents herewith the statement of the cost of the education of a man in our theological seminaries. These figures do not include the money expended by the scholarship funds of our seminaries or by our Board of Education. The amount varies in different localities, in some of which living is more expensive than in others; but it seemed to your Committee that the only fair computation was the average computation, and it is given herewith, the amount being $600 even.

While the Committee would be glad to give a detailed account of the work in each seminary, and to present the needs of the seminaries as they are there indicated, the reports have been as a rule so meagre that this cannot be done. We therefore do the best we can in this matter from the facts at our disposal.

PRINCETON.—Your Committee feel gratified at the spirit in which the request of the last General Assembly has been met by Princeton Seminary, and they desire to commend the fullness of their report and its interesting character. An important gift has been made, through the generosity of John H. Converse of Philadelphia, of a house in Philadelphia, where the students from the seminary can reside while pursuing a practical course in church and mission work, which can only be obtained through a city residence. This department is under the charge of Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D.D., Professor of Practical Theology, and those Directors of the seminary residing in Philadelphia. There have been in Princeton this year a large number of extra-curriculum lectures, delivered by men of note, on a great variety of practical subjects pertaining to the life of the modern church. There has also been special attention paid both to the special study of the English Bible and to the choice of preachers for the seminary chapel; some of the best known men in the Presbyterian Church having been invited to occupy the pulpit on Sunday.

One of the most significant things in the life of this seminary during the past year has been the missionary spirit, resulting in the appointment of twelve of its graduating class by the Board of Foreign Missions to positions on the foreign field. This has been due largely to the residence of the Rev. Samuel A. Moffett, who has been enrolled as a "guest" of the seminary to pursue special work there during the past year, and the results of his residence are evident and gratifying to all the friends of the work of foreign missions.

AUBURN.—Auburn Theological Seminary has had a prosperous year. There has been a gain in its matriculants, in its graduates and in its total enrollment. Special attention may be called to its stringent enforcement of the rule regarding the preliminary work demanded of all those admitted to our seminaries. It is also interesting to hear from the results of the work of a single Board of Administration instead of two Boards, and your Committee feel that this is a matter greatly to be desired in all our seminaries, when it can be accomplished without legal difficulty or friction.

WESTERN.—Western Theological Seminary has had a most successful year in the work done and in the quality of students which it has graduated. It also has given special attention to lectures from outside men on various topics connected with the Church at large. It has also developed its Foreign Department and has met with great success, both in the character of the men matriculated and the results of the seminary course upon them.

Lane.—In the report of Lane Theological Seminary there is a peculiar feature which commends itself to your Committee, viz., the incorporation of an abstract of the report of the Committee of Examination, containing much information regarding the work done by both faculty and students. From this report it is evident that the intellectual standing and spiritual life of Lane Seminary is most encouraging. Lane Seminary has made a striking gain in the total number of its students, having a total gain over last year of thirteen in a total attendance of thirty-eight.

Kentucky.—The Kentucky Theological Seminary, which is a joint seminary, reporting both to the Northern and Southern Presbyterian Churches, has held its own numerically during the past year, and it has made a distinct advance in its facilities for teaching and for the spiritual life of the seminary. It has dedicated this year the Grant-Robinson Memorial Hall, a splendid building for lecture rooms and offices, erected at a cost of $67,000; and the Harbison Chapel, at a cost of $16,000. In behalf of the General Assembly your Committee expresses in its Report the thanks of the Church to these friends, who by their generosity have made these additions to the equipment of Kentucky Seminary possible.

San Francisco.—The San Francisco Seminary has not recovered from the results of the severe set-back which the whole community received a year ago, and yet their report shows that they are working hard to rehabilitate their seminary and to do the important work which is laid by the Church at their door. The earthquake damaged the property of the seminary to the amount of more than $18,000. After applying all the aid received from the Special Committee of the Assembly on the Reconstruction of California Institutions, the seminary has a debt at present of $12,969, with several hundred dollars more needed to restore the library. Of this indebtedness $5,712 is the balance on account of earthquake repairs still unpaid, and $7,257 is the balance on a debt existing before the earthquake, which was being rapidly reduced when the disaster fell. The constituency of the seminary, from which help would have been forthcoming and who reside in California, are rendered under the circumstances powerless to help, as they are compelled to restore their homes, places of business, churches and Oriental missions. The seminary can expect no material aid from them at present. This seminary supplies twenty-five per cent. of the active ministry in California, fifteen per cent. in Oregon, seven per cent. in Washington, besides sending its graduates to farthest Alaska, and training many Japanese theological students and other foreign missionaries. Therefore the men who are standing behind this enterprise, both as teachers and as directors, are entitled to the hearty support and help of the entire Church.

McCormick.—McCormick Seminary reports to the Church an attendance of 106 students, a gain of nine; but there have been fifty-one students matriculated during the past year, a gain of twelve. The report of this seminary is interesting in certain features. It presents a denominational census and a clear and full account of its organization. Its financial report, however, adheres to the facts demanded in the blank, and no detail is given. The seminary also has furnished three foreign and two home missionaries from its graduating class, and reports that the work of the year has been efficient and spiritual. It asks for certain amendments to its Constitution, which will be treated of in the resolutions appended to this report.

Dubuque.—The seminary at Dubuque receives the congratulations of all its friends because of the completion of its building, costing $100,000. This building contains seventy-six rooms, class-rooms, two society halls, gymnasium, dining-rooms, and kitchen, and puts the seminary in a splendid condition to do its work. The enrollment this year of sixty shows a gain of twelve and is the largest enrollment in the history of the seminary. Their report speaks of and their friends can testify to the high spiritual atmosphere of the seminary and the earnest work that is being done there. This seminary is making a specialty of the education of foreign students to do work among the foreigners in this country, and through its new Chair of Bohemian Language and Literature it is beginning what promises to be a great work. Special mention is made of the work of the Rev. C. R. Steffens, whose sacrifices and labors as the financial agent of this institution made this growth possible, and he is cordially commended by this Committee to the entire Church.

Newark.—The characteristic feature of the report of Newark Seminary is the establishment of a Bible Training Course for lay workers, especially intended to meet the problem of exceptional foreign population. These lay workers are to meet a great demand for which there is no supply.

Lincoln.—This seminary has been doing splendid work up to the limit of her funds. As the action of this Assembly has already indicated, the ministry and its work is to be the great factor in solving the race problem. This institution has no rich alumni, and no prominent ministerial alumni to influence their rich parishioners to contribute to its work. It must depend entirely upon the liberality of the Church. It has never been in greater need than now of this liberality. They report this year fifty-one students, with sixteen graduates, all of whom are instantly swallowed up among the 10,000,000 of the colored race.

Biddle.—This seminary is included in the university and is practically under the control of the Freedmen's Board. Its Theological Department has sustained an irreparable loss in the death of the Rev. Daniel J. Sanders, D.D., LL.D. Dr. Sanders' assistance, through his faith, judgment and learning, was never more needed than now.

Omaha.—The reports of this seminary in regard to its educational and spiritual life are encouraging. It has a total enrollment of twenty-six, a gain of four, and the work which it does is evidently thorough and conservative. It is in the greatest need of securing its endowment. Thirty thousand dollars has been conditionally pledged, and $20,000 more must be secured before these pledges can be realized. By its situation it should be the great Home Mission Seminary.

Lebanon.—It is fitting that the Assembly should know something of the history and traditions of Cumberland University, which by the union has just become a university of the Presbyterian Church. It was founded at Lebanon, Tennessee, in 1842; it became at once the principal educational enterprise of the Cumberland denomination, and though other important institutions were subsequently founded, this one has maintained its position of chief importance. Because of its geographical location, its patronage has come largely from the Southern States and its prestige and influence are distinctly marked. More than 3,000 young men have been graduated from this institution. Of this number eighty per cent. still reside in the South. The Theological School was organized in 1852. It is the only school of its character holding any connection with the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Almost without exception the important pulpits of that Church are to-day occupied by graduates of this school. The theological endowment, which is a trust fund held by Trustees for the benefit of this school, is kept distinctly separate from the university endowment, and amounts at this date to $85,156. This Seminary reports some falling off in its enrollment, but, on the whole, a successful year, and we welcome it and its work and commend it to the confidence of the Church.

Your Committee offer the following resolutions for adoption by the General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the election of all Directors reported to the General Assembly as elected by the Seminary Boards during the past year be approved.

Resolved, 2. That the election and transfer of all professors reported to the General Assembly as elected or transferred during the past year be approved, to wit:

San Francisco: The Rev. Thomas Verner Moore, D.D., to the Chair of Systematic Theology, and the Rev. Charles G. Patterson, B.A., to the Chair of Church History.

McCormick: The Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D.D., to the Chair of Homiletics and Applied Christianity.

Lincoln: The Rev. Frank Ridgeley to the Chair of Hebrew.

Dubuque: Rev. Alois Barta, Ph.D., transferred to the Chair of Bohemian Literature.

Resolved, 3. That the action of the Board of Directors of McCormick Theological Seminary, in amending Article II, Section 4, of their Constitution, and Article IV, Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4, be approved by the General Assembly. The following is the text of the amendments:

"Sec. 4. The Board of Directors shall have power to elect and duly induct and inaugurate into office the professors of the seminary; to receive their resignations, also to remove them from office, such elections and removals to be subject to the veto of the General Assembly. The Board shall also have power to suspend temporarily a professor, preliminary to and pending an investigation of charges against his conduct or doctrine. The Board shall have power to elect a President of the seminary, who shall be a member of the faculty and subject to all the rules and regulations which apply to other members of the faculty.

"Such President shall be ex-officio a member of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee, and also of the Board of Trustees, taking the latter position upon election thereto, and not increasing the number of the trustees to more than nine. He shall have general oversight of the internal affairs of the seminary, and when present may preside at all faculty meetings, carry out the policy of the institution as agreed upon by the Board of Directors and the faculty respectively, discharge such duties as teacher as the Board of Directors shall see fit to impose, and represent the seminary before the public in suitable ways.

"Art. 4. Of the Course of Studies.—Sec. 1. The course of study shall include Biblical languages, literature, criticism and hermeneutics, general and special introduction to the Scriptures, the exegesis of so many of the principal books of the Scripture as the time shall allow, didactic and polemic theology, with a preliminary review of metaphysics, psychology and ethics in their relation to theology, the constitution, polity and history of the Church, sacred rhetoric, pastoral care and missionary instruction.

"Sec. 2. The full course of study shall occupy three sessions of such length as the Board of Directors shall order.

"Sec. 3. Those students who shall have regularly pursued the prescribed course of studies, shall be admitted to an examination therein by the faculty and the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, and, if the examination shall be sustained, such students shall receive diplomas certifying the fact from the faculty, with the consent and approval of the Board of Directors.

"Sec. 4. The Board shall also have the right to confer upon graduates of the seminary who have already received the degree of A.M. or A.B., and who shall satisfactorily complete such a course of study as the faculty may designate, the degree of B.D., or Bachelor of Divinity."

Resolved, 4. That the professors and officers of our theological seminaries be urged to lose no opportunity which may be offered, or which can be secured, to present to the young men of the American colleges and of the Presbyterian Church the claims of the Christian ministry and the splendid advantages to students which are afforded in our seminaries.

Resolved, 5. That the authorities of our seminaries shall strictly enforce the rule regarding the necessity of a college diploma as a condition of admission to our seminaries, and that if the equivalent examination be taken, it be made searching and thorough.

Resolved, 6. That this Assembly commends the San Francisco Theological Seminary to the continued sympathy of the Church, and urges that immediate financial assistance be extended to it by the Presbyterian Church at large, at least to the extent of clearing off its present indebtedness and of restoring its library.

Resolved, 7. That the attention of the Church be directed through this Assembly to our Theological Seminary at Omaha, in order that the conditional subscriptions which have been received may not be lost through the failure to raise the required amount.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly commends our seminaries as never before to the Church at large, and expresses its confidence in their professors, courses of study and the high character of the education provided in them for our ministry; and that it urges upon all the alumni of these seminaries in the ministry of the Presbyterian Church to recommend them to all students who are condidates for the Gospel ministry.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly urges upon all seminaries, where it is possible, to provide for the education of a foreign-speaking ministry for our exceptional foreign-speaking populations.

Resolved, 10. That in view of the fact that the residence of one of the Church's missionaries among the students of one of our seminaries during the past year, has resulted in more than a quarter of the class giving themselves to the work of the foreign field, the Assembly urges upon the seminaries the value of such a residence and the adoption of such a course whenever it is possible.

Resolved, 11. That in submitting their annual report to the General Assembly, each seminary be requested to file with such report their catalogue for the current year, and that the request of the last Assembly be again made and emphasized, viz.: that each seminary shall make a more detailed financial statement, which shall cover especially the details of its annual expenditures.

Resolved, 12. That the General Assembly extends to the donors, in the name of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., its grateful acknowledgment of the gifts, large and small, which have added to the equipment, endowment and current funds of its theological seminaries.

Resolved, 13. That a requirement in the English Bible shall be demanded upon entrance of all students in each of our seminaries, and that the seminaries shall report upon this matter in the next annual report to the General Assembly.

Resolved, 14. That the attention of Presbyteries be called to their duty, through their Committees of Education, to protect the seminaries from unworthy candidates for the Gospel ministry, who, because of their deficient education or unworthy motives, should not be allowed to enter our theological schools.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

MAITLAND ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented the following supplemental Report, which was adopted:

In regard to the request of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, that certain correspondence between the Secretaries of the Home Mission work of the two Churches, as to alleged interference in the Home Mission work of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., be referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions:

Your Committee would respectfully report that they have read carefully the correspondence; that they rejoice to find the oft-repeated desire in this correspondence, on the part of the Secretaries of both Churches, that "the Churches shall work together with the utmost cordiality, and that neither shall give the other the slightest cause for offense;" that as to the specified cases of interference, your Committee find such disagreement as to the alleged facts involved, that in their judgment it is impracticable for this General Assembly to take any further action in the premises.

But that even the appearance of evil may be avoided, your Committee would recommend that the Assembly again urge upon all the agents of the Church on the field the necessity of scrupulously observing the principles of comity and fraternity, and would venture to express the hope that the agents in the field of the work of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. will cordially coöperate with us to maintain and preserve the fullest spirit of comity and fraternity in Church work. It also expresses the hope that our two great Churches, working harmoniously without interfering with each other, shall be able to give the Gospel to the many fields still needing help.

A message to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is herewith submitted for approval.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. ELMORE, Chairman.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Birmingham, Ala.:

The General Assembly, in session at Columbus, Ohio, has examined carefully the correspondence as to alleged interference on Home Mission fields, and finds such disagreement as to the alleged facts that is is impracticable to take any further action. This Assembly expresses the hope that in the future the agents of both Churches will cordially coöperate in all work in the Home Mission fields, and that the Churches will maintain in all their work the fullest harmony.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Moderator.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented also the following report, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in accordance with action taken by the General Assembly in the matter of uniting the Boards of this Church and of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, T. H. Perrin, C. E. Hayes and J. C. Cobb be elected as members of the Board of Home Missions, to take office when the Board shall have made the necessary changes in its by-laws; to serve in accordance with the rules of the Assembly as to the terms of service.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, through its Chairman, Rev. Edward B. Wright, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. D. J. McMillan, D.D., representing the Board, Mr. George E. Sterry and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

God says, "Build the house, and I will take pleasure in it and I will be glorified." King David, as he approached the end of his life, having gathered what is estimated to be equal to a hundred millions of dollars of our money, out of his own property, for the future building of the temple, explained all of this by giving as the ruling motive of his life, "I have set my affection to the house of My God." He also prayed, "Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honor dwelleth." Still higher authority, our Lord Himself, twice cleansed the temple of those who sold and bought in it and made it a den of thieves. This was explained to His disciples when they remembered that it was written of Him, "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." To be sure, the external building was not the main reason of the affection and zeal for God's house evinced by King David and David's greater Son. But this was included, and their attitude toward even the external house of God has its lessons for the people of this practical twentieth century. Presbyterians, in their fear of high-church ritualism, as regards their sentiments concerning the buildings dedicated to God's worship, often go to the opposite extreme of regarding these as only so much wood or stone. The house of God on earth centralizes and crystallizes the worship of God on earth and the truth of the doctrines of our holy religion. It conserves the best interests of humanity, physically, mentally, morally and spiritually. Even when closed it is a silent witness to the presence of God with His people, and of His people's faith in and love for the Most High. We believe that should such sentiments concerning the material building which we call God's house prevail among the people, offerings for the sacred work of the Church Erection Board would be increased mightily; for the worshipers of God would be convinced that, because of the need and profit and sacredness of God's house, each congregation should be provided with its own Church home. There will be plenty of money if the people's hearts are in this cause. Because, then, of reasons like these, the affairs of our Board of Church Erection assume a high spiritual nature and make a deep appeal to the hearts and brains and prayers and purses of its great Presbyterian constituency. Your Committee have had before us the thirty-seventh annual report of this Board for the year ending March 31, 1907. We find, after a careful examination of able business men and accurate accountants (members of our Committee), that the records of the meetings and business of the Board are faithfully kept and accurately recorded. We learn that from all sources the receipts of this Board for the last year have been $223,596. Of this amount only $63,623 came from churches and Sabbath-schools; the remainder came from individual contributions and legacies and from the revenue of funds under the care of the Board. The contributions from churches were $3,857 more than last year, and exceed those of any of the previous twenty years. The Board adds, "It is less gratifying to report that only 4,164 of the 8,118 churches on the roll of the Assembly (about one-half) unite in support of the Board."

Aid was given during the year to 257 churches, amounting to $211,069; 170 of these were aided by grants and 100 by loans (thirteen were by both grants and loans). These appropriations have been widely distributed, reaching thirty-five different States and Territories, including Porto Rico, Cuba and Panama, and 113 Presbyteries.

Since the inauguration of the Board in 1844 it has made grants and loans to 8,138 churches, amounting to $5,316,935. We also learn from this report that the Board controls capital in all funds of $712,400, and has reversionary interests in church and manse properties of $2,557,000. The insurance in connection with the church and manse mortgages of all funds (say 4,750 policies) aggregate $2,600,000. One splendid feature of the Board's work is that all the offerings of the people for churches and manses are secured by insurance and mortgages, thus perpetually retaining the property for the use of God's people. We should not neglect to mention the Manse department of the Board's work. While no general appeal is made to our congregations for funds for this purpose, yet by gifts and legacies the Board gives shelter to many pastors' families yearly. Last year fifty-nine churches were aided by the Manse Fund. Still another fine feature of the Board's work is the supply, some without cost and some at small expense, of architectural designs to congregations erecting churches or manses. This is an important matter. Too often by undue haste or carelessness buildings are erected which are a discredit, not only to the local church but to the Church at large. It is due the Lord, who is the Author of beauty, that the house which represents Him on earth should appeal favorably to the æsthetic taste of the people.

The Assembly must be impressed with the extent of the work of the Board and the variety of its interests, necessitating the keenest business capacity, intelligent toil and large expenditure of time on the part of its officers and members, all which it evidently receives. For this the gratitude of our whole Church should be extended, and is hereby expressed.

The Assembly regrets the inability of Dr. Erskine N. White, the honored Secretary of the Board, to be present, but rejoices in the presence of Dr. Duncan J. McMillan as the Board's representative.

Your Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the records and Annual Report of the Board be approved.

2. That the Board annually remind those congregations of their remissness, which, having been aided by the Board, have failed to render contributions, after having given their sacred promise so to do.

3. That the aid and coöperation of Presbyterial and Synodical Committees on Church Erection be given to secure annual offerings from each church for the important work of this Board.

4. That more care and attention on the part of congregations applying for aid and on the part of Presbyterial Committees be given in passing upon such papers.

5. That as a thankful memorial for Reunion much larger contributions than usual should be given by the churches, in view of the extended calls which will be made upon the funds of the Board because of this Reunion.

6. That in view of the peculiar situation that has arisen out of the recent consummated union with the Cumberland Church, the General Assembly recommends that the Board construe its rules as liberally as possible, in order that it may aid churches temporarily embarrassed in the erection of their houses of worship.

7. That in order that our missionaries to our foreign-speaking peoples may have some suitable places for holding religious services, the Board of Church Erection be urged to devise if possible some plan to secure special funds, by means of which it can furnish the Presbyteries desiring them cheap temporary chapels, built on the knock-down plan, which can be moved from camp to camp as the exigencies of the case demand.

8. That the following members of the Board whose terms expire at this time be reëlected for the ensuing term, and that the Permanent Clerk of the Assembly is hereby instructed to cast the ballot for their reëlection, viz.: Ministers—Samuel M. Hamilton, D.D., William A. Holliday, D.D., Duncan J. McMillan, D.D.; Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde, John Sinclair, Edward C. Van Glahn.

9. That the Board of Trustees shall be enlarged by the addition of two members, so that it shall hereafter consist of twenty-three members, and that the Rev. E. B. Surface, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and Mr. Isaac H. Orr, of St. Louis, Ill., be hereby recommended for election for the term of three years as members of said Board of Trustees, and that they shall take their seats in said Board, and have all the privileges and assume the responsibilities of membership therein, when any legal obstacles to such enlargement of the members of the Trustees of said Board (if any exist) shall be removed, and that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly* shall deposit the ballot for their election.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EDWARD B. WRIGHT, Chairman.

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting would respectfully report:

1. That invitations have been received from Asbury Park, N. J., Atlantic City, N. J., Hot Springs, Ark., and Kansas City, Mo. It is gratifying that so many places have kindly extended their hospitality to the Assembly. Regretting that only one of these invitations can be accepted, we recommend that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to all who have extended them.

2. After an attentive hearing of the representatives of these different places, your Committee recommend that the next meeting of the Assembly be held in Kansas City, Mo., in Convention Hall, or such other building as this Committee may approve.

The invitation from Kansas City is proffered by the following organizations: The Presbyterians of Kansas City, Kansas City Presbytery, Kansas City Presbyterian League, Kansas City Ministers' General Alliance, Kansas City Mayor and Common Council, Kansas City Commercial Club, and Kansas City Mercantile Club. It is also accompanied by a guarantee of hospitality for all commissioners at the Assembly's allowance for the entertainment of commissioners, and of free entertainment for the officers of the Assembly, and also by a guarantee of $5,000, and if necessary $10,000, for current and other expenses.

3. We recommend that the following be appointed the Committee of Arrangements, with power to add to their number:

Rev. John B. Hill, D.D., Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Rev. Frank S. Arnold, D.D., Rev. John Bamford, Mr. George D. Ford, Mr. L. A. Goodman, Mr. L. S. Mohr, Mr. E. L. McClure, Mr. C. L. Brokaw, Dr. W. P. Cutler.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through its Chairman, Rev. Henry E. Dosker, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Rev. E. R. Worrall, D.D., Field Secretary, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on Temperance respectfully begs leave to report as follows:

Your Committee has examined the Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Temperance. This is a document of surpassing interest, and fully substantiates our claim of standing in the very front rank of those Churches which are boldly advancing the cause of moral reforms. This is as it should be, for it belongs to the genius of organized Christianity to set its face like a flint against all evil and to uphold all that is good.

And especially should it do this when it touches an evil as widely ramified, as disastrous in what it does for the individual and for the nation, as destructive of life and morals, as economically depletive as is the liquor traffic.

From the report (p. 6) we learn that the direct cost of this traffic is $1,500,000,000, whilst its indirect cost is $1,000,000,000, a total therefore of $2,500,000,000—nearly thrice as large as the national revenue from all sources; nine times as costly as the public schools; five times as costly as the value of the entire wheat crop; four times as costly as the total of all the net earnings of the railroads. In the words of the report, "It costs two billions and a half, and returns about one-eighth of that amount, after working untold and unimaginable moral and social and domestic ruin." What our Committee has done in the great battle against the mighty is told on page 2 of the report.

They have forced the educational campaign whenever and wherever possible; they have distributed literature on the subject, in seven languages, wherever the long arm of our Church reaches, and beyond; they have provided Temperance programmes for our Sunday-schools and pledge cards wherever wanted; they have filled a column of Temperance contributions in some of our Presbyterian papers, and furnished supplemental temperance lessons to the Westminster Teacher and Senior Quarterly; they have personally communicated with our pastors and Sunday-school Superintendents wherever possible; they have put the Church at large in touch with the Temperance deliverances of our Assembly; they have employed three Associate Secretaries, one lecturer on scientific Temperance and one colored evangelist, either the whole year or part of it. Indeed they have not been idle, and they deserve the highest praise for the work they have done in the special department assigned them by the Church. The sum total of expenditures for all this work was $16,920, and they have no debts—a sum ridiculously small indeed when we compare it with the magnitude of the task and the importance of the work.

Your Committee is specially gratified to note in this report an optimistic tone, which apparently is justified by the facts in the case. The national conscience is awakening; the courts of the land, from the lowest to the highest, are beginning to stay the hands of the foe and to support the arm of righteousness. Especially gratifying is the stirring news which comes from the Bench of Indiana; whilst even the Supreme Court of the nation has supported Temperance decisions of the lower Courts (p. 5). Whenever the laws governing the liquor traffic are enforced, crime diminishes, business grows in volume and prosperity increases (pages 7, 8, 9).

Organized liquor traffic sees the danger of impending doom and strains every nerve to avert it, whilst, like a slowly advancing army, the forces of righteousness are possessing themselves of new territory and pressing onward to new conquests.

Parts of the report touch on matters which have already been elsewhere disposed of. But we do not exaggerate when we affirm that the report of the Permanent Committee on Temperance for 1907 is a veritable storehouse of information for those whose hearts are aglow for the sacred cause for which the Committee stands.

Your Committee respectfully offers the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That the Records and Treasurer's Report of the Permanent Committee, which were examined and found correct by your Committee, be approved by the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That Mr. William C. Lilley, Rev. C. S. McClelland, D.D., Rev. T. B. Anderson, D.D., and Mr. Graham C. Wells, whose terms of membership expire, be reëlected by the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. E. R. Worrell, D.D., who accepted an Associate Secretaryship under the Committee, having been filled by the election of Rev. John Royal Harris, D.D., the Assembly confirm this election.

Resolved, 4. That the membership of the Permanent Committee be increased to eighteen, and that the following persons, three ministers and three elders, be elected: Ministers—J. H. Snowden, D.D., E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., Thomas Waters; Elders—A. A. Hersperger, of the First Church, Allegheny, Pa.; W. W. Shields, of the Forty-third Street Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Harvey Thompson, of the Fourth Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly looks with pride and approval on the work of its Permanent Committee on Temperance during the past year, in their unremitting efforts to create sentiment against the drink habit and the drink traffic; and that this department of our work be recommended to the Church for the sum of $25,000.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly, learning with profound regret of the serious illness of Rev. John F. Hill, D.D., who for so many years with unremitting zeal, self-sacrifice and faith has labored in behalf of this cause, sends to him an affectionate greeting of sincerest sympathy, with the prayer that it may please God speedily to restore him to perfect health.

Resolved, 7. That the thanks of the Assembly be extended to the Board of Publication for its donation of literature, to the amount of $1,000, in behalf of the work of the Committee.

Resolved, 8. That the attention of the Church be called to the Temperance literature indicated by the Permanent Committee in its report, pages 22, 23.

Resolved, 9. That the last Sabbath in October be set apart as a Temperance Day in our churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and that, as far as possible, offerings be made on that day for this department of the Assembly's work.

Resolved, 10. That the General Assembly expresses its hearty approval of all Temperance organizations, of whatever name, in their labors of opposition to the giant evil of Intemperance. And that our special commendation be given to the National Temperance Society, for its long and unbroken career of usefulness, and for its close connection with the Presbyterian Churches, through its officers and workers, from the beginning.

Resolved, 11. That the General Assembly hereby requests the Executive Committee of the Evangelical Alliance to make Temperance Reform the subject for prayer and consideration on one evening of the Week of Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY E. DOSKER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Walter A. Brooks, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after a number of five-minute addresses was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions presents herewith its first Report to the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the Assembly of 1906, by which the Committee was established. The Committee is constituted "to consider and report on the Home Mission work of the self-sustaining Synods." Such Synods are directed to make annual reports to the General Assembly through the Stated Clerk. The Stated Clerk has placed in the hands of this Committee sundry reports of Synodical Home Mission work, made by Mission Committees to their respective Synods, and has informed this Committee that it may account such reports of self-sustaining Synods as are printed in the report of the Board of Home Missions material to be considered and reported upon.

It is evident that this material is not so full and accurate a report of the work done for Home Missions within self-sustaining Synods as to afford a basis for a complete Report to the Assembly, and it is desirable that these Synods should be called upon to furnish information more nearly sufficient. There is no doubt that the business of self-support within any Synod, resulting both in the better working of the particular field and in the enlarged support of the general work of the Board, is of great importance and worthy of review somewhat in detail by the General Assembly.

It will be remembered that about twenty-five years ago the Board of Home Missions proposed, in its report to the General Assembly, that the stronger Synods, like New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, should undertake the support of their own weaker churches, in order that the funds of the Board might be used for the evangelization of other parts of the country. This proposal, approved by the General Assembly, was acted upon first by the Synod of New Jersey, afterward by other Synods, in the formulation of plans for the support of all mission work within their own bounds, at the same time continuing their contributions to the Board. New Jersey began in 1886. The last Synod to be added to the list, now numbering eleven, is Wisconsin.

The work undertaken by these Synods developed rapidly and required administrative ability of a high order. Great and happy results, in the support of feeble churches, the bringing of many formerly feeble churches to self-support, the organization of new churches, and in some cases an increase of contributions to the Board of Home Missions, followed these undertakings.

In the study of the best methods and plans, the chairmen of Synodical Home Mission Committees and others directly concerned in the prosecution of this self-sustaining work have in recent years held three conferences, at which the principles and details of Synodical self-support and Synodical Home Mission work have been carefully considered. The conference held at Indianapolis last year agreed upon a form of report to be made to the General Assembly, and prepared a blank to be sent to all the self-sustaining Synods, by means of which their reports might be unified. This Committee is of opinion that it is very desirable that such conferences should be continued, from time to time, for the further study of methods, and that such uniform reports as the conference may agree upon should be made by the Synods.

The plans formulated by these Synods have been of very considerable variety. In one or more cases every church in the Synod is required to make at least an annual offering for the Board of Home Missions and a distinct annual offering for Synodical Home Missions. In others the offering made for the work of Home Missions is applied first to the sustaining of the local work; the residue is sent to the Board. Some of the Synods have their own treasurers, others administer their funds through the treasurer of the Board of Home Missions. One Synod has an incorporated Board of Home Missions for its own work. Some of the so-called self-sustaining Synods still receive funds from the Board, for the support of Synodical missionaries or superintendents, or for the direct support of ministers and churches. In these cases it is the judgment of the Committee that the Synods cannot with accuracy be called self-sustaining, and it is urgently recommended to them to set themselves actively to the endeavor to become such as soon as possible.

The following statistical summary, drawn up from the reports furnished this Committee, and also from the report of the Board of Home Missions, indicates as substantially as can now be done work accomplished in those Synods during the year for which the reports were made:

Eleven self-supporting Synods—Baltimore, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin.

Nine Synods report 1,471 churches aided.

Nine Synods report twenty-eight Home Mission churches organized.

Nine Synods report ten self-sustaining churches organized.

Nine Synods report thirty-nine churches reaching self-support.

Nine Synods report 1,142 missionaries at work.

Eight Synods report 6,517 added on confession of faith.

Five Synods report $486,842 raised for self-support by Home Mission churches.

Total receipts for Synodical self-support, eleven Synods, $262,901.

Total expenditures for Synodical self-support, eleven Synods, $262,442.

Six Synods report administration expenses, $4,609.

Eleven Synods contributed to the Board of Home Missions $462,500, or more than eighty per cent. of the receipts from churches.

Five Synods report special work among people of foreign speech—seventy-one churches, forty-seven ministers, 7,860 members.

As might be expected in fields so widely diversified as those occupied by the eleven Synods, the special work done by them differs according to the locality. In such a Synod as Iowa or Indiana, where there is a very small percentage of foreign population, the Home Mission work is confined almost entirely to the support of weaker churches and those evangelistic undertakings which often result in the formation of new churches. In other Synods, like New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, a large proportion of the work to be done lies among people of foreign speech. So great is the demand for ministration to the incoming crowds of foreign immigrants and the immense foreign population already here that something is done for those of differing languages in every one of the Synods, even in agricultural Iowa. In New York, the front door through which the entering multitude comes, the demand is so great that the Synod does not meet it, but is compelled to relegate that portion of its heavy charge to the Board of Home Missions. Let it be well understood that the bulk of the work for foreigners in this country is done within the bounds of the self-supporting Synods.

In those Synods in which evangelistic work is now to be undertaken under the superintendence of official representatives of the Board of Home Missions, it has been felt that there is a possibility of misunderstanding as to the direction of such evangelistic work, whether it shall be by the evangelistic agent of the Board of Home Missions in some particular district, by the evangelistic Committee of the Synod or by the Synodical Home Mission Committee of the Synod. This Committee is of the opinion, however, that the language of the report of the Board of Home Missions concerning arrangements for evangelistic work is sufficiently clear. That language is as follows: "In the self-supporting Synods evangelistic work shall be undertaken on the request of such Synods, under the direction of Synodical or Presbyterial Committees, assisted by an evangelist commissioned by the Board." This Committee understands this to mean that the direction of such evangelistic work shall be distinctly in the hands of the Synod, through such Committee as it may itself designate.

In general it should be remembered that the origin of Synodical Home Missions was in a suggestion of the Board of Home Missions, and that the organization of such work was originally intended to increase the Board's ability to prosecute evangelization in the newer and more destitute portions of the land. It was evidently for the help of the Board of Home Missions, rather than in any possible rivalry of it, that the larger Synods undertook self-support, and those farther west have since followed their example. With due regard to the pressing and increasingly weighty claims of the work within the Synods, the further object of the Synods should not fail to be the abundant support of the wider evangelizing work of the Board of Home Missions.

Your Committee respectfully offers the following recommendations:

1. The General Assembly, receiving with pleasure the reports of the great and important work done by the self-supporting Synods, approves cordially the faithfulness, diligence and self-sacrifice of the Synods which have done so much, not only for the care of their own needs, but for the evangelization of the whole country. The Assembly also approves the conferences of Synodical Home Mission officers hitherto held, and suggests their continuance, at appropriate times, for the advancement of Home Mission work.

2. The self-sustaining Synods are instructed to report directly to the General Assembly, much more fully than has this year been done, and with the use of the uniform blank prepared by the conference, covering the Synodical year beginning October 1.

3. In view of the considerable diversity of methods existing in the Synods, they are urged to seek, by conference or otherwise, a unification of plan, so far as may be possible under their differing conditions.

4. Recognizing and heartily acknowledging the assistance already given to the general work of the Board of Home Missions by the organization and prosecution of self-support, the Assembly urges that the self-supporting Synods carefully keep in view the ultimate object of such Synodical organization, namely, the evangelization of the whole land; and that in pursuance of that end they welcome to their churches representatives of the Board of Home Missions, and such literature and other educational material as the Board may furnish; and that they shall, as soon as possible, secure from all of their churches, by the methods most effective in each Synod, contributions for the Board of Home Missions, as well as for the important enterprise of self-support and home evangelization.

5. Those Synods which have not yet attained complete self-support are charged to put forth diligent efforts for the obtaining of that end as speedily as possible, and other Synods which have not yet attempted such self-sustaining are urged to give the endeavor immediate and conscientious consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER A. BROOKS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence, through its Chairman, Rev. E. S. Chapman, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence submits the following Report:

The Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence was referred to us, and in it we find much that is worthy of the Assembly's attention. One of the hopeful signs there noted is that the "demand for information is persistent," showing that our people are waking to the importance of proportionate and systematic giving, and with the increase of knowledge on the subject there will assuredly be growth in the grace of liberality.

We think that special attention should be called to the plan of securing voluntary but definite pledges from the church membership at the beginning of each year for the various benevolences of the Church. Subscription blanks and envelopes for this purpose will be supplied free of charge to all Sessions applying to the Committee for them. They also have for free distribution a good assortment of literature, of which the churches should take advantage.

In their endeavor to magnify the importance of giving on the Lord's Day as an act of worship, the Committee find that there is a great difference between the number of those whose names appear as church members and the number of those who appear on the treasurer's books as supporters of the church. It is the judgment of the Committee that, where church members have no adequate sense of responsibility for the support of their own church, little can be expected of them for the adequate support of the benevolent missionary causes of the Church. As preparatory for increased giving on the part of the church membership, the Committee believes a campaign of education should be carried on on the part of all of our church Sessions, to magnify the responsibility of the members of the church to their own church in at least three particulars—a regular attendance upon the services of the church, a regular attendance upon the communion services, and a regular contribution to the support of the church. We consider the habit of regular support of one's own church by every member as the best preparation for the adequate support of our missionary and benevolent causes.

"There can be but little growth in the Christian graces that does not involve the recognition of God's claim upon every one of His followers for a certain portion of time and of income for the direct service of God. One has only to read the varied history of the Hebrews to have abundant illustration that it will never do for an individual that expects a continued blessing of God to offer the halt, the lame and blind on God's altar as sacrifice. God will not accept a second place in the affections of His people; He demands the first."

The Committee further suggests that every Christian should keep an account with God, and conscientiously set aside a portion of his income to be used in the Lord's work, and when the claims of God's cause are presented from time to time, should consider it a privilege and a joy to listen to the new opportunities presented for doing the Lord's work, and deem it a privilege to take from the Lord's box the money previously set aside to help these enterprises.

The Committee further calls attention to the increasing tendency to multiply the number of causes to which the individual church member is asked to contribute, and frequently this multiplication of causes has a tendency to affect the sense of obligation which the church member should feel toward the work definitely under the care of our Boards; and the time seems to have come when the whole matter of the raising of money for the kingdom of Christ from the individual church member should be simplified, and some plan devised whereby a due proportion should be allotted to each cause that should have recognition and proper support, without this frequency of appeal to impulse.

A campaign of education in the matter of proportionate and systematic giving is greatly needed at the present time in our Church. This need is clearly indicated by careful analysis of the size of the offerings made to our eight Boards by our churches, found in the statistical tables of the report. Last year our 8,000 churches made 34,682 offerings to the eight Boards. If, however, every church had made an offering to each of the Boards of the Church, there would have been 65,000 offerings made during the year, indicating that only one-half of the offerings were taken that should have been taken. The size of these offerings shows that most of them were only perfunctory offerings. There were 2,784 offerings of one dollar or less; 11,796 offerings from one dollar to five dollars; 6,799 from five to ten dollars, and only 1,622 of the 34,682 offerings were for sums above one hundred dollars. This record of offerings is not that of individuals but of entire churches. The size of these offerings would seem to indicate that the most of our church membership are content to offer the halt and the blind on God's altar and save the best for themselves—a condition of things which in the days of old brought a curse upon the chosen people. Is there any reason to suppose that the same action will not meet with God's disapproval now?

The statistical tables for the several Boards of our Church for the last ten years indicate that there is very little change in the amount given by all of our churches for the separate Boards of our Church from year to year; the variation on the average being less than five per cent. The total income of the eight Boards last year was $4,503,284. Of this sum $1,097,576 came through church offerings and $389,117 came from legacies.

Two Overtures have been referred to your Committee for consideration.

To Overture No. 111, from the Presbytery of Newton, on "The Duties of Members to Support their Church," we recommend the following answer:

1. In the judgment of this Assembly it is the duty of every member, present or absent, to contribute according to his means to the support of the church where he holds his membership.

2. What action should be taken in case of a failure to perform this duty is left to the discretion of the church of which the individual is a member.

To Overture No. 117, from the Presbytery of Adams, with reference to "Budget to Provide Funds for the Boards," we recommend the following answer:

While approving the general idea of the Overture, in view of the fact that the proposed reorganization of the Boards has not yet been effected, we recommend that no action be taken.

Your Committee present the following recommendations for adoption:

1. That pastors be urged to preach at least once a year on the duty and privilege of proportionate and systematic giving.

2. That an effort be made in all our churches to increase the number of those who set apart a definite portion of their income for the Lord's work.

3. That the portion thus set aside be at least a tenth, for, while under the Gospel dispensation no definite rule can be laid down as to the amount that should be set aside from one's income as the Lord's portion, yet the whole trend of the teaching of the Word would indicate that it should not be less than the tenth.

4. The success of the Women's Presbyterial Societies in raising money for Home and Foreign Missions would indicate that a similar course might be adopted with advantage by the Boards of our Church. Last year the Women's Executive Committee raised for the cause of Home Missions $401,360. The Women's Boards raised for Foreign Missions $352,117, making a total of $753,467 for Home and Foreign Missions. The total amount raised during the last year through church offerings for all the Boards of the Church amounted to $1,097,576. We recommend to the careful consideration of the Boards the wisdom of throwing the responsibility of raising the total amount expected from church offerings upon the Synods and Presbyteries, believing that such a course will increase the enthusiasm of our Synods and Presbyteries in our missionary and benevolent work by increasing their sense of responsibility. And we recommend that this Assembly direct the Boards to apportion to the Presbyteries the amounts recommended for each Board by the Finance Committee of the Assembly. We further recommend to the Boards to submit to the Presbyteries a joint statement of the amount apportioned, to be in turn apportioned by the Presbytery to the individual churches.

5. We recommend the continued active coöperation of the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees with the General Assembly's Committee in the work of developing in all of our churches the grace of proportionate and systematic giving.

6. We recommend that the Presbyterian Brotherhood and other men's organizations of our Church be urged to take up the great missionary and benevolent causes and contribute and help in a systematic manner.

7. We recommend that the church Sessions avail themselves of the literature furnished by the Committee, samples of which can be obtained by sending a request to the Secretary, Rev. W. H. Hubbard, 35 Franklin Street, Auburn, N. Y.

8. We recommend that the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence for the ensuing year consist of: Ministers—David G. Wylie, William H. Hubbard, George P. Williams, Chalmers Martin, John F. Carson, William R. Richards, William P. Finney, and Charles E. Bronson; Ruling Elders—John Sinclair, John Stewart, W. W. Smith, E. E. Beard, H. B. Silliman and H. C. Olin.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ERVIN S. CHAPMAN, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Christian Life and Work was referred to the Standing Committee on Narrative, to be read at the same time as the Narrative.

The Committee on Polity presented its Report, action upon which was deferred until this afternoon.

The following was presented, and unanimously approved:

To the Rev. Dr. Roberts, Moderator of the General Assembly:

We, the Commissioners, having learned that Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, has served his Church with great acceptance for eleven years, and was for twenty-five years previously an invaluable Assistant Stated Clerk of his Church;

Therefore, we express our thanks to you for appointing as your assistant in the office of Stated Clerk so excellent an officer.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 24, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of this morning's session were read and approved.

The following was adopted as an additional resolution to the Report on Foreign Missions:

The General Assembly, in session at Columbus, Ohio, having learned of the continued illness of Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D., Senior Secretary of our Board of Foreign Missions, and of his consequent necessary withdrawal from the active service of the Board, desires hereby to express its very high appreciation of the work of Dr. Ellinwood, and also to assure him of its sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this time of his affliction.

Grateful for his long, faithful and efficient service of thirty-five years, and rejoicing in the good work he has accomplished, the Assembly most earnestly commends him to the God of all comfort, praying that divine grace may be found sufficient, yea, all sufficient in this time of his infirmity and need, and that the fullness of the blessing of that Gospel which he has done so much to proclaim abroad in the world may in largest measure be realized by him and his even to the end.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee on Polity was continued, and the Report was adopted, as follows:

To your Standing Committee on Church Polity were referred the following Overtures for consideration and report:

I. Overture No. 107, from the Synod of Indian Territory, on securing representation in organizations non-ecclesiastical, as follows:

The Synod of Indian Territory, having in mind the exception taken to its action in 1905 by the General Assembly of 1906 in the matter of appointment of representatives in certain non-ecclesiastical bodies (Minutes of the General Assembly of 1906, p. 234), respectfully asks that the General Assembly of 1907 make a deliverance on the subject of how we may secure representation in the organizations that are working for the uplifting of the people and in the warfare against vice and intemperance, when these bodies are not distinctly ecclesiastical in their connection or control."

Your Committee recommends the following action:

The General Assembly, while gratefully acknowledging all the great work done for righteousness and temperance by voluntary organizations outside of the Church, and especially commending the splendid achievements of the Anti-Saloon League, the National Temperance Society, the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all like societies, in so far as their work is not inconsistent with the principles of the Christian religion, yet would reaffirm the fact that it has been the undeviating custom and policy of our Church to avoid official representation in non-ecclesiastical organizations, but to allow its members absolute liberty to work as individuals in such organizations, as indicated in the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1848 (see Digest of 1898, p. 628): "This General Assembly as a Court of Jesus Christ cannot league itself with any voluntary society; these societies must appeal not to Church Courts but to Church members" (see also the deliverances of the General Assembly of 1860, 1873, 1880, 1881, 1891, 1906). Provided, however, that Synods and Presbyteries may coöperate with other ecclesiastical bodies in seeking such legislation on the Sabbath question, marriage and divorce, saloon suppression, and such other questions as the Church has declared herself upon, without violating the spirit of our Constitution (see Confession of Faith, Chapter 31, Section 4). Adopted.

II. To your Committee were referred such parts of Overtures Nos. 102 to 106 as have reference to the matter of affiliation between the Church and all voluntary temperance societies. The Committee is of the opinion that a sufficient answer has been given in its answer to Overture 107. Adopted.

III. Overtures Nos. 89 to 94, from the Presbyteries of Corning, Hainan, Iowa, Waterloo, Columbus, Council Bluffs, all being in substance as follows:

"The Presbytery of Hainan respectfully overtures the General Assembly to grant to said Presbytery the power to act as a Presbytery under the Home Church in connection with the Synod of Iowa, with the right to send Commissioners to the General Assembly and to approach it by way of Overture, while at the same time being members of, or assessors in, the independent courts of the Chinese Church, but subject in respect to discipline to the Courts of the Home Church only."

It is recommended that the request be not granted, for the reason that a Presbytery cannot be under two independent ecclesiastical jurisdictions at the same time. Adopted.

IV. Overtures Nos. 108 and 109, from the Presbyteries of East Florida and South Florida, also a Memorial from the Presbytery of Havana. The Overtures ask for the dissolution of the Synod of Florida, and the memorial from the Presbytery of Havana requests that it be transferred from the Synod of Florida to the Synod of New Jersey.

The following action is recommended:

Resolved, 1. That the request contained in the Overtures, viz.: To dissolve the Synod of Florida, U. S. A., be granted, and that the Synod of Florida be and is hereby dissolved.

Resolved, 2. That the three Presbyteries, East Florida, South Florida and West Florida, be consolidated into one Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery of Florida, U. S. A., and that the Presbytery of Florida be and is hereby constituted.

Resolved, 3. That permission be granted to the colored ministers and churches within the bounds of the Presbytery of East Florida, when they shall ask it, to be transferred to the Presbytery of Knox.

Resolved, 4. That the Presbytery of Florida be directed to convene in St. Augustine, Florida, on the third Tuesday of November, 1907, at 7.30 P.M., and that Rev. W. W. Faris, D.D., or in case of his absence Rev. J. C. Stout, preach the opening sermon and preside until a Moderator is chosen.

Resolved, 5. That the Presbytery of Florida, now erected, is hereby placed in connection with the Synod of Alabama, U. S. A.

Resolved, 6. That the Presbytery of Havana be transferred to the Synod of New Jersey.

All the resolutions were adopted.

V. An Overture from the Synod of Minnesota, asking that the General Assembly take steps, under the action of the Assembly of 1904, toward organizing the German-speaking ministers and churches of the West into separate Presbyteries and Synods. The following answer is recommended: The Assembly is of the opinion that the Synods have power to erect such Presbyteries, whenever properly requested, and are the proper judges of the propriety of so doing; and when such Presbyteries are thus organized, the General Assembly may then be called upon to pass the proper Enabling Act for the erection of Synods. Adopted.

VI. A request from the Committee on Sabbath Observance, to make 11 A.M., the first Friday of each Assembly, the time for hearing the Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance. It is recommended that this request be granted. Adopted.

VII. A paper referred to your Committee calls attention to the fact that Rev. J. S. Braddock, D.D., has been for forty-two years pastor of the Middle Creek Church, Presbytery of Freeport, and that on his ninetieth birthday, June 27, 1907, he will be released from his pastorate, and that the Presbytery of Freeport will assemble at the Middle Creek Church to celebrate his ninetieth birthday; therefore,

Resolved, That the greetings and congratulations of this General Assembly be extended to Dr. Braddock on the said occasion. See II Timothy, 4 : 7, 8. Adopted.

Also that words of greeting be extended to Rev. William A. West, D.D., a member of the Presbytery of Carlisle, who has been in the active ministry fifty-five years, and Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Carlisle thirty years, and who is a Commissioner to this General Assembly. Adopted.

VIII. Overtures Nos. 252 and 285, from the Presbyteries of Westchester and New York, referred to this Assembly by the last Assembly (see Minutes of 1906, p. 197), and asking for an amendment of the Form of Government dividing ministers into active and associate members of Presbytery. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

IX. Overture No. 253, from the Presbytery of Birmingham, referred to this Assembly by the last Assembly (see Minutes, 1906, p. 198), asking for the erection of the Synod of Alabama out of the Presbyteries of Birmingham, LeVere and Rogersville, all now in the Synod of Tennessee.

This Overture having already been acted upon by this Assembly, it is recommended that no further action be taken. Adopted.

X. Overture No. 251, from the Presbytery of Lyons, referred to this Assembly by the last Assembly (see Minutes, 1906, p. 197), asking a change in Chapter X, Section V of the Form of Government, so as to make it read: "Each congregation shall have one elder to represent them."

It is recommended that the following action be taken:

Resolved, That an Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries as follows:

1. Shall Chapter X, Section IV, of the Form of Government be omitted?

2. Shall the numbers of the other Sections of Chapter X, following Section III, be changed to conform to the new arrangement, viz., Section V to Section IV, and so on to the end?

Your Committee is of the opinion that the change contemplated in the above Overture will accomplish the purpose of the Presbytery of Lyons, which is to secure representation in Presbytery for every congregation.

XI. A paper was referred to your Committee by the Assembly as to the status of the Presbytery of Yukon. The Committee would recommend the following action: Having conferred with the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, with Dr. E. O. Campbell, of the Presbytery of Yukon, and with the Moderator of this Assembly, as a result of our investigations we recommend that no action be taken to discontinue the Presbytery. We find there are still four ministers in the Presbytery, and that the Home Board contemplates sending additional ministers to the field this present season. Furthermore, the discontinuance of this Presbytery would be a distinct cause of discouragement to the workers in this large and difficult field. Adopted.

XII. Overture No. 110, asking the Assembly to divide the Presbytery of Manila, and form a Synod of the Philippine Islands from the said Presbytery; the Overture reads:

"The Presbytery of Manila, assembled in regular session on the first week of January, 1907, overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to divide the Presbytery of Manila into three Presbyteries, consisting of:

"(a) The Presbytery of Manila, embracing the Islands of Luzon, Mindoro and Marinduque. There being within these bounds the following ordained ministers of the said Presbytery of Manila: Rev. James B. Rodgers, D.D., Rev. L. B. Hillis, Rev. G. W.

Wright, Rev. John Lamb, Rev. J. E. Snook, Rev. C. N. Magill, Rev. Roy H. Brown, Rev. Monico Estrella and Rev. G. Zarco.

"(b) The Presbytery of Iloilo, embracing the Islands of Panay and Leyte, and having within its bounds the following ordained ministers of the said Presbytery of Manila: Rev. J. Andrew Hall, Rev. Paul Doltz, Rev. C. E. Rath, Rev. P. Solarte, Rev. A. Reyes.

"(c) The Presbytery of Cebu, embracing the Islands of Cebu, Negros and Bohol, and having within its bounds the following ordained ministers of the said Presbytery of Manila: Rev. F. Jansen, Rev. J. Graham, Rev. W. O. McIntire, Rev. D. S. Hibbard, Ph.D., and Rev. R. Alonzo.

"And that these three Presbyteries be formed into a Synod, to be called the Synod of the Philippine Islands."

Your Committee reports that our Form of Government provides (Chapter II, Paragraph IV) that the power to erect new Presbyteries, and to divide those already erected, is primarily in the Synod; that the Presbytery of Manila is now a part of the Synod of West Kwantung; that this Synod is now constituted of three Presbyteries, the smallest number of which a Synod may be constituted; and to separate the Presbytery of Manila from this Synod would, at the present time, disrupt the Synod. Your Committee considers that action should be taken to accomplish the result sought by the Overture in a manner that would neither endanger nor embarrass the Synod of West Kwantung. The Committee therefore presents the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the division of the Presbytery of Manila into three Presbyteries be referred to the Synod of West Kwantung, to be accomplished by it at such time and in such manner as shall not endanger its integrity, peace or prosperity.

Resolved, 2. That in case the Synod of West Kwantung so divide the Presbytery of Manila, then the three Presbyteries thereupon formed shall be and hereby are constituted into a Synod to be called the Synod of the Philippine Islands.

Resolved, 3. That upon the division of the Presbytery of Manila, substantially in the manner described in the above Overture No. 110, the Synod of the Philippines, consisting of the Presbyteries into which the Presbytery of Manila may be divided, shall meet in the city of Manila, at a time to be designated by the members of the said Presbytery, and that the Rev. James B. Rodgers, D.D., or, in the case of his absence, some other minister and member of one of the new Presbyteries, shall call the Synod to order, preach the opening sermon and preside until a Moderator be chosen, when the Synod shall proceed in due form to the transaction of business lawfully coming before it.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM P. FULTON, Chairman.

The two following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly extends its hearty greeting to the Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., of the Westchester Presbytery, a member of this Assembly. Dr. Phraner has served the Church for fifty-six years, for thirty-six years as pastor of the Ossining Church, and for the past twenty years rendering invaluable service throughout the entire Church, especially in the cause of Home Missions.

Resolved, That the Presbyterian College of Florida, at Eustis, Florida, be heartily commended to the continued ministries of generous givers and of the College Board, under the new Synodical conditions created by this Assembly, as an educational necessity to the Presbyterian work and to the Presbyterian people of its large territory, not otherwise occupied by any Presbyterian College.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Moderator of the General Assembly be requested to prepare and issue a letter to the Church, calling attention to the proceedings of this Assembly, specially emphasizing such matters as in the judgment of the Moderator might be well emphasized.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly recommends to Sessions that the Moderator's letter be read in all our Churches.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented the following Report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Correspondence would report that the fraternal delegates from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, the Rev. R. L. Hyde, President of the Bowling Green Academy, Bowling Green, Ky., and Prof. John J. Jenkins, Principal of the Cumberland Presbyterian Institute, Huntsville, Ala., have been introduced to and heard by the Assembly. In reference to this body of earnest colored people, numbering 25,000, we would recommend, that since the historic relation of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, has been one of fraternal helpfulness in all their work, the same relation be sustained between the reunited Church and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored; and that the Rev. R. M. Tinnon, D.D., of Nashville, Tenn., and the Rev. E. A. Elmore, D.D., of Chattanooga, Tenn., be appointed delegates to bear the fraternal greetings of this body to the next Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, with authority to advise with them concerning their work and their needs, and to report to the next Assembly.

The credentials of the Rev. Isaac Boyce, D.D., delegate of the General Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Mexico; of the Rev. J. R. C. Ewing, D.D., representative of the Presbyterian Church of India; of the Rev. V. A. Costabel, representative of the Waldensian Church of Italy, have been placed in our hands and found to be correct. These brethren were introduced to the Assembly and heard with great pleasure. Your Committee most gladly notes the presence of Rev. W. H. Hannum, also from the Presbyterian Church of India.

The Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D., of London, England, General Secretary of the Presbyterian Alliance of the World, has been introduced to the Assembly and heard with great profit in matters relative to the work of the Alliance. To all of these greetings the Moderator made appropriate responses.

A letter of fraternal salutation has been received from the Reformed Church of North America, and it is recommended that it be printed in the Appendix.

It is recommended, further, that delegates, to be named by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, be appointed to bear your fraternal greetings, without expense to the Assembly, to the following Churches, viz.:

The Presbyterian Church of Mexico;
The Presbyterian Church of India;
The Waldensian Church of Italy;
The Reformed Church in America;
The United Church of Christ in Japan.

We are deeply impressed with the importance of the Presbyterian Alliance in unifying the effort and life of the Presbyterians of the world, of the Western section of which Alliance our own honored and beloved Moderator is Secretary.

The ancient Waldensian Church of Italy in its struggle for better things deserves the prayers, sympathy and coöperation of the great Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

This Assembly having heard the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Welsh Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., who bore fraternal greetings from that body, especially expressing the desire for closer relations, hereby appoints Rev. A. J. Kerr, D.D., of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Rev. Welling E. Thomas, D.D., of Lewisburg, Pa., as fraternal delegates to the Welsh General Assembly at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., at its meeting in September next.

Respectfully submitted.

A. H. Stephens, Chairman.

The Committee on Presbyterian Work in Europe presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Presbyterian Work in Europe begs to present the following Report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., May, 1907.

Your Committee considers one of its duties to be the keeping of the American Presbyterian Churches in close touch with the conditions of Protestantism on the European continent. It is in constant correspondence with the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, and therefore desires to make the bulk of its Report a résume of the startling religious changes taking place in most of the countries of Europe. It is a movement so widespread, so full of what appears to be the movings of the Divine Spirit, so full of new longings for freedom and new energies striving for expression, that it has already been called "The New Reformation," and is the subject of a recent book of John A. Bain.

The disestablishment of the Roman Catholic Church in France, which went into effect January 1, 1906, has been exploited by the Vatican both in Europe and America as a monstrous outburst of tyranny on the part of the French Government. As a matter of fact, it places no disabilities upon the rights of worship, nor does it confiscate any church property, but, by withdrawing Governmental church subsidy to the extent of millions of francs, it draws a line of distinct separation between Church and State, as it obtains in our own country. The religious crisis in France has in it only good for evangelical Christianity. It assures liberty of conscience and guarantees the free practice of religion, subject only to the ordinary restrictions necessary to public order and protection.

The Protestant crisis in France is twofold:

First, financial; the Calvinistic bodies losing over $300,000 a year by the withdrawal of the subsidy.

Second, the differences between the liberal and evangelical wings of the Reformed Church in France. The 600,000 Protestants of France deserve, by reason of their patience, piety and patriotism during these anxious years, the prayers, sympathies and offerings of the churches of Christendom.

The Waldensian Church is still suffering by reason of the failure of the Free and Established Churches of Scotland to assist them as in past years. A recent delegate to our Church, the Rev. Alberto Costabel, has aroused great interest in behalf of this historic and struggling Church, whose foundation stones were laid in the life-blood of heroes and martyrs; and an Overture to this Assembly from the Presbytery of Philadelphia suggests a method of assisting this noble body of Calvinists which should be adopted for all needy Presbyterian work on the continent.

The "Los Von Rom" movement in Austria is obtaining larger accessions year by year. It is a revolt from the authority of the Roman Church, led by a strong body of German nationalists, and is directed largely by men of devout religious principles and Calvinistic connections. The evangelical movement has strengthened the national feeling of the Germans of Bohemia, so that the 60,000 Protestants in 1781, when the Edict of Toleration was promulgated, have increased to 152,000. The Bohemian revival has rallied about the name of Huss, and in July, 1903, the foundation stone of a monument to his honor was laid in Prague beside one of the Virgin Mary, erected in the seventeenth century to commemorate the victory of Rome over Protestantism.

The American Board of Foreign Missions is spending $10,000 a year in Bohemia in the cause of Congregationalism, and there is great need at this time of better comity relations which should prevent overlapping of work, and the necessary friction resulting from the rise of two Reformed Bohemian Churches. It would be a calamity to erect both Presbyterian and Congregational communions in Bohemia. The first continental conference of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance was held in August, 1906, at Prague, Bohemia, with three delegates from the Presbyterian Churches of the United States and Canada.

A ukase of the Emperor of Russia on religious liberty has opened up to millions in that blood-soaked land the blessings of religious liberty. The Evangelical faith is now measurably free from the trammels of the Greek Church. An interesting revival is going on in Southern Russia. Two religious bodies have seceded from the Greek Church (Molokani and Stundists). Both of these bodies have split in turn into Presbyterian and Baptist sections. It is necessary that steps should be taken in the near future to prevent this divisive tendency of Protestantism as it struggles out of the darkness of Roman superstition and ignorance. The strong Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain and America should be aroused to the immediate care of these brethren of our faith and order, and consider ways and means for ministering to them in their early struggles, that they may become stronger for the spiritual regeneration of Papal Europe.

Gleams of light are irradiating the eastern sky. The evangelistic fervor of such movements as the Inner Mission of Denmark; the Free Mission in Sweden and Norway; the Self-emancipation of Roman Catholic Priests of France; the Gemeinschaft Bewegung (Endeavor Society) of Germany, and other revivalistic tendencies, indicate that the whole continent of Europe is entering a new era of emancipation from the grievous errors of the Papal Church, and the traditional Protestantism of certain countries is being leavened by evangelical and evangelistic movements.

It is true that the one great field not covered by the missionary activities of the American Presbyterian Church is the continent of Europe. The Foreign Missionary Boards care for the heathen; the Home Missionary Boards provide for the destitute places of our own lands; but what are we doing for our brethren across the sea, engaging in a desperate struggle with superstition on the one hand and rationalism on the other? Practically nothing.

Your Committee has carried on the work of the American Church at Frankfort-on-the-Main the past year by raising $300 toward the support of the Rev. Frank Simmons. A Union church has been organized, of Presbyterian faith and polity, with a membership of about forty, and a weekly attendance of between fifty and sixty. The American colony is devoted, and has raised a fund of $1,500 toward the purchase of a lot. A church building is greatly needed, as there are many disadvantages in worshiping at a hotel.

The independent American work done among the students in the Latin Quarter in Paris is under the care of Rev. Ernest W. Shurtleff. The American churches at Paris and Berlin are flourishing, as also the Union Evangelical Church at Leipzig.

Your Committee would suggest to the Assembly the following recommendations for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the effort of the American Church at Frankfort-on-the-Main to raise a sum among American Presbyterians for the purchase of a lot and the building of a house of worship be endorsed, and heartily commended to the generosity of the churches.

Resolved, 2. That this Committee be authorized to take steps looking toward the proper presentation of the needs of the Protestant Churches of Europe to the Foreign Boards of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the United States and Canada, and that our own Foreign Board be requested and directed to report to the Assembly as to the feasibility of active coöperation with other Boards in apportioning the work in Europe, with a view to the maintenance of the established work and the organizing of new work.

Resolved, 3. That the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., and the Rev. John B. Laird, D.D., be added to the Committee, and that the Rev. E. H. Pence and Elder Henry W. Jessup be appointed in the places of the Rev. S. S. Palmer and Elder E. C. Stringer, resigned.

The Chairman, in view of the new work committed to him, begs to resign from the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. COCHRAN, Chairman.

A Report of progress by the Committee on a Church in Washington City was accepted, and the Committee was continued.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

I. In reply to Overture No. 136, from the Presbytery of Wells-borough, touching the matter of the change of title of Chapter VIII, Directory for Worship, your Committee would recommend that the Assembly take no action.

II. In reply to Overture No. 137, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough, touching the matter of the addition of a Chapter to the Directory for Worship (Chapter XVII, viz., "Of the Administration of Baptism"), your Committee would recommend the approval of the substance of this Overture, which is in every way consistent with the practice of our Church, and tends to a clear and definite statement of our position. However, in the interest of a more logical arrangement of the subject matter, and to obviate the necessity of adding a new chapter to the Directory of Worship and the changing of the title of an existing Chapter (VIII), we would suggest the incorporation of the substance of this Overture in Chapter VIII. We therefore recommend that the Assembly send down to the Presbyteries for their action the following Overture:

1. Shall Chapter VIII, Directory for Worship, be amended to read as follows, viz.:

Chapter VIII.

Of the Administration of Baptism.

I. Baptism is not to be unnecessarily delayed; nor to be administered, in any case, by any private person; but by a minister of Christ, called to be the steward of the mysteries of God.

It is usually to be administered in the church, in the presence of the congregation; and it is convenient that it be performed immediately after sermon.

Of the expediency of performing this service in other places than the church, the minister shall be the judge.

II. Of the administration of baptism to infants:

After previous notice is given to the minister, the child to be baptized is to be presented, by one or both the parents, signifying their desire that the child may be baptized.

Before baptism, let the minister use some words of instruction respecting the institution, nature, use, and ends of this ordinance; showing:

"That it is instituted by Christ; that it is a seal of the righteousness of faith; that the seed of the faithful have no less a right to this ordinance, under the Gospel, than the seed of Abraham to circumcision, under the Old Testament; that Christ commanded all nations to be baptized; that He blessed little children, declaring that of such is the kingdom of heaven; that children are federally holy, and therefore ought to be baptized; that we are by nature sinful, guilty, and polluted, and have need of cleansing by the blood of Christ, and by the sanctifying influences of the Spirit of God."

The minister is also to exhort the parents to the careful performance of their duty, requiring:

"That they teach the child to read the Word of God, that they instruct him in the principles of our holy religion, as contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament; an excellent summary of which we have in the Confession of Faith of this Church, and in the Larger and Shorter Catechisms of the Westminster Assembly, which are to be recommended to them, as adopted by this Church, for their direction and assistance in the discharge of this important duty; that they pray with and for the child; that they set an example of piety and godliness before him, and endeavor by all the means of God's appointment to bring up their child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

Then the minister is to pray for a blessing to attend this ordinance; after which, calling the child by name, he shall say:

"I baptize thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

As he pronounces these words, he is to baptize the child with water, by pouring or sprinkling it on the head of the child, without adding any other ceremony; and the whole shall be concluded with prayer.

III. Of the administration of baptism to adults:

When unbaptized persons are to be admitted into the Church, they shall, in ordinary cases, after giving satisfaction with respect to their knowledge and piety, make a public profession of their faith in the presence of the congregation; and thereupon be baptized.

Before baptism, let the minister use some words of instruction respecting the institution, nature, use, and ends of this ordinance, showing:

"That it was instituted by Christ; that our Lord commanded His disciples to baptize believers of every nation; that it is a sacrament wherein the washing with water, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, doth signify and seal our engrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the covenant of grace, and our engagement to be the Lord's; that it is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible Church till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to Him; that it becomes an effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in it, or in him that doth administer it, but only by the blessing of Christ, and the working of His Spirit in them that by faith receive it."

The minister shall then propose to the person to be baptized the following or similar questions, to wit:

"Do you believe that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God and the only Saviour from sin?"

"Is it your desire to be baptized in this faith?"

Then the minister shall baptize the candidate by pouring or sprinkling water upon his head and using these words:

"I baptize thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

The administration of the sacrament shall be concluded with prayer.

III. On Overtures No. 138 and 139, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough. Your Committee recommends that they be approved and ordered to be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action, as follows:

2. Shall the title of Chapter X of the Directory for Worship be amended to read as follows, to wit:

ON THE ADMISSION TO FULL COMMUNION OF PERSONS BAPTIZED IN INFANCY.

3. Shall Chapter X of the Directory for Worship be amended to read as follows:

Chapter X.

OF THE ADMISSION TO FULL COMMUNION OF PERSONS BAPTIZED IN INFANCY.

I. (Unchanged.) Children, born within the pale of the visible Church, and dedicated to God in baptism, are under the inspection and government of the Church; and are to be taught to read and repeat the Catechism, the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer. They are to be taught to pray, to abhor sin, to fear God, and to obey the Lord Jesus Christ. And when they come to years of discretion, if they be free from scandal, appear sober and steady, and to have sufficient knowledge to discern the Lord's body, they ought to be informed it is their duty and their privilege to come to the Lord's Supper.

II. The years of discretion in young Christians cannot be precisely fixed. This must be left to the prudence of the Session.

III. When persons baptized in infancy are to be admitted to full communion with the Church, they shall be examined as to their knowledge and piety, and shall in ordinary cases, with the approval of the Session, make a public profession of their faith, in the presence of the congregation.

IV. The Committee, by unanimous vote, also present to the Assembly for consideration the following:

In the judgment of the Committee, the organization and work of evangelization as developed through the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, and the happy consummation of the reunion with the former Cumberland branch of the Church, have brought a new emphasis to the Church of the importance of more aggressive work in the interests of the Kingdom. It is manifest also that the several Boards, especially the Home and Foreign Boards, are giving increasing place to the importance of evangelistic work. It appears to your Committee that the meetings of the General Assembly might well provide a larger place for this phase of the work of the Church, and by so doing confer a great spiritual blessing both on the Assembly and on the city where the Assembly meets. It has seemed to the Committee that a solemn communion service on the Sabbath, and a comprehensive evangelistic meeting on the Sabbath evening, would make the Sabbath of the Assembly a day of great power and blessing. So deeply has this conviction rooted itself in the minds of the Committee that they have unanimously decided to bring the matter to the attention of the General Assembly, and to propose an amendment to the Standing Orders and Rules 3 and 4, on page 81 of the Manual, and any others that may be necessary to provide for a rearrangement of the order for popular meetings.

We therefore recommend that this matter be referred to the Moderator, and the Stated and Permanent Clerks, for report to the next Assembly; and we further recommend that if the matter can be adjusted by consent, an arrangement be made for a communion service and an evangelistic meeting on the Sabbath evening of the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

IRA LANDRITH, Chairman.

Edward Yates Hill, D.D.; and in place of Mr. William A. Patton, resigned, Mr. John H. Dingee.

Resolved, 3. That a Committee of three be appointed by the Moderator to act in conference with the Treasurers of the several Boards and Committees; the duties of which Committee shall be to recommend, and, so far as practicable, adopt a uniform method of book-keeping and division of accounts for all of said Boards and Committees.

Resolved, 4. That the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly is hereby authorized to charge to any funds now in its hands, or that may hereafter come into its hands, not applicable to any other particular or special object, the shortage arising from the Hipple defalcation.

Sensible of the increased need of our Church Boards, due to the general progress of the Church and the added responsibilities imposed upon it by the Reunion with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the General Assembly enjoins upon the membership of the Church a spirit of continued and enlarged liberality toward our several Church Boards, to the end that the

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1907.

The Standing Committee on Narrative respectfully presents the following Report:

The Report of the Special Committee on Narrative and two hundred and seventy-five Presbyterial narratives of Christian Life and Work have been placed in the hands of your Committee. These narratives, coming from far-separated sections of our great denominational domain, present conditions and circumstances so diversified, that the unification of the information therein contained has been not only difficult but at times impossible. From every corner of our common country, and from countries which are not ours, but which we have claimed for Christ, reports of Christian activity, sometimes of distressing inactivity, have come before us. Southland and the Alaskan Northland, the mountains and the great Middle West, the thronging and densely populated centres of commercial life, the substantial suburban and the retired rural communities, have all been represented. Into our hands have come reports from both sides of the great Pacific—from California and from China—and out of the heart of the great ocean itself have come the cheering words of the Presbyterian Filipinos. From both sides of the much traversed Atlantic—from New York and Alabama and from Darkest Africa—and out from the isolation of that great deep also have come the ringing cheers of the conquering Christians of Porto Rico and Cuba. In a new sense, "Deep calleth unto deep." These reports, coming as they do from a world-encircling Church, must of necessity contain conclusions differentiated by the conditions and circumstances out of which they have arisen. To watch the spirit of God moving, through the tabulated statistics and organized ministries of our great Church, is as intensely interesting as it is delicately difficult. We have, however, detected a threefold movement of the Spirit, operating through the far-stretching territory of our Church's activity.

In foreign-speaking and distinctly missionary Presbyteries the spirit of devotion and triumph is peculiarly evident. They sound the triumphant note. In the midst of difficulties, terrible and tragic, described in one of the narratives as involving "polygamy, adultery, rum, child-marriage, and the general condition of a heathen country, aggravated by corrupt white traders," there is nevertheless a boundless enthusiasm and the spirit of present and progressive achievement, which has been to your Committee an inspiration and spiritual up-lift.

The narratives of the Southland, by express declaration and by their pardonable incompleteness, reflect a spirit of more or less restless agitation, through which breathes the prayer for power and in which is manifest a girding for service, prophetic of a coming victory.

Throughout the churches East and West, in rural communities as well as in commercial centres, a spirit of hopeful dissatisfaction with past and present achievements pervades the narratives. The pulsing hope for a more triumphant and conquering Church is evidenced by the unmistakable receptive attitude and intelligent grasping after prevailing power. We who have carefully examined these reports have heard with beating hearts the whole Church groaning and travailing in pain together, waiting with earnest expectation for the manifestation of the Sons of God. Labor, temperance, social and evangelistic movements are confirmatory of this most hopeful attitude.

The commercial prosperity of the country is undoubtedly reflected in the material well-being and satisfactory financial condition of the Church at large. While the Church life on the Pacific Coast has been disturbed and hindered by the earthquake devastation, even there and throughout the entire Church the financial obligations of the churches are promptly and faithfully met.

This material prosperity, enriching as it does all classes of our people, is also evidenced, as it should be, in the benevolent gifts of our churches. It is true that a steady growth in unselfish and systematic giving is revealed in the narratives, and yet it is emphatically evident that our benevolences might be surprisingly increased if pastors and Sessions were obedient to the request of the General Assembly in giving their churches opportunity to know and respond to the work of the several Boards. It is also evident that there is a wide scope for the introduction into scores of our congregations of adequate systematic methods of gathering the fruitage of even the present faith and charity of the Church. In this matter neglect is disloyalty.

The spirit of the times is also clearly manifested in the rapidly increasing organized activities of the Church's life. From an examination of these narratives, there can be no doubt that a tremendous executive energy is discharging itself in the manipulation of the mechanism of organization. A spirit of expectation and of earnest hope has been justly created by the organization into brotherhoods, clubs, leagues, and societies of the men of the Church. As yet the goal of these organizations is not so distinct and definite as that of the ladies' societies, whose energy, constant and unintermittent, without ostentation or display, pours into the appointed treasury of our Church's activities the fruitage of an increasingly consecrated devotion. When the men's organizations so recently developed within our churches shall concentrate their power and fully consecrate their capacities for service, the Church shall surely awake to a new experience and go out to possess the whole field. May God hasten the coming of that day!

There appears to be conflicting evidence regarding the efficiency and effectiveness of the organizations for young people. While in not a few churches the young people's organization, generally assuming the form of a Christian Endeavor Society, is splendidly forwarding the progress of the Kingdom, in many of the reports there is revealed a dissipation of power which, in the judgment of your Committee, calls for wise and judicious leadership. Sometimes this dissipation assumes a cry for help, a demand for guidance, and a fuller recognition of the actual and potential power of the young people of our denomination.

The work among the children, as carried on in the Sabbath-schools of our Church, is highly encouraging. An invariable discouraging answer, however, is given to the question regarding the teaching of the Shorter Catechism. From Alaska and Porto Rico comes the complaint that while the Catechism is beyond criticism, it is wholly inadequate and unsuitable for work among the children and youth of these fields.

From the ranks of the Sunday-school come the great proportion of additions to the church membership on confession of faith. From a careful analysis of the narratives we are convinced that the undeveloped possibilities of the Sunday-school have just begun to dawn upon our Church. The Sabbath-school is not the children's church, but the Bible school of the whole Church in her entire membership. The most hopeful feature of the brotherhood movement is its alliance with the Sabbath-school in its Bible study. How many clubs, societies, bands and leagues might be incorporated with the Bible school, thus producing an increased efficiency for service and more effective development in Christian character, time and experience alone can tell.

Notwithstanding the increasing multiplicity of organizations for carrying on the work of the Church, there is not, as is evidenced by the reports, a corresponding increase in membership and deepened devotion. There have been many successful evangelistic movements in local centres, but no unusual religious interest, and no pronounced spiritual revival has visited our whole Church.

The greatest increase in membership has taken place in our foreign-speaking and distinctly mission churches, and these have been manned by the regularly appointed pastoral leadership. The fact to which reference has been made, that the majority of additions to the membership, on examination, has been from the members of our Sabbath-schools, makes it evident that our claim to evangelistic fervor and activity must, if it is to justify itself, be carefully guarded.

We cannot but lament the unmistakable verdict of the narratives concerning the decline of the spirit of prayer as revealed in the condition of the congregational mid-week prayer service, as well as the decline of family worship in the home. It is the prevailing judgment of the reports that the prayer service of the Church is maintained only at the cost of a struggle, and is not the spontaneous expression of the spiritual life of the people. Family prayer, if we are to follow the unmistakable leading of the narratives, and these are our only guide, has become the marked exception in the home life of our membership. This Committee has no power of recommendation, but it would seem, from our careful examination of these conditions, that our churches are ready—and if they are not ready the demand is all the more pressing—that something be done to vitalize the prayer life of our Church in the sanctuary and in the home. This is the crying, all-compelling need of the Church. There is organization enough. There is magnificent equipment. The people are at our doors. The channels are cut and ready to be flushed with life-giving and compelling power. Oh, for that prevailing power to flush the channels, to constrain the people, to vitalize the whole perfected organism of our Church! Then a new spirit will breathe itself through the dry bones of these narratives, and living faith instead of dead figures will confront us. When that power comes, the ranks of the ministry will be filled from consecrated homes, the seats of the sanctuary, morning and evening, will not want occupants; then will the treasuries of the Lord's house be filled with the consecrated gifts of a praying people, and the evangelistic spirit shall glow with no earth-born fervor. Then shall be realized the vision of the Old Testament Gospel seer: "Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice, with the voice together shall they sing, for they shall see eye to eye. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places, for the Lord hath comforted his people. He hath redeemed Jerusalem."

All of which is respectfully submitted,

HUGH T. KERR, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

Your Committee on Christian Life and Work would respectfully present this the First Annual Report:

Christian service has not crystallized into cold and rigid forms. Every year witnesses new expressions of Christian life. To meet the demands of the day, the Church militant is ever changing its front of battle.

With a view to enlarging the horizon by bringing to the notice of this venerable body matters of moment which do not fall within the purview of the usual narrative, the Assembly of last year adopted the following recommendation:

"That a Special Committee on Christian Life and Work be hereby appointed, to consist of eleven members, of whom two shall be the Moderator for the time being and the Stated Clerk, the other nine members to be appointed by the Moderator. Of the nine members to be appointed, one-third shall be changed each year.

"The duties of the Committee shall be to consider and report upon the Narratives of Christian Life and Work from the Presbyteries, annually prepared for the Assembly, and also to report from their own knowledge upon any related matters connected with the general spiritual conditions of the Church. The Committee shall not report upon any matters within the jurisdiction of the Committees or of the Boards and Agencies of the Church. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be the Secretary." (See Minutes of the Assembly of 1906, p. 222.)

In compliance with the purpose of this resolution, the Committee was named as follows: The Moderator and the Stated Clerk; Class for 1907—Thomas H. Cleland, D.D., John F. Hendy, D.D., Elder Andrew Stevenson; Class for 1908—

Stephen A. Hunter, D.D., James A. Worden, D.D., Elder Henry D. Moore; Class for 1909—A. Edwin Keigwin, D.D., Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., Elder William H. Scott.

Early in January the Committee met in New York City and considered the matter committed to it at great length, and the Secretary was instructed to request the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, from their own observation, to send to him a picture of spiritual and moral conditions in their Presbytery and region. Your Committee desired an interesting summary of the local situation, not statistics.

The replies received justify the action of the Assembly of last year in creating the Committee.

The Reports from the Presbyteries are remarkably gratifying, with few exceptions. This has been a year of church-building and debt-raising. The increase of salaries has been by no means exceptional. From which it would appear that the Presbyterian Church has shared in the general prosperity of the country.

While it is frequently asserted that great material prosperity hinders spiritual growth, yet the record of the past year indicates that the religious activities have kept step with the temporalities. The preaching services have been well sustained; the Sabbath-school has had a banner year; family religion has shown signs of reviving; an increased interest has been manifested in Bible study; and the tide of aggressive evangelism is steadily rising under the quickening influences of the Assembly's Committee. It is noteworthy and gratifying that some of the most encouraging reports have come from Home Missionary fields.

One hundred and fifteen (115) of these churches have attained to self-support during the year, and three hundred and forty-three (343) have reduced their demands upon the Home Board.

Among the reports submitted to your Committee, there are noted certain perplexing problems which are so universal as to occasion sober reflection. Sabbath desecration is increasing at such a rate as to awaken apprehension. The theatres have grown bold in their defiance of the laws of the land and the moral sense of the community. So flagrant is the attempt to break down this cherished institution, that Labor Unions and Actors' Associations are entreating the Church to coöperate with them in a general effort to arrest the cupidity of the few who, in the name of liberty, are seeking to deprive the many of their day of rest.

Clubs and social gambling are greatly interfering with Christian Life and Work.

The complaint comes from country and city parishes alike of a large loss to the Church through the restlessness of the age. The constant change of residence from country to city and from city to country, without a corresponding transfer of membership, together with an increasing tendency of Christian people to wander from church to church, without identifying themselves with any congregation, until they lose all interest in the cause of Christ, is an alarming feature of modern life.

The time-honored Week of Prayer is not observed as generally as in former years. The judgment is expressed that a more seasonable time should be chosen for these services. Some churches have, on their own initiative, selected Holy Week.

There is growing concern throughout the Church on account of the use of untrained laymen in places formerly occupied by ministers of the Gospel. Laymen are selected as officers of great Church enterprises on account of mere business ability, and in some cases congregations are calling men directly from the pew to become ministers in the pulpit. Your Committee fears that in this fact lurks a danger. We may lose the venerated, Scriptural and Presbyterial idea that men, specially called of God and carefully prepared for the work, are necessary for the building up of the Kingdom of Christ.

From several quarters comes the lament that the term of the pastorate is becoming shorter every year. A restlessness is abroad in the pulpit and the pew. One Stated Clerk reports that although he came to his present field but two years ago, he is now the senior pastor in a Presbytery of twenty ministers.

Another Stated Clerk reports that the situation in his Presbytery is acute, owing to the lack of men with whom to fill the pulpits. There are at present but eight pastors in this Presbytery of twenty-nine churches. Nor is this situation due to small salaries, since half of these churches pay from $800 to $1,000.

Among the special activities which have made the past year noteworthy, we are glad to mention the formation of the Presbyterian Brotherhood and the welcome which the movement is receiving throughout the Church.

Great temperance activity is reported in every part of the Church. There appears to be a universal awakening of the public conscience and a remarkable aggressiveness upon the part of ministers and Christian people.

Probably the most significant expression of Christian Life is the growth of Interdenominational Comity. In Kentucky and Dakota there has been a rapid development of the spirit of unity and coöperation. In many cases churches in the same town, which in former years with difficulty supported two pastors, have united under a single leader. In other cases there has been a redistribution of territory between the denominations. This has been made possible by conferences of denominational leaders and the adoption of written comity agreements.

And we must not fail to mention, in this connection, the Reunion and Union which is to make this Assembly historic. Already the Church is feeling the quickened life which has come to us through this earnest body of experienced soul-winners that were connected with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

One further sign of increasing vigor should be mentioned, viz., the growing disposition to regard so-called problems in the light of opportunity. For example, immigration, which has long been looked upon as a menace to our institutions, is now acknowledged to be an open door of blessing. We see in Ellis Island the heart-valve through which a rich red blood is flowing into the arteries of the nation. As never before, our Church has arisen from her sackcloth and has advanced to meet the foreigner with a welcome and the Gospel.

All of which is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

A. EDWIN KEIGWIN.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE.

I. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 7, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The Western (American) Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World, holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents to your reverend body its Annual Report.

I. MEMBERS DECEASED.—The Commission places on record, first of all, its deep sense of sorrow over the loss of five beloved members of the Section: The Rev. David Steele, D.D., of the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church; Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; Rev. Francis R. Beattie, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; Rev. Alexander Gilchrist, D.D., of the United Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Peter Dick, of the same Church. These brethren all were faithful in duty, and the work of the Commission will long be blessed by the results of their devoted labors.

II. MEETINGS.—The Commission, during the ecclesiastical year just closed, has held but one meeting, convened at the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., on February 19 and 20, 1907. The attendance of members was good, the spirit of the gathering hopeful, and the hospitality of Pittsburgh, as always, generous. On the evening of February 19, the Commission was welcomed at a reception and dinner given in its honor by the Presbyterian Union of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, the President of the Union, the Rev. S. B. McCormick, D.D., LL.D., Chancellor of the Western University of Pennsylvania, in the chair. Wednesday evening, February 20, a popular meeting in the interest of the Alliance was held in the Third Presbyterian Church, toward the success of which the Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., the pastor of the Church, and the kindly host of the Commission, largely contributed.

At the meeting a number of subjects were considered, and the following were deemed of such pressing importance as to be worthy the consideration, and, in some cases, of action, by the Supreme Judicatories of the Churches of the Alliance.

III. FOREIGN MISSIONS.—With each year it becomes more apparent that the Christian Church at home cannot furnish sufficient missionaries for the evangelization of the heathen peoples, nor can sufficient physicians be sent from the home lands to supply the need on Foreign Mission fields. Three hundred thousand physicians are needed alone for China. The United Presbyterian Church has recently been appealed to, to send out over 400 missionaries for their fields in Egypt and in India. Equally great need is felt on all mission fields. The only possible way of meeting the need is the establishment of well-equipped schools, seminaries, colleges and hospitals for the raising up of a native ministry, native teachers, and native physicians. And to do this efficiently demands on the part of all our Churches wise and hearty coöperation.

Attention is called to the fact that the formation of the Independent Synod of China, including nearly all the Presbyterian Missions in that great country, is making progress.

The Reformed Church in America reports that the Synod of South India has entered into negotiations, which promise to be successful, for union with the Churches of the London Missionary Society, and of the American Board in the Madura and the Ceylon Missions. The Synod of South India assented to the plan for the organization of the Presbyterian Church of all India, with the reservation that it would be at liberty to conduct negotiations, and, if possible, come into closer union with the Bodies mentioned.

Attention is also called to the very remarkable Conference in Cairo, Egypt, last year, of missionaries to the Mohammedan countries throughout the world. The purpose of this Conference was to unify and direct missionary effort along the most practical lines for the evangelization of Mohammedan peoples. And a significant indication of the spirit of unity and coöperation, is the Centennial Missionary Conference in Shanghai, April, 1907, of all Protestant missionaries in China, in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of Protestant Missions in taking the Gospel to an Oriental people.

IV. HOME MISSIONS.—All the Churches are awakening to a deeper sense of responsibility for our country. It has been too much assumed that this is a Christian land and that all the people are within the reach of the Gospel. It has been overlooked that the conditions in America are peculiar, and call for the utmost energies of the Churches to make it a thoroughly Christian land, and to enable it to fulfill the high commission given to it in its relation to the world. We are an unsettled people; there is a continual outflow from the older parts of the country to the new; we are yet in the building period of the nation. Over a vast territory there are springing up new communities, and into these new settlements all the forces of evil enter at once and with intense energy. The Churches see and feel this more deeply than ever before, are organizing their work more perfectly, are giving more largely for its support, and are selecting their missionaries with more care.

There is also a great advance in the evangelization of the alien population which comes to us a million strong every year. The interest in their conversion and elevation is steadily and rapidly growing on the part of all our churches.

V. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.—There is decided advance shown in these twin branches of Christian effort. The following lines of endeavor are noted:

a. The Adult Bible Class Movement.—The International Sabbath-school Executive Committee, meeting August 8 to 13, 1906, at Winona Lake, Indiana, created as a part of its organization work an "Adult Department," and urged all State, Provincial and Territorial organizations to do likewise; and on January 17, 1907, elected a capable "Superintendent of the Adult Department."

One of the greatest needs of the Sabbath-schools of to-day is the identification and coöperation of adults, both men and women, in the study of God's Word. The impetus of the new movement, to organize and conduct, with enthusiasm and thorough teaching, adult Bible classes, is being felt throughout our country and Canada, and a noble literature, including lesson helps, is being issued by all denominational publishing boards or committees.

b. Evangel Days in the Sabbath-school.—In January, 1907, the Sabbath-school Department of one of the Churches of this Alliance, inaugurated a vital movement called Evangel Days in the Sabbath-school. The appeal is made to all Sabbath-school leaders to consecrate the opening weeks or months of the year to united intercession and effort to bring all the scholars to the Lord Jesus Christ. Eminent statisticians tell us that at least two-fifths of all Sabbath-school scholars go out from the schools unconverted, remain until death unconverted, and are forever lost. These facts underlie the Evangel Days movement, which has been evolved out of prayer, as to the means of stopping the procession of souls from the Sabbath-school to the outer darkness.

c. Training Schools for Lay Workers.—There is a movement in the Churches of the Alliance to provide institutions for the training of workers other than ordained ministers.

The general purpose of those interested is to prepare at least three kinds of Christian Workers:

1. Teachers and officers in Sabbath-schools.
2. Other lay workers, such as lay evangelists, pastors' assistants, leaders of brotherhoods, and Sunday-school missionaries.
3. Deaconesses and women who desire to be trained for church work or for missionary work in city, home and foreign fields. The Alliance cordially commends this new movement to the active coöperation and support of the members of our Churches, referring the question of how this training shall be given to the venerable General Assemblies and Synods of our several Churches.

d. The Brotherhood Movement.—The last year has witnessed a still further development of the organization of men in the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System. Especially has the United Presbyterian Church shown practical earnestness in stimulating and directing Men's Work. The first convention of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was held in Indianapolis, November 13–15, 1906, and was characterized by profound interest and enthusiasm, and steps were taken to establish a permanent organization.

The following recommendations are made:

1. The Western Section of the Alliance recommends to the highest judicatories of its constituent Churches to further, by such measures as their wisdom shall determine, the Adult Bible Class movement, designed to secure the identification and coöperation of men and women in the study of God's Word.

2. The attention of the supreme courts of the Churches is called to the importance of making instruction and training in Missions, home and world-wide, an integral and essential part of the Christian nurture of children and youth, and of combined effort by our Sabbath-school Boards and Committees, and by all Sabbath-school leaders, both denominational and interdenominational, to place missionary teaching and work in its true position in all our schools.

3. Deeply realizing that the great purpose of our Sabbath-schools is to bring to Christ, edify in Christ, and to train for Christ's service all the members, this Section affectionately requests all the Churches, through their General Assemblies or Synods, to call upon their Sabbath-school workers to make the immediate salvation of the scholars the chief burden of their prayers and the object of their work within and without the schools.

VI. The Churches of the European Continent.—1. Bohemia.—The first Continental Conference of the Alliance was held in August, 1906, at Prague, in Bohemia. The Rev. J. I. Good, and the Rev. Prof. Philip Vollmer, of Philadelphia, of the Reformed Church in the United States, were present as representing the Western Section. Two of the Churches of the Section each sent a delegate—the Canadian Presbyterian Church sending Rev. Prof. Monro, of Halifax, Nova Scotia, and the United Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. McClurkin, of Pittsburgh. The Conference was a decided success. The Bohemian work is in an encouraging condition, and needs the stimulus of our sympathetic aid.

2. Russia.—The great country of Russia seems at last to be enjoying the blessings of religious liberty. This opens the way to many millions to receive the Evangelical Gospel. There are two bodies in Russia that have come out of the Greek Church, the Molokani and the Stundists. Each of these bodies has split into a Baptist and a Presbyterian section It is the evident duty of our Churches to care for the brethren of our faith and order, and so to support them that they may become agents for the spiritual regeneration of their land. Immediate efforts are necessary. The attention of each Church in this Alliance is asked to this great and important opportunity, and the suggestion is made that they call the attention of their Missionary Boards to it, or, better, appoint Committees on European Work to attend to the matter. A Continental Committee, such as is in existence in the Scotch and English Presbyterian Churches, is very effective. The one field that is not covered by our Churches is that of the Continent of Europe.

3. France.—The Commission considered quite fully the situation in France, and prepared and forwarded a letter of fraternal greeting and sympathy to the Reformed Church of France. The separation between Church and State in the country has seriously affected the financial interests of the Reformed Church, which has about 600,000 adherents, but has also brought to it the blessings of true liberty. The Commission adopted unanimously the following resolution, in relation to certain movements in our own country connected with France:

Resolved, That we sincerely deprecate the efforts in many places in our country by the Roman Catholic Church to produce sympathy for the Catholics of France, by charging persecution of the Church against the French Government. We believe that this charge is based on false assumptions, and that these efforts are revealing and developing a spirit contrary to free institutions and the true liberty of our land.

4. English Services.—The English services on the Continent, maintained by the American Churches of the Alliance, are two in number, at The Hague by the Reformed Church in America and at Frankfort-on-the-Main by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. At The Hague religious services were held for three months last summer, from June 17 to September 16, by Rev. George S. Duncan, the audiences averaging from thirty to fifty.

Of the services at Frankfort, it is reported that they have been held during the entire year, winter as well as summer; and that a prayer meeting and a Sunday-school have been established this year. The membership is about forty, and the attendance between fifty and sixty. The present pastor is the Rev. F. E. Simmons, formerly assistant at the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pa.

VII. Defections in Church Membership.—This serious subject, dealing with a matter vital to the influence of the Churches, has received considerable attention from the Commission. Facts submitted show that every year from three to five per cent. of the communicant members of our denominations are lost to the Church by removals or by lack of pastoral oversight. As a result, in all our communities, there are many persons who ought to be but are not in an active relation to the Churches. The following suggestions as to Church guidance and oversight are made:

1. Care should be taken to exhort those who are changing their location that they be faithful in attendance on Gospel ordinances, and especially that they be prompt in joining another congregation of Christ's people.

2. Members leaving a congregation should be furnished in every case with certificates of standing and dismission. Where there is neglect in applying for these, church officers should take the initiative by urging the application.

3. Each congregation should have a Committee charged to be on the lookout for visiting church members, to extend to them a fraternal greeting, and to assure them of a cordial welcome to the place of worship and to all the privileges of the congregation.

4. Might not a bureau be established at some central point by the Evangelical Churches, and given as its sole business the supervision of church members in process of removal to new places?

VIII. Canada.—The Union movement in Canada, affecting the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Churches, has large interest to the Alliance because of the prominent part taken therein by the Presbyterian Church of Canada. These three denominations have been conducting negotiations for about four years through officially appointed Committees, and during the past year the conferences have included representatives of the Baptists and of the Church of England in Canada. The doctrinal standard proposed is largely patterned after the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The Polity provides for the government of each pastoral charge, which is the unit of organization, by a Board in charge of spiritual interests, and coöperative efficiency is secured by governing bodies known as the Presbytery, the Annual Conference, and the General Council. The pastoral relation is to be without time limit, and ministerial support aims at a minimum salary of $1,000 and a manse. Up to the present stage the utmost harmony has prevailed in the discussion of details, and the most generous Christian spirit has been manifested. The negotiations have been a revelation to the Canadian Churches and, in their trend, are a sign of the spirit of the times.

IX. The Cumberland Presbyterian Church.—Since the last report the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been united with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the Commission, therefore, at its recent meeting, recognized this fact, and added the representatives of the first-named Church to the list of members of the second, upon the Roll of the Western Section.

X. The Calvin Anniversary.—The Executive Commission draws the attention of the Churches in the Alliance and of all lovers of true progress to the approaching Four Hundredth Anniversary of the birth of John Calvin. The Reformer was born at Noyon, Picardy, France, July 10, 1509. His life was lived during one of the most important and crucial epochs of human history. In the Providence of God he was one of the most potent forces of his day for human progress, and his influence continues in the present, and will abide in the future, a great power for the welfare of mankind. Men of all classes of thought and of all nations recognize his greatness. Particularly was he influential in setting in motion those forces which have resulted in the formation of the American nation. Great historians speak of him as the founder of the United States. While thus connected, however, with the American Republic, the great Genevan had and has a vital relation to all Christian nations. No man of his age has been more influential in securing civil and religious liberty, the development of popular government, the secular progress of man, the reformation of the Christian Church, the development of religious thought along true lines, and the general advance of the Kingdom of God in the world. It is recommended:

That the Supreme Judicatories of the Churches in the Alliance be requested and urged to take steps for the general observance by all their congregations of the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Calvin.

XI. The Ninth Council of the Alliance.—This Council has been appointed to meet in New York City in the year 1909. The Committee on Programme, the Rev. D. J. Burrell, D.D., of the Reformed Church in America, Chairman, has been directed by the Commission to make the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the birth of John Calvin a prominent feature of the exercises. This coming Council will represent the nearly ninety national and denominational Churches of the Reformed Faith and the Presbyterian Order throughout the World, and a constituency of about thirty millions. Your Church as a member of the Alliance is entitled to choose representatives therein, as indicated by the table given below. The table also gives the amount which each Church in the Western Section of the Alliance is requested to contribute toward the expenses of the world-wide work of the Alliance as a whole:

	Representatives in Council.	Annual Payments.
Presbyterian Church in Canada	19	$380
Presbyterian Church in U. S. A., including the Cumberland Presbyterian Church	97	1,940
Presbyterian Church in U. S.	19	380
Reformed Church in America	11	220
Reformed Church in U. S.	21	420
United Presbyterian Church	16	320
Reformed Presbyterian Church, Synod	2	40
Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod	2	40
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church	2	40
Presbyterian Church of Brazil	2	40
Presbyterian Church of Mexico	2	40

It is urged that prompt steps be taken for the appointment of delegates, and that the names be reported at an early date to the Secretary of the Western Section of the Executive Commission.

XII. Apportionments.—It is respectfully requested that the apportionment of your Church for the annual expenses of the Alliance, as indicated above, be sent not later than August 1, 1907, to the Treasurer pro tem., the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

The expenses consist of two principal items: (1) the general expenses of both Sections of the Alliance, including the salary of the General Secretary, Rev. Dr. George D. Matthews; (2) the expenses of the Western Section of the Alliance. These latter were increased by the Liverpool Council from £365 to £445 per annum, equivalent to about $2,200. The traveling and contingent expenses of the Western Section amount to about $1,600 per annum; the American Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Roberts, serving without salary. The amount needed, therefore, for the expenses of the Alliance, so far as the Western Section is concerned, is $3,800 per annum.

XIII. Delegates.—The Commission has appointed delegates to carry to your venerable Body fraternal greetings. Their names are transmitted in another communication.

In closing we reiterate a statement made last year, that the opportunities before the Reformed and the Presbyterian Churches of the World for service to God and to mankind were never greater than in the present age. These kindred Churches, that have done so much for mankind in the past in both the civil and religious spheres of action, are now in the ordering of Divine Providence standing before an open door of Christian service on every Continent. Through that door may these Churches of ours pass to those victorious labors which shall ere long crown our Divine Saviour Jesus Christ as Lord of all.

RALPH E. PRIME, Chairman;
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR:—It gives me pleasure to inform you, that this General Assembly has appointed as fraternal delegates to represent it at the next meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, at Edinburgh, Scotland, May 21, 1907, the following representative Clergymen:

Rev. Robert D. Wilson, D.D.

The first of whom is a professor in Princeton University, and the others are professors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey.

These appointments are made in response to the courtesy of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in appointing the Rev. William P. Paterson, D.D., LL.D., as its representative on the occasion of the celebration by this Assembly of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the First Presbytery organized within the territory of the United States of America.

III. LETTER TO THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND.

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A., May 1, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland:

BELOVED BRETHREN:—It is a joy to respond to the cordial greetings of your body as conveyed in your letter to the General Assembly of our own Church, and to express to you also our hearty thanks for the living representative you sent us—the Rev. William D. Wallace, B.A., Pastor of the First Church of Ramelton, who as commissioned by you brought in person your welcome greetings and addressed us on the occasion of our Bi-centenary Celebration. We trust that like fraternal interchange may continue, yea, multiply, between these bodies that have so much in common.

We are grateful for the links that bind us to the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, for the connection through your Francis Makemie in the early days that has helped to a considerable degree to make our history what it is. Very frequently and fondly was that son of your Laggan Presbytery, and sire of our own first Presbytery in America, named during the memorable historic celebration of this Assembly. We rejoice too in the element of sturdy strength that you have been giving us all through the years. That contribution has been considerable and continuous. Pulpit and pew have been enriched at some cost, we know, to your own home Church. We are sure that you are not impoverished by the gift, however.

Church union, as you well know, was a distinguishing feature of this One Hundred and Eighteenth Assembly. Perhaps indeed it may be considered its supreme feature. The reunion and union of the Cumberland Church with our own was formally and finally concluded with profound conviction and reverent emotion, and with a grateful sense that it was prophetic of a yet broader union, not so far distant perhaps, that should embrace our Churches of various Presbyterian names. Minor differences disappear as Christ Himself comes to be exalted. When the passion of Christ's heart, "to seek and to save the lost," becomes the one absorbing passion of our hearts, how naturally we reach out toward each other and find ourselves praying the Master's prayer, "that they all may be one, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."

Our Assembly was emphatically an evangelistic and missionary Assembly. It uttered itself as such in placing in the chair of the Moderator the Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., of Chefoo, China, for forty-three consecutive years a consecrated missionary in active, unselfish service for the salvation of the Chinese. It seemed to throb and thrill with devotion, all through its deliberations, to do its full part to carry the Gospel of Christ to every creature. It will give you pleasure to know that in missions at home and abroad the financial response of our churches the past year has been singularly gratifying, and the spiritual results reported from the field have been distinctly heartening. We thank God and take courage, and are planning larger things the coming year.

The spiritual, evangelistic tone would, we know, have delighted you. We notice your reference to the blessed results that have followed the revival in Wales and to your longing that the wave of spiritual quickening may roll out to all lands. We join you with all our hearts in the hope that your Church and ours may share in the abundance of this spiritual blessing.

We congratulate you on your prosperity in things spiritual and temporal alike. The tested loyalty of your people to the Presbyterian Church in periods of depleted numbers, your zeal and increasing liberality, we admire. And we rejoice with you in the evident tokens of favor as evidenced in the splendid structure that you have been enabled to open as the great centre of your Church's activities. May a yet grander era of accomplishment for the Master be yours and ours alike! And to Him, our Christ, be all the glory.

We are, with hearty regard and affection, Moderator, Fathers and Brethren, in the precious bonds of the Gospel of Christ, and in behalf of the General Assembly,

Fraternally yours,

JOSIAH E. KITTREDGE,
Chairman of Committee of Correspondence;
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

IV. LETTER TO THE UNITED FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A., May 1, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the United Free Church of Scotland:

BELOVED BRETHREN:—Your most hearty congratulations, conveyed in the letter of your Assembly Arrangements Committee, on the Bi-centenary of the Organization of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, is very highly appreciated. It would have been a privilege indeed to welcome Prof. Alexander Martin, D.D., of New College, Edinburgh, appointed to represent you in person on that occasion, and to hear from his lips the greeting of your hearts. We regret with you the conditions that detained him from us.

The meeting of our own General Assembly just past has been a somewhat notable one, as you already well know. It has been distinguished not alone for its historic character, culminating in the celebration of the double centenary of our Church above noted—an occasion of exceptional interest—but also and perhaps chiefly by the spirit of Church union that seemed to dominate it. The reunion and union of the Cumberland body with our own was joyously concluded. And it was the repeatedly expressed hope and confidence that we are on the eve of a yet broader union of our Presbyterian forces.

We recognize that the tide of Christian fellowship is rising. The essential unity of the body of Christ is getting new impress. We are feeling after one another that we may the better do the one work of the Master that He left us to do—the bringing the Gospel of life unto men. So the source and spring of this movement toward unity appear to lie in the quickened spirit of evangelism throughout the world.

We have been learning much from the practical mission work of the Church in foreign lands. As Christ is exalted how naturally the minor differences of His disciples disappear!

We are watching with much interest the conditions that confront you and the problems that are perplexing you just now. We are glad to know that these are not all interrupting the spiritual activities of your body. Like the disciples of old in the storm, toiling in rowing, may you have the revelation of the Master and His word of victorious cheer, and come straightway to the land of His and your desire.

We recognize gratefully your cordial expressions of interest and assurances of Christian affection. We reciprocate your desire for more frequent interchange of fraternal messages between these bodies that have so much in common. And we implore the Great Head of the Church that His benediction may rest upon you more richly than ever.

We are, Moderator, Fathers and Brethren, in behalf of and by direction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in the precious bonds of the Gospel of Christ,

Fraternally yours,

JOSIAH E. KITTREDGE,
Chairman of Committee of Correspondence;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

V. LETTER TO THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WALES.

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A., May 1, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Wales:

BELOVED BRETHREN:—We welcome your salutation and the warm words of affectionate interest conveyed in your letter to our General Assembly on the occasion of the celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of organized Presbyterianism in America. It was a notable occasion and was fittingly observed. It is a delight to record in this communication to your body that the author of the opening historical address, "The Period of Isolated Congregations and the General Presbytery, 1611–1717," was a Welshman by birth, the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., our own honored and beloved Stated Clerk.

This commemoration served to recall to us all the way the Lord has led us all the years from that small Presbytery of 1706 down to this present. We do not fail to recognize the good hand of our God upon us. The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. We acknowledge him gratefully. And we do not fail to note that ampler ability always means multiplied responsibility. We are under bonds to do greater things for God and man than we have ever yet attempted.

Our indebtedness to a glorious Christian ancestry from your side the sea we remember with devout gratitude. Your sons and daughters too have brought us in the intervening years much of the strength and efficiency and joy that is ours to-day. So complete is this incorporation and oneness coming to be that, whether Welsh or English, Irish or Scotch, we are quite losing sight of the separate components in the oneness of our American Presbyterian Church. Church Union was a distinguishing feature—perhaps the distinguishing feature—of this One Hundred and Eighteenth General Assembly. The reunion and union with the Cumberland Church was formally and finally consummated. It was consummated with reverent rejoicing and in the confident hope that it was but prophetic of a yet broader union, not very far away, that should embrace our Churches of various Presbyterian names.

Minor differences disappear as Christ is exalted. When the passion for souls, the passion of Christ's heart, "to save the lost," comes to be the one passion of our hearts, how we reach out naturally towards each other and discover ourselves praying the Master's prayer with the Master's thought, "that they all may be one, that the world may believe thou hast sent me." It seems as though we were beginning to catch a bit of this mind of the Master just now. We are, and this in harmony with the Church of Christ throughout the World, entering a new fervor into this petition.

Your words touching the "great wave of spiritual awakening" that has swept over your beloved land gladdens us. God has focussed the eyes of the Christian world upon Wales. We have watched you, prayed for you, rejoiced with you. And we welcome your assurances of the depth and breadth of the work of God's grace among you. We note its ethical power, the effects wrought in communities as in the individual converts, its abiding and growing character, the disappearance of sectarian differences, the stimulus it has brought for renewed and enlarged work for Christ. Simultaneously the Church of Christ all over the world seems to be catching afresh the spirit of evangelism. The spiritual, evangelistic, missionary tone of our Assembly would have given you delight.

We rejoice in your mission work in India and in Brittany, as in the mighty advance in the Principality itself. We pray for you without ceasing for the continued favor of God to rest upon you in all your ways. And we join you in the desire that all your plans and ours may be guided by the blessed spirit of God to the furtherance of the Kingdom of our Christ.

We are, dear Fathers and Brethren, with hearty regard and affection, in the bonds of the precious Gospel,

Fraternally yours,

JOSIAH E. KITTREDGE,
Chairman of Committee of Correspondence.

VI. LETTER TO THE WALDENSIAN CHURCH.

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A., May 1, 1907.

To the Synod of the Evangelical Waldensian Church:

BELOVED BRETHREN:—It was a pleasure for our General Assembly to receive the affectionate salutations of your Church. They were heartily appreciated. Though your official representative in this country, the Rev. V. Alberto Costabel, could not in person be present, the Rev. Antonio Arrighi, of New York City, one of our beloved Commissioners and long familiar in Italy with your own Church and in loving sympathy with it, at his request, spoke your greeting fervently out of a full heart.

We hold your venerable and valiant Church in special regard. We remember your history. The memories of your Cottian Alps, like those of our Scottish Highlands, stir and stimulate us. Your reverence for the Word of God, the simplicity and purity of your faith, your missionary zeal, evangelistic spirit and steadfast devotion to the truth appeal to us powerfully. We rejoice in your work, in your careful preparation for the Christian ministry, in the present advance of your missionary activities. We pray that the important mission of your honored Church may be gloriously accomplished, and that upon you and us alike may rest more and more signally the approval and benediction of our God.

The One Hundred and Eighteenth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has been, as you well know, a somewhat notable one. It has been distinguished for its historic character. It has fittingly celebrated the Bi-centennial of the organization of the Presbyterian Church in America. This was the occasion of exceptional interest. The chief feature, however, was clearly the spirit of Church Union. The reunion and union of the Cumberland body with our own was concluded formally and finally. It was concluded with reverent rejoicing and with a confident hope that it was but prophetic of a yet broader union that should embrace our American Churches of various Presbyterian names.

The spring of all this organic union toward organic union, and toward closer fraternal relations where organic union is not now practicable, appears to be in the quickened spirit of evangelism and of missions that has taken possession of Christ's people to a considerable degree all the world around. We hail it as a most auspicious omen.

How much we are indebted to the great wave of spiritual awakening that has swept over Wales, to the mighty moving of the Spirit of God on all the continents so recently, and to the same power so manifest in various parts of our own land during these few months and years past, we may not be able to say. How much we are indebted to the practical work of our own missionaries in distant lands may be difficult to estimate also. But the spirit is one. The same Divine Power that quickens our souls in love to Christ, and to men, is quickening us in love afresh for the Brethren. May this abound more and more.

We reciprocate with all our hearts your expressions of interest. We implore the Great Head of the Church for the full baptism of the Spirit, that we may all together fulfill the work of reaching with the Gospel "every creature," according to the will of Christ.

We are, Moderator, Fathers and Brethren, with hearty regard and affection, in behalf of and by direction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in the precious bonds of the Gospel of Christ,

Fraternally yours,

JOSIAH E. KITTREDGE,
Chairman of Committee of Correspondence;
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

VII. LETTER FROM T. H. PADGETT AND OTHERS.

DICKSON, TENN., May 16, 1907.

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in Session at Dickson, Tenn., to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in Session at Columbus, O.:

The year just now expiring has been an eventful one for your Church and for ours—eventful alike for each of them, but with different results. During that period, to our regret, perhaps as many as one-fourth of our lay members and more than one-half of our ministers have gone away from our Church and into yours, on account of the so-called union and reunion between the two.

Notwithstanding all this, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, by the grace of God, still survives; and it still feels that it has an important mission to perform in the world for our divine Lord and Master. The vigor and zeal and consecration and determination of our people in the performance of that mission are unabated. In this Assembly are now duly represented 76 of the 114 Presbyteries of our Church, the others having been disorganized, for the present only, through the influx of a disabling number of our ministers into your Church.

A large per cent. of those leaving our communion for yours have been misled into that course by the often repeated statement in public addresses and otherwise, to the effect that your Church has abandoned the Westminster Confession of Faith as originally written, and come to the doctrines of our Church. In the "Pastoral Letter" sent out by former Cumberland Presbyterians, as early as June, 1906, is found this statement: "But what is of still more importance to us is, that the Presbyterian General Assembly has declared that its amended creed is substantially the same as our own." And again: "The Presbyterian General Assembly, by adopting the joint report, in substance declared that its revised creed agrees with our own. In other words, it has declared that our Confession of Faith correctly expresses the meaning of its own Confession of Faith, which we have adopted." It is not believed that a majority of your Church have sanctioned these misleading and unjustifiable statements or that your Church desires to occupy that attitude before the world.

The change of ecclesiastical allegiance by so large a part of our ministry and laity has brought profound regret and sorrow to our Church; yet that is not so distressing to our moral and religious sense, and to that of other Christian denominations, as the cruel and relentless effort that has been made and is still being made throughout our Church, on behalf of your Church and in its name, to coerce unwilling Cumberland Presbyterians and to compel them, over their consciences, to go into your Church; or, failing in that, to coerce and compel them to give up their name, organization and Confession of Faith, and surrender to your Church and its name all of their houses of worship and other church property. The demand thus made and pressed vigorously and incessantly, in Court and out of Court, on behalf of your Church and in its name, is, in substance and effect, that Cumberland Presbyterians shall worship as Presbyterians in the United States of America or not at all; and, in the latter event, that they shall be forced to give up to that Church all of their houses of worship and other property.

In the month of July, 1906, an injunction bill was filed at Fayetteville, Tenn., by and in the name of certain former Cumberland Presbyterians, "and all other ministers, officers and members of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A." The object of the bill, as recited therein, was to restrain and prohibit Cumberland Presbyterians (1) from using their own houses of worship, (2) from asserting any right thereto in any court of law or equity, (3) from the use of their Church name, and (4) from using their Confession of Faith.

This suit and several others of like import, brought in like manner in the States of Indiana, Missouri, Texas, and maybe in some other States, are now pending. All of them are earnestly resisted by Cumberland Presbyterians, who, in self-defense and for self-protection, have also brought several suits, which are likewise pending.

We cannot believe that the majority of your great Church have sanctioned this cruel and relentless course of oppression and wrong which is being pursued against us in the civil Courts; or, if it has received that sanction heretofore, we cannot believe that, upon a second thought, you will permit a continuance thereof in the future. Your Church does not need our property, and even if it did, you, as Christian people, could not afford, if allowed, to take it from us. It is not yours, and you ought not to claim it or to want it. Our Church needs its own property, and cannot well afford to do without it. Therefore, unless forced to that extremity by the Courts, which we do not look for, our Church will never surrender its property to your Church. We greatly deplore litigation, even in self-defense and for self-protection. Yet litigation is better than tame submission to so great a wrong and so great a deprivation.

Our people would not despair, however, if the worst should come to the worst, and our Church, at the end of prolonged litigation in every State, should find itself stripped of every house of worship and every vestige of other property, which is not expected; but they would trust, implicitly and confidently, the same God who so abundantly blessed the founders of our beloved Church, to bless them in like manner and enable them in due season to erect other houses of worship and acquire other necessary property. Nor would anyone feel sure that our despoilers would enjoy the fruits of such a victory over us. We can better afford to have our property wrested from us than others can to take it. Though worth contending for to the last extremity, this property is not indispensable to the continued life and usefulness of our Church. Cumberland Presbyterianism rests on a firmer foundation than that, and will survive these conflicts, property or no property. On the other hand, who can foresee or who will have the boldness to predict that our property, taken from us in the name of your Church and in its possession, would not prove to be like the wedge in Achan's tent?

You will not longer be misled or deceived by the interested declaration that the opposition among Cumberland Presbyterians to the so-called union and reunion is insignificant, and that it will soon pass away. The events of the last twelve months, so palpable before your eyes, have completely disproved that boastful assertion. Nor will future persistence in the unsanctified course of wrong and oppression and attempted coercion, if allowed by you, result in any gain to your Church or in the destruction of our Church. "But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew."

Already the religious sensibilities of this whole country, if not of the entire world, have been shocked by this unfortunate and unnecessary conflict. It has brought discredit upon the cause of religion and apparently retarded the growth of our Master's kingdom in those localities where the strife has been greatest. It is the mistake, not to say the sin, of the present age. But Cumberland Presbyterians have been powerless to prevent it. Nothing was left them but resistance. They preferred to stay where they were. Their consciences would not permit them to do otherwise. They entreated their brethren not to leave them, or, if leave they must, to go in peace. Their entreaties were disregarded; and they were told, in effect, that they must go too, notwithstanding their convictions, or, failing to do that, must be stripped of their houses of worship, their Church name and their Confession of Faith. The only alternative left them was in resistance or ecclesiastical extinction. They chose the former, and by the Lord's help will maintain it. Who in this liberty-loving country can blame them? The right of self-defense and of self-protection is a sacred right the world over.

Finally, there is abundant room for both of these great Churches, and abundant work for each of them to do, as separate and independent organizations of Christian men and women. Union without unity would be worse than no union at all. It would be dishonoring to God and man. Unity in this instance is an impossibility. This has been demonstrated. It was self-evident from the start. Your houses of worship and other property are yours; your Church name, organization and Confession of Faith are yours; and no one can take any of them from you. Ours are ours, and we deny the right of anyone to take them from us.

As to all of these, and in mutual recognition of their inviolability in the future, we invoke the peaceable and unselfish spirit that moved the heart and controlled the action of Abram when he said to Lot, "Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen, for we are brethren."

(Signed) T. H. PADGETT, Stated Clerk.

VIII. ANSWER TO THE LETTER FROM DICKSON, TENN.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 24, 1907.

To the Rev. T. H. Padgett and Others, Meeting at Dickson, Tenn., May 16, 1907:

BRETHREN:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has received your telegram of greetings, the fraternal and Christian sentiments of which we cordially reciprocate.

We have also in hand your communication protesting against the Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which Reunion and Union was constitutionally completed May 24, 1906, by the General Assemblies of both Churches.

Replying to your protest, this first General Assembly of the Reunited Church records its deep regret that you and those associated with you have thus far declined to concur in the constitutional action of the majority of the Presbyteries and the two-thirds majority of the General Assembly of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church in favor of the Reunion. We hope that when you know the full significance of the Reunion and the full design and import of the steps that led up to it, you will recognize the wisdom of yielding to the legally expressed will of those who have long been your brethren in the Lord, and that you will join us in work for the salvation of souls and the winning of the world to righteousness, in the spirit of Jesus Christ. Believing that strife for the perpetuation of denominational Churches of the same faith and order, Churches which ought to be one in name and fact, is unwise, we rejoice in the present Reunion, and shall pray and labor for Reunion with other Presbyterian Churches.

We had not heard, until your communication announced it, that anybody had claimed or induced others to believe that the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. had abandoned the Westminster Confession of Faith. This is not true. The fact was in easy view of all, and nobody could have obscured it, if it had been attempted, that the Reunion was effected upon the doctrinal basis of the Westminster Confession of Faith as revised in 1903 and the other doctrinal standards of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

We think that your refusal to accept this Reunion is the result of misunderstanding. Proof is found in the fact that you intimate that one of the reasons for your failure to accept the terms of Reunion is that you did not believe that the Westminster Confession of Faith as revised in 1903 was regarded by this Church as being in practical accord with the Confession of Faith of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church. We emphasize that the General Assembly and the Presbyteries of this Church, in adopting the Plan of Reunion, declared that there was sufficient agreement between the systems of doctrine of the two Churches to warrant this Union, a Union honoring alike to both. We reiterate this statement in the most solemn manner.

We further draw your attention to the quotations you make from the Pastoral Letter which was addressed to you by the Decatur Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly. These are not justly described by you when you state that they are "misleading and unjustifiable," nor do we sympathize with you in characterizing the conduct of those Cumberland Presbyterians who have accepted the Union as being a "cruel and unsanctified course of wrong and oppression." Your additional charge against these pure and earnest men as "despoilers," whose purpose it is to "wrest" from you property to which you and your associates are entitled, is altogether unwarranted. In this connection, it is well to advise that we and you endeavor to observe the obligation of Christian courtesy.

Like yourselves, we regret that your unwillingness to accept the Reunion, and your appeal to the Courts, have rendered it necessary to ask the Courts of several States to determine the property questions involved. It has been repeatedly announced by the friends of Reunion in the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church and by the Reunited Church, that it is not the purpose of these suits, and it is not the design of any, to take away from former Cumberland Presbyterians who protest against the Reunion any property or other right to which they are legally or morally entitled. Your assumption that all the property of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church belongs to you and your associates is untenable in both law and morals. We shall be careful ourselves to follow, in all our relations to property and other matters, those equitable and reasonable principles which are given for our guidance in the Word of God, and to act toward you as becomes brethren in the Lord.

Brethren, there is a large work to be done for our common country, in the name and for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. There is in the heathen world an open door for united effort for its redemption. We tender to you a hearty invitation to accept the Reunion, and to coöperate with us in all Christian work. Come with us and we will do you good, and our united labors will be a blessing to our country and to the world.

In behalf of the General Assembly,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS,
IRA LANDRITH,
CHARLES MANTON,
ROBERT S. DAVIS,
E. G. POLK.

The Stone Lectures, six in number, on "The Psalmody of the Reformed Churches," were delivered by the Rev. Louis F. Benson, D.D., of Philadelphia. The Students' Lecturer on Missions, the Rev. E. M. Wherry, D.D., of India, delivered five lectures on "Muslim Evangelization in India and the Far East." Both courses are to be published in book form. Four lectures in Practical Theology, upon "Sunday-school Management," were delivered by the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, Secretary of the New Jersey State Sunday-school Association. Rev. Robert F. Fitch, of Ningpo, delivered four lectures on "Present Conditions in China." Rev. Franklin E. Hoskins, D.D., of Syria, gave an illustrated lecture on "Between Egypt and the Holy Land." Prof. James Orr, D.D., of Glasgow, lectured on "The Virgin Birth of our Lord"; and Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, of Princeton, on "The Present Crisis in France." Upon petition of the students and by request of the Faculty, President Patton delivered five lectures on "Fundamental Christianity."

On the Day of Prayer for Colleges the sermon and address were by Rev. Minot C. Morgan, of Summit, N. J.

Addresses have been delivered upon Foreign Missionary subjects by Rev. C. R. Watson, D.D., Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the United Presbyterian Church; Rev. A. J. Brown, D.D., Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; Rev. F. W. Frost, of the China Inland Mission; Mr. J. Campbell White, of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; Rev. S. M. Schauffler, D.D., President of the New York City Mission; Rev. H. G. Furbay, of the Industrial Mission of New York; Rev. Louis Meyer, of the Mission to the Jews. And upon practical religious work of different kinds by Rev. J. M. Fulton, D.D., of the Temperance Committee of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. E. A. Keigwin, D.D., and Rev. J. M. Farrar, D.D., of New York; Rev. Harris E. Kirk, D.D., of Baltimore, and John Sparhawk, Esq., of Philadelphia.

The spiritual life of the Seminary was quickened by the Annual Religious Conference, held under the supervision of the Board of Directors and presided over by Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., with addresses by President Patton, Rev.

L. W. Munhall, D.D., Prof. R. D. Wilson, D.D., Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Rev. Robert A. Hunter, D.D., Rev. A. H. McKinney, Rev. D. Asa Blackburn, D.D., Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., and Rev. J. Ritchie Smith, D.D.

The Presbytery of New Brunswick, upon the invitation of the Faculty, in February observed in Miller Chapel a Day of Prayer and Conference in relation to Christian Life and Work. The students of the Seminary united with the Student Volunteers of the University in the conduct of a Student Missionary Conference in Princeton, addressed by many prominent missionary speakers.

On invitation of the Faculty, the following ministers preached in Miller Chapel:

Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly.
Rev. James McLeod, D.D., late of Scranton, Pa.
Rev. Henry van Dyke, D.D., of Princeton.
Rev. S. S. Palmer, D.D., of Columbus, O.
Rev. Harris E. Kirk, D.D., of Baltimore.
Rev. J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., of Philadelphia.
President D. W. Fisher, D.D., of Hanover College.
Rev. Louis F. Benson, D.D., of Philadelphia.
President J. D. Moffat, D.D., of Washington and Jefferson College.
Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., of Denver, Col.

The students have also had opportunity to hear a number of the University preachers at the evening service of the First Presbyterian Church. The Seminary year has thus been one rich in opportunity, and has been characterized by contentment, happy fellowship and an earnest spirit. Eleven Seniors, constituting one-quarter of the class, have offered themselves to the Foreign Mission Boards for service in the mission field and ten have already received their appointments, while three others of the class purpose becoming foreign missionaries in a year or two. This is probably the largest percentage of any one class to give itself to the work of Foreign Missions. The Fellow in Apologetics and the Fellow in New Testament also purpose going to India upon completion of their year of study abroad.

Attention is called to the cataloguing as "Guests" of Rev. Samuel A. Moffett, D.D., of Korea, and of Prof. C. Kajiwara, of the Theological School of the North Japan College. These gentlemen of mature years and of honored service were received in residence, with freedom to take advantage of the lectures and libraries as they might desire. The quiet influence of Dr. Moffett doubtless did much to promote the missionary and spiritual life of the year.

The year has been characterized by customary faithfulness and scholarship, although an unusual number of cases of sickness and bereavement have occurred among the students.

At the suggestion of members of the Board of Directors and of the Faculty, the publication of a magazine that will reflect the life and activity of the Seminary, to be known as The Princeton Seminary Bulletin, has been authorized by the Faculty. The editorial work is to be done by a committee of the students under the supervision of the Professor of Practical Theology. The cost is to be defrayed by private subscription. The first issue is to be the Commencement Number in May of the present year.

Mr. John H. Converse has made an offer, which has been accepted, of a house in Philadelphia, in the interest of the training of the students of the Seminary in religious work under the supervision of the Professor of Practical Theology and of the Directors living in Philadelphia; and at the request of the Committee the Board of Directors is planning to adjust the new opportunity to the existing curriculum, so as to secure the greatest efficiency in the preparation of students for their future ministry.

Dr. Frederick W. Loetscher, after a career of three years and a half as Instructor of Church History, marked by fidelity, ability and success as a teacher, to the great regret of the Faculty, resigned his position to enter the pastorate.

Rev. James Oscar Boyd, Ph.D., was elected Elliott F. Shepard Assistant Professor of Oriental and Old Testament Literature; and Rev. Caspar Wistar Hodge, Ph.D., was elected Assistant Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y., report as follows for the year ending May 9, 1907, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Rev. Halsey Bidwell Stevenson, our Librarian and Instructor in Hebrew, entered into rest on April 7, 1907. Mr. Stevenson was a graduate of the Seminary in the Class of 1881, and for many years in the latter part of his ministry was a member of the Board of Commissioners and its Stated Clerk. In 1901 he was chosen Librarian, and in 1903 was made Instructor in Hebrew. His long acquaintance with the Seminary and his intense devotion to its interests made him its valued friend and faithful servant. A memorial service was held in the chapel on May 8, 1907, at which an address was given by the Rev. William E. Roe, D.D., of Auburn, N. Y., a friend of Mr. Stevenson's since their college days.

The Seminary has passed the first year under the new Charter, by which the government is in the hands of a single Board of Directors, which took the place a year ago of the Board of Commissioners and Board of Trustees. The change has in every way worked to the advantage of the Seminary, and is universally acceptable.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Chair of Christian Theology has been vacant during the year, there has been no lack of systematic and thorough instruction in this subject. Rev. William Adams Brown, D.D., Professor of Systematic Theology in Union Seminary, has lectured throughout the year to the Junior and Middle Classes on Theology. Rev. John Oman, D.Phil., of Alnwick, England, was Lecturer-in-Residence of Theology for five weeks. The President has taken the Middle Class through the Westminster Confession of Faith.

The Rev. John Quincy Adams, of Waterloo, N. Y., has been elected Librarian. Prof. Harry Lathrop Reed will be the Instructor in Hebrew for the coming year.

The practice of having extra curriculum lectures by men chosen because of their peculiar fitness has been maintained as in former years.

REPORT OF EXAMINING COMMITTEE ON LANE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

To the Board of Trustees:

We regard the condition of Lane Seminary to-day as full of hope and encouragement. We are grateful to a kind Providence for the work already done and for the bright prospect of a still greater work in the coming years. As representatives of the various Presbyteries and Synods, we have heard the recitations of the different classes and are much pleased with the progress made. We note with interest the fidelity of the instructors and the devotion of the students to their work.

We recognize with satisfaction the emphasis placed upon the Word of God and the frequent references to its infallible authority.

The students show considerable originality in their investigation of the Divine Word, its practical interpretation and their fidelity to the principles embodied in our Confession.

The Professors have shown devotion to their classes, and have spared neither time nor energy in an effort to bring them up to the highest possible intellectual and spiritual level.

We call especial attention to the course on English Bible and the introduction into Pastoral Theology of the study of Sociology. We commend the adoption of these courses and call the attention of future students to these valuable additions to the whole system of study.

The introduction of Old Testament Theology into the study of the Creed we would also commend.

We believe the interest of the Church will be advanced and her influence strengthened by the work of the Seminaries and devoted corps of instructors—men of wide research, broad scholarship and consecrated zeal.

We cordially recommend "Lane" to the full confidence and patronage of the Church, feeling assured that the intellectual and moral training of the young men coming under her influence will be safely guarded and their preparation for the ministry made as thorough and complete as possible.

We endorse the following resolution, adopted in a previous report of an Examining Committee:

That the Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., LL.D., President of Lane Seminary, be invited to visit the colleges of the State and confer with the students in reference to the ministry of the Gospel.

The Grant-Robinson Memorial Hall, the Administration Building, the largest of the group of buildings and the centre of the work of the institution, has been completed at a cost of about $67,000, and was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on May 6, 1907. It contains six lecture rooms, each with a professor's study attached; a handsome reception room, which will serve also as a Directors' room, and also rooms for a number of students.

It bears the name of Grant-Robinson, in joint memory of the late William T. Grant, Esq., a member of the Second Church, Louisville, and a Director of this Seminary, and of Mrs. Mary Robinson Grant, his wife and a niece of the late Dr. Stuart Robinson, once a distinguished professor in Danville Seminary. The building is erected from a portion of the bequest made by Mr. Grant to the Seminary, the most munificent gift ever made in the South to Theological education.

George E. Good, to Alaska.

Also Mr. James K. Stage, a student of the Middle Class, has accepted a position in Sitka, Alaska.

City Evangelization has been before the minds of the students. They are eager for practical work and for the investigation of social conditions. The location of the Seminary, in such a centre of population as Chicago, gives special opportunity for City Evangelization. Dr. Hill is rapidly developing this department of work.

XI. AMENDMENTS.

Certain amendments to the Constitution of the Seminary are respectfully brought to the notice of the General Assembly for its approval, as follows:

(1) At the annual meeting of the Board in 1902 an addition to Section 4 of Article II was made as follows:

"The Board shall have power to elect a President of the Seminary, who shall be a member of the Faculty and subject to all the rules and regulations which apply to other members of the Faculty."

(2) At the annual meeting of the Board in 1906 a further amendment of said section was made by adding as follows:

"Such President shall be ex-officio a member of the Board of Directors, and of the Executive Committee, and also of the Board of Trustees, taking the latter position upon election thereto, and not increasing the number of the Trustees to more than nine. He shall have a general oversight of the internal affairs of the Seminary, and when present may preside at all Faculty meetings, carry out the policy of the institution, as agreed upon by the Board of Directors and the Faculty respectively; discharge such duties as a teacher as the Board of Directors shall see fit to impose, and represent the Seminary before the public in suitable ways."

(3) At the annual meeting of the Board in 1907 there was added to Article IV of the Constitution a section as follows:

"The Board shall also have the right to confer upon graduates of the Seminary who have already received the degree of A.M. or A.B., and who shall satisfactorily complete such course of study as the Faculty may designate, the degree of B.D., or Bachelor of Divinity."

The foregoing amendments were respectively adopted by the Board of Directors according to the Constitution.

EXHIBIT "A."

The Report of Board of Directors of McCormick Theological Seminary, A.D. 1907.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Board of Directors would respectfully report certain amendments to, or alterations of, the Constitution of the Seminary, as follows:

I. To Section 4 of Article II of said Constitution the amendment is by adding to said section the following:

"SEC. 4. The Board shall have the power to elect a President of the Seminary, who shall be a member of the Faculty and subject to all the rules and regulations which apply to other members of the Faculty.

"Such President shall be ex-officio a member of the Board of Directors, and of the Executive Committee, and also of the Board of Trustees, taking the latter position upon election thereto, and not increasing the number of the Trustees to more than nine. He shall have a general oversight of the internal affairs of the Seminary, and when present may preside at all Faculty meetings, carry out the policy of the institution as agreed upon by the Board of Directors and the Faculty respectively; discharge such duties as a teacher as the Board of Directors shall see fit to impose, and represent the Seminary before the public in suitable ways."

II. An addition to Article IV of said Constitution, and to be designated as Section 4, as follows:

"SEC. 4. The Board shall also have the right to confer upon graduates of the Seminary who have already received the degree of A.M. or A.B., and who shall satisfactorily complete such course of study as the Faculty may designate, the degree of B.D., or Bachelor of Divinity."

The first mentioned clause, to wit, the one having reference to a President of the Seminary, is supposed to have had the approval of the General Assembly at a former meeting, but is reported with reference to giving the whole of the section as amended to date, the whole section as so amended being as follows:

"SEC. 4. The Board of Directors shall have power to elect and duly induct and inaugurate into office the Professors of the Seminary; to receive their resignations, also to remove them from office; such elections and removals to be subject to the veto of the General Assembly. The Board shall also have the power to suspend temporarily a Professor, preliminary to and pending an investigation of charges against his conduct or doctrine.

"The Board shall have power to elect a President of the Seminary, who shall be a member of the Faculty and subject to all the rules and regulations which apply to other members of the Faculty.

"Such President shall be ex-officio a member of the Board of Directors, and of the Executive Committee, and also of the Board of Trustees, taking the latter position upon election thereto, and not increasing the number of the Trustees to more than nine. He shall have a general oversight of the internal affairs of the Seminary, and when present may preside at all Faculty meetings, carry out the policy of the institution as agreed upon by the Board of Directors and the Faculty respectively; discharge such duties as a teacher as the Board of Directors shall see fit to impose, and represent the Seminary before the public in suitable ways."

The whole of Article IV, including Section 4 so lately adopted as an amendment, will, if meeting the approval of the General Assembly, read as follows:

"ARTICLE IV.

"Of the Course of Studies.

"SECTION 1. The course of study shall include Biblical Languages, Literature, Criticism and Hermeneutics, General and Special Introduction to the Scriptures, the Exegesis of so many of the principal books of the Scripture as the time shall allow, Didactic and Polemic Theology, with a preliminary review of Metaphysics, Psychology and Ethics in their relations to Theology, the Constitution, Polity and History of the Church, Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Care and Missionary Instruction.

"SEC. 2. The full course of study shall occupy three sessions, of such length as the Board of Directors shall order.

"SEC. 3. Those students who shall have regularly pursued the prescribed course of studies shall be admitted to an examination therein by the Faculty and the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, and, if the examination shall be sustained, such students shall receive diplomas certifying the fact from the Faculty, with the consent and approval of the Board of Directors.

"SEC. 4. The Board shall also have the right to confer upon graduates of the Seminary who have already received the degree of A.M. or A.B., and who shall satisfactorily complete such course of study as the Faculty may designate, the degree of B.D., or Bachelor of Divinity."

By a vote of three-fourths of the Directors, present and voting at a regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors, such amendments were severally and respectively adopted, to take effect and be in force when approved by the General Assembly, as is provided in Article IX of said Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

C. M. HOWE, The Clerk. S. J. NICCOLLS, President.

The reasons for the small attendance of students are obvious. Most of our students come from Eastern colleges. The great disaster of one year ago produced such uncertainty in the minds of Eastern people as to the outcome, that naturally students were deterred from coming from the East until this could be known. The Seminary is settled on a firmer basis now than ever, and the prospect for students for the coming year is very bright indeed.

5. Review of the Year.

A second calamity befell the Seminary during the year when the senior Professor was called from labor to rest.

By the death of the Rev. Prof. William Alexander, D.D., LL.D., who passed away at his home in San Anselmo, June 28, 1906, the Seminary has lost the last of the founders who labored in the pioneer days of California. Together with the late Rev. William A. Scott, D.D., he organized the Seminary thirty-five years ago. His death is deeply lamented by his associates in the Faculty and the widespread company of graduates scattered throughout the world who were at one time his pupils.

On Tuesday evening, November 13, 1906, a service in memory of Dr. Alexander was held in Montgomery Memorial Chapel, when addresses were made by Rev. Prof. Charles G. Paterson, representing the Faculty; the Rev. James Curry, D.D., representing the Board of Directors, and the Rev. James S. McDonald, D.D., representing the Church.

The Board also reports with sorrow the recent death of Rev. E. J. Thompson, D.D., who took a deep interest in the affairs of the Seminary, and who for about twenty years was a member of the Board from Oregon.

The Seminary held its opening exercises in Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, on Wednesday evening, September 19, 1906, at 8 P.M. The Rev. Prof. Day delivered the opening lecture upon the subject, "The Universality of Jesus Christ."

On October 17, 1906, the Synod of California convened in San Rafael. The meetings of Friday, the 19th, were held in the Seminary buildings and were the occasion of a large concourse of the friends of the Seminary.

On the same day during the meeting of Synod, the Rev. Prof. Edward A. Wicher, M.A., B.D., was installed in the Chair of New Testament Interpretation. The Rev. William Martin, Chairman of the Board, propounded the doctrinal questions; the Rev. Hugh K. Walker, D.D., gave the charge to the Professor-elect, and Prof. Wicher delivered his inaugural lecture upon "The Mysticism of St. Paul."

Following upon the meeting of Synod there was a three days' retreat held in Montgomery Memorial Chapel, led by Mr. Robert E. Speer, in which upwards of a hundred of the ministers of the Synod participated.

During the year there have been delivered the following

LECTURES AND ADDRESSES.

A series of eight addresses upon "The Fellowship of Jesus," by Mr. Robert E. Speer, M.A., of the Board of Foreign Missions.

"Savonarola," by the Rev. William G. Trower, M.A., of Monterey, Cal.

"The Truth and Error of Christian Science," by Prof. Day.

"Navajo Indians," by the Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee, D.D., of Berkeley, Cal.

"Some Gothic Cathedrals," by Prof. Wicher.

THE FEDERATE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Is conducted in Berkeley, Cal., during the last two weeks of July, so as to synchronize with the closing two weeks of the summer school of the University of California. Prof. Wicher will represent the Faculty of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, and will deliver a course of lectures upon "The Social Gospel."

The vacancy in the Stuart Chair of Systematic Theology, caused by the death of the Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., was filled by the election of the Rev. Thomas Verner Moore, D.D., pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Omaha, Neb., June 12, 1906.

The vacancy in the California Chair of Church History, caused by the death of the Rev. William Alexander, D.D., LL.D., was filled by the election of the Rev. Charles G. Paterson, B.A., who was a graduate from the Seminary in 1898, and was for the four years preceding his election assistant to Dr. Alexander in the department, August 14, 1906.

The election of these Professors has been approved by the Synod, and the Board asks the approval of the same by the General Assembly.

6. The Alumni Association.

The Alumni Association held its Annual Conference at the Seminary, April 23 and 24, 1907, at which a programme of theological and practical subjects was presented. The Rev. George D. B. Stewart is President and the Rev. Prof. Charles G. Paterson is Secretary of the Alumni Association for the year 1906–07. On the last evening the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed, when the sermon was preached by Rev. William K. Guthrie, Class of 1896, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, San Francisco.

On April 25, 1907, the Alumni Association celebrated the Twenty-fifth Anniversary or Silver Jubilee of its organization, which had been postponed one year on account of the earthquake. The programme included an address on the "History of the Alumni Association," by the Rev. James Curry, D.D., the first President of the Association, and one by the Rev. Arthur Hicks, post-graduate of 1893, on "An Optimistic Outlook."

The Commencement exercises were held on the afternoon of the same day, when the Commencement address was given by Rev. Arthur H. Barnhisel, Class of 1897, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Tacoma, Wash.

THE ALUMNI TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP.

The Alumni of the Seminary have established a Traveling Fellowship of $600, which is offered for competition annually in accordance with rules adopted by the Faculty. Candidates for this Fellowship are required to take a high standing in all the regular work, and also in special studies in the department for the year. This work will be taken in the department of the Old Testament for the year 1908, the subject of the thesis to be, "The Teaching of the Prophets in the Eighth Century."

In 1909 the special work will be taken in the department of the New Testament, the subject of the thesis to be, "The Christ of the Fourth Gospel."

Total Annual Income (estimated)	$37,678 07
Total Annual Expenditure (estimated)	39,952 04

The two great needs of the Seminary in this line are:

1. The endowment of the Chair of New Testament Interpretation.
2. Money to purchase more of the latest and best books for the Library.

The Outlook.

One year ago the officers of the San Francisco Theological Seminary were unable to make their report as usual, owing to the disastrous conflagration which had then visited the City of San Francisco.

Reference is made to the very minute and excellent report by the former President, Rev. William Martin, to the meeting of the Board of Directors, which took place in October, 1906. Among other remarks, he said, "On the 18th of April the second catastrophe of the year overtook us, though this, we are thankful to record, was only a material one. The earthquake, which wrought such widespread ruin all around the bay, did not pass us by. The tower of the beautiful Scott Hall was shattered, and the Library itself suffered much damage both from the falling masonry and from the ruin which followed the earthquake.

"Montgomery Hall was also seriously injured, but through the goodness of God not one of our students suffered any personal injury. The damaged buildings have been restored and are once more fit for occupancy.

"The Board is glad to be able to say that while many important papers relating to the Seminary and its work perished in the San Francisco fire that followed the earthquake, yet the whole of its valuable securities, which were in the custody of the Safe Deposit Company, escaped intact.

"It is also a cause for thankfulness that the endowments of the Seminary suffered little loss."

The first estimate, which was made by an expert, of the damage and loss sustained by the Seminary to its buildings and other property by reason of the earthquake amounted to $25,000, which amount seemed to be quite conservative, but a little later on the matter was examined into somewhat more critically, and another estimate amounting to $12,000 was made; however, the repairs and reconstruction having been completed, the second estimate proved to be inadequate, because the cost amounted to $18,000.

The Seminary very thankfully received from the General Assembly's Committee on Repair and Reconstruction of Presbyterian Churches in San Francisco and vicinity the sum of $10,000 to be applied on this account; but it will be observed that at least double the amount so received will be required in order to save the Seminary from the effects of that disaster. And as the matter remains at present, the General Fund deficit has been thereby greatly increased. It amounts to $12,195.51, and is a source of regret and anxiety.

Aside from the above-named deficit, all things taken into account, the financial condition of the Seminary is fairly good and promising.

In all of its appointments the Seminary is in the best of condition for effective work, and the Directors look forward into the future with strong reliance upon God and with courage and hopefulness.

Very respectfully submitted,

JAMES CURRY, Secretary.

6. GENERAL REMARKS.

With deep gratitude we report the great blessings which God has graciously poured out upon this School during the last year. The building whose corner-stone was laid a year ago was dedicated to the service of God in Christian education at this meeting of the Board. It is an edifice of fine architectural lines and of rare adaptation to the purposes of our School. Facilities are offered for theological and collegiate courses, for lodging and boarding, as well as for the instruction of the students. There are seventy-six dormitory rooms, nine class-rooms, two society halls, office, reception room, parlor, library, reading room, dining hall, kitchen, chemical laboratory, gymnasium, and all other conveniences. The cost of the building with the campus and furnishing will amount to over $100,000.

The enrollment of students has exceeded any year in the history of the School, reaching sixty. The spirit has been excellent and the results of the year have fully met the expectation of the Board and its Examination Committee.

In addition to the regularly inducted Professors, who now number six in active service, three instructors have been employed, to wit: a special instructor in English, a teacher of elocution, and a teacher of vocal music.

The Board at this meeting has formally established the Chair of Bohemian Language and Literature, and named it the Samuel P. Harbison Professorship of Bohemian Language and Literature. This department has been greatly prospered and there will in the near future be some of the Bohemian students sent forth as laborers among their countrymen. Already as students they are preaching and doing colporterage work.

In the closing hours of the School year word has come to us that our gifted Professor of Church History, after nearly two years of suffering, has passed into the land of peace. Prof. Urbach was peculiarly well fitted for the teacher's office. Of scholarly disposition he attained large knowledge by study at home and abroad, and withal he was gifted with the power of impartation. His death is a distinct loss to the German work and to the Presbyterian Church.

The Directors chosen at the annual meeting for the Class of 1910 are reported in the list of Directors. The Rev. Jacob Conzett, identified as student, Director and Professor for more than fifty years with the School, was made an Honorary Director. The Rev. Alois Barta, Ph.D., whose election as Professor of Bohemian Language and Literature was approved by the General Assembly last year, was assigned to the new Chair, the Samuel P. Harbison Professorship of Bohemian Language and Literature.

We desire to express our gratitude to the many friends who have enabled the School to attain its present position. We solicit the continued interest of the Church in this most important work. The Board desires to equip more thoroughly its Collegiate department, so that nothing shall be lacking to make the course worthy of the support of all Presbyterians who love a thorough education. To do this we must depend upon the Church to supply larger means to complete and man this magnificent plant that has been now established. To this end we again commend to the General Assembly our devoted and consecrated Financial Secretary, the Rev. C. M. Steffens, D.D., and desire the Assembly to put its approval upon the efforts which he is making to complete the equipment of the School and to secure a sufficient endowment.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Board of Directors,

W. O. Ruston, President.

William Graham, Secretary.

5. General Remarks.

1. We have to report the resignation of Mr. Philip Nye Jackson as Treasurer of our Board, and also the election of Mr. Allison Dodd as his successor.

2. The resignation of Rev. Otto Lichti as Instructor.

3. The appointment of Rev. William A. Berger and Mr. Hans Hahn as Tutors.

4. The Directors of the Seminary have for three years been endeavoring to carry out the recommendation of the General Assembly to train men for the ministry in various foreign tongues. After three years' experience in this work, and in view of the present needs of the Church, they are persuaded that, in addition to our present course of training for the ministry, it will be wise to arrange a "Bible Training Course" for lay workers. In this way such workers who are greatly needed can be provided, and students not fitted for the full course can be prepared for Christian service at greatly reduced cost of time and money.

Post-graduate student	1
Senior Class	16
Middle Class	14
Total	51

Never has the call from the harvest field been more urgent. Three or four times the number of the Graduating Class could easily have found fields of labor; and it is equally true that the demand for a thoroughly trained ministry was never more imperative. This is noticeable not only in the Presbyterian churches but in the other churches as well. Rev. William H. Goler, D.D., the President of Livingstone College and Seminary of the A. M. E. Z. Church, in giving the Alumni address, spoke of the excuse in olden days for an ignorant ministry, but that excuse was no longer valid. As he wittily put it, quoting from Paul's speech, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at"; but the Doctor added, "Those times are over and God can no longer wink at them."

Deaths.

Two of the Trustees, Rev. F. Cornwell Jennings and John P. Ammidon, Esq., have entered into their reward. Mr. Jennings was the beloved pastor of the Wakefield Church in Germantown. A Southern man by birth and having a large knowledge at first hand of the deepest and inmost needs of negroes of the South, and with a deep conviction of the power of the Gospel to transform life, his counsel was always wise and most helpful. He was taken in his young manhood, and every interest he touched mourns his loss.

Mr. Ammidon's life was full of years and usefulness. Although extensively engaged in business, and connected with many religious and philanthropic interests, he spared the time to look after the needs of this institution. No counsel was wiser or more generous than his. We thank God for including these two choice spirits to take part of this work with us.

Professor Ridgley.

The vacancy in the Chair of Hebrew caused by the death of Rev. William Deas Kerswill, D.D., was filled by the election last summer of Rev. Frank H. Ridgley. He graduated with honors from Washington and Jefferson College and the Western Theological Seminary. At his graduation in 1904 from the Seminary he received a fellowship, and took a post-graduate course in the United Free Church Divinity Hall at Glasgow, Scotland. He was called to the Chair of Hebrew here from the pastorate of the Second Church of Franklin, Pa., and has abundantly maintained the best traditions of this department. This election is respectfully submitted for the approval of the Assembly.

Sympathy.

The Theological Department of Lincoln University in a special sense sympathizes with its sister seminary, Biddle University, in the double loss sustained by the deaths of the honored President, Rev. Daniel J. Sanders, D.D., LL.D., and Prof. William M. Hargrave, D.D. To human ken Dr. Sanders was never more needed than now, when such acute and serious phases of the negro problem are presenting themselves. His consecrated Christianity, his charity, his strong faith, and his matured judgment and learning in a peculiar manner equipped him for the safest leadership. His death seems an irreparable loss, which God alone can make good.

4. Property and Funds under Control of the General Assembly.

Professorships	$168,000 00
Scholarships	39,981 00
Pierce Estate	172,000 00
Buildings	54,000 00
Total	$433,981 00

The Theological Department shares in some of the general improvements of the University. A central heat and light plant will warm and light the Theological as well as the College buildings.

Wants of the Theological Department.

A Dormitory for Students	$25,000 00
A Recitation Hall	25,000 00
Endowment of Chair of Polemics and Evangelistic Work	30,000 00
More adequate Endowment of existing Chairs	60,000 00
Forty-five Scholarships, each $2,500	112,500 00
Total	$252,500 00

Such an institution as this depends in a peculiar sense on the good will of consecrated Christian men and women. National and State appropriations do not come in these directions. The University of Pennsylvania can ask and receive from the Legislature an appropriation of $575,000, and so with institutions in other States, but this treasury is not for us. The princely funds and foundations recently established do not look in this direction.

Lincoln University does not have a wealthy body of Alumni to sustain her work and enlarge her sphere of usefulness. God's peculiar people, who believe that the Gospel is the greatest moral force in the world, is our reliance. Whether a race of 10,000,000 human beings within our borders become a menace or a safety to this nation is one of the great questions staring us in the face.

There are many answers being given to this question. Such institutions as this is the answer of the Church. Instead of sixteen ministers a year going out of her doors to the moral wastes of this and other lands, fifty would be but a whispered answer to the clamorous need.

J. B. RENDALL, President.

The work of the Theological School for the present year has been carried on at a disadvantage, owing to the death of two of its instructors.

On the 11th day of last December, Rev. W. M. Hargrave, D.D., Professor of Christian Evidences and Pastoral Theology, was called from labor to reward; and on the 6th day of March last, the Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., LL.D., President and Professor of Systematic and Ecclesiastical Theology, died.

The places of these Professors will not be filled this scholastic year. Their work in the University is being done by other Professors who, at the request of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, willingly took upon themselves the work in addition to their own.

We are glad to say that the students applied themselves faithfully to their work. Consequently the school is getting favorable results.

The theological students took a very active part in a series of religious meetings held in the University last November under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. During these meetings every student in the University who was not a Christian professed saving faith in Christ.

The number of students in the Theological Seminary exceeds that of last year by three. The future outlook for the school is very hopeful.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. McCROREY.

William James Primrose,
Chase Cranford Sawtell.
Matthew Hale Wilson,

The internal life and condition of the Seminary this past year have been most encouraging. In addition to the usual instruction on Missions, the Seminary enjoyed a series of lectures on "Islam and Christianity." by the Rev. Elwood M. Wherry, D.D., of India, and the meetings of the Inter-State Missionary Convention in February were a source of inspiration and help greatly appreciated. The Seminary is still seeking the necessary endowment to provide permanent support for the chairs of instruction. This continues to be its most urgent need. All the current expenses for the year have been met, but no large additions to the present funds have been secured. The amount of $30,000 in various sums has been pledged, but is conditioned upon the raising of $50,000 required for the endowment of a chair. To secure this remaining $20,000 is now the great aim of the Board, and the General Assembly is again asked to renew its commendation of the Seminary to churches and individuals in furtherance of this effort to establish the Seminary upon a lasting and safe basis. The field occupied by the Omaha Seminary is rapidly becoming second in importance to no other, and every year shows the value of the institution and its importance in view of the present and future needs of this great Home Missionary region.

Signed by order of the Board of Directors,

MATTHEW B. LOWRIE, President.

Omaha, Neb., May 1, 1907.

XIV. THE LEBANON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

[LEBANON, TENN.]

THE Board of Trustees of Cumberland University beg leave to submit the following Report to the General Assembly, in session at Columbus, Ohio:

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

ANDREW B. MARTIN, President.
E. E. BEARD, Treasurer.
A. W. HOOKER, Secretary.

W. M. Cosby,
Hugh W. McDonnold,
Rufus P. McClain,
W. E. Settle,
J. L. Weir,
Selden R. Williams.

The term of office of the two last-mentioned Trustees, J. L. Weir and Selden R. Williams, expires with the date of this Report, and they have been duly elected to succeed themselves for another period of five years, and your approval thereof is respectfully requested.

Cumberland University was founded at Lebanon, Tenn., in 1842, which was an early period in the history of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. It became at once the principal educational enterprise of that denomination, and though other important institutions were subsequently founded, this one has maintained its position of chief importance in that Church. Because of its geographical location its patronage has come largely from the Southern States, and its prestige and influence in that section of the country is distinctly marked. More than 3,000 young men have been graduated from this institution, and it is approximately true that as many as 15,000 have been students in one or another of its departments. It is not exaggeration to say that, of the survivors of this large student body, eighty per cent. still reside in the South. We do not know what value in the Re-united Church will be placed upon Cumberland University, its prominence and influence throughout the South, but, without intending to offend against propriety, we venture the opinion that it is one of the chief contributions to the union of the two Churches, which deserves to be cherished, nurtured and more fully developed.

The Law School, as a department of the University, was established in 1847. Its history has been one of remarkable prosperity, and its Alumni, numbering more than 2,000, are holding places of prominence and influence in every part of the South.

The Theological School, as a department of the University, was organized in 1852. It is the only school of its character claiming the patronage or holding any connection whatever with the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church. A large proportion of the ministers of that Church received their theological training in this school, and its influence in that denomination has been widespread. Almost without exception the important pulpits of that Church are to-day occupied by graduates of this school.

Faculty.

David Earl Mitchell,* President of the University.
Winstead Paine Bone, A.M., Chairman of the Faculty and Professor of New Testament Greek and Interpretation.
Robert Verrell Foster, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Systematic Theology.
Claiborne H. Bell, D.D., Professor of Missions and Apologetics.
Finis King Farr, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation.
John Vant Stephens, D.D., Murdock Professor of Ecclesiastical History.
Robert Gamaliel Pearson, D.D., Professor of English Bible and Evangelistic Methods.
———— ———— ————, Professor Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.
Nathan Green, LL.D., Instructor in Law.
———— ———— ————, Instructor in Oratory.
Professor Bone, Librarian.

Thirty-eight students were enrolled in the Theological Seminary during the college year just closed, which is less than for the preceding year, and less than for many years. Peculiar conditions, which are not likely to exist in the future, have occasioned this falling off in numbers, and we confidently expect an increase for the ensuing year.

The Theological endowment, which is a trust fund held by this Board for the benefit of this school, is kept distinctly separate from the University endowment, and amounts at this date to the sum of eighty-five thousand, one hundred and thirty-six dollars and fifty cents ($85,136.50), and consists of the following items, to wit:

1.	Loans secured by Mortgages on Real Estate	$62,005 44
2.	Loans secured by Collateral	900 00
3.	Cash in American National Bank (Lebanon)	438 06
4.	Grider Endowment Notes	1,573 00
5.	Real Estate at Lebanon, yielding Rent	2,220 00
6.	Real Estate at Hopkinsville, Ky., yielding Rent	8,000 00
7.	Doherty Fund, in the hands of the Trustees of the Church	10,000 00
		$85,136 50

No member of this Board is an accredited Commissioner to your body, but Mr. E. E. Beard, who is one of our number and also Treasurer of the Board, will be in attendance upon the Assembly, and he will be pleased to answer any inquiries about the University, or any one of its schools.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. Hooker, Secretary. ANDREW B. MARTIN, President.

* Resigned.

ABSTRACT OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

At the beginning of the last fiscal year, one of the Associate Secretaries, John Willis Baer, LL.D., resigned his office to accept the Presidency of Occidental College, California. The resignation was accepted with regret and with hearty appreciation of his enthusiastic and devoted service. On April 26th the Board elected as his successor Mr. Joseph Ernest McAfee, of Park College. Mr. McAfee entered upon his service on the 1st of August.

The Board has to record the death of one of its active and honored members, the Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D. He had been a member of the Board for nearly twenty years. The Board places on record its grateful appreciation of his long and faithful service.

During the year the following missionaries have entered upon the higher life:

Rev. Lewis G. Battiest	Goodwater, Ind. Ter.
Rev. John I. Hughes	Burton, Kan.
Rev. Hagan Johnson	Talihina, Ind. Ter.
Rev. Samuel K. Kirkwood, Ph.D	Seattle, Wash.
Rev. Henry S. Little, D.D	Denison, Tex.
Rev. John Sharp Phillips	Silver City, N. Mex.
Rev. Enoch Pond	North Fork, Idaho.
Rev. Edward J. Thompson, D.D	Albany, Ore.
Rev. George E. Thompson	Lamar, Colo.

The Board desires to express its grateful appreciation of the services of these honored servants of the Master, and to make special record of its estimate of the life and labors of one who for twenty-seven years served the Board and the cause of Christ as the Synodical missionary of Texas, Dr. Little.

FINANCES.—For the ninth successive year we are permitted to report to the General Assembly that we have closed the last fiscal year with our obligations met. This is the more gratifying when it is remembered that during the year we made appropriations for new work to the sum of $45,160. We also gave $10,000 to the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, to be used in tiding over some of their home mission work.

As in several years past, we have also been obliged to expend in new churches and school buildings in the islands and the West a considerable sum, amounting this year to $75,560.52.

We report regretfully that there has been no appreciable advance in the gifts from the churches to this Board. It may be partly explained by the fact that our Church contributed in special offerings about $120,000 to rehabilitate and to aid in the mission work of California, on account of what was suffered by the terrible earthquake of April 18th of last year.

REORGANIZATION.—The last General Assembly directed that from the beginning of the present fiscal year the Board of Home Missions should take over within its territory all evangelistic work, outside of campaigns in larger towns and cities conducted by the Evangelistic Committee, and carry it on to the full measure of its ability; that it should also coöperate with the self-supporting Synods in the work or evangelization, according to their desire and its ability.

The Assembly also directed that the Board should so reorganize its work that in Presbyteries or groups of Presbyteries so requesting pastor-evangelists should be appointed, who should give part of each year to evangelistic services in their Presbyteries and under the direction of the Home Mission Committees.

Having carefully considered the work thus laid upon it, the Board has agreed upon the following plan for its reorganization upon the field, and herewith submits it to the General Assembly for approval:

First. The missionary field of the Board shall be divided into four districts, with a Field Secretary for each, as follows:

1. The district of the South and Southwest, with headquarters at St. Louis.
2. The district of the Northwest, with headquarters at Minneapolis.
3. The district of the Mountain States, with headquarters at Denver.
4. The district of the Pacific Coast, with headquarters at San Francisco.

The Field Secretaries shall be appointed by the Board, and shall have general oversight of all the home mission and evangelistic work carried on within their districts, under the direction and control of the Presbyteries or Synods.

Second. It is recommended that Synods consider whether the work of supervision and direction necessary for the extension of the work in the Synods may not be performed by Synodical and Presbyterial Home Mission Committees. Where, however, it is the judgment of the Synod that the office of Synodical missionary, as well as Field Secretary, is necessary, the Board—on the recommendation of the Synod—will commission such officer as heretofore.

Third. The evangelistic work to be carried on by the Board of Home Missions shall be constructive and permanent, looking toward the strengthening of the pastoral relation, and making the Church an aggressive spiritual agency in the community.

One Synodical evangelist shall be appointed by the Board for each Synod so desiring, from among men recommended by the Synods, and more as the necessities of the work and the ability of the Board shall warrant. These evangelists shall work through the Synodical Committees and under the general direction of the Field Secretary.

In the self-supporting Synods evangelistic work shall be undertaken on the request of such Synods, under the direction of Synodical or Presbyterial Committees, assisted by an evangelist commissioned by the Board.

Fourth. Pastor-evangelists shall be appointed in Presbyteries or groups of Presbyteries so desiring and making provision for the same in their annual schedule, and all evangelists shall be available for the work of pastor-at-large when requested by Presbyteries and commissioned by the Board.

Fifth. All evangelists and pastor-evangelists shall be under the control either of the Synod, through its appropriate committee, or of the Presbytery, and in all cases shall be recommended to their work by either Presbytery or Synod and commissioned by the Board.

Sixth. The evangelists shall be paid directly by the Board a salary recommended by the Synod or Presbytery and determined by the Board. It shall be their duty to secure offerings from individuals and churches where they labor, for the evangelistic work of the Board, and they shall send all such offerings promptly to the Treasurer, indicating particularly what churches or individuals have contributed.

Seventh. Reports shall be made by the evangelists to the Board upon blanks prepared and furnished by the Board. A copy of the report shall be sent to the Field Secretary and also to the Presbytery or Synod directing the work.

Eighth. The Board of Home Missions shall make an annual appropriation for the evangelistic work, and from that fund shall be paid the salaries and necessary expenses of the Field Secretaries and evangelists.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN REUNION.—Since this Reunion was formally completed at the last meeting of the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions, that it might be in position to take up the new and vast responsibilities imposed upon it by the Union, has been making plans for the conduct of this part of its work in the future.

It seemed necessary, first of all, that we should have an accurate knowledge of the great home mission field open to us; and that our Cumberland brethren, in order to swift and hearty coöperation, should become acquainted with the work and methods of our Board.

The first step was taken when the Board elected the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D.D., pastor of the Lucas Avenue Cumberland Presbyterian Church of St. Louis, and President of the Cumberland Board of Missions and Church Erection, to the position of Field Secretary of our Board. Dr. Fullerton was so elected in June, his headquarters to be in St. Louis. His particular duty has been, by correspondence and personal visitation, to acquaint the Cumberland Presbyterian churches with the new relation which they were to assume with the Board of Home Missions; and by his counsel to acquaint our Board with the opportunities and obligations for work in the South and Southwest.

As a practical measure for hastening our fellowship with our Cumberland brethren, a series of conferences was held during the latter part of January and the early part of February, in the cities of Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee, and Paris and Waco, Texas. The representatives of our Home Board and Woman's Board were Secretaries Thompson and Dixon and Mrs. Boole; and of the Cumberland Church, Dr. Fullerton and Mrs. Clarke, Secretary of their Woman's Board.

The conferences were largely attended by Cumberland ministers and members, were full of interest, and mutually helpful in the highest degree.

The demands of the work in the South and Southwest will necessitate a large addition to our budget. We depend upon the missionary spirit of our Church to see and seize the opportunity, and to give the funds necessary to enter one of the widest home mission doors ever opened to any Church.

By reason of the overlapping of Presbyteries, for some time there will be difficulty in applying the methods of our Board to the field of the former Cumberland Church; and the rule of the Assembly regarding our appropriating money in bulk to the Presbyteries on their estimate of need seems, for this current year, not to be feasible. The Board of Home Missions therefore would respectfully ask the General Assembly for this year to waive the rule which requires the Board to make a specific appropriation to the Presbyteries, so far as it applies to Missouri and the Indian Territory; and to give the Board authority to make grants to churches in these Synods, after consultation with the Home Mission Committees of the Presbyteries within whose bounds the mission fields are located.

Department of Church and Labor.—The interest in the work of the Department of Church and Labor has extended not only into the other denominations of our country, but many European countries as well. Unchallenged by any other Church throughout the world, the Presbyterian Church is to-day clearly in the lead in this important phase of Christian work. One of the chief functions of the department is to create an atmosphere in which our ministers and churches may work more easily. In this connection a "Press Bureau," furnishing the 300 labor papers in the United States and Canada with original articles presenting our view-point of the labor question, and discussing the workingman's relation to the Church, is a part of the general plan. In this way we have been speaking weekly to nearly 3,000,000 trades unionists and their families, thus making an audience of at least 10,000,000.

Labor Unions marching in bodies to the house of God for a special service is a comparatively new thing. This was witnessed in many cities on last "Labor Sunday"—the Sunday before Labor Day—in response to the invitations sent out by our ministers, at the suggestion of this department.

Labor mass meetings held in the largest auditoriums in many cities on Sunday afternoons have been attended by from 1,000 to 10,000 men, and, when Jesus Christ was presented, have resulted in hundreds definitely accepting Him as their personal Saviour.

The plan of the exchange of fraternal delegates between Central Labor Unions and ministerial associations is constantly growing in favor, not only with the ministers but with the workingmen themselves. This plan is now in operation in about a hundred cities, and is resulting in a more cordial relationship between the Church and Labor. The official approval and recommendation of this phase of our work by the American Federation of Labor has given the movement a greater impetus on the part of the workingmen.

For the first time in the twenty-six years of its history, the last annual convention of the American Federation of Labor was opened with prayer, to the evident gratification of the 350 delegates who represented 2,500,000 men.

For the first time in its history also a minister was received as a fraternal delegate, the Executive Council recommending that the Superintendent of the Presbyterian Department of Church and Labor be received in that capacity, which recommendation was unanimously adopted. He was requested to serve on one of the most important honorary committees of the Federation.

On the first Sunday afternoon of the two weeks' session of the American Federation of Labor, a labor mass meeting was held under the auspices of the Department of Church and Labor, which was addressed by the Superintendent of the department, who spoke on "Labor's Champion." The speaker was introduced to the 2,000 workingmen by John Mitchell, who told the audience that the opposition of many workingmen toward the Church was based upon a false conception of the true spirit of the Church.

Woman's Board.—Mrs. Darwin R. James, the President of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, has spent the year in travel around the world; and although the work has been cared for by the five Vice-Presidents residing in New York City and vicinity, who have presided in turn at the meetings, we have greatly missed her strong leadership and broad-minded personality.

The Advisory Committee has been strengthened by the addition of several representative women, and it has faithfully attended to the duties of administration.

The appointment of Miss Edith Hughes as Field Secretary of the Southwest was made at the last annual meeting. Her territory includes Colorado, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Texas, Tennessee and Kentucky.

All our Field Secretaries have been in the field constantly, educating, stimulating, and instructing societies.

The Rev. D. E. Finks has continued throughout the year to educate the churches through his stereopticon views.

Our organization will be strengthened by the reunion of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with ours. At a conference with their representatives, January 15 and 16, 1907, the following plan of union was agreed upon:

1. That the Woman's Board of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church continue to solicit and receive funds, as at present, until July 1, 1907.

2. That the Cumberland Presbyterian Church transfer to the Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., for the Woman's Board of Home Missions, the work at Barnard, N. C., with the understanding that the schools will be continued upon practically the same lines as heretofore.

3. That the work among the Choctaw Indians, as now conducted by the Woman's Board of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, be commended to the Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

4. That as all auxiliary women's missionary societies in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church are home and foreign missionary societies, it is recommended that after July 1, 1907, donors in these societies designate the proportion of their gifts for home and foreign mission work, and that in the event the donors do not so designate, the auxiliary societies shall by vote determine the amount.

5. That in Presbyteries and Synods where the work of the Cumberland Presbyterian and the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. is organized into Presbyterial and Synodical societies, the next meeting of the Presbyterials and Synodicals shall be joint meetings for the purpose of reorganization, the time and place to be agreed upon by conference of the officers of the two, unless there are separate organizations for home and foreign work, and that a Secretary and Treasurer for each be elected. In Presbyteries and Synods where there is the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church only, no changes need be recommended, except that the policy of the Secretaries and Treasurers of home and foreign work be adopted.

A comparative analysis of the total receipts of last year and this shows that the receipts for current work are $3,352.65 less than last year; that the women's societies have maintained the standard of last year and advanced $14,682.17; that there is a shortage on legacies (always a variable quality) of $10,000; that the receipts from churches show a decrease of $679.75. This year, for the first time, the gifts from Sunday-schools to the Woman's Board and the Assembly's Board have been divided equally, so that we have transferred to the Board $3,374.92 from the Sunday-schools, and the amount transferred from the Christian Endeavor and Young People's Societies was $10,774.20, making a total of $14,149.12.

Conclusion.—The Board of Home Missions approaches the new year with an unusual sense of responsibility, because it is now compelled to undertake two new departments, each of which alone would tax its resources.

By order of the General Assembly there has been turned over to this Board the evangelistic work in the missionary Synods, and in the self-supporting Synods so far as desired by them and within its means.

Then, too, we have the glorious opportunity of the South and Southwest open to us by the reunion of our Church and the Cumberland Church.

But, trusting to the coöperation of our Church and sure that it is unwilling to fail in either of these directions, we are making appropriations in excess of those of last year to the amount of fully one hundred thousand dollars. We therefore ask the General Assembly to ask the Church for eleven hundred thousand dollars this year, as the least sum on which the work of this Board in all its departments can be carried successfully through the year.

The death of the Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D., elsewhere noted in this Report, made a vacancy in the Board, to fill which the Board has elected the Rev. Allan Douglas Carlile, D.D.

The terms of service of the following members of the Board expire with this Assembly:

Abstract of the Seventieth Annual Report.

It is suggestive, that this Seventieth Annual Report records the culmination of certain great movements which mark the onward progress of the missionary cause.

Prominent among these is the recognition by the Board of the Distinct Missionary Responsibility of the Presbyterian Church. On February 19–21 there was held in the City of Omaha, Neb., an Inter-synodical Foreign Mission Convention for Men. At this Convention a series of resolutions, based on the paper prepared by the Board and sent to the Missions, were adopted as follows:

I. It is the judgment of this Convention for men that the number of human beings in non-Christian lands for which the Presbyterian Church, United States of America, is directly responsible in the work of evangelization in this generation is approximately 100,000,000 souls, being distributed as follows: Mexico, 2,500,000; Central America, 500,000; South America, 10,000,000; Japan, 4,000,000; Korea, 6,000,000; China, 40,000,000; Siam, Laos, 5,000,000; India, 18,000,000; Persia, 5,000,000; Turkey, 2,000,000; Africa, 5,000,000; Philippines, 2,000,000.

II. It is the judgment of this Convention that the force of Presbyterian American foreign missionaries, native pastors, Bible women and teachers ought to be increased in the immediate future until it reaches the number of one American foreign missionary and five trained native workers (or their equivalent) for each 25,000 unevangelized people now in non-Christian lands, providentially allotted to the Presbyterian Church for evangelization. This would mean for the Presbyterian Church, United States of America, 4,000 American missionaries, or about five times as many as we now have.

III. It is the judgment of this Convention for men that it will cost not less than $6,000,000 a year to meet fully the great responsibility outlined above, and we therefore set ourselves resolutely to the work of bringing the foreign missionary offerings of our Church up to this mark.

IV. In the judgment of this Convention, it will be necessary, in order to raise the funds required for the discharge of our missionary obligations, for every church to adopt a missionary policy embodying the following principles and methods:

Our Missionary Policy.—1. It is the mission of the whole Church to give the Gospel to the whole world.

2. This entire Church being a missionary society, each member of the body is under covenant to help fulfill the will of the Head: to give the Gospel to every creature.

3. Every Christian is commanded to "go;" if not in person, then potentially, having a share by gift and prayer in supporting a Parish Abroad, as well as the Parish at Home.

4. Our giving should be an act of worship (Proverbs iii. 9), cheerful (II Corinthians ix. 7), and according to the rule of three (I Corinthians xvi. 2):

Individually	"Let every one of you
	Lay by him in store on the
Systematically	First day of the week
Proportionately	As God hath prospered him."

Our Missionary Methods.—1. Let Synods and Presbyteries, through their Foreign Missionary Committees, labor to have every church adopt this missionary policy.

2. Let the Board of Foreign Missions, in consultation with the Synodical Foreign Mission Chairman, and such laymen as the Board may select, annually lay before the General Assembly a statement of the amount needed for the ensuing year, and a suggested apportionment of said amount among the various Synods and Presbyteries—not as an assessment, but as a definite share of the responsibility.

3. Let every church prayerfully assume its share of this responsibility, which may be represented by a sum of money which adequately represents the church's financial ability; or by "A Parish Abroad," which represents as much money as the church can contribute to this work; or by the salary of one or more foreign missionaries.

4. Let the subscription method be set in operation by the Session of the church, by which every member shall be reached and given opportunity to express his love for souls and loyalty to Christ by a weekly, monthly, quarterly or annual offering to this cause.

V. While we recognize that the ability of churches and individuals varies, it is the judgment of this Convention that each of our churches should strive to attain an average of $5 per member for Foreign Missions (10 cents a week), and we hereby urge the Foreign Missionary Committee of our Synods and Presbyteries and Sessions to seek to secure that result, and we pledge our own best efforts to raise that average in our own churches.

VI. Recognizing that the successful accomplishment of this project involves not only the expenditure of wealth, but also of lives, we set ourselves to pray that the Holy Spirit of God may choose and send consecrated men and women into this work of Foreign Missions in sufficient numbers to secure the evangelization of the world in this generation.

The Board, at its meeting, April 1, after carefully considering these resolutions, adopted the following Report submitted to it:

At the last meeting of the Board, the resolutions adopted at the Men's Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Convention, in Omaha, were referred by the Board to the Home Department Committee and the Executive Council, for consideration and report. These resolutions related, first, to our distinct missionary responsibility as a Church; second, to our missionary policy, and, third, to our missionary methods.

With reference to our distinct missionary responsibility, the resolutions of the Convention follow, and are based upon, the paper submitted to the Board at its meeting on March 4, 1907, which the Board authorized to be sent to all the Missions, but on which it deferred action until the Missions should be heard from. A large number of the Missions have already replied, approving of the statement of policy embodied in the paper, and specifying, in greater or less detail, the form and extent of the reinforcement they would need to compass the work required of them. In view of these replies and of the action of the Omaha Convention, which seems to make it wise to lay the entire proposition before the Church at large without any delay, we recommend that the Board approve the main outlines of the policy submitted to the Missions, and transmit the same to the General Assembly for its endorsement.

The second section of the Omaha resolutions, entitled "Our Missionary Policy," refers not to missionary policy abroad, but to the missionary ideal of the Church at home, and simply enunciates the historic principle of the Presbyterian Church and the methods already in use by the Board, this principle and these methods having been already approved by the General Assembly.

The third section provides for an apportionment to the Synods and churches of the budget of the Board—not as an assessment, but as a suggestion to each church of its definite share of responsibility.

If the Assembly shall see fit to approve of this action of the Board, and the Church shall endeavor to carry out the resolutions, it should mean large things for the Kingdom of Christ.

The close of seventy years of history finds the Board better equipped than ever before in its Home Department for carrying on its great work. The reorganization of this department was fully set forth in the Introduction to the last Annual Report.

A new Assistant Secretary, Mr. J. M. Patterson, for many years the efficient and faithful Secretary of the Cumberland Church in connection with their Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and Church Erection, has been assigned to the Southern District. The Rev. Dwight E. Potter, of Oakland, Cal., has been appointed to have charge of the Western Section. The Rev. Charles E. Bradt and Mr. David McConaughy have charge of the Central and Eastern Districts respectively.

The Rev. George H. Trull, formerly assistant pastor of the Fifth Avenue Church, New York City, has been appointed an Assistant Secretary in the Home Department, to take charge of a much-neglected portion of the home field, namely, the development of Missions in the Sunday-school.

During the year the Rev. B. M. Brown has acted as special representative of the Board in interesting individuals in the work of Missions. The entire expense connected with Mr. Brown's budget has been met by friends of the Board.

The Forward Movement has gone steadily on, leading the churches to put the support, not merely of Foreign Missions, but, in many instances, likewise, of the whole of the benevolences, upon the more stable basis of an individual systematic contribution, instead of the uncertainty of the occasional collection.

The Forward Movement Magazine, All the World, continues to serve as a medium of communication with the members of Missionary Committees throughout the Church, it being sent to any who contribute as much as $2.00 a year to the work of the Foreign Missions Board. Its circulation is 10,000.

This year the women of the Church have shown their usual zeal, devotion and efficiency. The Women's Boards and societies show an increase over last year.

The relation with the Women's Boards and societies has been harmonious. A joint conference between representatives of the various Women's Boards and societies and representatives of the Assembly's Board was held, in which an agreement was reached in regard to the difficult question relating to special object gifts. What is known as the "Station Plan," or "Parish Plan," was adopted. By this plan the budget of each Station as a whole, and not separate classes of work, is made the basis of assignment of special objects, and donors are given shares of greater or less extent in the work of the Station.

It seems possible to report to the Assembly each year now a more wonderful year than the year preceding, in direct spiritual results and in general influence, as the work of the Missions expands every year. Perhaps the most significant ecclesiastical situation at present is found in Japan, where the Church of Christ, solidly established, with many self-supporting churches and a body of strong and able Japanese leaders, is filled with a just sense of its national responsibility. Ecclesiastically, the Presbyterian Church in India is entirely independent of the many home Presbyterian Churches, the products of whose Mission work are united in it. This movement toward union on the Mission field, while it has materialized in no new practical expressions during the year, is still strong and hopeful.

Not the least encouraging feature of this Seventieth Annual Report is the growth of the native Church in spiritual power. More significant even than the large ingathering of souls is the deepening of the spiritual life of the native Christians, the raising up of a body of consecrated leaders and the prevalence of the revival spirit. A careful reading of the reports of China Missions will show that China is raising up leaders destined to exert great influence on the future life of the Chinese Christian Church. In Korea the Christians have given thousands of days' labor purely for evangelistic work. No greater proof is needed of the efficiency of the work of the foreign missionary than these evidences of the spiritual life of the native Church.

Our fellow-workers on the foreign field have been greatly blessed during the year by the visit of the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., who was sent out under the auspices of the Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly.

As the statistical table at the close of report would indicate, the receipts on the field for the support of the work are steadily increasing. Interesting gifts for Mission work or benevolent purposes have been made to or through the Board. The Dowager Empress of China has given 10,000 taels ($7,200) to the hospital in Peking, connected with the medical school, jointly conducted by the London Missionary Society, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and our own Board. The Emperor of Korea gave $3,000 for the Koreans who suffered from the San Francisco earthquake, and sent his money through the Board and its representatives in San Francisco. High officials of the Siamese Government have aided liberally the work in Siam, and a prominent Mohammedan woman in Teheran has built a woman's ward in the Board's hospital there.

The year has been marked by an unusual number of casualties. The severe earthquake in San Francisco destroyed much Mission property and interfered seriously with the work among the Chinese and Japanese. The earthquake in Santiago, Chili, injured the Board's property to the extent of many thousands of dollars, but in neither case was the life of any missionary sacrificed.

In China heavy floods have produced widespread destitution in many districts. In addition to sending considerable sums of money to the famine sufferers in China, the Board has also been able to send relief to the famine sufferers in Persia.

One of the important questions before the Board during the year has been the matter of such reorganization and readjustment as was necessary in view of the union with the Cumberland Church. As the Board of Missions and Church Erection of the Cumberland Church has had charge of the three causes of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and Church Erection, these three Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. have acted together, in conference with the Cumberland Board. At a joint conference in New York City, on December 12, the following resolutions were adopted. [See, for these resolutions, the Report of the Board of Missions and Church Erection, p. 397.]

These resolutions were subsequently submitted to the Board and were approved by it, and the following action taken:

Arrangements are under discussion between the Cumberland Women's Board and the Women's Boards of Foreign and Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. for the future administration of the women's work of the United Church.

The Foreign Missions of the Cumberland Church are located in Mexico, Japan and China, and among the Chinese in California. Joint meetings of the Missions of the Cumberland Church and the Board's Missions were held last Fall, and the work of the two Churches has been, since May 1, the beginning of the fiscal year of the Board, consolidated in one united work.

In making out its budget for the fiscal year of 1907–1908, the Board felt that some relief in both directions was imperatively necessary, and has ventured to incur financial liabilities to the extent of nearly $1,160,000, in order to maintain our existing work and to provide for the work formerly carried on by the Cumberland Board, to increase the salaries of the missionaries in Japan, Siam, Laos and parts of China, and to add a little, in the Missions where the emergency was most acute, to the inadequate appropriations for the native work.

The year has been one of marvelous change in the Orient. The intellectual awakening in China, the demand for higher education, the breaking with old customs, the adopting of things Western has gone on with ever-increasing pace.

In Korea, the spiritual awakening is as marked as the intellectual awakening in China. The Koreans, though their dreams of an independent nationality have faded, are developing the nobler qualities of Christian manhood and womanhood. The account of the revivals now in progress is a remarkable one.

In India, the spirit of prayer has wonderfully pervaded the whole Mission enterprise. The first Sunday in December was set apart by the missionary societies at work in India for a day of special pleading for God's blessing upon the millions in that land who had never even heard of Jesus Christ.

In Persia, the people have wrung from the rulers the form of constitutional government. The death of the former Shah has not stopped the progress of "reform." The new Shah has not withdrawn any of his father's concessions.

The wonderful extension in the Philippines, the youngest of all the Missions of the Board; the development of self-support in Africa; the steady growth in Siam and Laos; the unusual manifestation of approval on the part of the rulers in that land; the munificent gift this year of the friend whose former gifts made possible the great industrial plant at Sidon, and the ever-increasing opportunities in the land of Syria and other Mission lands for educational and evangelistic work, all attest this seventieth year in the history of the Board is a most memorable one.

In Guatemala and Colombia, the small force of the Board, coupled with the many political disturbances, have seriously interfered with any large ingathering of souls.

In Chili and Brazil there has been steady progress.

The death list of missionaries as here given is a long and honored roll, two of the number having been in the service of the Board for more than a generation—the Rev. Benjamin Labaree, who went out under the Board to Persia in 1860, and Miss Isabella A. Nassau, who went to West Africa in 1868.

Mrs. C. C. Walker, Siam; appointed 1904, died April 21, 1906.
Rev. Benjamin Labaree, D.D., West Persia; appointed under the American Board 1860, died May 14, 1906.
Miss Isabella A. Nassau, West Africa; appointed 1868, died June 12, 1906.
Mr. John Jolley, Western India; appointed 1897, died July 8, 1906.
Mrs. W. J. Wanless, Western India; appointed 1889, died August 13, 1906.
Rev. J. L. Whiting, D.D., North China; appointed 1869, died August 25, 1906.
Rev. W. K. Eddy, D.D., Syria; appointed 1878, died November 9, 1906.
Mrs. W. W. Hicks, North China; appointed 1902, died December 2, 1906.
Rev. S. F. Moore, Korea; appointed 1892, died December 22, 1906.
Rev. J. M. Goheen, Western India; appointed 1875, died February, 1907.
Mrs. F. J. Newton, Punjab; appointed 1870, died March 31, 1907.

On March 18, the Board elected the Rev. Stanley White, D.D., pastor of the Hillside Presbyterian Church of Orange, N. J., as Secretary to succeed Dr. Ellinwood, whose advanced years and feeble health have obliged him to lay aside all active work, and would respectfully request the Assembly to confirm his election.

On November 5, Mr. James M. Speers was elected a member of the Board, to fill the vacancy caused by the death, on May 7, of Mr. Albert W. Pitkin. Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D.D., was elected to fill the vacancy made by the death of Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D. The Assembly is requested to confirm these elections made by the Board.

The terms of office of the following members expire with the meeting of this Assembly and it is recommended that they be reëlected, viz.:

Rev. Eben B. Cobb, D.D.,
Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D.,
Mr. Alexander Maitland,
Mr. John Stewart,
William E. Stiger, Esq.,
Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D.D.

Treasurer's Report.

The fiscal year of the Board closed April 30, 1907, with a surplus in the treasury of $749.37. That the year was closed without a deficit on the year's account, although the appropriations and disbursements were the largest in the history of the Board, is a cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving.

For the past three years the Treasurer has reported an accumulating deficit, and while 1906–07 shows a small surplus, this old deficit remains. At the beginning of the present year it amounted to $110,918.71, but special gifts have reduced it to $92,896.02. In this connection, it is interesting to note that the fiscal years 1893–97 inclusive showed a deficit; 1898–1903 inclusive showed a surplus without a break in the good record; but 1904–06 inclusive reported deficits again without interruption. This year has therefore brought a change for the better, which it is hoped will prove to be the beginning of a long series of surplus years.

The increases in receipts for the year were as follows:

From Churches	$10,122 45
Women's Boards	25,774 06
Sabbath-schools	981 09
Legacies	9,946 72
Miscellaneous	41,811 39
		$88,635 71
The decrease amounted to		7,087 97
Leaving a net increase from all sources of		$81,547 74

The net profit accruing to the Board from the operation of the Presbyterian Building was $15,517.75; from operating 5 West 20th Street, $2,148.01. Alterations are now completed on the Presbyterian Building whereby the Assembly Hall on the ground floor has been converted into business space, which it is estimated will increase the total income some $8,000. Of this increase the Foreign Board will receive one-half.

The Treasurer has received more than $30,000 on account of China Famine sufferers during the fiscal year. This amount has been forwarded to the General Committee located at Shanghai, and is in process of disbursement by them. In addition to these funds, about $35,000 came in for relief and rebuilding at San Francisco, made necessary on account of the earthquake. The total volume of cash handled by the Treasurer's office has been the largest of any year in its history, amounting to more than $2,000,000. This includes building funds, various relief funds, moneys handled for the personal accounts of missionaries, special remittances abroad, etc.

Special gift agreements have been issued during the year to the number of three, aggregating $9,640.

EXPENSES.

An analysis of the expenses of the year will be found in Schedule No. 5 of this Report. The percentages of disbursements in New York on account of Mission work to the total sum received for the work are as follows:

Administrative Expense	4.23 per cent.

Abstract of Eighty-eighth Annual Report.

The Presbyterian Board of Education respectfully report:

The year has been a more than usually eventful one. The Board was called upon to suffer the loss, by death, of its honored and beloved Secretary, Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., which occurred on June 15, 1906. The Board was greatly shocked and grieved at this sudden taking off of one who, with conspicuous zeal and ability, had served with them in the cause of Ministerial Education. In its resolutions the Board says: "For thirteen years he had held the office and fulfilled the difficult and arduous duties of Secretary with complete success. Meeting students on the one hand, churches and church courts on the other, his noble presence and scholarly attainments and holy manhood seemed to embody and exemplify that Christian education which he so ably advocated. The Presbyterian Church owes him a debt of gratitude because of the inestimable work which he did for the great cause of an educated ministry, and among young men preparing for that ministry."

Rev. William P. Finney was chosen from the membership of the Board as Corresponding Secretary pro tem., and that office has been in his charge until the close of the fiscal year. Mr. Finney's election occurred at a period fraught with difficulties, and his performance of the duties which devolved upon him was of a highly satisfactory character.

On March 11, 1907, the Board unanimously elected the Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, D.D., as its Corresponding Secretary. Dr. Cochran accepted the office, and entered upon its duties the 1st of May. He has been a member of the Board of Education for three years.

Membership of the Board.—Upon Mr. Finney's retirement as Corresponding Secretary pro tem., he was immediately reëlected to the membership of the Board.

The resignation of Dr. Cochran, on account of his election to the office of Corresponding Secretary, created a vacancy, to which Rev. F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., was elected.

Rev. Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D., after many years of service on the Board, felt constrained, out of consideration for his health, to retire from its membership, and the Rev. Edward Yates Hill, D.D., was elected in his stead.

Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D., was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Henry B. Moore.

On March 4, 1907, the death of Mr. John B. Gest occurred, the Board losing one who in past years had rendered conspicuously faithful service. Mr. Charles T. Evans was elected in his place.

The following members were reëlected, to wit: Henry C. Minton, D.D., J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., Mr. George H. Stuart, Jr., Mr. A. A. Shumway, and Mr. Charles T. Evans.

Co-operation with Cumberland Educational Society.—In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, which resolved that the Benevolent and Missionary Boards connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Boards now connected with the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, after the consummation of the reunion, are authorized and directed to confer with each other, with a view to carrying on their work in harmony with each other during the year 1906–07, this Board presents a paper containing the articles of agreement reached with the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the carrying on of the work of the two Boards during the year. In accordance with this agreement, the work of Ministerial Education for the reunited Churches has been conducted throughout the year in perfect harmony and, as we have reason to believe, with satisfaction to both parties. The number aided in the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church is ninety-one. This addition to our roll of candidates has of course entailed an increased expenditure of money.

Continued discretionary power, in some cases, will undoubtedly need to be exercised for at least another year in connection with the consideration of the recommendations of students from the former Cumberland Church. The Board, however, desires to give expression to its conviction that in all ordinary cases a strict compliance with the rules should be required.

The Board makes willing acknowledgment of the hearty and valuable coöperation rendered by Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The Board will avail itself of his services during the coming year.

No discrimination was made against students in the Theological Seminary at Lebanon, Tenn., of whom thirty-four are under our care; and if arrangements are not completed for the satisfactory adjustment of the relation of this Seminary to the General Assembly, similar permission, with reference to students in attendance upon this institution, is asked again this year.

Revised Recommendation Blanks.—The Board submits for approval revised forms of recommendations, to be used by Presbyteries in the recommendations of candidates.

Matters Referred by the Last Assembly.—1. As to the practicability of this Board's undertaking the supervision, and if necessary the assistance, of students fitting themselves as medical missionaries.

The Board expresses as its judgment at the present time, that whenever in the opinion of the Board of Foreign Missions there exists a demand for an increase in the number of those seeking to prepare themselves for service to the Church as medical missionaries, this Board is prepared to coöperate with the Board of Foreign Missions in an effort to increase the number of such candidates, and to take such steps as may enable it to grant aid to candidates for this service.

2. As to coöperation with the Education Committees of Synods, looking toward forming and forwarding of plans for the supply of the religious needs particularly of Presbyterian students in attendance upon State Universities and Colleges.

The Board respectfully submits that the matter of coöperating with the Education Committees of the various Synods as to ways and means for supplying the religious needs of the students of State Universities and Colleges has been interfered with by the lamented death of the Corresponding Secretary, but its programme of College Visitation was not altogether interrupted. The Board is deeply impressed with the opportunities for work presenting themselves in the new field just opened up in the South and Southwest. It is fully alive to the necessity of conserving and vitalizing the religious life of our young people in colleges, and especially in State institutions where distinct Christian influences are not always exerted. It is anxious to coöperate in every desirable way with the Committees of the Synods in devising a comprehensive plan of work. The Board feels justified in giving at once the most diligent attention to this task laid upon it by the Assembly, and urgently requests the Committees of the Synods to arrange for conferences with the Board's representatives, and to suggest methods by which a vigorous movement shall be inaugurated whereby the moral and religious training given to college students from Presbyterian homes may be supported and reinforced.

3. As to the practicability of the adoption of a rule whereby the Board of Education shall require a written contract to be made by all candidates under their care, which shall bind them to offer themselves to the Board of Home Missions or the Board of Foreign Missions for a service of at least three years at a given salary.

The Board expresses its judgment that the course suggested is not advisable.

Competitive Scholarships.—Mr. George M. Day, of the Middle Class in San Francisco Theological Seminary, was awarded the Secretary's Scholarship.

The Newberry Scholarship was offered for competition to students in McCormick Seminary, and examinations will be held next fall.

On account of accumulation of funds, it has become possible to make an offer of two scholarships on the Mutchmore foundation, one of which has been offered to Omaha Seminary, and the other to Lane Seminary.

Enrollment of Candidates.—The Board has enrolled during the year 788 young men, of whom 268 are new men and 520 renewals. This material increase is accounted for by the reception of the ninety-one candidates from the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The Board continues to feel a special interest in the students of the foreign-speaking peoples under its care. The nationalities most largely represented are German, Italian, Hungarian and Spanish. In October last a Theological Training School was opened at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, under the care of the Board of Home Missions, and the Board during the past year has had twelve native Porto Ricans under its care in that institution.

Decline of Candidates.—The Board has been made aware that its solicitude over the present period of decline in the number and quality of candidates presenting themselves for the Gospel ministry is shared by the Board of Education of other denominations. There are one-third less men studying for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church than ten years ago, and yet the membership of our branch of the Church has increased during that period about 280,000. Should not the ministers of our Church call the attention of their people to the present situation, and by prayers and exhortation arouse the membership to larger liberality in behalf of an educated ministry, and a heartier willingness to give up their sons to this high calling? The Board feels confident that in five years a change would be experienced, and this period of decline would cease if every minister would consent to be an active agent of this Board in the search for eligible young men for the ministry, and in fearless, vigorous presentation of the cause of Education to their people from time to time.

Day of Prayer for Colleges.—The Board recommends that, if no more suitable date can be named, the last Thursday of January, 1908, be designated as a Day of Prayer for Colleges.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

WILLIAM P. FINNEY, Corresponding Secretary pro tem.

James M. Crowell, President.

Abstract of the Twenty-sixth Annual Report.

With thanksgiving to God, we rejoice in the now completed union, and are happy to report a year of agreeable coöperation with the Board of Education at Philadelphia. Under instructions so to coöperate during the year, we have found the task a very agreeable one from the beginning. Leaving to that Board the matter of mentioning such details as it may deem proper to call to your attention, we simply record our grateful appreciation of the generous spirit shown by that Board, whereby we have been able to compass results so gratifying in the training of our probationers for the ministry.

Standard of Education.—So far as we have been able to test public sentiment among our Presbyteries, there exists an intelligent recognition of the demands of the times for the best possible education for the men who are to enter the ministry. There is an evident purpose to give due regard to the standards which we have voluntarily obligated ourselves to observe.

Theological Seminary.—We have endeavored faithfully to coöperate with the self-sacrificing men who are in charge of the Seminary at Lebanon, Tenn. The attendance has not been so large as in former years, but it has been good, and the work of the year has moved forward in a harmonious way, producing results that are eminently satisfactory.

The Colleges.—In accordance with the policy of past years, this Board has conceded to the Educational Commission the services of its Secretary for such work in college endowment as might be proposed.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.—The schools of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, located at Bowling Green, Ky., Huntsville, Ala., and Newbern, Tenn., have been conducted during the year with a reasonable degree of success. These, however, are chiefly local in their patronage, with only a few candidates for the ministry enrolled in each school. Our policy has been to advise our colored brethren to develop these institutions into first-class preparatory schools as rapidly as possible, and to look to the colleges of the Presbyterian and other Churches for the higher education of their young men preparing for the ministry, also for the higher education of their young people in general.

As appears from Item 13 of the Joint Report on Union adopted by the General Assemblies in 1906, this Board is charged, jointly with the Board of Missions for Freedmen, with the responsibility of reporting to the General Assembly of 1907 "what may be done by the Reunited Church for the further evangelization and education of the colored people in the South and Southwest"; this action having particular reference to the needs and work of the C. P. Church, Colored. Looking to the work of the ensuing year, the two Boards submit to the General Assembly the following joint recommendation:

"That inasmuch as the corporate existence of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is likely to be continued through another year or longer, the General Assembly of the Reunited Church shall authorize the Board of Missions for Freedmen to use the Board of Directors of said Educational Society and its Secretary, if so continued, as the agency through which such assistance may be rendered to the educational and missionary work of the C. P. Church, Colored, as said Board of Missions for Freedmen may deem proper. In soliciting contributions from former Cumberland Presbyterian churches for the work of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, said Board may concede to all of said churches the privilege of directing all their contributions for this purpose to be applied for the aid of the educational and missionary work of the C. P. Church, Colored. The Board of Missions for Freedmen may make still further appropriations from its treasury as in its judgment the interests of said colored Cumberland Presbyterians may require and the funds available will allow. The manner of making said appropriations and the conditions imposed shall be left to the judgment of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, the same to conform as nearly as possible to the rules and regulations under which the ordinary work of said Board is conducted."

It is to be understood that any such arrangement as that here contemplated shall be made in a strictly missionary spirit, and in continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in its efforts to aid the C. P. Church, Colored, in its educational and missionary work.

Particular attention is called to the need of special training in behalf of the candidates for the ministry in this denomination. The Boards feel that some special arrangement should be made, jointly with the educational authorities of the C. P. Church, Colored, whereby their young men preparing for the ministry may secure better training for their lifework.

THE BOARD'S FUTURE.—According to the terms of the union agreement with reference to the Boards, it is proposed that in due time this Board "shall proceed to orderly dissolution." Meanwhile, we suggest that the General Assembly might continue the existence of this Board as "a holding corporation," and for whatever specific work might be assigned to it by the Assembly, or for such purposes as might be agreed upon between it and the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD.—During the year, Mr. W. E. Dunaway, of Jackson, Tenn., notified the Board that he could no longer serve on the Board of Directors, and his position on the Board was declared to be vacant, and Prof. W. P. Bone, of Lebanon, Tenn., was elected to fill said vacancy.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with this meeting of the General Assembly: Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D., Marshall, Mo., W. H. Halbert, M.D., Nashville, Tenn., and Rev. W. P. Bone, Lebanon, Tenn.

For the Society,

W. J. DARBY, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Board.

April 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK.

Missionary Work.—During the year, the Sabbath-school missionaries and colporteurs of the Board labored in every State and Territory west of the Mississippi and in all the States east of it, excepting Louisiana and New England. In these States and Territories, the Board has had at work 133 Sabbath-school missionaries and 30 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 30 Synods and 115 Presbyteries. Of these 15 were Synodical and 148 were Presbyterial workers, making a total of 163. They have organized 722 new Sabbath-schools and revived 247, a total of 969, into which have been gathered 3,191 officers and teachers and 30,029 scholars, making a total membership of 33,220.

Our missionaries have encouraged and otherwise aided 2,317 Sabbath-schools which are under their care. The membership of these schools is 96,346. These missionaries have made 180,823 visits upon families, and have held 4,838 evangelistic services, in which 2,119 conversions came under their observation. Sabbath-school institutes and conventions to the number of 976 have been held. An important part of the work of these missionaries is the dissemination of good literature. In this work our missionaries have sold and given away 18,774 volumes and 1,423,496 pages of tracts and periodicals. They have distributed also, by gift and sale, 9,246 Bibles and Testaments. This includes the literature distributed by our missionary colporteurs.

Churches Developed.—The number of churches developed by our Sabbath-school missionaries from their schools during the past year was 114, of which ninety-nine were Presbyterians and fifteen of other denominations. Fifty-two Presbyterian chapels and church buildings were erected as the outgrowth of the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries. The value of these buildings is $94,775. It thus becomes apparent that a large percentage of the entire cost of Sabbath-school missionary work is returned to the Presbyterian Church each year in the money value of the buildings erected.

Review of Twenty Years' Work.—During this period 1,065 Presbyterian churches have grown from our mission Sabbath-schools, an average of fifty-six new Presbyterian churches every year. Other denominations sharing in the fruits of the work have gathered 528 churches, making a total of 1,593, an average of eighty-four churches each year.

Synodical and Presbyterial Sabbath-school Committees.—Valuable aid has been rendered by many of our Synodical and Presbyterial Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

A number of these committees have formed Presbyterial Sabbath-school Associations, and helpful Institutes have been held. We are seeking by every practical means to awaken all such committees to the importance of the work under their care, and to help them to realize their opportunities for the development and improvement of our Sabbath-schools.

The Forward Movement in Sabbath-school Missions.—Last year we reported that fifty-four of our missionaries were being supported by specific gifts of churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals. During the year nineteen additional churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals have been enlisted in this movement, agreeing to contribute annually sums ranging from $100 to $900 each.

Grants.—The following grants were made:

Periodicals, books and tracts to Sabbath-schools, churches, pastors and missionary workers	$8,405 14
Bibles as rewards for memorizing Shorter Catechism	511 25
To American Tract Society for foreign publication work	2,500 00
Grant of Westminster Teacher to Foreign Mission Stations	426 70
Total	$11,843 09

Contributions to the amount of $2,165.39 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels, and to other special objects, as designated by the contributors.

Children's Day and Rally Day.—A gratifying increase was shown last year in the number of Sabbath-schools observing these two days and taking an offering for Presbyterian Sabbath-school missions. The total receipts from Sabbath-schools amounted to $68,536.94. Earnest efforts are being put forth to bring about a more general observance of these two occasions.

Missionary Work among Foreigners.—The year has been one of aggressive effort in behalf of the people of foreign speech. There were thirty colporteurs at work, for longer or shorter periods, among Italians, French, Spanish and Portuguese, Bohemians, Ruthenians and other Slavic peoples, Hungarians (Magyar), Lithuanians, and other foreigners in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Nebraska, California and New York. They visited 35,489 families, distributing by sale and gift 10,186 religious books and 508,611 pages of tracts, besides 3,725 Bibles, Testaments and Gospels in at least twenty different languages. The total sales amounted to $1,850.03. In every field this work has been followed with encouraging results. In the anthracite coal regions, where we have three colporteurs at work among Slavs, Italians and Hungarians (Magyar), the Gospel has been presented to large numbers, many of whom have been gathered into missions which have been established at various points under the care of the Presbyterial Committees. Our colporteurs do the pioneer work in these communities, furnishing necessary information to the Presbyterial Committees, and thus preparing the way for the establishment of mission stations, and frequently for the organization of churches.

Our Foreign Publication Work.—During the year we expended more than $22,000 for the support of our foreign colporteurs, for the publication of our Bohemian, Hungarian and Ruthenian papers, and for other literature in foreign languages. Our income from Sabbath-school offerings on Rally Day, and from individuals, for this purpose was less than $10,000. We are encouraged, however, by the indications that our Church is becoming aroused to the importance of this kind of work, and we are devising plans by which our churches and Sabbath-schools may become better informed as to the aggressive part our Board is taking in pushing it forward. Our Bible picture cards, published in six languages, are being used with good effect both here and abroad to the number of 10,000 per week, each card containing an explanation of the International Sabbath-school Lesson printed on the back.

Following is a descriptive list of our foreign publications:

For the Bohemians, Moravians, Slovaks, and all reading the Czech language:

Krestanske Listy ("Christian Journal"), an illustrated weekly of sixteen pages, containing much general information, but pervaded by a positive and earnest religious spirit. Published at Pittsburgh, Pa., Rev. Vaclav Losa, Editor. Subscription price, $1.50 per year.

For Magyars and others reading Hungarian:

Reformatusok Lapja ("Reformed Sentinel"), an illustrated sixteen-page weekly. This paper has been purchased jointly by the Presbyterian and Reformed Boards, and will be published under their auspices. Rev. Stephen P Harsanyi, Bridgeport, Conn., and Rev. Julius M. Hanko, New York, Editors. This paper is intended to furnish religious reading for the Protestant and Reformed Hungarians, of whom there are at least 100,000 now here; and to enlighten other Hungarians also. Subscription price, $2.00 per year.

Oromhir ("Evangel"), a religious monthly intended for the Sabbath-school and home. It contains articles by the Hungarian pastors and expositions of the International Sabbath-school Lessons. The editorial committee consists of Rev. S. P. Harsanyi, Rev. J. M. Hanko and S. Virag. It is also under the joint control of the two Boards just named and supported by them. Subscription price, 50 cents per year.

For Ruthenians and other Slavs using the Cyrillian alphabet:

Nash' a Zyzn ("Our Life"), an illustrated religious monthly of twenty-four octavo pages, intended for the home. With encouragement and assistance from the Board, this magazine is being published by one of our Ruthenian missionaries, Mr. Joseph Kosowy. He was prompted by his zeal for his countrymen to undertake this paper, and utilizes in it his skill as a trained printer and newspaper man. This is the only evangelical literature published for these people in the United States. They number certainly over 100,000, and are estimated by some to be two or three times that many. Subscription price, 50 cents per year.

SHORTER CATECHISM.—The statistical reports show an increase of 184 in the number of Sabbath-schools teaching the Shorter Catechism. The total reported is 3,510.

FINANCIAL.—A comparison with the report of the previous year shows an increase in contributions of $6,576.59. Our expenditures were increased by $21,180.48, practically all of which was used for missionary work. The percentage for administration during the year has been 5.09. The share of the profits of the Business Department appropriated to the Missionary Fund met all cost of administration and left $8,880.80 for the General Fund. Our expenditures for actual field work are $20,890 in excess of the total amount contributed by churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals. The Board notes with gratitude the steady increase in contributions to its Sabbath-school missionary work, from $89,879.39 in 1898–99 to $136,695.59 in 1906–07—an increase of more than fifty-two per cent. in eight years.

SABBATH-SCHOOL TRAINING.—Sabbath-school organization should be followed by Sabbath-school training. Our Sabbath-school workers need to be instructed, aided and inspired to do the best work possible. It is the aim of our Board to help them in all of these particulars in these three special ways: By the preparation of helpful literature, by encouraging the organization of teacher-training classes, and by the holding of Sabbath-school Institutes.

Literature.—The Westminster Teacher, since its publication as a weekly, has given special attention to this phase of Sabbath-school training. Leaflets, treating some particular subject, are being prepared from time to time and sent to pastors and superintendents. The leaflets on "Teacher Training Classes," "Rally Day Suggestions," and "Evangel Days in the Sabbath-school" are illustrations of what we hope to be able to do in this direction. A series of handbooks dealing with practical Sabbath-school questions, and written by leading Sabbath-school workers, is now in the course of preparation, and we expect that the early volumes of this series will soon be ready for use.

Teacher Training.—This subject is being brought to the attention of pastors and superintendents, by letters, leaflets and addresses delivered at Institutes and Conferences. We are glad to report that interest in this matter is constantly growing, and that teacher-training classes are being organized in all parts of the Church. In 1905 the Board published, in two volumes, "The Westminster Teacher Training Course." This has been used in a large number of schools. In the light of two years' experience, we are now revising the first volume, and expect to have the book ready for use in the early fall.

Sabbath-school Institutes.—As a necessary supplement to organized Sabbath-school work under the auspices of the International Sunday-school Association, the Board aims to encourage the holding of distinctively Presbyterian Sabbath-school Institutes, in connection with the meetings of Presbytery and Synod, or at such times and places as the Presbyteries may determine. In these denominational topics can be discussed and denominational work forwarded. The Board will gladly render assistance, so far as possible, in the holding of these Presbyterian Sabbath-school Institutes. We have prepared sample programmes, leaflets relating to special topics, and a series of questions to guide a Conference, which we will send to any one asking for them. The Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, will attend these Institutes, when it is possible for him to do so, if his help should be desired. It is proposed, in connection with the annual Sabbath-school Missionary Conferences, to hold Institutes for the benefit of the Sabbath-school workers of the city in which the Conference is being held.

THE LESSON HELPS.—The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:

The Westminster Teacher at the beginning of this year was changed from a monthly magazine to a weekly paper. It is especially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools and for use in adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible Lessons. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 75 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 60 cents per copy. The Rev. John A. McKamy, D.D., formerly editor of the Cumberland Presbyterian publications, has been associated with the editor, and has special charge of the work on the Westminster Teacher.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, is exclusively for teachers. It includes the notes formerly given in The Westminster Teacher, besides the notes given in the scholars' quarterly. Subscription price, 40 cents a year, or 12 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in older and adult classes. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Orders of Service, maps, and other valuable matter. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of the Intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also maps, Orders of Service, etc. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the Primary grade. It gives explanations of the lessons, with hymns and music, and is beautifully illustrated. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lesson, week by week. Subscription price, 16 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies, separately mailed.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes. This course has been completed, and the eight quarterly numbers are furnished to those desiring them. The lessons were prepared by James A. Worden, D.D. The price is 40 cents a year for a single subscription; two or more subscriptions, to one address, 24 cents each. The two years' course, bound in cloth, $1.00 postpaid.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to Intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so prepared that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. School subscriptions, to one address, 6 cents a year; single copies, per year, 10 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to Primary classes. School subscriptions to one address, 10 cents a year, 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible Roll. Lesson Pictures, the same as those on the Lesson Cards, but greatly enlarged, prepared as wall roll for the Primary Department. Price, $3.00 per year, 75 cents per quarter.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons cover the Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. The lessons are arranged with reference to the seasons. They can be taken up at any time. The Beginners' Lessons, with the cards for teachers and scholars, were prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, and issued in eight illustrated numbers.

Accompanying the Beginners' Lessons is a series of large picture cards (12 x 15 inches in size), especially prepared for this course. Both the Quarterly and these cards are solely for the teachers' use in teaching the lesson. For the scholars there are smaller Golden Text Picture Cards to be given out each week.

Running parallel with the Beginners' Lessons is a series of Supplemental Beginners' Lessons, which are to take the place of the formal opening exercises used in the other departments of the school. This Supplemental Course, which covers a period of ten months only, includes a series of lessons for the teacher, published in pamphlet form, elaborating the Supplemental Lessons, and a series of large pictures for use in teaching the Supplemental Lessons (7 x 9 inches in size). For the scholar there are small cards to be distributed the last Sunday of the month, giving the thought for the month, and a Bible verse, and the words of a song.

Illustrated Papers.—Forward continues to grow in interest, as its increasing weekly circulation, now considerably above a quarter of a million, attests. No paper in the country for young people surpasses Forward in interest and popularity. The low price at which Forward is furnished brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscriptions, per year, 75 cents; subscriptions for two or more copies, addressed to one person, 50 cents a year each.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 30 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade and style as The Visitor, but only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents.

The Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

There have been published during the year 2,814,965 copies of books and tracts and 52,888,423 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,450 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 30, 1906, make an aggregate of 55,711,838 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and Nashville, and seven other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 192 Michigan Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
San Francisco, Cal., F. E. Heller, Manager.*
Nashville, Tenn., J. W. Axtell, Manager, 150 Fourth Avenue North.

The other houses referred to are these:

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 250 Devonshire Street.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, Sixth Street and Duquesne Way.

London, E. C., Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 21 Warwick Lane.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

Sales.—The sales for the year in books and tracts, including our own publications and those of other houses, were $269,501.87; and of periodicals, $419,751.37. These amounts, as they include credit sales, do not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years. The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.*

CAPITAL AND NET PROFITS.—The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $277,397.65. The net profits of the year were $38,415.34. Of this sum two-thirds, or $25,610.23, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly installments during the year. The remaining third, or $12,805.11, has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $290,202.76.

Abstract of the Annual Report.

A Brief Historical Sketch.—The organized work of publication in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is about sixty years old. It began with the appointment by the General Assembly of a Publication Committee, which was without experience, without assets and without funds. A chartered Board of Publication was, a few years later, given the responsibility of construction and development. Interrupted in its early years by the Civil War, the work made slight progress for quite a period, though in spite of various hindrances its growth was as steady as it was slow.

A Permanent Location.—The permanent location of the Board of Publication at Nashville, Tenn., dates from June 1, 1867, and the period of substantial accomplishment has been almost wholly confined to the ensuing forty years. The printing was at first done by contract, but in a few years a small printing plant was established. For a long time these printing facilities were somewhat meagre, but the plant has gradually been improved until it is now one of the best and one of the best known in the South.

The Publishing House.—The Publishing House was completed and occupied in 1891. The building is very handsome, substantial and commodious, the property now being easily worth $100,000. The erection of such a building at the time was a difficult and seemingly hazardous undertaking; but the wisdom and courage of those who planned the work have been amply vindicated.

The Basis of Growth.—The Board of Publication has from the beginning received comparatively little financial help. Donations and bequests placed at its disposal have aggregated less than $25,000 in its entire history. The handsome volume of assets presented in the report which follows have grown almost wholly out of the net earnings of the business of the House.

The Board's Periodicals.—Early in its history the Board began the issue of Sunday-school literature, adding a periodical from time to time, until at the consummation of the Church Union the line was more complete than that of any other denomination of equal numerical strength.

A Fifteen Months' Report.—The Annual Reports of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have been made for calendar years ending each on December 31. The report for the past year, however, is extended to March 31, 1907, thus conforming to the date of reports to be presented to this General Assembly.

Revaluation.—One of the business practices of the Board of Publication has been the thorough and careful revaluation of all the assets of the business every five years, and the end of such a period was reached December 31, 1905. The Publishing House and all property belonging to the business has, therefore, been revalued. This has been done item by item, and the values recorded may be relied upon as conservative and absolutely safe. The Publishing House property itself has been listed in recent years at figures decidedly below its actual value. In making the new valuation we have taken the current market price of the ground on which the building stands, and added to this the actual cost of the building (which was erected when everything was low in cost), to which several marked improvements have been added without recognition in the inventory. The valuation of the Sunday-school periodicals, $15,000, has been taken out entirely, in consequence of their discontinuance. The valuation of The Cumberland Presbyterian has been reduced from $22,700 to $15,000. The House library, whose value is uncertain, and which had been listed at $650, has been taken out. From the valuation of the book plates a total of $3,752.98 has been deducted. On book stock a reduction of $2,086.37 has been made on books in slight demand and of difficult sale.

THE GENERAL BUSINESS EXHIBIT.—We submit tabulated figures from the ledger, showing in simple and easily understood form the financial condition of the House. In the first column will be found the resources and liabilities of the business January 1, 1906; in the second column, the resources and liabilities March 31, 1907. The latter column includes the results shown both by the returns of the business and those following the revaluation. These columns are followed by others showing respectively the gains and losses.

THE DEBT SITUATION.—One of the facts brought out in this statement is that, for the first time in the recent history of the House, the debt shows an increase. This increase is $7,149.01. However, this is a mere incident in the business, and is of a wholly temporary character. An inspection of the tables will show an increase in machinery purchases of $16,439.06; an increase in book stock of $1,149.07 (keeping in mind the reduction of book values of $2,086.37 by revaluation); an increase in accounts receivable of $2,774.79; in paper stock, $2,390.11; and in balance of cash, $1,706.73. An item not shown in the tables, but which should be understood, is

*This revaluation represents the increase in value in several years and not of a single year.

†The explanation of the change in this item will be found on page 7 of the full Report.

The Form of the Debt.—The form in which the indebtedness of the Board of Publication now stands is as follows: $20,000 is in 5 per cent. bonds, which do not mature until October 1, 1910, but which may be paid off in amounts of $5,000, or multiples of $5,000, on the 1st of April or the 1st of October of any year. These bonds were originally $35,000 in volume, but were reduced by $15,000 a year and a half ago. Of the remaining indebtedness $2,520.43 also bears interest at 5 per cent. and consists of our Employes' Savings Fund. This fund is composed of moneys which our employes deposit with our cashier. It has not only been a convenience to the Board of Publication, but it has been a very great advantage to the employes in giving them an easy and safe way of caring for and accumulating savings from their earnings. Of the remaining interest-bearing debt $8,110 is in bills payable, on which the interest rate is 6 per cent.

Volume of Business.—The volume of business for the fifteen months aggregated $214,143.83. This would indicate a business for twelve months of $171,315.06, against a total for the year 1905 of $151,780.74, an increase of $19,534.32.

The Cumberland Presbyterian.—One of the periodicals issued by the Board of Publication has been The Cumberland Presbyterian, which during the separate existence of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was the leading, and part of the time the only, denominational weekly paper. While it no longer has its former character as "denominational organ," it was probably never of greater value to that portion of the reunited Church which originally imposed the trust upon the Board, and in the interest of which the paper is published, than it is at this period of readjustment and reorganization. An increased interest in the paper has developed for some months past, and its outlook may be considered both safe and promising.

Book Department.—The book department shows a marked increase in the volume of business. The margin of profit, however, has been slender. The growth of the book business has been very pronounced in the first three months of 1907, and the outlook is regarded as more promising in every way than at any previous time. Some months ago the book-room was remodeled, furnished with tile floor and handsome furniture and fixtures of every kind. It is one of the handsomest book stores to be seen anywhere.

Sunday-school Periodicals.—The periodicals of the Westminster series have been favorably received by the Sunday-schools of the late Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and it is regarded as certain that they will continue to increase in favor and sale among our people.

General Printing Department.—The volume of business in the General Printing Department has increased, much of this increase coming from work for the Reunited Church. A large proportion of the printing output is of a religious character, among the patrons of the House being the Southern Baptist Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, at Richmond, Va. Besides, two or three papers belonging to other religious organizations are printed in the House. The capacity of the printing plant is large, and, as already intimated, is fully equal to any demand that is likely to be made upon it. Not only is the capacity great, but the equipment is up-to-date.

Nomination of Members of the Board.—Under the charter of this Board the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was vested with the power to regulate and control it; and it has therefore been customary for said General Assembly every year to nominate three persons for election to membership on this Board for a term of three years. As your reverend body has succeeded to the powers of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this regard, we ask that you nominate three men to succeed Messrs. L. M. Rice, W. T. Hardison and J. M. Johnston, whose terms will expire in June of this year.

This request is made especially for the purpose of preserving the corporate entity and continuity of this Board until at least the pending litigation in Tennessee over the property questions involved in the union of the Churches is determined. We have not sought to consolidate this Board with the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, or to convey to it the property held in trust by us, because of the existence of this litigation. We are working in complete harmony with the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, but we deem it wise for the present not to disturb the present independent status of this Board.

ABSTRACT OF THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

APPLICATIONS.—As has been already intimated, the applications to the General Fund for grants or for loans without interest were more in number even than last year, and in amount asked exceeded any year in the history of the Board. From the other funds the amounts asked were slightly less than last year.

Thus in all departments the number of applications was 286 and the total amount asked, either for grants or loans, was $287,820. To the General Fund (including the Buell, Stuart and Gilchrist) there were 197, aggregating $136,845, either for grants (168 : $110,495) or loans without interest (28 : $26,350); but as eleven of the loans asked were for churches also asking grants, the number of churches applying to the General Fund was 186.

To the Loan Fund there were twenty-eight applications, aggregating $91,050; to the Manse Fund, fifty-one, aggregating $33,425; to the Raynolds Fund, nineteen, aggregating $22,500, and to the Barber Fund, two, amounting to $4,000.

As to these latter funds, the applications were slightly less than last year

The total number of applications to all the funds was five less; but the aggregate asked is larger by $15,126.

It should be added, as a matter of interest and as a forecast of the future, that a score or more of informal applications also came from churches formerly Cumberland, which, however, under the agreement of this Board with the Cumberland Board, could not at present be entertained.

APPROPRIATIONS.—The appropriations have been as follows, viz.:

1. General Fund (including as under like rules the Buell, Van Meter, Gilchrist and Stuart Funds).

From this fund (including as above) grants aggregating $93,619 have been made to 153 churches, and loans (to be returned without interest in annual offerings) aggregating $13,350 to twenty-two churches. Thus the total number of appropriations was 175, and the entire amount appropriated (including, however, $2,187 to five churches from the Stuart Fund and one appropriation of $1,000 from the Gilchrist Fund) was $106,969; but as three churches received both loan and grant, the number of the churches was 172.

In number the churches exceed last year by eight, but the total amount appropriated is $6,638 less than in that record year.

2. The Loan Fund. From this fund, already explained, there have been twenty-one loans aggregating $63,500—an average of $3,013.81. The amount thus promised was $10,625 more than the previous year, but as the average amount was more the number of different churches was one less.

3. The Barber Fund. From this fund, confined in its operations to colored churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, there was but one appropriation and that of $1,000. It might be well if the Presbyteries within whose bounds are colored churches coming within the sphere of this fund, had their attention called to this provision for the aid of such congregations.

4. The Manse Fund. From the Manse Fund the loans were forty-three, aggregating $24,050, and there was one extraordinary grant of $1,000 to provide a home for our Church's missionary and pastor in the Panama Zone, and one of $100 from the Stuart Fund.

The appropriations were less than those of last year by $1,650 in amount, and as the average was larger the number of churches was sixteen less. The total including the grants is forty-five churches and $25,150.

5. The Raynolds Fund. From this fund there have been eleven loans to the aggregate amount of $11,400. The ability to loan from this fund has been limited by the fact that, so far as it is available, it is practically all distributed in loans, usually running for ten years, and thus new loans can only be made as installments upon former ones are repaid.

6. The Hoyt Fund. From this Manse Fund, the conditions of which are practically the same as those of the Raynolds, three loans aggregating $3,050 were made.

SUMMARY.—From the above statements it will be seen that there has been thus far no pause in the onward advance of our missonary work, and as what is true in the case of the Presbyterian Church is doubtless true also of all the branches of the Christian host in this country, we may rejoice in the certainty that the Church of the Living God is every year extending its sway over the hearts of men.

The following table brings before the eye a summary of the results of the year's work, so far as they can be indicated in figures.

As the roll of the united Assembly includes a total of more than 11,000 churches, there must be inevitably an increase of the work of this Board of more than 30 per cent. Its sphere in certain regions of the country—notably the South and the Southwest—will be increased in far larger proportion, inasmuch as these sections are filling up most rapidly with an ever-growing incoming population taking possession of the vast stretches of hitherto unoccupied territory.

These new States and the vast areas of the older neighboring States will be during the next ten years the most fruitful fields for missionary advance. As towns and villages spring up hundreds of infant churches will be organized, and if they are to live and thrive they must be provided with church homes. These homes, unless all the experience of the past is misleading, they can only secure by the aid of the Church at large; and that aid can be rendered in adequate measure and in equitable distribution only through the agency of the Board of Church Erection.

Manifestly, then, to meet this increased responsibility it must be supplied with augmented means.

Some measure of this needed increase will come from the enlarged membership of the united Church; but it must not be forgotten that such membership will not be largely from the older Eastern Synods, but from the younger Synods, covering the very missionary ground where aid is in supreme measure essential.

May not, then, the Assembly before which will come the vision of these great and promising fields—these fields already white for the harvest—sound to the churches throughout the land a trumpet call for an advance all along the line—an advance in the number of laborers, an advance in the offerings to the common treasury and, above all, an advance in self-denial and self-consecration, to the end that this vast land, growing so rapidly in population and wealth, shall grow equally in that righteousness which alone exalteth a nation, and thus be truly that happy people whose God is the Lord.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

ROLL.—The Board had upon its roll for the year ending March 31, 1907, 1,024 names—421 ministers, 541 widows, 34 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 women missionaries, and 19 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its roll.

COST OF ADMINISTRATION.—Salaries, office expenses, the publication and distribution of literature, traveling expenses of the officers of the Board, etc., have cost during the past year but 3.5 per cent. of the receipts of the Board.

AVERAGE PAYMENTS.—All ministers on the Roll of Honor did not ask for as much as $300 a year each, and the average amount paid to those upon this roll was $285.49.

The average amount paid to most widows was $150. Quite a number did not ask for that much. Some who were very aged and helpless were paid considerably more than the general average.

The average amount paid to families, in cases where the ministers were not on the Roll of Honor, was $216, which was an increase in the average amount paid the previous year.

The appropriations made during the past year were $13,869 more than those made any previous year, and these appropriations were all paid promptly in full.

THE HONORARIUM PAID TO MINISTERS.—An Honorarium is a debt paid for services which, although it may not be a debt collectible by process of law, is nevertheless rightly to be regarded as a just reward for services rendered. In this light we properly consider every payment made to a disabled minister. The annuity paid an aged or disabled minister is never to be regarded as an unearned increment, or charity, but as a recognition of a debt due for the faithful performance of duty in years gone by.

A Way to Increase the Honorarium.—Give the Board of Relief $4,000,000 more of Endowment and it can then make the Honorarium of Honorably Retired ministers $500 instead of $300 a year, and it can then give the widows an average of $300 instead of $150 a year, and it can add $200 a year to the recompense paid to ministers who are disabled who are not yet 70 years of age.

Is it within the range of possibility to raise this large amount?

At the time of the Reunion of the Old and New School branches of the Church, in 1870, the Permanent Funds of both branches amounted to but $77,551, and when the Board was organized in 1876, the Permanent Fund amounted to but $135,794. This Fund has been steadily increasing during the past thirty years since the organization of the Board, and the Board has for its use to-day the interest on $1,800,000, and, with a most noble gift through a deed of trust and a fourth interest as a residuary legatee in the estate of the late devoted and saintly Christian woman, Lady Kortright, by which the Board is to be wonderfully benefited, our Endowment Fund will soon amount to $2,100,000.

Salaries of Ministers.—The difficulty of ministers providing for the support of themselves and their families in the time of old age arises very largely from the small salaries they receive for their support.

Whatever may be done by any plan that can be put into execution to provide annuities for ministers and their families by way of life insurance, there will always be a large number of families to be provided for by the Board of Relief.

Statistics show that one-twentieth of our ministers have never been able to buy any life insurance, and this is not surprising when we consider the facts as they exist. 1. Only about 2,500 of our pastors receive as much as $1,000 a year salary. 2. Nearly one-half of all our churches have an average membership of only 46, and those churches are not self-supporting, and the salaries paid their pastors or supplies are frequently very small—very much less than $1,000 a year. 3. Besides the difficulty arising from small salaries, we have several hundred ministers every year who are in poor health, or in transitu, or without charge, looking for work which they cannot readily find, and they are not able to pay the premiums on life insurance policies.

Collier's Weekly reports that the wage-earners in New York have much larger incomes than the salaries of most of our Presbyterian ministers in the United States.

Josiah Strong states in his "Social Progress," that the average yearly income of the families in the United States is $751, and the average cost of living per family is $689.

It is readily seen from the above statement that our wage-earners receive more than the average income of families in this country, whilst one-third of our Presbyterian ministers have for years been receiving very much less than the average cost of living per family in the United States.

From the one-third of our ministers who receive less than $689, the average cost of a family's living for a year, come the most of those who are in need of help in the days of their disability.

When the salaries of ministers were reported in the Minutes of the General Assembly in 1873, it was shown that 598 ministers received only from $550 to $950 a year; 373 ministers received from $400 to $500 a year, and 923 ministers, so far as the report shows, received less than $400 a year.

Our ministers have spent thousands of dollars and labored hard and unceasingly for ten years to obtain an education and fit themselves for their official duties; but the hod-carrier, who may not be able to read or write, receives more for his year's work than any of many thousands of ministers, yet he learned his trade in a day, and on that day received full wages for his work.

Many of our ministers who received small salaries all their working days, or their families, are now on the Roll of Relief. Are they to be censured for having their names among those who are in need of support by the Church they served faithfully all their lives? Assuredly not, for these ministers, most of whom have been our Home Missionaries, are honorable and high-minded men. They have been actuated by the loftiest of motives in their great life-work. They have served well their generation. They have laid broad and deep the foundations of our Presbyterian Zion, and they have done all they know how to glorify God. It is therefore a sacred duty and a sweet and holy privilege for our great Church to confer upon them a comfortable and commendable Honorarium when they are disabled from further service, and thereby assure all others that their loved ones will be cheerfully cared for when they shall cross the inevitable river on their way home to receive their eternal reward.

THE APPORTIONMENT SCHEME.—The Apportionment Scheme, adopted by the Buffalo Assembly, has been producing encouraging results, and the Board earnestly and respectfully asks that it be continued. In brief, the Scheme is as follows:

(a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least Ten Cents per communicant.

(b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1,200, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant.

(c) Churches paying salaries of $1,200 and upwards, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.

(d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

By order of the Board,

B. L. AGNEW, Corresponding Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In compliance with Resolution 7 of the Report of Joint Committee on Union and Reunion, adopted by the two Assemblies of 1906, a conference was had between the Board of Relief located at Philadelphia and this Board, by which plans were agreed upon for harmonious coöperation of the two Boards in carrying on the work of relief during the year 1906–07, under which agreement it was provided that offerings from Ministerial Relief for the year 1906–07 from former Cumberland Presbyterian churches should be sent to this Board; that, inasmuch as the rules of both Boards governing appropriations for aid are substantially the same, all appropriations being made for one year, unless otherwise ordered, and renewals of recommendations for appropriations for aid being made from year to year, except in cases of ministers honorably retired, this Board should continue to furnish aid during the year to all beneficiaries on its roll, according to recommendations of their Presbyteries, until their names were enrolled by the Board of Relief at Philadelphia; that all new or original applications for aid should be made on forms in use by the Presbyterian Board, the same to be endorsed by this Board, and then to be forwarded to the Board at Philadelphia for final action. In this manner the names of all beneficiaries on the roll of this Board whose recommendations have been renewed, together with all new applications for aid, have been placed on the roll of the Board at Philadelphia in the regular routine of the work of the two Boards.

At the beginning of the year there were 84 names on our roll—33 ministers, 48 widows, and 3 orphan families. During the year 17 new names—13 ministers and 4 widows—were added to the roll by action of the Philadelphia Board, on recommendation of Presbyteries and endorsement of this Board, making a total of 101. The names of 67 have been placed on the roll of the Board at Philadelphia. The names of 18 have been dropped by reason of their Presbyteries not renewing their recommendations for aid. Seven are occupants of Thornton Home. Applications of the remaining 14 are awaiting action of Presbyteries that are to meet during the month of April.

Under the arrangements made for transfer of beneficiaries from the roll of this Board to the roll of the Board at Philadelphia, there was paid to beneficiaries by this Board, previous to transfer, the sum of $3,403.30.

As payments made to beneficiaries by this Board during the year have been, in some cases, for only part of the year and small in amount, no table showing the average amount of appropriations to beneficiaries would be of value as indicating the amount of apportionment to each.

Receipts.—The amount of contributions received from our churches during the year has been unusually small. Contributions have been received from 566 congregations, amounting to $4,528.98; from 26 individuals, amounting to $487.10. This, of course, is not a fair index of the interest felt by our people in behalf of this sacred cause, or of what our portion of the United Church may be expected to contribute under normal conditions. During the past twenty years the average number of congregations making offerings for this cause has been 1,150; the average amount for each year, for current use, being $8,231.26, a much more favorable showing than the figures for the year now closing.

Besides the cash contributions to the Board, boxes of provisions, clothing, etc., have been received for Thornton Home. It has been our custom to report the Presbyteries making contributions equal to ten cents per capita. We are pleased to be able to report the following as having done so the past year: Amarillo, in Texas Synod, and St. Louis, in Missouri Synod.

Thornton Home.—There are at present seven guests in Thornton Home—one minister, five widows, and one orphan girl. A temporary home has been provided for one woman missionary while at home for rest and medical treatment, and one orphan girl while attending school. The number of persons availing themselves of the privileges of a residence in the Home is smaller than for years past. Those doing so are, as a rule, in such physical condition that they are not able to care for themselves, and are without relatives or friends in position to give them the personal attention they need.

While it has not been the policy of the Board to receive into the Home persons requiring hospital treatment, at the same time, by reason of age and its attendant infirmities, there is demand for considerable medical attention on the part of the old people in the Home. We desire to make grateful acknowledgment of the valuable services rendered by Dr. J. C. McClurkin, who has at all times promptly responded to all calls, giving his services cheerfully without charge to the Board.

Endowment fund of the Home as reported last year, $34,955. Nothing has been received during this year.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, this Board endorses the proposition that it, in conjunction with the other Boards of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, should proceed as speedily as possible to "orderly dissolution." For reasons that need not here be given, it is the judgment of this Board, however, under legal advice, that its corporate existence should be continued during the succeeding year as a holding corporation, and for such other purpose as the General Assembly might direct, or as may be agreed upon between this Board and the Board of Relief at Philadelphia.

During the year Dr. W. G. Ralston resigned the office of President, and also from membership in the Board, whereupon Mr. Robert Smith, a ruling elder in the Walnut Street Presbyterian Church of Evansville, Indiana, was elected a member of the Board to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Ralston. Rev. W. J.

Darby, D.D., was elected President in place of Dr. Ralston, resigned, and J. E. Williamson was elected Vice-President in place of Dr. Darby, elected President.

The terms of Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., Robert Smith, and S. B. Sansom as members of the Board expire in June, 1907. Under the laws of the State of Indiana, under which this Board is incorporated, it will be necessary for your reverend body to nominate their successors for the term of three years.

The period of coöperation between the two Boards has been an exceedingly agreeable one in every particular, the views of the two Boards in all matters of detail having been in perfect accord. The Board at Philadelphia has placed former Cumberland Presbyterian families on its roll, on precisely the same basis as those who have always been in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. For this marked generosity toward our almost one hundred families we express sincere gratitude.

For the Board,

S. B. SANSOM, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Forty-second Annual Report.

For the eighth time in regular succession the Board has closed its year's work without any outstanding obligations. This year the income from church collections was less than last year by $963.

The amount received from all other regular sources, including Sunday-schools, Young People's Societies and Woman's Societies, was $1,987 more than last year.

The receipts from miscellaneous sources were $9,932 less than last year. Legacies were $3,732 less than last year.

Total receipts from all sources were $188,981, being $12,652 less than last year.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way this year was 5,002, being a loss of 72 as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections alone was 4,189, a gain of 51 churches.

The number of Sunday-schools that contributed to our work was 801, being a loss of 25.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing was 990, being a loss of 97.

The amount of money given by patrons and friends of our school work, as reported this year from the field, was $57,171.64.

The amount given in church work, including church building, repairs, contingent expenses, and ministerial support, as reported to us by our ministers on the field, was $48,241.20.

The total amount from both church and school work gathered and expended on the field and reported to the Board was $105,412.84.

The churches under the care of the Board gave through their annual congregational collections $760.59 to the Freedmen's Board, and $1,722.34 to the other Boards of the church.

During the past year we have completed a frame dormitory building for girls at Oxford, N. C., in connection with our Mary Potter Memorial School, to be known as Wells Hall, named as a tribute to the friendship and helpfulness of Miss Helen A. Wells, so long the efficient Secretary of the New York Synodical and also of the Albany Presbyterial Society. The money was raised by the Woman's Societies of the Synod of New York. The building with its appointments cost $10,000.

We have also completed a brick dormitory building for girls, in connection with Cotton Plant Academy, at Cotton Plant, Ark., at a similar outlay of funds, also raised by the Women's Societies, through the efforts of the Women's Department of our Board—this building to be known as Niccolls Hall, in honor of Dr. S. J. Niccolls, of St. Louis.

We have also in process of erection a new school building at Newnan, Ga., in connection with McClelland Academy at that place, the amount to be expended being $3,500.

We are rebuilding Mary Holmes Seminary, at Burkeville, Va., which was burned May 23, 1906, just after we had made our last Annual Report to the Assembly at Des Moines, Iowa. The building was insured and is being replaced, mainly with the insurance money.

A home for the President of Harbison College, at Abbeville, S. C., has been finished during the year with the $2,500 contributed by Mrs. S. P. Harbison for this purpose.

Confident that in this work we are co-workers with God, and that we have been doing our Master's will, we make our report with heartfelt thankfulness. Although we meet sometimes opposition, and ofttimes stolid indifference on the part of those from whom we fondly looked to for sympathy and aid, we are still thankful that we have been called on to help those that need help; to lift up the hands that hang down; to strengthen the feeble knees, and to make straight paths for others' feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; to preach the Gospel to the poor, to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captive, the recovering of sight to the blind, liberty for them that are bruised, and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

THE SMALL COLLEGE.—The colleges of the Presbyterian Church have, almost without exception, enjoyed a year of marked development. The educational world is coming more and more emphatically and unitedly to the endorsement of the "small" college. A small college is one where the student body, in relation to the size of a carefully chosen faculty, is small enough to insure a real personal influence of the teacher in the upbuilding of student character and close personal supervision of student work. Such an institution will treat the student body as made up of pupils, rather than independent scholars engaged in personally chosen research work. The educational world is coming more and more to pronounce upon such small college work as absolutely necessary. Great givers are creating funds for its support and development, because wise educational leaders are assuring them of its supreme importance. The College Board, rejoicing in the popular endorsement of what has been its guiding principle throughout the quarter century of its existence, is going forward with its constant purpose—to develop small colleges of high educational standing, and to keep a definite atmosphere of Christian faith and service in them all. Certain institutions are engaged in special efforts for increased endowment. Among these the following may be specially mentioned as looking toward the most marked increase: Albert Lea, Alma, Caldwell, Carroll, Coe, Hastings, Lafayette, Lake Forest, Macalester, Montana, Park, Wabash, Westminster (Missouri), Wooster. Certain other institutions are aiming at better equipment in buildings, the following having either completed or begun new buildings of considerable value: Carroll, Hastings, Huron, Lake Forest, Macalester, Maryville, Missouri Valley, Park, Parsons, Wilson and Wooster. Here is what business men would call the "proposition": Shall institutions that have increased their student body in a year 1,307; that have erected buildings to the value of $614,252; that have collected over $1,800,000 new endowment—shall such institutions be enabled to hold the subscriptions that have been conditionally received to the amount of over $1,500,000 by the securing of new subscriptions of less than twice the amount? Imagine such a proposition made to a business house—that over $1,500,000 would be presented to it if it should raise $2,750,000 in its field! Is it possible that the Church of the living God, charged with the business of the King of kings, shall hesitate to meet such an opportunity?

New Opportunities.—The great gifts of Mr. Carnegie and Mr. Rockefeller for college work might be supposed to make all necessary provision, so that further contribution on the part of the churches or individuals would not be required. The very opposite is the case. The large gifts that have been made will call for a church and individual beneficence larger than ever before, and for two reasons: First. Any amount from the recent gifts offered to our colleges will be offered on condition that a sum three or four times as large shall be raised by the college, and mainly from its own church constituency. Second. Any college thus entering upon a canvass for endowment will be, by the fact of that work, almost precluded from the work of collecting money for current expenses; and The College Board will be compelled to assist it more largely than ever with funds that must come to it as offerings of Presbyterian churches.

Large gifts for the "small colleges" are the strongest endorsement of the wisdom of the Church's position in regard to Christian education; but it must be understood that, so far from taking away the need of Presbyterian giving, they make the need greater than ever. They make, not an excuse, but an opportunity. The gift of Mr. Rockefeller emphasizes further the wisdom of the Presbyterian Church in establishing and maintaining such an agency as The College Board. If a single individual finds it expedient to establish a central Board to administer his gifts to colleges which have only their educational work in common, how much greater is the need of a Church, numbering thousands of members, for such an organization, if it is to render most effective its efforts in aid of the common interests of its Presbyterian colleges?

New Needs.—"There is yet very much land to be possessed." The Church is not seeking to produce great institutions but small ones, provided only that they can secure sufficient equipment and a faculty competent to produce the desired results. The large majority of students in any institution come from a territory included within a radius of sixty miles. It will be seen at once how these two facts bear upon the old cry of "too many colleges." That cry, however, cannot be raised at all in many parts of our Church field. There are whole States and Territories, for whose evangelization the Church is responsible, in which we have not a single college. Nevada, Wyoming, North Dakota, New Mexico, Arizona have no Presbyterian institution of higher learning. Neither have Cuba, nor Porto Rico, nor Alaska, and yet we include these fields in our Home Mission territory, and accept our Church's responsibility for their enlightenment. Where the Baptist Church has 103 colleges, the Presbyterian Church, in all its branches, has but 68; where the Methodist Church has 2,893 teachers, the Presbyterian Church has but 1,433; where the Methodist Church has 38,115 pupils, the Presbyterian Church has only 17,571. Presbyterian college property is worth only about half of that controlled by the Baptist Church, and the endowment of Presbyterian colleges is less than a third of that of Congregational institutions. The Presbyterian Church has dared to pose before the world as a leader in culture and in intellectual training as naturally connected with its world-saving work. However true this may have been in the past, or of the Presbyterian Church in other lands, the claim at present is not so fully met as we could desire. No one, however, must suppose that the Board considers the figures that have been given as disheartening. The Presbyterian Church has begun to think on these needs, and Presbyterian thought means, as it always has meant, Presbyterian action. The tables simply give the grounds for present action, and enable us to see ourselves as others see us.

Growth of the Work.—1. During the past year, and due to the Reunion between the Presbyterian and Cumberland denominations, the Board has come into coöperation with a number of new colleges and academies. The Cumberland Church had no Board engaged in the development of these institutions. Its Educational Commission was engaged in plans for endowment increase. When final adjustment is effected in the work of the two uniting Churches, these schools (including colleges and academies) will all be within the sphere of The College Board's coöperating efforts. The names of these institutions are as follows: Arkansas College, Cumberland College, Bethel College, Cumberland University, Indianola College, James Millikin University, Lincoln College, Missouri Valley College, Texas Female Seminary, Trinity University, and Waynesburg College.

2. The year has brought a large increase in office work. The Board has prepared and sent widely through the Church an illustrated volume on "Our Presbyterian Colleges," designed to present their work as a unit, embodying certain common principles of action and controlled by the one purpose to develop an educated and consecrated service. A step forward has been taken in the effort to show the Church that its many institutions, differing widely in minor details of plan and local adjustment, constitute one field of necessary service and unitedly claim the loyal and sympathetic support of the entire Church.

3. There has been an encouraging advance in the receipts of the Board passing through its treasury. In 1905–06 these amounted to $82,408.86; in 1906–07 their sum is $110,128.49. Of the latter amount, $20,000 is the gift of one friend of Christian Education, which has passed into the Board's permanent fund, to be held for scholarships in certain designated colleges and at the discretion of the Board. The sum of $1,451,193.39, has gone to institutions for increased endowment, new buildings, improved equipment and current expenses. The items making up this sum have been in the main secured in their own fields, and throughout the length and breadth of the Church by the college workers, by institutions coöperating with the Board and approved by it. The Board has given aid for these collections in every way in its power—by widely distributed literature, by correspondence, by public meetings. The credit for the collections, however, belongs to the faithful and tirelessly efficient college officers. Too much praise cannot be given to these workers. They are the men to whom the glory of an advancing interest in Christian education absolutely belongs. They were the pioneers in the service; they bore the burdens of a day of long discouragement; now they are "arriving." Like the Lord who has sustained them, they are seeing of the travail of their souls. These are the educators who in their little colleges have been doing the real work of life training and character moulding. They are, as they have been, the Church's recruiting officers, finding and drilling the men for all the fields, at home and abroad, of the Master's world-wide service.

Desired Growth.—The Board will need a largely increased revenue from the churches during the coming year:

1. For appropriations to colleges that now number fifty-three, where they numbered forty-six a year ago. The colleges that were allied with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have become coöperating institutions. They are situated in parts of the Church where the membership is not wealthy, and they merit special consideration and sympathy for the stand that they have taken in favor of the union into which the Church has entered. Many of our colleges will have special need of help for current expenses. They are engaged in plans for endowment that cut them off from usual efforts in their own fields, and that temporarily make the most hopeful institutions the most needy.

2. For expenses of its own, incurred not only in its office work but especially in efforts to coöperate in all local movements, and in special plans widely to inform the Church of its opportunity, the officers of the Board must travel widely, unifying the work and carrying forward an unceasing "campaign of education." For these duties the Board asks the special practical endorsement of the churches.

3. The main effort of the Board will continue to be the seeking of gifts for endowment for the individual colleges. Without these gifts the work can result only in a hand-to-mouth existence of the institutions, most hampering to a fundamentally necessary work, and unworthy of a Church that in all its history has stood for higher education as an essential part of the Lord's advancing Kingdom.

Growth in Spiritual Work.—The Board stands, and will stand, for certain definite religious characteristics in all college work. All Presbyterian institutions must require Bible teaching, and give a distinctly evangelistic training, a constant discipline for all their scholars, designed to send them out as educated Christian workers. The Board takes great pleasure in reporting the practical results of the religious purpose of the colleges—results that prove the deep impression that faithful teachers are making from day to day upon their students. These colleges are raising up the great body of candidates for the ministry and missionary service at home and abroad. Of 5,508 male students in our colleges, 604 are looking toward the ministry. As to Foreign Mission service, only one illustration is here presented. In the present graduating class of Princeton Seminary, fourteen men have pledged themselves for the foreign field. Of this number, at least ten are graduates of small Christian colleges. The results of definite spiritual effort for the conversion and consecration of the students are difficult to tabulate. The following facts are given, not as a full account but as a partial statement of much faithful work, for which the Church may well give thanks. There is scarcely an institution where during the year there has not been definite evangelistic effort. Meetings have been held, personal work has been done, Christian students have been organized for effort, presidents and teachers have gone from the executive office and the class-room to the pulpit to plead with their students to be reconciled to God. The results of all this work will appear thoughout the life of the Church. The announcements of this one year, however, bring vast encouragement. The colleges report 307 young men and women who, because of the influence of their college life, have given themselves to Jesus Christ.

Outlook.—The prospect for a year's work was never better. In one close organization, the Board and the colleges are planning and praying for a wider culture, for a deeper spirituality, for a fuller consecration. If the Church will pray and prayerfully give, all difficulties can be surmounted, and the high purpose of Christian education can be realized. Out from our colleges and into all the fields of the world's labor will go the hosts of young men and women, equipped for earthly leadership and consecrated to His service who is Leader and Lord of all.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

HISTORICAL.—The records show that from the beginning the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was actuated by a missionary spirit. The first Synod was organized in Sumner County, Tenn., October 5, 1813, and was composed of three Presbyteries—Logan, Elk and Cumberland. All of these Presbyteries at once began missionary work, and in 1818 societies were formed with a view of missionary effort among the Indians.

In 1836, at a meeting of the Assembly, it was resolved that a Missionary Board be formed, to be called the "Board of Foreign Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church."

The first Board of Missions was not chartered, and for some reason did not accomplish much. Aroused by this discouraging condition of the missionary work of the Church, the Assembly of 1845 decided to organize a Missionary Board, to be called the "Assembly's Board of Foreign and Domestic Missions," which was located at Lebanon, Tenn. The home missionary work of the Board at this time was put into three divisions: Evangelistic, City Missions, and Missions among the Indians. Quite an extensive work was carried on among the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians for many years.

The Board made earnest efforts also to support Foreign Missions in Africa and in Turkey, but the Civil War made it impossible for the Board at Lebanon to prosecute its work. To meet this emergency the General Assembly appointed a Permanent Committee on Missions, located it at Alton, Ill., which took control of all the missions of the Church. In 1864 this Committee was incorporated into a regular Board of Missions, under the style and title of "The Board of Foreign and Domestic Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church."

In 1866 the Board at Lebanon sent a report to the Assembly, and in the meantime a Board of Missions had been organized and chartered on the Pacific Coast, which also submitted its report. So that from 1866 to 1869 there were three Boards in existence, and all acting by authority of the General Assembly.

In the last-named year the three Boards were consolidated by an action of the Assembly, and the location of the Board was fixed at St. Louis.

By order of the Assembly of 1890, a Board of Church Erection was created and located at Kansas City. At the very next meeting of the Assembly it was ordered "That the Board of Missions and of Church Erection be consolidated."

In 1874 the Board reëntered the foreign field by the appointment of missionaries to South America, and has since had missionaries in Japan, Mexico and China.

The Woman's Board.—The organization of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, in 1880, as auxiliary to the Assembly Board, grew directly out of the pressing necessities of the work in Japan, and this Board has made an honorable history in both Foreign and Domestic work.

While still far behind its duty in missionary work, our beloved Church has made great progress in missions during the last ten years. As an evidence of the growth of the missionary spirit and contributions, your attention is called to the following statement of receipts:

Total receipts through our Board and the Woman's Board for current work in 1898 were $38,306.00 and in 1906 were $82,553.00, showing an increase of nearly 115 per cent.

Personnel.—Upon the recommendation of our Board, Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D.D., was made Field Secretary of your Board of Home Missions. His resignation as a corporate member and as President of our Board was accepted July 17, 1906. We desire again and in this public way to record our keen appreciation of the faithful and valuable services which Dr. Fullerton has rendered as a member and President of the Board and as editor-in-chief of The Missionary Record.

Rev. E. B. Surface, Mt. Vernon, Ill., has been chosen, subject to your approval, to fill Dr. Fullerton's term of office as a corporate member of our Board, which expires in 1908.

Mr. Isaac H. Orr was elected to fill out the unexpired term of Rev. W. T. Ferguson, D.D., deceased, as a corporate member.

Mr. J. M. Patterson has served our Board during the past year as Corresponding Secretary with the same fidelity and efficiency as has always characterized his work in this office. It was with pleasure that we recommended him to the position of Assistant Secretary of your Foreign Board, to which position he has been chosen, his services to begin June 1, 1907.

The Board has selected, subject to your approval, T. H. Perrin, Isaac H. Orr and J. C. Cobb to succeed themselves in office as corporate members until 1910.

The Missionary Record.—The thirty-first volume of The Missionary Record was completed in December, 1906. The total number of copies sent out during the year was 140,500.

The account shows total receipts from subscriptions and advertisements $2,423.88. Total cost of publication, $3,416.98.

The Missionary Record has a large reading clientelle among our people, and its influence has been felt in our work. The literary tone of The Missionary Record compares favorably with the best religious magazines, for which we are indebted to Dr. B. P. Fullerton, the editor-in-chief, and an efficient corps of associates and contributors. For more than thirty years The Missionary Record has been an important factor in the missionary work of our Church, and its usefulness should be preserved to the reunited Church.

Twelve pages of matter have been furnished monthly by our Woman's Board and about the same number of pages by our Board, the remaining pages being given to advertisements and business items.

FINANCIAL.—The receipts, as shown in the financial exhibit which forms a part of this report, for the current work were $50,572.00; Synodical Missions, $32,195.00; Woman's Board, $35,806.00; grand total, $118,573.00.

The Board has met in full all of its outside obligations, has paid all of its missionary appropriations to both the Home and Foreign work, and has provided for all special funds.

During recent years the opportunities in the Home and Foreign fields have been so great and the needs of that work so pressing that funds which had been placed to the credit of Church Erection on our books have been drawn and used for Home and Foreign Missions, thus causing our books to show an apparent balance due the Church Erection Department from the other two departments.

These facts have been regularly reported to our General Assembly and our course in this respect has been approved.

The balance on our books in favor of the Church Erection Department now amounts to $30,224.36.

In view of these facts we recommend that our Home and Foreign Mission Departments be relieved from their apparent indebtedness to the Church Erection Department.

CHURCH ERECTION.—The offerings in this department, as shown in the financial exhibit, have fallen below last year about $900. The return of loans has been somewhat disappointing, although we have pressed these collections more vigorously than during any previous year.

HOME MISSIONS.—The work in the Home Mission Department has been more complex and difficult than in previous years. The Board has endeavored to supplement the salaries and keep pastors in charge of such churches. This has necessitated quite an increase in our appropriations, and had not the New York Board of Home Missions very kindly set aside a generous sum for this specified work under the direction of our Board, it would have been impossible for us to respond and many of our good congregations would have been lost to the Reunited Church.

FOREIGN MISSION WORK.—By agreement, all the Foreign Mission work under the control of our Board was transferred to the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reunited Church May 1, 1907. We submit herewith a list of our missionaries:

COMBINING THE WORK OF THE BOARDS.—Pursuant to the instructions of the General Assembly, several conferences were held with the corresponding Boards of the Reunited Church. At the last conference which was held in New York City, December 12–13, 1906, the following resolutions were recommended. The same were subsequently approved by our Board, with the further provision: "That we suggest to the three Boards in New York that they add to their Committees, provided for in Resolution II, any member of their respective Boards residing in or adjacent to the City of St. Louis."

Our Board joins heartily in recommending these resolutions for your favorable consideration:

First. That. after the meeting of the General Assembly in May, 1907, the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection should continue and maintain its legal corporate existence, for the purpose of serving the best interests of all concerned and performing such functions as may be deemed necessary: but that, as soon as agreements between the respective Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Board have been reached, it should turn over its home mission stations and home mission work to the Board of Home Missions, its foreign mission work and foreign mission stations to the Board of Foreign Missions, and its church erection funds and church erection work to the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Second. That the corporate members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection should become and be made members of the above-named Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as follows: Home Missions, three; Foreign Missions, two; Church Erection, two.

Third. That a joint office for the South and Southwest should be maintained in St. Louis by these three Boards, which office should also be the General Office of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection.

Fourth. That each of the New York Boards be free, and even solicited, to call upon the members of the St. Louis Board for any such services as can be rendered.

Fifth. That this conference recommend the continuance of The Missionary Record as a separate publication for at least one year, during which time the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and Church Erection shall be jointly responsible for its management, publication and support, and shall share its space in such proportion as may be mutually agreed upon by them.

Sixth. That your Board of Home Missions should assume and carry out the contract between our Board and Mrs. Louisa Krusch, which contract is mentioned in (page 30) our original report; and that this Assembly be requested to direct said Board to do so.

With a view of serving the Assembly in carrying out the plan provided for in above resolutions, we suggest the following assignments:

Board of Home Missions.—T. H. Perrin, J. C. Cobb and Rev. C. E. Hayes.

Board of Foreign Missions.—Thomas H. Cobb and Rev. E. E. Morris.

Board of Church Erection.—Isaac H. Orr and Rev. E. B. Surface.

WORK OF OUR WOMAN'S BOARD.—Plans for combining the work of the Women's Boards are under way and are practically agreed upon, though some of the details are yet to be worked out. The difficulties and problems that have confronted our Board in its work have also affected very largely the work of our Woman's Board.

In view of the general conditions which have prevailed throughout the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and in view of the fact that many of our churches have required unusual efforts and gifts to maintain their local work, we consider this an unusually good showing and one for which the Church should be congratulated.

In closing our work as a separate Board we can assure you that the Reunited Church will receive from the members of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, who have accomplished such a splendid work in Home and Foreign Missions in the face of unparalleled difficulties, the same hearty sympathy and support that has been given to our Board of Missions for more than half a century. We believe that the reunion of these two branches of the Presbyterian Church is of God, and that the two great streams which have flowed in separate channels for a century, and are now reunited, will broaden and deepen until the Gospel of Jesus Christ shall have been carried into all parts of this fair land of ours and to the uttermost parts of the earth.

On behalf of the Board,

J. M. PATTERSON, Corresponding Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1907.

Throughout the year past your Committee has carried on its work in stimulating, in every way possible, the work of systematic beneficence. The demand for information is persistent, as is shown by our extensive correspondence and rather wide distribution of literature, and this leads to the conclusion that, throughout the bounds of the Church, there are many who are watching, waiting and working for the coming of a better and brighter day; for the time when there will be more generosity, and when those who claim to have dedicated themselves to God and His work will, in a more systematic way, and in a more liberal spirit, dedicate what God has given to them, in trust, to the work of saving the world.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANKS, ENVELOPES, LEAFLETS.—Again we call attention to the fact (because this report will doubtless reach many new elders, deacons, church members and ministers) that this Committee stands ready to furnish

(1) Subscription blanks of two kinds.—The first is for churches that wish to make a separate annual offering to each of the Boards of the Church, and to obtain advanced subscriptions from the members of their congregations for each of the Boards of the Church.

The second is for those churches that desire to follow closely the instructions contained in the Directory of Worship, Chapter 6, and where there is an indication that the people do not care to pledge in advance a definite amount to be paid during the year. Subscription blank No. 2 can be used to advantage in obtaining a definite pledge of an offering of some kind from each member of the congregation. This subscription blank will be furnished free to churches desiring to use them.

(2) Envelopes.—The Committee furnish envelopes free for use by all members of congregations desiring to have their method of giving conform to the advice given in the Directory of Worship by offerings.

(3) Literature.—In addition to the envelopes and subscription blanks which are furnished free by our Committee, the Committee have issued several leaflets on Systematic Giving, which can be obtained free for general distribution among the membership of the Church. For list of these, let application be made to the Committee.

DIFFICULTIES.—We have upon the rolls of our churches a considerable constituency that are neither attendants upon public worship nor upon communion services, nor are they contributors. As long as this condition of things continues, we shall have a large number of persons in whom it will be difficult to develop the Christian grace of giving.

It is hardly to be expected that those who are members of Christ's Church and feel no obligation to support, in an adequate manner, the work of Christ in their own community and in connection with their own church, can be interested in any great degree to give, from a Christian motive, to the various causes of Missions represented by our Church. There are persons who will give a pittance for any cause or object for which they are personally asked, but it is not done distinctively from the motive of obligation to Christ as Saviour and Lord.

The problem of proper local church support is becoming an increasingly difficult one for many of our churches, and nearly every possible experiment has been tried in solving the problem. Some years ago, in many of the smaller churches, the money necessary to be raised to meet the local expenses of the church was raised by a public subscription paper, and nearly everyone in the community knew what every other person in the same community contributed for this object.

The weekly envelope plan has come into very general use, so that now trustees depend frequently upon not merely the quarterly pew rents, but these supplementary offerings through envelopes and the miscellaneous offerings of the Sabbath; and the use of all these various methods for meeting current expenses makes the problem of the collections for missionary and benevolent purposes increasingly difficult in many of our churches.

As a result of this condition of things in the local church, nearly every church has more or less difficulty in raising the amount of money that is necessary to keep their church in a self-respecting condition. Many trustees are confronted yearly with a deficit in the current expenses of the church, and this deficit a few are expected to make up.

Neglect of the Church at Home.—In the estimation of many church members the church occupies a secondary position; so that, if they give anything, they contribute very little, with the idea that somebody else will do it. This unfair attitude of many persons toward their own church is not one which will foster large benevolence to our missionary and benevolent enterprises; so that one of the difficulties of the present hour to be considered is this unjust attitude of so many of our church members toward their own local church. The time has come when, for the absolute preservation of the local church, without regard to the cause of missions, the matter of systematic beneficence on the part of the people, as an act of worship, should be made a prominent subject for pulpit discourse, and for the proper education of the people as to their duties. Many people seem to be blind and ignorant as to their obligations in this matter.

The Attitude of Church People.—We have thus far called attention to the attitude of many members of the church to the support of their own local church. Now, when we come to consider the attitude of church members to the missionary and benevolent causes of the Church, we find the condition of things even worse. There is no adequate or systematic giving on the part of the members of the Church to any of the great causes of the Church. Some churches are enabled to report large offerings to the Boards of the Church; but there are few churches that would be willing to have the offering that is given in the name of the church to any missionary and benevolent Board analyzed or a list of individual contributors. It will be found, in most of our churches, that ten or a dozen persons give the great bulk of the offerings made; and this is true even though the membership be several hundred.

Questions for the Thoughtful.—What is the duty of the average church Session that desires to be loyal to the Boards of our Church and to the recommendations of General Assembly and to the interests of the particular field which is under its immediate care? Is there any way whereby this whole matter of money for the Kingdom of Christ from the individual church member can be simplified, and a due proportion allotted to all the causes that should have recognition and proper support?

Campaign of Education.—Then let the united energy of the Church be devoted to the education of our people in systematic and proportionate giving, which we believe will in the near future mean much for the better support of the local church, and of the rapid extension and increase of God's Kingdom throughout the world.

This constant appeal to impulse and the multiplication of offerings, which soon become all alike to the average church member, is belittling to the great work we have in hand.

A campaign of education is sadly needed. For last year 8,118 churches were reported as enrolled, which includes foreign mission churches.

The total amount received by our eight Boards through church offerings, aggregating in round numbers $1,120,000, with a reported membership of 1,158,662, makes the average church offering throughout the entire Church about one dollar per communicant for our eight Boards.

During the year under review the eight Boards of the Church report that they have received in aggregate from all the churches 34,682 offerings.

A careful analysis of the offerings reported by the Boards indicates that at the present time there are very few of our 8,000 churches that take a yearly offering for each of the Boards of the Church. A little over 1,000 churches fill all the blanks.

In the light of the contributions from our churches for various causes during the past ten years, is it not possible to form some general idea of what can be reasonably expected to be the amount that can be raised for our missionary and benevolent work for the year to come? Cannot this aggregate sum be apportioned among the Synods; and cannot representatives from the Presbyteries, within the bounds of the Synod, apportion the amount to the Synod among the Presbyteries; and cannot each Presbytery apportion this amount among its own churches; and the amount thus raised be sent to a central treasury, which can be divided in due proportion to all the causes that General Assembly thinks worthy of receiving contributions; and cannot all the Boards of the Church coöperate with the Sessions of all the churches in a great campaign of education on the whole subject of systematic and proportionate giving, and do everything possible to cultivate this grace?

In the Appendix to the Report, in the volume of Board Reports, will be found the usual Statistical Tables.

In closing this report, the Special Committee desires to express their appreciation of the faithful work being done in the interests of Systematic Beneficence by the various Synodical and Presbyterial Committees.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee,

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

GENERAL SURVEY.—Within the brief compass of this report, it will not be possible to give extended information on every phase of the Temperance problem; but the hearty commendation of our last Annual Report which comes to us from every quarter, and the very great demand for it, encourages us in the belief that a "bird's-eye view" of the whole field will be helpful to all who wish information on this important subject.

MARCH OF PROGRESS.—There is no other reform that is making such headway in recent months as the Temperance reform. The tide of opposition against the liquor traffic is rising higher every day and is registering itself in many practical ways.

Secular Press.—A few years ago the press was almost silent on the Temperance reform—would not even print the news items on the subject. But during the past year it is noteworthy that the daily press from Boston to San Francisco has had much to say about the Temperance question, has discussed it under conspicuous headlines, has given columns and editorials, has sent reporters to gather the news and catch flying messages of victory or defeat—unprecedented space and interest in the secular press.

Legislation.—The measures creating the most widespread interest, causing petitions to pour in from hundreds of thousands of voters, delegations and "hearings" on both sides, have been the Temperance measures. Since the beginning of the present year at least 250 bills concerning the liquor traffic have been introduced into the various Legislatures, thus securing public discussion at the very centre of civic affairs. Several Governors in their annual messages voiced fearless indictments of the saloon's continual lawlessness and its inevitable harvest of crime and vice.

Court Decisions.—February 13, 1907, Judge Samuel R. Artman, of the Boone Circuit Court of Indiana, rendered a most notable decision, basing it upon many Court precedents and concluding with the following strong expression:

"In view of these holdings, based, as they certainly are, upon good reason and sound common sense, it must be held that the State cannot, under the guise of a license, delegate to the saloon business a legal existence, because to hold that it can is to hold that the State may sell and delegate the right to make widows and orphans, the right to break up homes, the right to create misery and crime, the right to make murderers, the right to produce idiots and lunatics, the right to fill orphanages, poor-houses, insane asylums, jails and penitentiaries and the right to furnish subjects for the hangman's gallows."

In many places the growing public sentiment has manifested itself in the strict enforcement of laws governing the liquor traffic, with attendant satisfactory results.

April 13, 1907, exactly two months after the decision of Judge Artman, another still more sweeping decision was rendered by Judge Ira W. Christian, of Hamilton County, Ind., Circuit Court, in which, after reviewing at length fifty-four Court decisions, he concluded as follows:

"I am drawn to the inevitable conclusion that the business of selling intoxicating liquors at retail, to be drunk on the premises where sold, is dangerous to the public morals, the public safety, the public health, and that, therefore, the place where such business is conducted is per se a nuisance and needs no proof as to its injurious effects upon the public."

March 4, 1907, the Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision sustaining the Courts of Nebraska in making it a misdemeanor to use the United States flag on liquor advertisements.

On March 11, 1907, the Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision sustaining the law of the State of South Dakota in imposing an "occupation tax" upon men soliciting orders for liquors, declaring that such a law was not "restraint of trade and commerce."

Organized Labor.—There has been great change of sentiment on the part of the leaders of organized labor with reference to the use of strong drink, and everywhere the wisest of the labor leaders are urging men to abstain from intoxicants.

Economics.—The science of economics has demonstrated that the Temperance reform is the greatest financial problem of the age. The liquor traffic costs nearly nine times as much as the public schools, five times as much as the wheat crop, four times the net earnings of the railroads, three times the entire national receipts, practically as much as the entire amount of money in circulation, while it returns to the general Government only $212,565,000 and to the various States about $100,000,000 in license. In other words, it costs two billions and a half and returns about one-eighth of that amount, after working untold and unimaginable moral and social and domestic ruin.

The Testimony of Science.—The Educational Committee of the City Council of Berlin, Germany, has issued a memorandum to mothers warning them against the practice of giving children wine or beer even in small quantities. The circular points out the fact that there are 12,000 persons in German lunatic asylums whose minds have been deranged through excessive drinking, and that 200 persons are annually received in one Berlin hospital suffering with delirium tremens. It appears that the use of "light wine and beer" has solved the Temperance question with a vengeance in Germany.

Dr. T. D. Crothers, in an address before the Buffalo Academy of Medicine, Buffalo, N. Y., February 12, 1907, says:

"Recent researches of the physiological action of alcohol on the body have revealed some very startling conclusions and pointed out facts and causes of disease not recognized before."

The Status of the States.—The facts change so rapidly and constantly that it is impossible to state exact conditions in the several States with more than approximate accuracy, but it is safe to say that one-half of the area and more than one-third of the population of the United States is now under prohibitory law. The attitude of science, industry, education, religion, journalism, sociology, law, labor, capital, business, economics, art, literature and general public sentiment all prophesy the overthrow of the liquor traffic.

The Presbyterian Church.—In this march of progress the Presbyterian Church is taking an honorable part. The Committee furnished the churches with nearly four times as much literature, ten times as many pledge-cards, sent speakers to more than twice as many churches, and supplied information by personal letter to five times as many people as it did the preceding year, while the increase in its receipts was but 50 per cent. over the preceding year.

Great reforms are of slow growth. Seed must be sown and roots must get firm hold. The Presbyterian Church has done much of the seed-sowing for the harvest now ripening. Her first minister on American soil, Francis Makemie, lifted up his voice against intemperance. Her second General Assembly declared her purpose to aid in making men sober citizens of a free government. Through more than a century she has uttered her voice in behalf of Temperance and against the liquor traffic.

The General Assembly of 1906 approved the following plan of federation in Temperance work: "That the proper officials of one denomination shall issue an invitation to other denominations to appoint delegates to a National Inter-Church Conference to consider the feasibility of a Church Temperance Federation. When these delegates have formulated and agreed upon a basis of federation, and this basis shall have been ratified by the participating Churches, it shall then become operative." Pursuant to this action the Permanent Temperance Committees of the United Presbyterian Church of North America and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America issued a joint call for a National Inter-Church Temperance Conference, to be held in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., January 30 and 31, 1907.

Including corresponding members, almost one hundred persons, from widely separated portions of the United States, participated in this Conference, sixteen denominations being represented. For further facts regarding this Council, see volume of Board Reports.

Finis.—In this connection mention should be made of the years of gratuitous service rendered by the members of the Permanent Committee. Whatever has been accomplished is largely due to their coöperation and counsel, and we believe the Church does and will continue to appreciate their service.

The books are closed, the work is done. The record of the year must stand as made. It has cost much labor and some sacrifice, which we offer with sincere gratitude to the great Head of the Church whose we are and whom we serve.

JOHN F. HILL, Secretary.

XV. PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN WORK AMONG SEAMEN AND SOLDIERS.

The Permanent Committee on Christian Work among Seamen and Soldiers respectfully presents the following report:

The General Assembly of 1906 advanced the Committee from a special to a permanent position, enlarged its scope, increased its membership and recommended its work to the beneficence of churches and individuals interested in the spiritual welfare of seamen and soldiers. The new members of the Committee entered heartily into its work and purposes; one of those most deeply interested in this movement and the one from whom, for many reasons, we had expected great help in the coming years has already been translated to higher service: The Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., of Washington, D. C., departed this life in New York, on April 17.

The work of the Committee so far has been largely one of preparation—establishing ties between the Committee and the Presbyteries on the one hand, and the Committee and the National Government on the other. Both of these relationships are of prime importance, and little effective religious work can be done for seaman or soldier until individual pastors and church members and Government officials recognize the need and provide a way of meeting it.

The headquarters of the Committee have been established in the Witherspoon Building in Philadelphia, and Mr. Henry Pringle Ford has been elected Treasurer. The Committee has held interesting meetings in New York and Philadelphia during the year; the Ministers' Association of Philadelphia devoted an entire meeting to the work of this Committee and four of its members were heard. The Ministers' Association in New York has also arranged for an hour when one or more of its members will speak. Similar meetings will be arranged so far as possible in other cities. One member of the Committee has presented the cause at one of the Theological Seminaries.

Interviews have been held with President Roosevelt, the Secretaries of the Army and Navy Departments and members of the Naval Committee of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, but no legislative action was taken by Congress looking to the increase of Naval chaplains. There has been an increase in the number of Army chaplains, eight being added to a reasonably large corps.

The Presbyterian Church has long recognized its duty to the soldiers of our Government. For many years the beloved Dr. Smith, of Baltimore, was active in securing efficient chaplains for the Army; later Dr. Radcliffe, of Washington, took up the work, and practically all of the Presbyterian ministers now filling these positions secured them through their efforts. It seems eminently fitting that on the combined committee Dr. Radcliffe should be a leading member, and his election is heartily recommended.

It is scarcely possible to speak in terms sufficiently strong properly to condemn those responsible for the small number of chaplains in the Navy. Mr. Roosevelt does not hesitate to term the situation "disgraceful." While deploring the fact that there are no more Naval chaplains to-day than there were on January 1, 1842, he admits that he is powerless to change the conditions. Relief must come, he says, from the representatives of a united Church. When Christendom speaks Congress will heed, is in effect his opinion. Single battleships, a squadron and even a fleet has gone off for months without a single chaplain, Protestant or Roman Catholic, to minister to the sick and dying and to bury the dead. The President's term of "disgraceful" is justified. Every effort to change this condition is blocked in the Committee rooms of the National Capitol by men in Congress or in the Naval service, it is said, who have little faith in God and no fear of man, except when he stands before the ballot box.

Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion to your Committee that Senators and Representatives must hear the voice of the Church people in no unmistakable terms is a good one; to this expression of righteous indignation he promises personal and official action. There is needed properly to care for the spiritual interests of the naval officers and men afloat and ashore—many being in hospitals, in school, on receiving ships and in prisons for minor offenses—three or four times as many chaplains as there are in the corps to-day. Sixty-five years ago there were ten ships requiring chaplains and the corps was 24; to-day there are sixty-seven ships requiring chaplains and the number is still 24. When shore leave and shore duty are considered the number of available men for sea duty warrants Mr. Roosevelt's strong expression:

"It is a shame!"

The following recommendation to Congress by Secretary Bonaparte shows that the Navy Department is alive to the situation, but powerless to correct it:

"The good morals and also the health and general welfare, as well as the contentment of the service, would be, in my judgment, promoted by a considerable increase in the number of chaplains in the Navy, provided we could be assured of obtaining only thoroughly suitable men for these important positions."

Mr. Bonaparte, in his report last December shortly before leaving the Navy Department, repeated to Congress his recommendations for more chaplains, declaring that in his judgment there should be a chaplain on every first-class vessel of the Navy, and on each one of as many smaller vessels as can be suitably provided.

"I do not think it right," he said, "that several hundred of our citizens on our largest vessels, or as many as 800 or even more, should live for months isolated from all religious observances, should be deprived of the consolations of religion in case of sickness or death, and should be unable, in case of need, to call upon a spiritual adviser."

The Committee is seeking, through correspondence with other branches of the Presbyterian Church, to secure the appointment of Committees similar to this one, that the voice of a united Presbyterianism may be heard and heeded in Washington and throughout the land.

Correspondence is also being carried on with other bodies of the Protestant Church to secure coöperation in work among the two classes whose religious welfare has been in part laid upon this Committee. Encouraging replies have been received from the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, leading pastors in the Baptist and Congregational Churches, as well as from Secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Committee is endeavoring to secure by the joint action of leading religious bodies a Memorial to the President of the United States, asking him to issue a general order or regulation making it obligatory to have a religious observance of the day every Sabbath on board every Naval vessel in commission, except when absolutely impracticable, and that fact should be certified to by the Commander of the vessel over his own signature in the log-book. While the service should be compulsory, attendance upon it should be voluntary. The service should be conducted by the Commanding Officer or by one of the other officers designated by the Commander. To a Sub-committee has been assigned the task of preparing a suitable form of service for general use when there is no chaplain on board the vessel.

Your Committee has passed upon the application of one candidate for the position of Army chaplain. Secretary Taft heartily approves this form of coöperation.

Members of the Committee spent a great deal of time endeavoring to find a suitable candidate to recommend for the vacancy in the chaplaincy corps in the Navy which occurred last winter; failing to find one whom they could heartily recommend, no name was presented. Along with the demand for more Naval chaplains must go the preparation and selection of men willing to serve the Master in this difficult field. Young men, capable men, consecrated men must be found who are as willing to become missionaries to the Anglo-Saxon seamen as to the men of China or Africa. When the sailors of Christendom on merchant vessels and on men-of-war, are soldiers of the Cross, the labors of missionaries in port cities, both at home and abroad, will be materially lessened and their influence for good correspondingly increased. When every ship carries a pulpit it will become a power of righteousness. A sailor converted is a light that cannot be hid. Wherever a sailor goes he finds or creates a miniature hell, unless he is living in a miniature heaven.

The General Assembly has recommended that all of the Presbyteries coming in touch with seamen and soldiers should appoint Standing Committees to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee in promoting the religious welfare of these classes of our citizens. This recommendation has been adopted by some of the leading Presbyteries; we hope for an enlargement of this coöperation in the year to come.

While special stress has been laid upon the spiritual needs of the officers and men in the Government service, similar needs on the part of men in the merchant service are recognized, and so far as possible the effort making to reach these deserving men should be encouraged and supplemented.

One of the most noteworthy features of the year, from the point of view of the sailors, has been the munificent gift of $150,000 from Mrs. Russell Sage to aid the American Seamen's Friend Society to erect in New York a Sailors' Institute. May the prayer of this Christian philanthropist in transferring this gift be answered. She wrote:

"May this Seamen's Home be a refuge to the sailor on land, and lead to the refuge beyond land and sea."

It will be of interest to add that the Secretary of this most efficient society is a member of the Assembly's Committee, and its President is the Chairman of the Committee of the Presbytery of New York appointed to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee. In many ports in America, several in Europe, and a few in Asia, agents of the American Seamen's Friend Society are laboring for the spiritual regeneration of the men of the sea.

Committees of Presbyteries should seek means of aiding both soldiers and sailors. Whether the latter are at home on the deep seas or plying their trade on lakes and rivers in the homeland, the soul's need is the same; the Church must supply the remedy—the Gospel offered in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Committee feels that its membership should be increased to twenty-one, in order to secure representation from our Cumberland brethren, from the Pacific coast, and from lake ports and from some of our large river towns. A Sub-committee has selected men who, the Committee believe, will add strength to its working force and greatly aid in awakening interest in both seamen and soldiers, if the Assembly shall order the Committee enlarged and the Moderator shall be pleased to appoint the members suggested. Special help has been received from a Rear-Admiral of the Navy added last year; similar assistance may be expected from the addition of a Brigadier-General in the Army whose name has been suggested as one of our members.

The report of the Treasurer indicates that a good deal of educational work needs to be done within the Church itself before the Committee can hope to accomplish a great deal outside. It is significant of the limited sphere of information regarding the financial needs of the Committee that the bulk of the gifts come from members of the Committee and from an Italian Sunday-school in Philadelphia, of which a member of the Committee is Superintendent. By means of public meetings held or addressed by members of the Committee, personal interviews, personal and official letters, newspaper and magazine articles and leaflets, the field of opportunity must be outlined to those to whose beneficence the last Assembly commended the Committee. At least $1,000 should be used in this way this year.

The following recommendations are submitted:

1. That the General Assembly expresses its appreciation of the long and faithful service performed by the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., LL.D., in behalf of the religious welfare of soldiers and elects him a member of this Permanent Committee of the class of 1908.

2. That the small number of Naval chaplains is deplored, and the Committee is authorized to continue its conferences with the Government authorities and with the appropriate Committees of Congress until the number is increased.

3. That the proposed Memorial to the President of the United States, asking for a recognition of the Sabbath day on ship-board be approved; and the Committee is authorized to represent the General Assembly in securing concurrent action in other religious bodies.

4. That Presbyteries which have not already appointed standing Committees to coöperate with this Permanent Committee be recommended to do so at an early date.

5. That pastors of churches be requested, so far as possible, to take some part by service for the classes represented by the Committee, or by securing contributions manifest a vital interest in this important work, and that they also be requested to offer prayer for them in their church services.

6. That pastors and members of Seminary faculties have in mind the class of men needed as chaplains in the Army and Navy, and submit the names of those qualified for such service to the Committee.

7. That our congratulations be extended to the President and other officers of the American Seamen's Friend Society for the prospect of soon having a suitable building for the social and spiritual welfare of the seamen entering the harbor of New York.

8. That the size of the Committee be increased to twenty-one members, the six new members to be appointed by the Moderator in consultation with the representative of the Committee.

9. That the following members of the class of 1907, whose terms expire with this Assembly, be reëlected:

The Rev. Henry F. Lee, the Rev. John H. Edwards, D.D., Richard H. Wallace and Homer L. Pound.

The Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., a member of this class, being unable to attend the meetings of the Committee, it is suggested that another Philadelphian be appointed to fill the vacancy.

10. That the Assembly approves the request of the Committee that it be allowed a page each month in the Assembly Herald.

11. That the Committee be commended to the churches and to individuals to the extent of $5,000, to be expended this year in this work.

XVI. COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTERIAL SUSTENTATION FUND.

The Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., appointed by the General Assembly of 1906 to put the Fund into operation, respectfully submits the following report:

The Committee held its first meeting in the Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, New York, on June 20, 1906, when the following officers were elected: Chairman, Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. R. Sutherland, D.D. Special Representative, Rev. Henry E. Mott, D.D. The Treasurer, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., was appointed by the Assembly.

An Executive Committee, consisting of seven members, was also chosen.

During the year the following important matters were acted upon:

1. It was unanimously agreed that no individual and personal financial obligation in connection with the Fund devolved upon any one of the members of the Committee, and that the Committee would be responsible only in so far as funds were provided by the churches and by ministers.

2. After a full discussion of the question the blanks in Section 3, Article VI, of the Plan (see Minutes, 1906, p. 113), were filled by the insertion of the words twenty per cent. and eighty per cent. respectively. It was felt that this was the most equitable proportion of the cost of the Rates of the Fund as between ministers and the Church at large.

The section as amended reads: "Ministers shall pay twenty per cent. of the Annual Rates into the Annuity Fund, and the Church at large eighty per cent., by congregational contributions, donations, devises and bequests."

3. The headquarters of the Fund were located in New York, N. Y., at Room 505, Presbyterian Building. Dr. Sutherland removed to New York City in November, and entered upon the duties of his office.

4. Literature pertaining to the Fund has been prepared, printed and mailed to a large number of ministers. It was found that comparatively few of them had any knowledge of the action of the Assembly creating the Fund, and fewer still of its provisions as outlined in the report of the Special Committee, upon which the Assembly's action was based.

5. A Constitution of the Fund has been prepared and adopted, and is included in the Minutes of the Committee.

6. It was decided that the Fund should be put into full operation only when 500 applications shall have been accepted by the Committee, and the eighty per cent. of the Rates to be contributed by the Church at large shall have been received in addition to the twenty per cent. payments by ministers. This action was taken after careful consideration of all the interests involved. The number of applications approved up to March 30, 1907, was 152.

For several weeks after the announcement that the Fund was being put into operation and literature to that effect distributed, the Corresponding Secretary's time was largely occupied in answering inquiries regarding the provisions and details of the Plan. Those answers were subsequently summarized and embodied in a Prospectus which was published, and copies of which have been distributed in the Assembly.

In the meantime efforts were made to secure subscriptions to the Fund, and considering the brief time which intervened between the beginning of those efforts and the close of the ecclesiastical year, the Committee feels greatly encouraged by the results attained. Wherever the cause has been presented and the object and provisions of the Plan explained, the interest awakened has been marked and the response made most encouraging, and is, in the judgment of your Committee, a pledge of the ultimate success of the Fund.

An ex-Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Canada says of the Plan: "I have carefully considered the whole scheme, and the conditions of admission and administration, and I consider the Plan carefully thought out and in every respect admirable. It includes the best features of the corresponding scheme in our Church in Canada, and is free from some of the defects of ours. I congratulate the American Church on this admirably arranged scheme, as well as on the object aimed at."

The Treasurer's Report, which has been duly audited and approved, shows receipts for the year ending March 31, 1907, as follows: For current expenses, $5,989.67; from payments of Rates by ministers, $4,351.70. The expenditures amounted to $2,694.29, all of which was on account of current expenses. The entire sum received from the payment of Rates is on deposit at interest.

The following resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the work of the Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be and hereby is approved.

Resolved, 2. That the membership of the Committee be hereafter composed of ministers and ruling elders residing in New York, Philadelphia and vicinity, and that the following persons be reappointed as members, with power to name the other members: Ministers—Howard Duffield, D.D., William H. Roberts, D.D., John R. Sutherland, D.D., Henry E. Mott, D.D., A. Edwin Keigwin, D.D., Robert Mackenzie, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Francis B. Griffin, Gilbert Colgate, L. G. Fouse and L. H. Severance.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee be authorized to appoint an Advisory Committee, consisting of at least one member from each Synod.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly extends its thanks to the generous friends who have contributed to the expenses of the Fund, and cordially commends the Fund to the support of all our ministers and to the members of the various congregations of our Church.

In behalf of the Fund,

HOWARD DUFFIELD, Chairman.

JOHN R. SUTHERLAND, Corresponding Secretary.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chapter xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every Minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three and one-half cents for Mileage, and two cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the Clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1907, p. 241.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1907 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly) to every ordained Minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries. A supplementary number of the Minutes will be issued in January, 1908, showing ecclesiastical changes to date, and can be had on application to the Stated Clerk.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 444 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1904, p. 200, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 444, Minutes, 1907, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record Ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other Minister. If the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words, such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place after the name of every Minister an abbreviation, denoting his occupation: e.g., P., for a Pastor; P.E., for a Pastor Elect; C.P., for a Colleague Pastor; A.P., for an Associate Pastor; S.S., for a Stated Supply; H.M., for a Home Missionary; D.M., for a District Missionary; C.M., for a City Missionary; T.M., for a Tract Missionary; S.M., for a Synodical Missionary; S.S.M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P.M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F.M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D.Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H.R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and for other Ministers without pastoral charges, no designation whatsoever. Local Evangelists are not ordained Ministers.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P.E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S.S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed, (2) those deceased, and (3) those suspended, erased or placed upon the Roll of Suspended Members.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, 1871, p. 589), as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883, 1887 and 1904, as follows:

1. Home Missions. (a) Board and Miscellaneous, To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any general Home Missionary operations, including value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc. (b) Presbyteries and Synods. To include all contributions for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

9. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts and current expenses.

11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence. Report also in this column all miscellaneous and "outside" gifts of the "congregation for religious and charitable causes, provided the donors consent to have them thus reported by the Clerk of Session or by the Pastor." [Minutes, 1904, p. 97.] This applies to individual gifts "outside" the Boards as well as to collections. GIFTS OF INDIVIDUALS to the causes represented by the Boards should be entered in the column assigned to each cause respectively.

12. Temperance. Contributions to any Temperance causes. These amounts to be included under "Miscellaneous" in the Statistical Report of Presbytery, but to be also reported separately.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian names of every Minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

A statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of churches; also, any changes in the names of churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report are to be inserted in the proper places in the Tabulated Statement.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. For the purpose only of electing Standing Committees, the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections of, as nearly as practicable, equal size, by combining the smaller Synods and dividing the larger by Presbyteries where necessary. The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively; the Electing Sections shall be numbered in like manner.

The Standing Committees shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman, except the Committees on Mileage and Finance, which shall each consist of twelve elders. Eleven members of the Committees on Mileage and Finance and eleven ministers and eleven elders of the other Committees shall be chosen by the Electing Sections as herein provided. The Moderator shall, as soon as possible after his election, appoint a member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof; provided that he shall not appoint more than one member and Chairman from the same Electing Section, and that he shall always appoint the retiring Moderator as a member and Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

If the Moderator shall appoint as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee any one chosen by any Electing Section as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee caused by the Moderator's appointment.

On odd-numbered years each odd-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

After the election of a Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. The Stated Clerk shall designate one Commissioner in each Section to receive any necessary papers for the Section.

The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

The Electing Sections shall meet at the places assigned them for the purpose of selecting members of the Standing Committees at the close of the second session of the first day, provided the Assembly adjourns at or before five o'clock; otherwise, the Assembly shall take a recess promptly at eleven o'clock of the second day and the Electing Section shall meet for that purpose at that time.

Reports from the Sections shall be handed to the Stated Clerk as soon as the Electing Sections adjourn. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be the same in number as the quorum of the Assembly, viz., fourteen.

6. The reports of the Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Sabbath Observance, first Friday, 11 o'clock A.M.
Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.
Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

7. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each two hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance, Colleges and Young People's Societies have each one and a half hours; that the Chairman of the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions be allowed only one-half hour for the presenting of his Report and such remarks as he may wish to make, and that the Chairman of other Committees be allowed twenty minutes for the same purpose; that the Secretary or other official representative of the cause be allowed one-half hour for his address or statement, and that the remainder of the time allotted be assigned to Commissioners and to agents from the field. This rule to be altered only by direct vote of the Assembly. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate this rule to the Chairmen of the Standing Committees upon their appointment.

8. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

9. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

10. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

11. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

12. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

13. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

14. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

15. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247]. This rule shall also apply to Home Mission Presbyteries whose members are so located as to prevent regular meetings, and in the discretion of the Assembly. [1907, p. 88].

16. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

17. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

18. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

19. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

20. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination by the General Assembly is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

21. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

22. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

23. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions [1897, p. 144].

24. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

25. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

26. The Moderator shall be elected in the following manner:

Speeches nominating candidates for Moderator shall be limited to ten minutes; only one speech, and that not to exceed five minutes, shall be made in seconding the nomination of a candidate.

Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election shall be made by ballot in the following manner:

After the nominations are made each Section shall choose a Chairman and a Secretary, and the Chairman shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a ticket to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the tickets and count them under the supervision of the Chairman. The result will be recorded by the Secretary on tickets in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

When the reports of the ballots have been issued from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator will then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one has received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

27. Hereafter all Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods which are to come before the General Assembly shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly. The distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

28. The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly on Monday, the fourth day, suitable nominations for all members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected.

29. The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.*

* See Rules for Judicatories No. XLIV.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a Commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the Standing Committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he does not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the Clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the Clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper endorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Overtures, Memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision, and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and specially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private on business which, in their judgment, ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolic benediction.

XLIV. Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.

The above statement shows, in general, the financial condition of the General Assembly from year to year for twenty-three Assemblies. The management which began with 1884 resulted in such economies that a surplus was accumulated, which enabled the Assembly to meet in Portland, Oreg., in 1892, and Los Angeles, Cal., without calling for additional funds from the Presbyteries, and also to reduce the apportionments from 1896 to 1905. The interest earned during the period amounted to $30,821.18.
